DERIVATION

Act May 15, 1820, ch. 107, §§ 4, 6, 3 Stat. 595; act Apr. 10, 1869, ch. 22, § 2, 16 Stat. 44.

§ 520. Rights of United States reserved.

Nothing contained in the provisions of sections 506–520 of this title relating to distress warrants shall be construed to take away or impair any right or remedy which the United States might have, by law, for the recovery of taxes, debts, or demands. (R. S. § 3638.)

DERIVATION

Act May 15, 1820, ch. 107, § 9, 3 Stat. 596.

§ 521. Duties of officers as custodians of public moneys.

The Treasurer of the United States, all depositaries designated in accordance with section 476 of this title, and those performing the duties of assistant treasurer, all collectors of the customs, all surveyors of the customs, acting also as collectors, all receivers of public moneys at the several land offices, all postmasters, and all public officers of whatsoever character, are required to keep safely, without loaning, using, depositing in banks, or exchanging for other funds than as specially allowed by law, all the public money collected by them, or otherwise at any time placed in their possession and custody, till the same is ordered, by the proper department or officer of the Government, to be transferred or paid out; and when such orders for transfer or payment are received, faithfully and promptly to make the same as directed, and to do and perform all other duties as fiscal agents of the Government which may be imposed by any law, or by any regulation of the Treasury Department made in conformity to law. The President is authorized, if in his opinion the interest of the United States requires the same, to regulate and increase the sums for which bonds are, or may be, required by law, of all district attorneys, collectors of customs, comptrollers of customs, and surveyors of customs, Navy agents, Quartermaster General, registers of public lands, paymasters in the Army, and by all other officers employed in the disbursement of the public moneys, under the direction of the War or Navy Departments. (R. S. § 3639; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 391, § 3, 37 Stat. 591; Apr. 27, 1914, ch. 72, 38 Stat. 356; May 29, 1920, ch. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655; Sept. 21, 1922, ch. 356, title IV, § 523, 42 Stat. 974; June 17, 1930, ch. 497, title IV, § 523, 46 Stat. 740.)

§ 522. Transfer of moneys from depositaries to Treasury.

The Secretary of the Treasury may, except as provided in section 523 of this title, transfer the moneys in the hands of any depositary of public moneys to the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the Treasurer; and he may transfer moneys in the hands of one depositary to any other depositary, as the safety of the public moneys and the convenience of the public service shall seem to him to require. (R. S. § 3640.)

DERIVATION

Act Aug. 6, 1846, ch. 90, § 10, 9 Stat. 61.

§ 523. Postal deposits; transfer.

The Postmaster General may transfer money belonging to the Postal Service between the Treasurer and designated depositaries, at his discretion, and as the safety of the public money and the convenience of the service may require. (R. S. § 3641; May 29, 1920, ch. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655.)

DERIVATION

Act June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 56, 17 Stat. 292.

§ 524. Same; accounts.

Every depositary shall keep his account of the money paid to or deposited with him, belonging to the Post Office Department, separate and distinct from the account kept by him of other public moneys so paid or deposited. (R. S. § 3642.)

DERIVATION

Act Aug. 6, 1846, ch. 90, § 10, 9 Stat. 61.

§ 525. Entry of each deposit, transfer, and payment.

All persons charged by law with the safekeeping, transfer, and disbursement of the public moneys, other than those connected with the Post Office Department, are required to keep an accurate entry of each sum received and of each payment or transfer. (R. S. § 3643.)

DERIVATION

Act Aug. 6, 1846, ch. 90, § 16, 9 Stat. 63.

§ 526. Public moneys in Treasury and depositaries subject to draft of Treasurer.

All moneys paid into the Treasury of the United States shall be subject to the draft of the Treasurer. And for the purpose of payments on the public account the Treasurer is authorized to draw upon any of the depositaries, as he may think most conducive to the public interest and to the convenience of the public creditors. Each depositary so drawn upon shall make returns to the Treasury and Post Office Departments of all moneys received and paid by him, at such times and in such forms as shall be directed by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Postmaster General. (R. S. § 3644.)

DERIVATION

§ 527. Presentment of drafts.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to issue and publish regulations to enforce the speedy presentation of all Government drafts, for payment, at the place where payable, and to prescribe the time, according to the different distances of the depositaries from the seat of Government, within which all drafts upon them, respectively, shall be presented for payment; and, in default of such presentation, to direct any other mode and place of payment which he may deem proper; but, in all these regulations and directions, it shall be his duty to guard, as far as may be, against those drafts being used or thrown into circulation as a paper currency or a medium of exchange. (R. S., § 3645.)

DERIVATION

Act Aug. 6, 1846, ch. 90, § 31, 9 Stat. 65.

§ 528. Duplicates for lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated or defaced checks—(a) Issuance of duplicate; bond of indemnity.

Except as hereinafter provided, whenever it is clearly proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury that any original check of the United States is lost, stolen, or wholly or partly destroyed, or is so mutilated or defaced as to impair its value to its owner or holder, persons authorized to issue such checks on behalf of the United States are authorized, before the close of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the original check was issued, to issue to the owner or holder thereof a substitute, marked "duplicate" and showing the number, date, and payee of the original check, upon the receipt and approval by the Secretary of the Treasury of a bond, to indemnify the United States, in such form and amount and with such surety, sureties, or security as the Secretary of the Treasury shall require; but no such substitute shall be payable if the original check shall first have been paid: Provided, however, That the authority herein conferred to issue substitute checks may, in the case of checks issued on account of public-debt obligations and transactions regarding the administration of banking and currency laws, be issued without limitation of time.

(b) Exceptions.

A bond of indemnity shall not be required under subsection (a) of this section in any of the following classes of cases except as provided in this subsection: (1) If the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied that the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation, or defacement, as the case may be, occurred without fault of the owner or holder and while the check was in the custody or control of the United States (including the Postal Service when carrying mail for any officer, employee, agent, or agency of the United States when performing services in connection with an official function of the United States, but not including the Postal Service when otherwise acting solely in its capacity as a public carrier of the mail), or of a person thereunto duly authorized as lawful agent of the United States, or while it was in the course of shipment effected pursuant to and in accordance with the regulations issued under section 134 of Title 5; (2) if substantially the entire check is presented and surrendered by the owner or holder and the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied as to the identity of the check presented and that any missing portions are not sufficient to form the basis of a valid claim against the United States; (3) if the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied that the original check is not negotiable and cannot be made the basis of a valid claim against the United States; (4) if the amount of the check is less than $50 and the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied that the giving of a bond of indemnity would be an undue hardship to the owner or holder; (5) if the owner or holder is the United States or an officer or employee thereof in his official capacity, a State, the District of Columbia, a Territory or possession of the United States, including the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands, a municipal corporation or political subdivision of any of the foregoing, a corporation the whole of whose capital is owned by the United States, a foreign government, or a Federal Reserve bank: Provided, however, That in any of the foregoing classes of cases the Secretary of the Treasury may require a bond of indemnity if he deems it essential to the public interest.

(c) Rules and regulations.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall have the power to make such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary for the administration of the provisions of this section.

(d) Post Office Department check.

Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this section, whenever any original check of the Post Office Department has been lost, stolen, or destroyed, the Postmaster General may authorize the issuance of a substitute, marked "duplicate" and showing the number, date, and payee of the original check, before the close of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the original check was issued, upon the execution by the owner thereof of such bond of indemnity as the Postmaster General may prescribe: Provided, That when such original check does not exceed in amount the sum of $50 and the payee or owner is, at the date of the application, an officer or employee in the service of the Post Office Department, whether by contract, designation, or appointment, the Postmaster General may, in lieu of an indemnity bond, authorize the issuance of a substitute check or warrant upon such an affidavit as he may prescribe, to be made before any postmaster by the payee or owner of an original check.

(e) Payment of substitute check.

Substitutes, marked as provided in this section, drawn on the Treasurer of the United States, shall, after the lapse of the period fixed by section 725t of this title, for the payment of the original checks, be payable only as the original checks would be payable thereunder.

(f) Definitions.

The term "original check" wherever used in this section means any check, warrant, or other order for the payment of money, payable upon demand and not bearing interest, drawn by a duly authorized officer or agent of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the District Unemployment Compensation Board, on their behalf against an account or funds of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the District Unemployment Compensation Board, including instruments issued by any corporation or other entity owned or controlled by the United States, the funds of which are deposited and covered into the Treasury of the United States or deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, but does not include money, coins, or currency of the United States; as used in subsection (d) of this section it means such an instrument drawn by a duly authorized officer or employee of the Post Office Department. (R. S. § 3646; Feb. 16, 1885, ch. 123, 23 Stat. 306; Mar. 23, 1906, ch. 1129, 34 Stat. 84; June 19, 1906, ch. 3434, 34 Stat. 301; May 27, 1908, ch. 206, 35 Stat. 415; Feb. 23, 1909, ch. 174, 35 Stat. 643; Mar. 21, 1916, ch. 52, 39 Stat. 37; July 8, 1937, ch. 444, § 9, 50 Stat. 482; Aug. 10, 1939, ch. 665, §§ 5-7, 53 Stat. 1359.)

§ 529. Advances of public moneys; prohibition against.

No advance of public money shall be made in any case. And in all cases of contracts for the performance of any service, or the delivery of articles of any description, for the use of the United States, payment shall not exceed the value of the service rendered, or of the articles delivered previously to such payment. It shall, however, be lawful, under the special direction of the President, to make such advances to the disbursing officers of the Government as may be necessary to the faithful and prompt discharge of their respective duties, and to the fulfillment of the public engagements. The President may also direct such advances as he may deem necessary and proper, to persons in the military and naval service employed on distant stations, where the discharge of the pay and emoluments to which they may be entitled cannot be regularly effected. ## § 529d. Certification of reason for advance.

A certificate by the Commissioner of Customs or the Commissioner of Narcotics, as the case may be, stating the amount of an expenditure made from funds advanced and certifying that the confidential nature of the transaction involved renders it inadvisable to specify the details thereof or impracticable to furnish the payee's receipt shall be a sufficient voucher for the sum expressed to have been expended. (Mar. 28, 1928, ch. 266, § 3, as added Aug. 7, 1939, ch. 566, § 1, 53 Stat. 1263.)

e. Same; payments for Bureau of Customs in foreign countries; claims for reimbursement.

The provisions of sections 529a, and 529c-529g of this title shall not affect payments made for the Bureau of Customs in foreign countries, nor the right of any customs or narcotics officer or employee to claim reimbursement for personal funds expended in connection with the enforcement of the customs or narcotics laws. (Mar. 28, 1928, ch. 266, § 4, as added Aug. 7, 1939, ch. 566, § 1, 53 Stat. 1263.)

§ 529f. Same; advances from available appropriations; rules and regulations.

Advances pursuant to sections 529a and 529c-529g of this title in connection with the enforcement of the customs or narcotics laws may be made, notwithstanding the provisions of section 529 of this title, from the appropriations available for the enforcement of such laws. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe such rules and regulations concerning advances made pursuant to sections 529a, 529c-529g of this title as are necessary or appropriate for the protection of the interests of the United States. (Mar. 28, 1928, ch. 266, § 5, as added Aug. 7, 1939, ch. 566, § 1, 53 Stat. 1263.)

§ 529g. "Narcotic laws" defined.

When used in sections 529a and 529c-529f of this title, the term "narcotics laws" includes Act of August 2, 1937, ch. 553, 50 Stat. 551. (Mar. 28, 1928, ch. 266, § 6, as added Aug. 7, 1939, ch. 566, § 1, 53 Stat. 1263.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Functions relating to disbursement by United States marshals which would otherwise have become functions of Treasury Department on July 1, 1940, by virtue of Ex. Ord. No. 6166, as amended, set out in note under section 192 of Title 5, were transferred to and vested in Department of Justice to be exercised by United States marshals under supervision of Attorney General in accordance with existing statutes pertaining to such functions, by Reorg. Plan No. IV, § 3, eff. June 30, 1940, 5 Fed. Reg. 2421, 54 Stat. 1234, set out in note under section 133t of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees. See, also, sections 13-15 of said plan for provisions relating to transfer of functions of department heads, records, property, personnel, and funds.

§ 533. Same; Department of Agriculture.

Advances of public money from the appropriations for the Department of Agriculture shall, except as provided in section 534 of this title, be made by the Secretary of Agriculture only to such chiefs of field parties, agricultural explorers, special agents, and others as shall have given bonds in such sums as the Secretary of Agriculture shall direct. (June 3, 1902, ch. 985, 32 Stat. 303.)

§ 534. Same; Forest Service for fighting forest fires in emergency cases.

Advances of money under any appropriation for the Forest Service may be made to the Forest Service and by authority of the Secretary of Agriculture to chiefs of field parties for fighting forest fires in emergency cases, who shall give bond under such rules and regulations and in such sum as the Secretary of Agriculture may direct, and detailed accounts arising under such advances shall be rendered through and by the Department of Agriculture to the General Accounting Office. (May 23, 1908, ch. 192, 35 Stat. 259; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

§ 535. Advances from appropriation "Boundary Line, Alaska and Canada, and the United States and Canada."

Advances of money under the appropriation "Boundary line, Alaska and Canada, and the United States and Canada", may be made to the commissioner on the part of the United States and by his authority to chiefs of parties, who shall give bond under such rules and regulations and in such sum as the Secretary of State may direct, and accounts arising under advances shall be rendered through and by the commissioner on the part of the United States to the General Accounting Office as under advances made to chiefs of parties prior to March 2, 1921: Provided, That the commissioner shall be allowed his traveling expenses in accordance with the provisions of sections 821-823, 824-833 of title 5. (Apr. 15, 1918, ch. 52, 40 Stat. 523; Mar. 2, 1921, ch. 113, § 1, 41 Stat. 1210; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24; Apr. 29, 1926, ch. 195, title I, 44 Stat. 336; Feb. 24, 1927, ch. 189, title I, 44 Stat. 1185; Feb. 15, 1928, ch. 57, title I, 45 Stat. 70; Jan. 25, 1929, ch. 102, title I, 45 Stat. 1101; Apr. 18, 1930, ch. 184, title I, 46 Stat. 180.)

§ 536. Advances to disbursing officers and agents under "Army accounts of advances"; amounts; use of.

The Secretary of War may issue his requisitions for advances to disbursing officers and agents of the Army, under an "Army account of advances", not to exceed the total appropriation for the Army, the amount so advanced to be exclusively used to pay, upon proper vouchers, obligations lawfully payable under the respective appropriations. (June 5, 1920, ch. 240, 41 Stat. 975.)

§ 537. Same; charge to proper appropriations.

The amount so advanced shall be charged to the proper appropriations and returned to "Army account of advances" by pay and counterwarrant. The said charge, however, to particular appropriations shall be limited to the amount appropriated to each. (June 5, 1920, ch. 240, 41 Stat. 975.)

§ 538. Same; adjustment of liabilities with account.

The General Accounting Office shall declare the sums due from the several special appropriations upon complete vouchers, as prior to June 5, 1920, according to law; and said office shall adjust the said liabilities with the "Army account of advances." (June 5, 1920, ch. 240, 41 Stat. 975; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

§ 539. Requisitions of Secretary of Navy for advances.

The Secretary of the Navy may issue his requisitions for advances to disbursing officers and agents of the Navy under a "General account of advances", not to exceed the total appropriation for the Navy, the amount so advanced to be exclusively used to pay current obligations upon proper vouchers and "Pay of the Navy" shall be used only for its legitimate purpose, as provided by law. (June 19, 1878, ch. 312, § 1, 20 Stat. 167.)

§ 540. Same; how charged.

The amount so advanced shall be charged to the proper appropriations, and returned to "General account of advances" by pay and counterwarrant; the said charge, however, to particular appropriations, shall be limited to the amount appropriated to each. (June 19, 1878, ch. 312, § 2, 20 Stat. 167.)

§ 541. Same; settlement of accounts.

The General Accounting Office shall declare the sums due from the several special appropriations upon complete vouchers according to law; and shall adjust the said liabilities with the "General account of advances." (June 19, 1878, ch. 312, § 3, 20 Stat. 168; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

§ 542. Partial payments on vessels for Treasury Department; lien.

The Secretary of the Treasury may make partial payments, from time to time, upon all contracts made after or existing May 5, 1894, for the construction of vessels for the Treasury Department, but not in excess of 75 per centum of the amount of the value of the work already done; and contracts made after said date shall provide for a lien upon such vessels for all advances so made: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize any partial payments, except on contracts stipulating for the same and then only in accordance with such contract stipulation. (May 5, 1894, No. 24, 28 Stat. 582.)

No exchange of funds shall be made by any disbursing officer or agent of the Government, of any grade or denomination whatsoever, or connected with any branch of the public service, other than an exchange for gold, silver, United States notes, and national-bank notes; and every such disbursing officer, when the means for his disbursements are furnished to him in gold, silver, United States notes, or national-bank notes, shall make his payments in the moneys so furnished; or when they are furnished to him in drafts, shall cause those drafts to be presented at their place of payment, and properly paid according to law, and shall make his payments in the money so received for the drafts furnished, unless, in either case, he can exchange the means in his hands for gold and silver at par. And it shall be the duty of the head of the proper department immediately to suspend from duty any disbursing officer or agent who violates the provisions of this section, and forthwith to report the name of the officer or agent to the President, with the fact of the violation, and all the circumstances accompanying the same, and within the knowledge of the Secretary, to the end that such officer or agent may be promptly removed from office, or restored to his trust and the performance of his duties, as the President may deem just and proper. (R. S. § 3651.)

REPEAL

Repeal of laws inconsistent with sections 315b, 408a, 408b, 441-446, 821, and 822a of this title, see section 446 of this title.

§ 544. Premium on sales of public moneys to be accounted for.

No officer of the United States shall either directly or indirectly, sell or dispose of to any person, for a premium, any Treasury note, draft, warrant, or other public security, not his private property, or sell or dispose of the avails or proceeds of such note, draft, warrant, or security, in his hands for disbursement, without making return of such premium, and accounting therefor by charging the same in his accounts to the credit of the United States; and any officer violating this section shall be forthwith dismissed from office. (R. S. § 3652.)

DERIVATION

Act Aug. 6, 1846, ch. 90, § 21, 9 Stat. 65.

§ 545. Expenses of fiscal agents.

The officers, respectively, whose duty it is made by sections 119, 472, 474, 475, 480-484, 487, 490, 492, 495, 496, 498, 505-529, 543-545, 547a, 548, 549 of this title to receive, keep, or disburse the public moneys, as the fiscal agents of the Government, may be allowed any necessary additional expenses for fireproof chests or vaults, or other necessary expenses of collecting, safe-keeping, transferring, or disbursing the moneys; but all such expenses of every character shall be first expressly authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury, whose directions upon all the above subjects, by way of regulation and otherwise, so far as authorized by law, shall be strictly followed by all the officers. But no part of the money appropriated for the purposes above mentioned shall be expended for clerical services or payment of employees of any nature or grade. (R. S. § 3653; Aug. 7, 1882, ch. 433, 22 Stat. 312; Jan. 22, 1925, ch. 87, 43 Stat. 767.)

DERIVATION

Act. Aug. 6, 1846, ch. 90, § 13, 9 Stat. 62.

§ 546. Appropriations for construction of public buildings; disbursement.

All disbursements of money appropriated for the construction of public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department shall be made by the Treasury Department at Washington, District of Columbia, except in cases of public buildings located so remote from the seat of government as to occasion hardship by undue delay in making payments to contractors. In every such exceptional case the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, require the collector of customs at or nearest the place where such building is being constructed to make the disbursement, as provided in section 70 of Title 5, but in such exceptional cases no additional compensation shall be paid to any collector of customs for disbursements made under this section; and no compensation or commissions shall be allowed for the disbursement of any appropriation for the construction, extension, enlargement, remodeling, or repairs of any public building under the control of the Treasury Department, except to disbursing agents appointed before March 4, 1911, and who have qualified by giving bonds. (Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1387.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Functions relating to disbursement of moneys of United States, exercised by any agency, transferred to Fiscal Service of Treasury Department, see note under section 543 of this title.

§ 547. Disposition of trust funds received from foreign governments for citizens of United States.

All moneys received by the Secretary of State from foreign governments and other sources, in trust for citizens of the United States or others, shall be deposited and covered into the Treasury.

The Secretary of State shall determine the amounts due claimants, respectively, from each of such trust funds, and certify the same to the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall, upon the presentation of the certificates of the Secretary of State, pay the amounts so found to be due.

Each of the trust funds covered into the Treasury as aforesaid is hereby appropriated for the payment to the ascertained beneficiaries thereof of the certificates provided for in this section. (Feb. 27, 1896, ch. 34, 29 Stat. 32.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 548. Examination of depositaries.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to cause examinations to be made of the books, accounts, and money on hand, of the several depositaries; and for that purpose to appoint special agents, as occasion may require, with such compensation, not exceeding $6 per day and traveling expenses, as he may think reasonable, to be fixed and declared at the time of each appointment. The agent selected to make these examinations shall be instructed to examine as well the books, accounts, and returns of the officer, as the money on hand, and the manner of its being kept, to the end that uniformity and accuracy in the accounts, as well as safety to the public moneys, may be secured thereby. (R. S. § 3649.)

DERIVATION

Act Aug. 6, 1846, ch. 90, § 11, 9 Stat. 62.

§ 549. Examination of accounts of custodians of public moneys.

In addition to the examinations provided for in section 548 of this title it shall be the duty of each comptroller of customs and surveyor, as a check upon the designated depositaries or the collector of the customs, of their respective districts; of each register of a land office, as a check upon the receiver of his land office; and of the superintendent of each mint and branch mint, as a check upon the treasurers, respectively, of the mints, or the persons acting as such, at the close of each quarter of the year, and as much oftener as they are directed by the Secretary of the Treasury to do so, to examine the books, accounts, returns, and money on hand, of said depositaries, collectors, treasurers of the mint and each branch mint, and persons acting as such, and to make a full, accurate, and faithful return of their condition to the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 3650; May 29, 1920, ch. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655; Sept. 21, 1922, ch. 356, title IV, § 523, 42 Stat. 974; June 17, 1930, ch. 497, title IV, § 523, 46 Stat. 740.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Functions relating to procurement, warehousing, and distribution of property, stores, supplies, etc., exercised by any agency, transferred to Procurement Division, see Ex. Ord. No. 6166, § 1, set out in note under section 132 of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 581. Contents of estimates of appropriations and statements of expenditures and estimated expenditures; statements accompanying lump-sum appropriations.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in sections 11, 13-24, 581, 582, 585-588, 593-596, 600, 604, 609, 612, 614, 617, 618, 622-624, 683 of this title, the contents, order, and arrangement of the estimates of appropriations and the statements of expenditures and estimated expenditures contained in the Budget or transmitted under section 14 of this title, and the notes and other data submitted therewith, shall conform to the requirements of existing law.

(b) Estimates for lump-sum appropriations contained in the Budget or transmitted under section 14 of this title shall be accompanied by statements showing, in such detail and form as may be necessary to inform Congress, the manner of expenditure of such appropriations and of the corresponding appropriations for the fiscal year in progress and the last completed fiscal year. Such statements shall be in lieu of statements of like character otherwise required by law. (June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

§ 582. Statements required with estimates for lump-sum appropriations.

There shall be submitted in the annual Budget following every estimate for a general or lump-sum appropriation, except public buildings or other public works constructed under contract, a statement showing in parallel columns:

First, the number of persons, if any, intended to be employed and the rates of compensation to each, and the amounts contemplated to be expended for each of any other objects or classes of expenditures specified or contemplated in the estimate, including a statement of estimated unit cost of any construction work proposed to be done; and

Second, the number of persons, if any, employed and the rate of compensation paid each, and the amounts expended for each other object or class of expenditure, and the actual unit cost of any construction work done, out of the appropriation corresponding to the estimate so submitted, during the completed fiscal year next preceding the period for which the estimate is submitted.

Other notes shall not be submitted following any estimate embraced in the annual Budget other than such as shall suggest changes in form or order of arrangement of estimates and appropriations and reasons for such changes. (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 355, § 6, 37 Stat. 487; Aug. 1, 1914, ch. 223, § 10, 38 Stat. 680; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Estimates of expenditures and appropriations in Budget to conform to classifications of civilian employees, see section 674 of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 583. Enumeration of estimates required.

There shall be submitted annually in addition to any other estimates required by law to be submitted:

(1) Expenses of national loan.

Detailed estimates of appropriations required for expenses of the national loan. (June 20, 1874, ch. 328, § 4, 18 Stat. 109.)

§ 586. Order and arrangement of estimates and general appropriation bills.

The estimates for expenses of the Government, and supplemental or deficiency estimates, except those for sundry civil expenses, shall be prepared and submitted each year according to the order and arrangement of the appropriation Acts for the year preceding. And any changes in such order and arrangement, and transfers of salaries from one office or bureau to another office or bureau, or the consolidation of offices or bureaus desired by the head of any executive department may be submitted by note in the estimates. The committees of Congress in reporting general appropriation bills shall, as far as may be practicable, follow the general order and arrangement of the respective appropriation Acts for the year preceding. (June 22, 1906, ch. 3514, § 4, 34 Stat. 448; Sept. 8, 1916, ch. 464, § 4, 39 Stat. 830; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, §§ 203, 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

§ 587. Estimates not conforming to requirements rearranged.

When estimates hereafter transmitted to the Bureau of the Budget for submission to Congress do not in form and arrangement comply with the provisions of section 586 of this title, they shall be rearranged so as to comply with said requirements of law. (Mar. 4, 1909, ch. 297, § 4, 35 Stat. 907; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, §§ 204, 215, 42 Stat. 21, 23.)

§ 588. Estimates for printing and binding; only appropriations made for printing and binding used therefor.

There shall be submitted in the regular annual estimates under and as a part of the expenses for "printing and binding", estimates for all printing and binding required by each of the executive departments, their bureaus and offices, and other Government establishments at Washington, District of Columbia, for each fiscal year; and no appropriations other than those made specifically and solely for printing and binding shall be used for such purposes in any executive department or other Government establishment in the District of Columbia: Provided, That nothing in this section shall apply to stamped envelopes, or envelopes and articles of stationery other than letterheads and noteheads, printed in the course of manufacture, or to so much of the printing and binding as is necessary to expedite the work of that branch of The Adjutant General's Office that was formerly known as the Record and Pension Office of the War Department. (June 30, 1906, ch. 3914, § 2, 34 Stat. 762; Mar. 2, 1907, ch. 2511, 34 Stat. 1158; Mar. 4, 1907, ch. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1367; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 215, 42 Stat. 23.)

9. Same; other officers.

The annual estimate for appropriations for every public officer who is authorized to have printing and binding done at the Government Printing Office for the use of his public office, shall include such sum or sums as may seem necessary "for printing and binding, to be executed under the direction of the Public Printer." (R. S. § 3661; July 31, 1876, ch. 246, 19 Stat. 105; Jan. 12, 1895, ch. 23, § 17, 28 Stat. 603.)

§ 618. Same; for Bureau of Lighthouses.

There shall be submitted in the annual Budget, under each item of appropriation under the head of "Bureau of Lighthouses", notes showing the number of persons employed and the rate of compensation paid to each from each of said appropriations during the fiscal year next preceding the fiscal year for which estimates are submitted. (June 28, 1902, ch. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 433; June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 4, 36 Stat. 537; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21; May 29, 1928, ch. 901, § 1 (106), 45 Stat. 994.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions transferred to, and consolidated with, and administered as part of, the Coast Guard in the Department of the Treasury, see Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432, set out in note under section 133t of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 619. Same; for officers and employees for Bureau of Fisheries.

The Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service shall embrace in the estimates of appropriations for the Fish and Wildlife Service for each fiscal year estimates for all officers, clerks, and other employees whose services are permanent and continuous in their character and deemed to be necessary for an efficient and economical execution of the appropriations for the Fish and Wildlife Service. (Aug. 5, 1892, ch. 380, § 1, 27 Stat. 362; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 4 (e), (f), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1433; Reorg. Plan No. III, § 3, eff. June 30, 1940, 5 Fed. Reg. 2108, 54 Stat. 1232.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Bureau of Fisheries was consolidated with Bureau of Biological Survey into Fish and Wildlife Service in Department of Interior, and offices of Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner of Fisheries were abolished by Reorg. Plan No. III, § 3, cited to text, set out in note under section 133t of Title 5. See, also, sections 8 and 9 of said plan for provisions relating to transfer of records, property, personnel, and funds. The Bureau had been previously transferred to Department of Interior by Reorg. Plan No. II, § 4 (e), cited to text, also set out in note under section 133t of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 620. Same; for expenses of regulating immigration.

There shall be submitted, following the estimates under appropriation for expenses of regulating immigration, statements showing the amount required for each object of expenditure mentioned in said estimates, together with a statement of the expenditures under each of such objects for the fiscal year terminated next preceding the period of submitting said estimates. (June 25, 1910, ch. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 764.)

§ 621. Same; for Panama Canal.

The estimates of appropriations for the Panama Canal shall be submitted annually in detail, showing the amounts required for personal services and the amounts required for material including all supplies, under the heads of construction, maintenance, operation, sanitation, and civil government, and following each there shall be submitted notes giving in parallel columns information which will show the number, by grade or classes, of officers, employees, and skilled and unskilled laborers proposed to be paid under each of said appropriations for the ensuing fiscal year and those paid at the close of the fiscal year next preceding the period when said estimates are prepared and submitted; also, in connection with each item for material and miscellaneous purposes other than salaries or pay for personal services, the amounts actually expended or obligated, quantities purchased, and prices paid for material or supplies during the entire fiscal year next preceding the preparation and submission of said estimates.

There shall also be submitted in connection with the foregoing information, statements of actual unit cost of all construction work done, and of estimated unit cost of work proposed to be done, for the fiscal years included in the notes so required to be submitted with the annual estimates. (Aug. 1, 1914, ch. 223, § 6, 38 Stat. 679.)

§ 622. Same; compiling and printing.

Estimates of appropriations contained in the Budget or transmitted under section 14 of this title, shall be properly classified, compiled, indexed, and printed, by the Bureau of the Budget. (July 7, 1884, ch. 334, § 1, 23 Stat. 254; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, §§ 204, 211, 42 Stat. 21, 22.)

§ 623. Same; elimination of unnecessary words.

The Bureau of the Budget shall, as nearly as may be practicable, eliminate from all estimates unnecessary words and make uniform the language commonly used in expressing purposes or conditions of appropriations. (June 23, 1913, ch. 3, § 3, 38 Stat. 75; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, §§ 204, 207, 42 Stat. 21, 22.)

§ 624. Same; statements accompanying.

The Bureau of the Budget shall annex to the annual estimates of the appropriations required for the public service, a statement of the appropriations for the service of the year, which may have been made by former Acts, and submit, as a part of the appendix to the estimates, such extracts from the annual reports of the several heads of departments and bureaus as relate to estimates for appropriations, and the necessities therefor. (R. S. § 3670; Mar. 3, 1875, ch. 129, § 3, 18 Stat. 370; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, §§ 204, 207, 42 Stat. 21, 22.)

DERIVATION

Act May 1, 1920, ch. 52, § 8, 3 Stat. 568; act June 20, 1874, ch. 328, 18 Stat. 96.

Section was from R. S. § 3672; act Feb. 27, 1877, ch. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249; act June 25, 1910, ch. 384, § 6, 36 Stat. 773.

§ 626. Statements of money received from proceeds of public property or other sources, and of payments therefrom.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall require, and it shall be the duty of the head of each executive department, or other Government establishment to furnish him, within thirty days after the close of each fiscal year, a statement of all money arising from proceeds of public property of any kind or from any source other than the Postal Service, received by said head of department or other Government establishment during the previous fiscal year for or on account of the public service, or in any other manner in the discharge of his official duties other than as salary or compensation, which was not paid into the general Treasury of the United States, together with a detailed account of all payments, if any, made from such funds during such year: Provided, however, That this shall not apply to the Quartermaster Corps, as successor to the Subsistence Department. All such statements, together with a similar statement applying to the Treasury Department, shall be transmitted by the Secretary of the Treasury to Congress at the beginning of each regular session. (June 30, 1906, ch. 3914, § 5, 34 Stat. 763; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 391, §§ 1, 3, 37 Stat. 579, 591.)

§ 627. Construction of appropriation Acts.

No Act of Congress passed after June 30, 1906, shall be construed to make an appropriation out of the Treasury of the United States, or to authorize the execution of a contract involving the payment of money in excess of appropriations made by law, unless such Act shall in specific terms declare an appropriation to be made or that a contract may be executed. (June 30, 1906, ch. 3914, § 9, 34 Stat. 764.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 628. Application of moneys appropriated.

Except as otherwise provided by law, sums appropriated for the various branches of expenditure in the public service shall be applied solely to the objects for which they are respectively made, and for no others. (R. S. § 3678.)

DERIVATION

Act Mar. 3, 1809, ch. 28, § 1, 2 Stat. 535; act Feb. 12, 1868, ch. 8, § 2, 15 Stat. 36.

§ 629. Lump-sum appropriations; not available for increased salaries.

Except as otherwise provided by law, no part of any money appropriated in lump sum shall be available for the payment of personal services at a rate of compensation in excess of that paid for the same or similar services during the preceding fiscal year; nor shall any person employed at a specific salary be transferred and paid from a lump-sum appropriation a rate of compensation greater than such specific salary, and the heads of departments shall cause this provision to be enforced: Provided, That this section shall not apply to mechanics, artisans, their helpers and assistants, laborers, or any other employees whose duties are of similar character and required in carrying on the various manufacturing or constructing operations of the Government. (Aug. 26, 1912, ch. 408, § 7, 37 Stat. 626; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 142, § 4, 37 Stat. 790.)

§ 630. Same; salaries of scientific and technical employees of Department of Agriculture.

Section 629 of this title shall not apply to the payment, out of moneys appropriated in lump sum for the Department of Agriculture, for personal services of employees engaged in strictly scientific or technical work: Provided, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to authorize the transfer of any person employed at a specific salary and the payment of compensation from lump-sum appropriations at a rate greater than said specific salary. (Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 145, 37 Stat. 854.)

§ 631. Drafts for War and Navy Departments.

All moneys appropriated for the use of the War and Navy Departments shall be drawn from the Treasury, by warrants of the Secretary of the Treasury, upon the requisitions of the Secretaries of those departments, respectively, countersigned in the General Accounting Office, and registered. ## TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Functions relating to disbursement of postal revenues and all other funds under jurisdiction of Post Office Department, Postmaster General, and Board of Trustees of Postal Savings System which would otherwise have become functions of Treasury Department on July 1, 1940, by virtue of Ex. Ord. No. 6166, as amended, set out in note under section 132 of Title 5, were transferred to and vested in (a) said Board of Trustees as to postal savings disbursements, and (b) Post Office Department as to all other disbursements involved, such functions to be exercised by postmasters and other authorized disbursing agents of Post Office Department and of Postal Savings System in accordance with existing statutes pertaining to such functions, by Reorg. Plan No. IV, § 4, eff. June 30, 1940, 5 Fed. Reg. 2421, 54 Stat. 1234, set out in note under section 133t of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees. See, also, sections 13-15 of said plan for provisions relating to transfer of functions of department heads, records, property, personnel, and funds.

§ 633. Charge against fund "Transportation and recruiting," for transportation of men discharged.

The transportation to their homes, if residents of the United States, of enlisted men and apprentices of the Navy discharged on medical survey; and the transportation to the place of enlistment, if residents of the United States, of such enlisted men and apprentices discharged on account of expiration of enlistment, shall be chargeable to the appropriation "Transportation and recruiting." (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 831, § 1, 31 Stat. 1030; Feb. 11, 1925, ch. 209, 43 Stat. 864.)

§ 634. Appropriations for Navy controlled by Secretary; for bureaus kept separately.

All appropriations for specific, general, and contingent expenses of the Navy Department shall be under the control and expended by the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, and the appropriation for each bureau shall be kept separate in the Treasury. (R. S. § 3676.)

DERIVATION

Act July 5, 1862, ch. 134, § 5, 12 Stat. 511.

§ 635. Appropriations for Bureau of Yards and Docks available until expended.

Appropriations made under the Bureau of Yards and Docks for public works, exclusive of repairs and preservation, shall remain available until expended. (July 12, 1921, ch. 44, § 3, 42 Stat. 139.)

§ 636. Restrictions upon use of appropriations for "Increase of Navy" under Bureau of Ordnance.

No part of appropriations made for "Increase of the Navy" under the Bureau of Ordnance and no part of allotments of appropriations made to said bureau shall be available for the payment for services or materials used in the construction of any shop, building, living quarters, or other structures, except such temporary structures costing not in excess of $5,000 each as may be incident to current work of said bureau, or for additions and betterments to any existing shore station facilities unless the appropriation shall in terms specifically authorize such construction or additions and betterments. (July 12, 1921, ch. 44, § 1, 42 Stat. 128.)

§ 637. Contingent expenses not payable from appropriations for Naval Establishment.

It shall not be lawful to expend, for any of the offices or bureaus of the Navy Department at Washington, any sum out of appropriations made for the Naval Establishment for stationery, furniture, newspapers, plans, drawings, drawing material, horses and wagons to be used only for official purposes, including rental of stable, purchase, maintenance, repair, operation or exchange of horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles, automobile mail wagon, including exchange of same, street car tickets, freight, expressage, postage, typewriters, computing machines, and other absolutely necessary expenses of the Navy Department and its various bureaus and offices. (June 22, 1906, ch. 3514, § 1, 34 Stat. 427; Mar. 3, 1917, ch. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1102.)

§ 638. Restrictions upon appropriations for ordnance or ordnance material or material purchased therewith.

No money appropriated for ordnance or ordnance material or material purchased therewith for the Navy shall be used for any other purpose than that for which the appropriation was made, except that this provision shall not prohibit the transfer to other bureaus or departments of used or obsolescent material which is no longer needed for the purpose for which originally acquired: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the allocation of armor, armament, ammunition, ordnance material, equipment, and accessories to ships according to the requirements of the naval service. (July 1, 1918, ch. 114, 40 Stat. 721; July 12, 1921, ch. 44, § 1, 42 Stat. 128; Feb. 20, 1929, ch. 274, 45 Stat. 1249.)

§ 639. Repealed. June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 16, 48 Stat. 1230.

Section was from act Mar. 3, 1893, ch. 212, 27 Stat. 716.

§ 640. Clothing and small-stores fund.

The value of issues of clothing and small stores by the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts in the Department of the Navy shall be credited to a consolidated fund to be designated as the "Clothing and small-stores fund", in the same manner as the value of the issues of clothing was credited to the "clothing fund" prior to February 14, 1879, and as the value of issues of small stores was credited to the "small-stores fund" prior to June 30, 1890; the resources of the fund to be used in the purchase of supplies of clothing and small stores for issue. (Feb. 14, 1879, ch. 68, 20 Stat. 288; June 30, 1890, ch. 640, 26 Stat. 197; July 19, 1892, ch. 206, § 1, 27 Stat. 243; Mar. 3, 1903, ch. 1010, 32 Stat. 1191; Mar. 20, 1922, ch. 104, § 1, 42 Stat. 451.)

§ 640a. Same; credited with proceeds of sales.

The clothing and small-stores fund shall be credited with the net proceeds of all sales (including sales of surplus materials) of clothing and small stores. (May 21, 1926, ch. 355, 44 Stat. 605.)

§ 640b. Same; charges for Naval Reserve.

The clothing and small-stores fund shall be charged with the value of all issues of clothing and small stores made to aviation cadets and enlisted men of the Naval Reserve and the uniform gratuity paid to officers and aviation cadets of the Naval Reserve. (April 27, 1937, ch. 140, § 1, 50 Stat. 107; April 26, 1938, ch. 175, § 1, 52 Stat. 235; May 25, 1939, ch. 149, § 1, 53 Stat. 769.)

SIMILAR PROVISIONS

See prior annual appropriation acts.

§ 641. Naval supplies; purchase, and classification and issue, for Navy, and not for bureaus.

All supplies purchased with moneys appropriated for any branch of the Naval Establishment shall be deemed purchased for the Navy and not for any bureau thereof, and shall be arranged, classified, catalogued, and issued for consumption or use, under such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, without regard to the bureau for which they were purchased. (June 30, 1890, ch. 640, 26 Stat. 205; Mar. 2, 1891, ch. 494, 26 Stat. 807.)

§ 642. "Naval Supply Account"; purchases charged to; payments from "General Account of Advances", returned.

The Naval Supply Account for the Naval Establishment, under the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, shall govern the charging, crediting, receipt, purchase, transfer, manufacture, repair, issue, and consumption of all stores for the Naval Establishment, excepting such material as provisions, clothing and small stores, medical stores, and such other materials as the Secretary of the Navy may designate, and which may be purchased by specific appropriations or transferred to specific appropriations before such materials are issued for use or consumption; the said charge, however, to any particular appropriation shall be limited to the amount appropriated therefor. The appraised value of all stores, equipment, and supplies turned in from ships, and ships' equipment turned in from yards or stations (except salvage), shall be credited to the current appropriations concerned, and the amounts so credited shall be available for expenditures for the same purposes as the appropriations credited. (June 25, 1910, ch. 385, § 1, 36 Stat. 792; Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 239, 36 Stat. 1279; June 30, 1914, ch. 130, 38 Stat. 405.)

§ 643. Permanent special working fund; charges against and credits to.

The permanent special working fund of the Navy shall be charged with the net proceeds of all sales of surplus and condemned stores; with refunds to bidders at sales and to special depositors; and with all labor, overhead, material, and services incident to work done not chargeable to naval appropriations; and shall be credited with all funds received as payment or advances for surplus stores, for condemned stores, and for all expenses incident to work not chargeable to naval appropriations. (May 28, 1924, ch. 203, 43 Stat. 195.)

§ 644. Naval Supply Account fund; charges against.

There shall be a naval supply account fund, which shall be charged with the cost of all stores procured for and credited with the value of all issues or sales made from the naval supply account. Deficiencies under appropriations for the Naval Establishment for the fiscal year 1920 and prior years shall be charged to this fund, to which shall be transferred the unexpended balances of annual appropriations for the Naval Establishment for the fiscal years 1919 and 1920. (Mar. 1, 1921, ch. 89, § 1, 41 Stat. 1169.)

§ 644a. Same; printing stock catalogue.

The cost of printing a Federal standard stock catalogue, and changes therein, when compiled and adopted by such Federal agency as may be designated by the President, shall be charged to the "Naval Supply Account Fund", and this fund shall be reimbursed, when copies are issued to the several departments and establishments, from the appropriations available for the procurement of supplies. (Mar. 2, 1929, ch. 483, 45 Stat. 1461.)

§ 645. Prices of material expended from naval supply account; issue of certain material at reduced prices.

The prices at which material is to be expended from the naval supply account shall be fixed by the Paymaster General of the Navy, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Navy, and materials purchased during the war shall be issued at reduced prices in all cases appropriate, such differences in values and losses to be charged to the respective funds; and no charges on this account shall be made to naval appropriations. (Mar. 1, 1921, ch. 89, § 1, 41 Stat. 1170.)

§ 646. Overhead charges charged against appropriations.

There shall be charged against the several appropriations for the support of the Naval Establishment the overhead charges incident to upkeep and to industrial work at navy yards and stations. The total sum so charged shall be distributed in accordance with the work done in the various yards and stations in order that the cost of work may be determined. (June 30, 1914, ch. 130, 38 Stat. 413.)

§ 647. Direct and indirect charges included in cost of work under naval appropriations.

In fixing the cost of work under the various naval appropriations, the direct and indirect charges incident thereto shall be included in such cost. The Bureau of Supplies and Accounts shall keep the money accounts of the Naval Establishment in such manner as to show such charges, and shall report the same annually for the information of Congress. (Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 239, 36 Stat. 1267.)

§ 648. Equipment outfits charged against appropriation "Increase of the Navy, construction and machinery."

Equipment outfits for the Navy shall be charged to appropriation "Increase of the Navy, construction and machinery." (Mar. 3, 1915, ch. 83, 38 Stat. 952.)

§ 649. Expenses of certain naval auxiliaries charged against appropriation "Fuel and transportation."

When the lowest obtainable cost of transportation of fuel between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of the United States by merchant carriers is considered excessive, the appropriation "Fuel and transportation" may be charged with the expense of pay, transportation, shipping, and subsistence of civilian officers and crews, and such other incidental expenses as cannot be paid from other appropriations, of naval auxiliaries engaged in the transportation of fuel: Provided, That the appropriation "Maintenance of naval auxiliaries" is insufficient therefor. (Mar. 3, 1915, ch. 83, 38 Stat. 944.)

§ 650. Charge against fund "Pay of the Army" of detained pay.

Sums known as "detained pay," which have already been or may hereafter be withheld from the monthly pay of enlisted men of the Army in obedience to court-martial sentences, shall, when repaid, become a charge against the fund "Pay of the Army" for the year in which said enlisted men have been or may be discharged. (Aug. 6, 1894, ch. 228, 28 Stat. 236.)

§ 650a. Appropriations for travel of Military Establishment and War Department personnel; charged with expenses of personnel relieved from duty while traveling under orders.

Appropriations available for travel of personnel of the Military Establishment or employees under the War Department which are current at the date of relief from duty station of such personnel traveling under orders shall be charged with all expenses properly chargeable to such appropriations in connection with the travel enjoined, including travel of dependents and transportation of authorized baggage and household effects of such personnel, regardless of the dates of arrival at destination of the persons so traveling. (June 13, 1940, ch. 343, § 1, 54 Stat. 356.)

SIMILAR PROVISIONS

The text of this section was taken from Military Appropriation Act, 1941. Similar provisions were contained in the following acts:

1939—Apr. 26, 1939, ch. 88, § 1, 53 Stat. 598.

1937—July 1, 1937, ch. 423, § 1, 50 Stat. 448.

§ 651. Disbursements; for Signal Corps.

Section, act Aug. 30, 1890, ch. 837, § 1, 26 Stat. 399; act Feb. 24, 1891, ch. 284, 26 Stat. 779, is now covered by sections 586, 587, and 588 of this title.

§ 652. Appropriations for Quartermaster Corps; no payment of extra-duty pay at West Point.

Section, act Mar. 2, 1907, ch. 2511, 34 Stat. 1167; act Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 391, § 3, 37 Stat. 591, is now covered by act June 4, 1920, ch. 227, § 4, 41 Stat. 761, which supplanted all laws and parts of laws providing for extra duty pay for enlisted men.

§ 653. Appropriations for horses; expenditures from.

No part of any appropriation shall be expended for defraying expenses of Army officers, enlisted men, or horses in attending or taking part in horse shows or horse races; but nothing in this section shall be held to apply to the officers, enlisted men, and horses of any troop, battery, or company which shall, by order or permission of the Secretary of War, and within the limits of the United States, attend any horse show or any State, county, or municipal fair, celebration, or exhibition. (Apr. 27, 1914, ch. 72, 38 Stat. 363.)

§ 654. Appropriations for support of Army; use for supplies for subsequent years.

Funds appropriated for support of the army may be used for the procurement of supplies to be held in store for issue to the Army during subsequent fiscal years. (Mar. 4, 1915, ch. 143, § 1, 38 Stat. 1078.)

§ 655. Appropriations for ordnance-stores ammunition, available for two years.

The appropriations "Ordnance-stores ammunition", "Small-arms target practice", and "Ordnance stores and supplies" shall be available for two years to procure the stores authorized by them. (Mar. 2, 1907, ch. 2511, 34 Stat. 1175.)

§ 656. Cost of transportation of material charged to appropriations for work in connection with which transportation charges required.

The cost of transportation of material in connection with the manufacturing and purchasing activities of the Signal Corps, Ordnance Department, Chemical Warfare Service, Air Corps, Medical Department, Engineer Department, and the Coast Artillery Corps, and in connection with the construction and installation of fire-control projects at seacoast fortifications by the Coast Artillery Corps may be charged to the appropriations for the work in connection with which such transportation charges are required; and the Budget estimates for each of such appropriations shall hereafter carry separately the amounts required for such transportation costs. (Mar. 2, 1923, ch. 178, title I, 42 Stat. 1391; July 2, 1926, ch. 721, § 1, 44 Stat. 780.)

§ 657. Appropriations for Ordnance Department; no expenditure for freight charges.

No part of the appropriations made for the Ordnance Department shall be used in payment of freight charges on ordnance or ordnance stores issued by said department. (June 30, 1902, ch. 1328, 32 Stat. 520.)

§ 658. Expenses of manufacturing operations by Chief of Ordnance charged against appropriations therefor.

The Chief of Ordnance, in conducting manufacturing or similar operations, may charge any indirect or general expense for labor or material therefor against any of the appropriations authorizing these operations in such manner as is most economical and efficient, provided that the methods adopted shall show that each of such appropriations bears its ratable share of the total amount of these expenses. (Mar. 2, 1907, ch. 2507, 34 Stat. 1062.)

§ 659. Use of material procured under any appropriation by Chief of Ordnance.

The Chief of Ordnance, in conducting manufacturing or similar operations under any particular appropriation may use material procured under any appropriation and replace the same in kind or otherwise: Provided, That in doing so the methods shall be such that each appropriation will be charged with the full value of the material used in carrying out its object. (Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 242, 36 Stat. 1344.)

§ 660. Expenses of Ordnance Department in procuring stores for other departments or bureaus.

Whenever the Ordnance Department, under existing regulations, procures stores for other executive departments or bureaus, including the Philippine government, its appropriations shall be applicable to defray the necessary expenses in connection with the procurement, subject to reimbursement from time to time, or on completion of the work, from the department or bureau for which the stores were procured. (June 12, 1906, ch. 3078, 34 Stat. 258.)

§ 661. Appropriation for Coast and Geodetic Survey; purchases from.

The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to purchase, from the appropriation for the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, provisions, clothing, and small stores for the enlisted men, and food supplies for field parties working in remote localities, such provisions, clothing, small stores, and food supplies to be sold to the employees of said survey and the appropriation reimbursed. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 853, § 1, 31 Stat. 1144; Feb. 14, 1903, ch. 552, § 4, 32 Stat. 826.)

§ 662. Appropriations for Fish and Wildlife Service; purchases from.

The Secretary of Interior may purchase, to the extent of not to exceed $5,000, from the appropriations for the Fish and Wildlife Service, clothing and small stores for the crews of vessels, to be sold to the employees of said service and the appropriations reimbursed. (July 1, 1918, ch. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 694; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 4 (e) (f), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1433; Reorg. Plan No. III, § 3, June 30, 1940, 5 Fed. Reg. 2108, 54 Stat. 1232.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Bureau of Fisheries was consolidated with Bureau of Biological Survey into Fish and Wildlife Service in Department of Interior, and offices of Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner of Fisheries were abolished by Reorg. Plan No. III, § 3, cited to text, set out in note under section 133t of Title 5. See, also, sections 8 and 9 of said plan for provisions relating to transfer of records, property, personnel, and funds. The Bureau had been previously transferred to Department of Interior by Reorg. Plan No. II, § 4 (e), cited to text, also set out in note under section 133t of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 663. Expenditures for supplies for courts and judicial officers.

Money appropriated for supplies for the United States courts and judicial officers, shall be expended in payment for such supplies only as shall be purchased, in the discretion of the Attorney General, for delivery at the Department of Justice for distribution. (June 28, 1902, ch. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 476.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 664. Appropriation for furniture, and repairs for public buildings; certain expenditures prohibited.

Expenditures for traveling expenses and subsistence of persons detailed to assist the inspector and assistant inspector of furniture shall not be made from the appropriation for "Furniture and repairs of same, for public buildings." (June 25, 1910, ch. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 710.)

§ 665. Expenditures in excess of appropriations; voluntary service forbidden; apportionment of appropriations for contingent expenses or other general purposes.

No executive department or other Government establishment of the United States shall expend, in any one fiscal year, any sum in excess of appropriations made by Congress for that fiscal year, or involve the Government in any contract or other obligation for the future payment of money in excess of such appropriations unless such contract or obligation is authorized by law. Nor shall any department or any officer of the Government accept voluntary service for the Government or employ personal service in excess of that authorized by law, except in cases of sudden emergency involving the loss of human life or the destruction of property. All appropriations made for contingent expenses or other general purposes, except appropriations made in fulfillment of contract obligations expressly authorized by law, or for objects required or authorized by law without reference to the amounts annually appropriated therefor, shall, on or before the beginning of each fiscal year, be so apportioned by monthly or other allotments as to prevent expenditures in one portion of the year which may necessitate deficiency or additional appropriations to complete the service of the fiscal year for which said appropriations are made; and all such apportionments shall be adhered to and shall not be waived or modified except upon the happening of some extraordinary emergency or unusual circumstance which could not be anticipated at the time of making such apportionment, but this provision shall not apply to the contingent appropriations of the Senate or House of Representatives; and in case said apportionments are waived or modified as herein provided, the same shall be waived or modified in writing by the head of such executive department or other Government establishment having control of the expenditure, and the reasons therefor shall be fully set forth in each particular case and communicated to Congress in connection with estimates for any additional appropriations required on account thereof. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be summarily removed from office and may also be punished by a fine of not less than $100 or by imprisonment for not less than one month. (R. S. § 3679; Mar. 3, 1905, ch. 1484, § 4, 33 Stat. 1257; Feb. 27, 1906, ch. 510, § 3, 34 Stat. 48.)

§ 668. Contracts for fuel by Secretary of War without regard to current fiscal year.

When, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, it is in the interest of the United States so to do, he is authorized to enter into contracts and to incur obligations for fuel in sufficient quantities to meet the requirements for one year without regard to the current fiscal year, and payments for supplies delivered under such contracts may be made from funds appropriated for the fiscal year in which the contract is made, or from funds appropriated or which may be appropriated for such supplies for the ensuing fiscal year. (June 30, 1921, ch. 33, § 1, 42 Stat. 78.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Functions relating to procurement of supplies, etc., exercised by any other agency, transferred to Procurement Division, see Executive Order June 10, 1933, No. 6166, § 1, set out in note under section 132 of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

Reg. 2729, 53 Stat. 1426, 1427, set out in note under section 133t of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 668a. Metered services extending beyond fiscal year, appropriation chargeable.

Hereafter, in making payments for commodities or services the quantity of which is determined by metered readings, such as gas, electricity, water, steam, and the like, and for telephone services, where the period covered by the charge begins in one fiscal year or allotment period and ends in another, the entire amount of the payment may be regarded as a charge against the appropriation or allotment current at the end of such period. (April 27, 1937, ch. 143, 50 Stat. 119; April 26, 1939, ch. 103, 53 Stat. 624.)

§ 669. Apportionment of contingent fund of departments to offices and bureaus.

In addition to the apportionment required by section 665 of this title, the head of each executive department shall, on or before the beginning of each fiscal year, apportion to each office or bureau of his department the maximum amount to be expended therefor during the fiscal year out of the contingent fund or funds appropriated for the entire year for the department, and the amounts so apportioned shall not be increased or diminished during the year for which made except upon the written direction of the head of the department, in which there shall be fully expressed his reasons therefor; and there shall not be purchased out of any other fund any article for use in any office or bureau of any executive department in Washington, District of Columbia, which could be purchased out of the appropriations made for the regular contingent funds of such department or of its offices or bureaus. (Aug. 23, 1912, ch. 350, § 6, 37 Stat. 414.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Functions of making, waiving, and modifying apportionments of appropriations transferred to Director of the Bureau of the Budget, see Ex. Ord. No. 6166, § 16, set out as note under section 132 of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 670. Footing of paragraphs to determine amount appropriated.

The total amount appropriated in the various paragraphs of an appropriation Act shall be determined by the correct footing up of the specific sums or rates appropriated in each paragraph contained therein unless otherwise expressly provided. (May 28, 1896, ch. 252, § 1, 29 Stat. 148.)

§ 671. Appropriations for contingent expenses of Congress; restrictions.

Appropriations made for contingent expenses of the House of Representatives or the Senate shall not be used for the payment of personal services except upon the express and specific authorization of the House or Senate in whose behalf such services are rendered. Nor shall such appropriations be used for any expenses not intimately and directly connected with the routine legislative business of either House of Congress, and the General Accounting Office shall apply the provisions of this section in the settlement of the accounts of expenditures from said appropriations incurred for services or materials. (Feb. 14, 1902, ch. 17, § 1, 32 Stat. 26; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

§ 671a. Same; restrictions on use of Senate contingent appropriations for personal expenses.

No part of any appropriation made for the contingent expenses of the Senate shall be used to defray the expenses of any person except the members of any congressional committee, the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate or a representative of his office, and except the widow or minor children or both of the deceased, to attend the funeral rites and burial of any person who at the time of his or her death was a Senator of the United States. (Oct. 9, 1940, ch. 780, title I, 54 Stat. 1031.)

§ 672. Expenses of commissions and inquiries.

No accounting or disbursing officer of the Government shall allow or pay any account or charge whatever, growing out of, or in any way connected with, any commission or inquiry, except courts-martial or courts of inquiry in the military or naval service of the United States, until special appropriations shall have been made by law to pay such accounts and charges. This section, however, shall not extend to the contingent fund connected with the foreign intercourse of the Government, placed at the disposal of the President. (R. S. § 3681.)

DERIVATION

Act Aug. 26, 1842, ch. 202, § 25, 5 Stat. 533.

§ 673. Use of public moneys or appropriations for compensation or expenses of commission; details from executive departments to such commission prohibited.

No part of the public moneys, or of any appropriation made by Congress, shall be used for the payment of compensation or expenses of any commission, council, board, or other similar body, or any members thereof, or for expenses in connection with any work or the results of any work or action of any commission, council, board, or other similar body, unless the creation of the same shall be or shall have been authorized by law; nor shall there be employed by detail, hereafter or heretofore made, or otherwise personal services from any executive department or other Government establishment in connection with any such commission, council, board, or other similar body. (Mar. 4, 1909, ch. 299, § 9, 35 Stat. 1027.)

§ 674. Restrictions on contingent appropriations.

No moneys appropriated for contingent, incidental, or miscellaneous purposes shall be expended or paid for official or clerical compensation. (R. S. § 3682.)

DERIVATION

Act July 12, 1870, ch. 251, § 3, 16 Stat. 250.

§ 675. Purchases from contingent funds.

Except as otherwise provided no part of the contingent fund appropriated to any department, bureau, or office, shall be applied to the purchase of any articles except such as the head of the department shall deem necessary and proper to carry on the business of the department, bureau, or office, and shall, by written order, direct to be procured. (R. S. § 3683.)

DERIVATION

Act Aug. 26, 1842, ch. 202, § 19, 5 Stat. 527.

§ 676. Purchases by Department of Commerce.

Section 675 of this title shall not apply to any purchase made by the Department of Commerce when the aggregate amount involved does not exceed the sum of $25. (Mar. 3, 1921, ch. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1303.)

§ 677. Expenditure of appropriations for contingent expenses of Post Office Department.

The appropriations for the contingent expenses of the Post Office Department shall be expended as specially directed in the law, and according to the appropriations for the items specifically named, and no moneys appropriated for the specific purposes named under the head of "For contingent expenses of the Post Office Department" shall be diverted from one purpose to another; and all moneys unexpended for one or more specific purposes shall be turned into the Treasury, and not expended, by the superintendent and disbursing officer, for any object or purpose whatsoever other than the specific ones named in the appropriation for the "Contingent expenses of the Post Office Department." (June 19, 1878, ch. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 203.)

§ 678. Purchases of books from appropriations for contingent expenses.

Law books, books of reference, and periodicals for use of any executive department, or other Government establishment not under an executive department, at the seat of Government, shall not be purchased or paid for from any appropriation made for contingent expenses or for any specific or general purpose unless such purchase is authorized and payment therefor specifically provided in the law granting the appropriation. (Mar. 15, 1898, ch. 68, § 3, 30 Stat. 316.)

§ 679. Expenditure from appropriations for private telephone service.

Except as otherwise provided by law, no money appropriated by any Act shall be expended for telephone service installed in any private residence or private apartment or for tolls or other charges for telephone service from private residences or private apartments, except for long-distance telephone tolls required strictly for the public business, and so shown by vouchers duly sworn to and approved by the head of the department, division, bureau, or office in which the official using such telephone or incurring the expense of such tolls shall be employed: Provided,

That the cost of installation and use of telephones in residences leased or owned by the Government of the United States in foreign countries for the use of the Foreign Service may be allowed from Government funds, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State, except that the restrictions in this section relating to long-distance tolls shall also apply to telephones installed in such official residences. (Aug. 23, 1912, ch. 350, § 7, 37 Stat. 414; Apr. 30, 1940, ch. 175, § 4 Stat. 175.)

§ 680. Same; Chief of Engineers; locks and dams.

The provisions of section 679 of this title, or any other law, prohibiting the expenditure of public money for telephone services installed in private residences, shall not be construed to apply to or forbid the installation and use of such telephones as the Chief of Engineers may certify to be necessary for the prosecution of Government business and as the Secretary of War may authorize in connection with the construction and operation of locks and dams in the navigable waters of the United States. (Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 427, § 7, 42 Stat. 1042.)

§ 680a. Long distance telephone tolls; payment from appropriations.

Hereafter no part of any appropriation for any executive department, establishment, or agency shall be used for the payment of long-distance telephone tolls except for the transaction of public business which the interests of the Government require to be so transacted; and all such payments shall be supported by a certificate by the head of the department, establishment, or agency concerned, or such subordinate as he may specially designate, to the effect that the use of the telephone in such instances was necessary in the interest of the Government. (May 10, 1939, ch. 119, § 4, 53 Stat. 738.)

§ 681. Buildings under control of Treasury Department.

All appropriations for public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department shall be available immediately upon the approval of the Act containing such appropriations. (R. S. § 3684.)

DERIVATION

Act June 10, 1872, ch. 415, § 1, 17 Stat. 352.

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of Public Buildings Branch of Procurement Division to Public Buildings Administration within Federal Works Agency, see Reorg. Plan No. I, §§ 301, 303, 4 Fed. Reg. 2729, 53 Stat. 1426, 1427, set out in note under section 133t of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

CROSS REFERENCE

Functions of Procurement Division respecting public buildings, see Ex. Ord. No. §166, § 1, note to section 132 of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 682. Appropriations for public buildings available until completion of work.

All moneys appropriated for the construction of public buildings shall remain available until the completion of the work for which they are, or may be, appropriated; and upon the final completion of each or any of said buildings, and the payment of all outstanding liabilities therefor, the balance or balances remaining shall be immediately covered into the Treasury. (June 23, 1874, ch. 476, § 1, 18 Stat. 275.)

§ 683. Appropriations for public buildings available only for purposes specifically enumerated; separate estimates for administrative work; appointments.

The appropriations made to carry into effect the provisions of legislation authorizing the acquisition of land for sites for public buildings or the enlargement thereof, or for the construction, enlargement, extension, remodeling, or special repairs of public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, shall be deemed to be available only for the purposes specifically enumerated in said legislation, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall submit to Congress annually detailed estimates of appropriations necessary for defraying all expenses, both in the office of the Supervising Architect and in the field, of every kind and character incident to, or requisite for, the administrative work of carrying into effect the provisions of public-building Acts, so far as the same relate to public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, such estimates to be in addition to and separate and apart from the estimates of appropriations providing specifically for the salaries of certain officers and employees in the office of the Supervising Architect. The appropriations for said administrative work, when made, shall be immediately available for such personal services and all other expenses and supplies, both for office and field work, as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem necessary and specially order or approve to carry into effect the provisions of Acts relating to the acquisition of land for sites or the enlargement thereof, or for the construction, enlargement, extension, remodeling, or special repairs of public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, including the annual appropriations under the control of the Supervising Architect: Provided, That such persons as may be regularly appointed and paid from such appropriations shall be subject, in all respects, to the laws, rules, and regulations respecting entrance into or separation from the classified civil service of the United States, and shall be employed only in the office of the Supervising Architect or in field work of construction and repair under his supervision and control, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall annually submit to Congress in the estimates a statement, showing the names of all persons whose salaries or compensation are paid from said appropriations, their duties, and the rate of compensation and the amount paid to each of them, respectively: And provided further, That this section shall not be construed as rendering unavailable for the employment of personal services in the office of the Supervising Architect, or for any other purpose now authorized by law, any of the annual appropriations under the control of the Supervising Architect. All appropriations made for extension of the limits of cost of public buildings or sites, or for the acquisition of land for sites, or the enlargement thereof, or for the erection, enlargement, extension, remodeling, or special repairs of public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, or for any annual appropriation under the control of the Supervising Architect, shall be subject to the provisions hereof. (May 30, 1908, ch. 228, § 6, 35 Stat. 537; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

The Office of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department was transferred to the Public Buildings Branch of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department under Ex. Ord. No. 6166, § 1, set out in note to section 132 of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees. By Reorg. Plan No. 1, cited to text, and set out in note to section 133t of Title 5, the Public Buildings Branch of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department was transferred to the Public Buildings Administration, Federal Works Agency, and all functions of the Secretary of the Treasury relating to the Public Buildings Branch of the Procurement Division and to the selection of location and sites for public buildings were transferred to the Federal Works Administrator.

Functions of making, waiving, and modifying appropriations of appropriations as transferred to Director of the Bureau of the Budget, see Ex. Ord. No. 6166, § 16, set out as note under section 132 of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 684. Pay of assistant custodians and janitors.

No fund appropriated, other than that for pay of assistant custodians and janitors and personal services in connection with the care of public buildings under control of the Treasury Department outside the District of Columbia, shall be used for this service. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 853, § 1, 31 Stat. 1153.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Functions of Procurement Division respecting public buildings, see Ex. Ord. No. 6166, § 1, set out as note to section 132 of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

Transfer of Public Buildings Branch of Procurement Division to Public Buildings Administration within Federal Works Agency, see Reorg. Plan No. 1, §§ 301, 303, 4 Fed. Reg. 2729, 58 Stat. 1426, 1427, set out in note under section 133t of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 685. Lighthouses.

Appropriations for establishing lighthouses shall be available for expenditure for two years after acts of State legislatures ceding jurisdiction over sites take effect. This section shall not, however, apply to general appropriations for lighthouse purposes. In no case shall any special appropriation be available for more than two years without further provision of law. (R. S. § 3685.)

DERIVATION

Act June 10, 1872, ch. 415, § 1, 17 Stat. 355.

CROSS REFERENCE

Appropriations for lighthouses to continue available until otherwise ordered by Congress, see section 713 of this title.

§ 686. Purchase or manufacture of stores or materials or performance of services by bureau or department for another bureau or department.

(a) Any executive department or independent establishment of the Government, or any bureau or office thereof, if funds are available therefor and if it is determined by the head of such executive department, establishment, bureau, or office to be in the interest of the Government so to do, may place orders with any other such department, establishment, bureau, or office for materials, supplies, equipment, work, or services, of any kind that such requisitioned Federal agency may be in a position to supply or equipped to render, and shall pay promptly by check to such Federal agency as may be requisitioned, upon its written request, either in advance or upon the furnishing or performance thereof, all or part of the estimated or actual cost thereof as determined by such department, establishment, bureau, or office as may be requisitioned; but proper adjustments on the basis of the actual cost of the materials, supplies, or equipment furnished, or work or services performed, paid for in advance, shall be made as may be agreed upon by the departments, establishments, bureaus, or offices concerned: Provided, however, That if such work or services can be as conveniently or more cheaply performed by private agencies such work shall be let by competitive bids to such private agencies. Bills rendered, or requests for advance payments made, pursuant to any such order, shall not be subject to audit or certification in advance of payment.

(b) Amounts paid as provided in subsection (a) shall be credited, (1) in the case of advance payments, to special working funds, or (2) in the case of payments other than advance payments, to the appropriations or funds against which charges have been made pursuant to any such order, except as hereinafter provided. The Secretary of the Treasury shall establish such special working funds as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this subsection. Such amounts paid shall be available for expenditure in furnishing the materials, supplies, or equipment, or in performing the work or services, or for the objects specified in such appropriations or funds. Where materials, supplies, or equipment are furnished from stocks on hand, the amounts received in payment therefor shall be credited to appropriations or funds, as may be authorized by other law, or, if not so authorized, so as to be available to replace the materials, supplies, or equipment, except that where the head of any such department, establishment, bureau, or office determines that such replacement is not necessary the amounts paid shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

(c) Orders placed as provided in subsection (a) shall be considered as obligations upon appropriations in the same manner as orders or contracts placed with private contractors. When the stores being procured by one bureau of the War or Navy Departments for another bureau of such departments are for current issue during the year stores of equal value may be issued from stock on hand in place of any of those aforesaid. (Mar. 4, 1915, ch. 143, § 1, 38 Stat. 1084; May 21, 1920, ch. 194, § 7, 41 Stat. 613; June 30, 1932, ch. 314, § 601, 47 Stat. 417; June 22, 1936, ch. 689, title IV, § 8, 49 Stat. 1648.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Functions relating to procurement of stores, supplies, etc., exercised by any other agency, transferred to Procurement Division, see Ex. Ord. No. 6166, § 1, set out as note under section 132 of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 686a. Materials or services ordered from Navy; payment.

Any executive department or independent establishment of the Government ordering materials or services from the Navy shall pay promptly by check upon written request from the Paymaster General of the Navy, either in advance or upon completion of the work, all or part of the estimated or actual cost thereof, as the case may be, and bills rendered in accordance herewith shall not be subject to audit or certification in advance of payment: Provided, That proper adjustments on the basis of the actual cost of delivery of work paid for in advance shall be made. (May 21, 1926, ch. 355, 44 Stat. 605.)

§ 686b. Former section 686 effective as to funds transferred prior to amendment; convict labor; new provisions as additions to laws relating to working funds.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section and amendment of section 686 of this title, said section 686, as in force prior to June 30, 1932, shall remain in force with respect to the disposition of funds transferred thereunder prior to such date.

(b) Nothing in this section or section 686 shall be construed to authorize any Government department or independent establishment, or any bureau or office thereof, to place any orders for material, supplies, equipment, work, or services to be furnished or performed by convict labor, except as otherwise provided by existing law.

(c) The provisions of this section and section 686 are in addition to and not in substitution for the provisions of any other law relating to working funds. (June 30, 1932, ch. 314, § 602, 47 Stat. 418.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Availability of advance payments, see section 686c of this title.

§ 686c. Availability of advance payments under section 686.

After June 30, 1936, advance payments under section 686 of this title shall have no longer period of availability for obligation than the appropriation from which such advance payments are made. (June 22, 1936, ch. 689, title IV, § 8, 49 Stat. 1648.)

§ 687. Appropriations for Court of Customs and Patent Appeals; detailed statement of expenditure.

A detailed statement of the expenditure of the appropriations for the United States Court of Customs and Patent Appeals shall be submitted to Congress at the beginning of each regular session thereof. (Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1234; Mar. 2, 1929, ch. 488, § 1, 45 Stat. 1475.)

8. System of bookkeeping in Bureau of Indian Affairs; allotment of appropriations; classified statement to accompany estimates.

A system of bookkeeping shall be used in the Bureau of Indian Affairs, which will afford a ready analysis of expenditures by appropriations and allotments and by units of the service, showing for each class of work or activity carried on, the expenditures for the operation of the service, for repairs and preservation of property, for new and additional property, salaries and wages of employees, and for other expenditures. Provision shall be made by the Secretary of the Interior for further analysis of each of the foregoing classes of expenditures, if, in his judgment, he shall deem it advisable.

Annually a detailed statement of expenditures, as hereinbefore described, shall be incorporated in the annual report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and transmitted by the Secretary of the Interior to Congress on or before the first Monday in December.

Before any appropriation for the Indian Service is obligated or expended, the Secretary of the Interior shall make allotments thereof in conformity with the intent and purpose of this section, and such allotments shall not be altered or modified except with his approval. (June 30, 1913, ch. 4, § 26, 38 Stat. 103.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

§ 712. Balances of appropriations; expenditure.

Except as otherwise provided by law, all balances of appropriations contained in the annual appropriation bills and made specifically for the service of any fiscal year, and remaining unexpended at the expiration of such fiscal year, shall only be applied to the payment of expenses properly incurred during that year, or to the fulfillment of contracts properly made within that year; and balances not needed for such purposes shall be carried to the surplus fund. This section, however, shall not apply to appropriations known as permanent or indefinite appropriations. (R. S. § 3690.)

DERIVATION

Act July 12, 1870, ch. 251, § 5, 16 Stat. 251.

§ 713. Same; carried to surplus fund.

After the 1st day of July, in each year, the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause all unexpended balances of appropriations which shall have remained upon the books of the Treasury for two fiscal years to be carried to the surplus fund and covered into the Treasury: Provided, That this provision shall not apply to permanent specific appropriations, appropriations for rivers and harbors, lighthouses, or public buildings, or the pay of the Navy and Marine Corps; but the appropriations named in this proviso shall continue available until otherwise ordered by Congress. (June 20, 1874, ch. 328, § 5, 18 Stat. 110; July 26, 1886, ch. 781, § 2, 24 Stat. 157; Mar. 3, 1919, ch. 99, § 6, 40 Stat. 1309.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Balances of moneys appropriated for pay of Navy or Marine Corps existing after accounts for the year have been settled to be covered into the Treasury, see section 716 of this title.

§ 713a. Same; entries on books for settlement of accounts of disbursing officers.

Whenever it may be necessary in the settlement of the accounts of disbursing officers of the Government for expenditures already made in pursuance of law, to use appropriations carried to the surplus fund under section 713 of this title the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to make the necessary entries on the books of the Department to effect such settlements, Provided, That such entries shall not involve the expenditure of any moneys from the Treasury. (Mar. 3, 1875, ch. 131, § 5, 18 Stat. 418.)

§ 714. Same; reports to Congress as to claims.

It shall be the duty of the General Accounting Office to continue to receive, examine, and consider the justice and validity of all claims under appropriations the balances of which have been exhausted or carried to the surplus fund under the provisions of section 713 of this title that may be brought before them within a period of five years. The Secretary of the Treasury shall, at the commencement of each session of Congress, report the amount due each claimant whose claim has been allowed in whole or in part to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the presiding officer of the Senate, who shall lay the same before their respective Houses for consideration: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the reexamination and payment of any claim or account which has been once examined and rejected, unless reopened in accordance with existing law. (June 14, 1878, ch. 191, § 4, 20 Stat. 130; July 7, 1884, ch. 334, § 1, 23 Stat. 254; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Secretary of Treasury, at commencement of each session of Congress, to report amount due claimants whose claims have been allowed to Congress for consideration, see section 266 of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 715. Same; certification as to pending claims.

All balances of appropriations which shall have remained on the books of the Treasury, without being drawn against in the settlement of accounts, for two years from the date of the last appropriation made by law, shall be reported by the Secretary of the Treasury to the General Accounting Office, the proper officer of which shall examine the books of such office, and certify to the Secretary whether such balances will be required in the settlement of any accounts pending in such office; and if it appears that such balances will not be required for this purpose, then the Secretary may include such balances in his surplus-fund warrant, whether the head of the proper department shall have certified that it may be carried into the general Treasury or not. But no appropriation for the payment of the interest or principal of the public debt, or to which a longer duration is given by law, shall be thus treated. (R. S. § 3691; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

DERIVATION

Act July 12, 1870, ch. 251, § 6, 16 Stat. 251.

§ 716. Same; for pay of Navy or Marine Corps.

All balances of moneys appropriated for the pay of the Navy or pay of the Marine Corps for any year existing after the accounts for said year shall have been settled shall be covered into the Treasury. (July 26, 1886, ch. 781, § 2, 24 Stat. 157.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Pay of Navy and Marine Corps excepted from provision that appropriations shall not be available without reference to fiscal year, see section 718 of this title.

§ 717. Same; reappropriation to other purpose construed as new appropriation.

The reappropriation and diversion of the unexpended balance of any appropriation to a purpose other than that for which it was originally made shall be construed and accounted as a new appropriation and the unexpended balance shall be reduced by the sum proposed to be so diverted. (Mar 4, 1915, ch. 147, § 4, 38 Stat. 1161.)

§ 718. Appropriations in annual appropriation acts not permanent.

No specific or indefinite appropriation made subsequent to August 24, 1912, in any regular annual appropriation Act shall be construed to be permanent or available continuously without reference to a fiscal year unless it belongs to one of the following four classes: "Rivers and harbors," "lighthouses," "public buildings," and "pay of the Navy and Marine Corps," last specifically named in and excepted from the operation of the provisions of section 713 of this title, or unless it is made in terms expressly providing that it shall continue available beyond the fiscal year for which the appropriation Act in which it is contained makes provision. (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 355, § 7, 37 Stat. 487; Mar. 3, 1919, ch. 99, § 6, 40 Stat. 1309.)

§ 719. Unexpended balances for National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers.

The provisions of sections 712 and 715 of this title shall apply to all appropriations made for the maintenance of the Veterans' Administration: Provided, That it shall be the duty of the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, on or before the 1st day of October in each year, to furnish to the Secretary of War estimates, in detail, for the support of said home for the fiscal year commencing on the 1st day of July thereafter, and the Secretary of War shall annually include such estimates in his estimates for his Department. (Oct. 2, 1888, ch. 1069, 25 Stat. 543; July 3, 1930, ch. 863, § 2, 46 Stat. 1016.)

§ 725t. Checks drawn on Treasurer of United States; when payable; deposit of amount of unpaid checks.

Hereafter all checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States, except those issued on account of public-debt obligations and transactions regarding the administration of banking and currency laws, shall be payable only until the close of the fiscal year next following the fiscal year in which such checks were issued, and the amounts of all such checks properly due and payable which have not been presented for payment within such period shall be deposited into the Treasury to the credit of a trust fund account entitled "Outstanding Liabilities

(fiscal year)", designated by fiscal years in which the checks were issued. The balances in the outstanding liabilities account carried on the books of the Government on June 26, 1934, representing the amounts of unclaimed checks, shall be transferred to the account "Outstanding Liabilities, 1934", and any balances remaining therein, or in any succeeding fiscal year account, unclaimed for two fiscal years after the deposit therein shall be covered into the surplus fund of the Treasury: Provided, That the balances to the credit of the outstanding liabilities account of any fiscal year which has not been covered into the surplus fund of the Treasury shall be available to pay claims on account of any check, the amount of which has been included in any balance so covered into the surplus fund. (June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 21, 48 Stat. 1235.)

§ 725u. Provision authorizing advancement of money for township surveys repealed.

Section, act June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 22, 48 Stat. 1236, repealed so much of section 843 of Title 43 as authorized Governors of States therein named to advance money for survey of certain townships.

§ 725v. Moneys in registry of United States Court; disposition.

Moneys in, or payable into, the registry of any United States court, in the discretion of the court, may be deposited in official checking accounts with the Treasurer of the United States, subject to disbursement on order approved by the court. (June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 23, 48 Stat. 1236.)

Deposit in court, see Rule 67, following section 725c of Title 28, Judicial Code and Judiciary.

§ 725w. Survey of inactive and permanent appropriations by Comptroller General; report.

The Comptroller General of the United States shall cause a survey to be made of all inactive and permanent appropriations and/or funds on the books of the Government and also funds in the official custody of officers and employees of the United States, in which the Government is financially concerned, for which no accounting is rendered to the General Accounting Office; and he shall submit to the Congress annually, in a special report, his recommendations for such changes in existing law relating thereto as, in his judgment, may be in the public interest. (June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 24, 48 Stat. 1236.)

§ 725x. Existing authorizations unaffected.

The provisions of sections 725–725z of this title shall not be construed to alter or amend any existing authorization for an appropriation. (June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 25, 48 Stat. 1236.)

§ 725y. Repeal of inconsistent provisions.

All Acts and/or parts of Acts inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of sections 725–725z of this title are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency or conflict. (June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 26, 48 Stat. 1236.)

§ 725z. Citation.

The short title of sections 725–725z of this title shall be the "Permanent Appropriation Repeal Act, 1934." (June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 27, 48 Stat. 1236.)

§ 731. Payment in coin.

The faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment in coin or its equivalent of all the obligations of the United States not bearing interest, known as United States notes, and of all the interest-bearing obligations of the United States, except in cases where the law authorizing the issue of any such obligations has expressly provided that the same may be paid in lawful money or other currency than gold and silver. But none of the interest-bearing obligations not already due shall be redeemed or paid before maturity, unless at such time United States notes are convertible into coin at the option of the holder, or unless at such time bonds of the United States bearing a lower rate of interest than the bonds to be redeemed can be sold at par in coin. (R. S. § 3693.)

Destruction, etc., of interest-bearing security, see section 738a of this title.

§ 738a. Interest-bearing security destroyed, mutilated, defaced, lost or stolen—(a) Issuance of duplicate; redemption of matured security.

Whenever it is clearly proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury—

(1) That any interest-bearing security of the United States, identified by number and description, payable to bearer or so assigned as to become, in effect, payable to bearer, has been wholly or partly destroyed, or so mutilated or defaced as to impair its value to the owner, or has been lost or stolen under such circumstances, and such a period of time having elapsed after it has matured or has become redeemable pursuant to a call for redemption, as in the judgment of the Secretary would indicate that it has been destroyed or irretrievably lost, is not held by any person as his own property and will never become the basis of a valid claim against the United States; or

(2) That any interest-bearing security of the United States, identified by number and description, which is not payable to bearer and which has not been so assigned as to become, in effect, payable to bearer, has been lost or stolen, so that it is not held by any person as his own property, or has been wholly or partly destroyed, or so mutilated or defaced as to impair its value to the owner;

the Secretary, upon receipt and approval by him of a bond of indemnity, if and as required by subsection (b) hereof, shall, in the case of a security which has not matured or become redeemable pursuant to a call for redemption, issue a substitute marked "duplicate" and showing the serial number of the original security; or shall, in the case of a security which has matured or become redeemable pursuant to a call for redemption, make payment thereof to the owner, with such interest only as would have been paid had the security been presented when it became due and payable: Provided, That in the case of an interim certificate relief may be given by the issue of a definitive security, whether before or after maturity, rather than by the issue of a substitute or by payment: And provided further, That no payment shall be made on account of interest coupons claimed to have been attached to such original security unless the Secretary is satisfied that such coupons have not been paid, and are in fact destroyed or can never become the basis of a valid claim against the United States.

(b) Bond of indemnity; exceptions.

Except as provided in paragraphs (1) to (4) of this subsection, the owner of such lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated, or defaced security shall file with the Secretary of the Treasury a bond, to indemnify the United States, in such form and amount and with such surety, sureties, or security as the Secretary of the Treasury shall require: Provided, That in case of securities payable to bearer or so assigned as to become, in effect, payable to bearer, the destruction of which has not been proved, a corporate surety, qualified under sections 6-13 of Title 6, shall be required on such bond of indemnity: And provided further, That a bond of indemnity shall not be required in any of the following classes of cases, except as provided in paragraph (4) of this subsection:

(1) If the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied that the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation, or defacement, as the case may be, occurred without fault of the owner and while the security was in the custody or the control of the United States (not including the Postal Service when acting solely in its capacity as the public carrier of the mails), or of a person thereunto duly authorized as lawful agent of the United States, or while it was in the course of shipment effected pursuant to and in accordance with the regulations issued under section 134 of Title 5;

(2) If substantially the entire security is presented and surrendered by the owner and the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied as to the identity of the security presented and that any missing portions are not sufficient to form the basis of a valid claim against the United States;

(3) If the lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated, or defaced security is one which by the provisions of law or by the terms of its issue is transferable only by operation of law;

(4) If the owner or holder is the United States or an officer or employee thereof in his official capacity, a State, the District of Columbia, a Territory or possession of the United States, including the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands, a municipal corporation or political subdivision of any of the foregoing, a corporation the whole of whose capital is owned by the United States, a foreign government, or a Federal Reserve bank:

Provided, however, That in any of the foregoing classes of cases the Secretary of the Treasury may require a bond of indemnity if he deems it essential to the public interest.

(c) Definitions.

The term "interest-bearing security of the United States" or "security", wherever used in this section, means any direct obligation of the United States issued pursuant to law for valuable consideration and which by its terms bears interest, or is issued on a discount basis, and includes (but is not limited to) bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, and Treasury bills, and interim certificates issued for any such security.

(d) Rules and regulations.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall have the power to make such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary for the administration of this section. (July 8, 1937, ch. 444, § 8, 50 Stat. 481; Aug. 10, 1939, ch. 665, § 4, 53 Stat. 1359.)

§ 739. Exchange of coupon for registered bonds.

The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue, upon such terms and under such regulations as he may from time to time prescribe, registered bonds in exchange for and in lieu of any coupon bonds which have been or may be lawfully issued; such registered bonds to be similar in all respects to the registered bonds issued under the Acts authorizing the issue of the coupon bonds offered for exchange. (R. S. § 3706.)

DERIVATION

Act June 30, 1864, ch. 172, § 7, 13 Stat. 220.

§ 740. Credit to officers for stolen notes.

When any officer or agent duly authorized to receive, redeem, or cancel any Treasury notes issued by authority of law, shall receive, or pay, any Treasury note which has been previously received or redeemed by any officer or agent having authority to receive or redeem such note, and which has subsequently thereto been purloined and put into circulation, the Secretary of the Treasury, upon full and satisfactory proof that the same has been received or paid in good faith, and in the exercise of ordinary prudence, may allow a credit for the amount of such note, to the officer or agent so receiving or paying the same. (R. S. § 3707.)

DERIVATION

Act Aug. 10, 1846, ch. 180, § 2, 9 Stat. 107.

§ 741. Purchase or redemption of bonds.

The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time apply the surplus money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, or so much thereof as he may consider proper, to the purchase or redemption of the United States bonds: Provided, That the bonds so purchased or redeemed shall constitute no part of the sinking fund, but shall be canceled. (Mar. 3, 1881, ch. 133, § 2, 21 Stat. 457.)

§ 742. Exemption from taxation.

Except as otherwise provided by law, all stocks, bonds, Treasury notes, and other obligations of the United States, shall be exempt from taxation by or under State or municipal or local authority. (R. S. § 3701.)

§ 752. Second, third, and fourth Liberty loans; amount; bonds.

The Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, is hereby authorized to borrow, from time to time, on the credit of the United States for the purposes of sections 745, 747, 752-754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 773, 774 and 801 of this title, to provide for the purchase, redemption, or refunding, at or before maturity, of any outstanding bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, or Treasury bills of the United States, and to meet expenditures authorized for the national security and defense and other public purposes authorized by law, such sum or sums as in his judgment may be necessary, and to issue therefor bonds of the United States.

The bonds authorized in this section shall be in such form or forms and denomination or denominations and subject to such terms and conditions of issue, conversion, redemption, maturities, payment, and rate or rates of interest, not exceeding 4¼ per centum per annum, and time or times of payment of interest, as the Secretary of the Treasury from time to time at or before the issue thereof may prescribe. The principal and interest thereof shall be payable in United States legal tender coin or currency of the present standard of value.

The bonds authorized in this section shall from time to time first be offered at not less than par as a popular loan, under such regulations, prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury from time to time, as will in his opinion give the people of the United States as nearly as may be an equal opportunity to participate therein, but he may make allotment in full upon applications for smaller amounts of bonds in advance of any date which he may set for the closing of subscriptions and may reject or reduce allotments upon later applications and applications for larger amounts, and may reject or reduce allotments upon applications from incorporated banks and trust companies for their own account and make allotment in full or larger allotments to others, and may establish a graduated scale of allotments, and may from time to time adopt any or all of said methods, should any such action be deemed by him to be in the public interest: Provided, That such reduction or increase of allotments of such bonds shall be made under general rules to be prescribed by said Secretary and shall apply to all subscribers similarly situated. And any portion of the bonds so offered and not taken may be otherwise disposed of by the Secretary of the Treasury in such manner and at such price or prices, not less than par, as he may determine. The Secretary may make special arrangements for subscriptions at not less than par from persons in the military or naval forces of the United States, but any bonds issued to such persons shall be in all respects the same as other bonds of the same issue.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time, when he deems it to be in the public interest, offer such bonds otherwise than as a popular loan and he may make allotments in full, or reject or reduce allotments upon any applications whether or not the offering was made as a popular loan. § 752a. Same; convertible; privileges of holders; applicable provisions.

In connection with the issue of any series of bonds under the authority of section 752 of this title the Secretary of the Treasury may determine that the bonds of such series shall be convertible as provided in or pursuant to this section, and, in any such case, he may make appropriate provision to that end in offering for subscription the bonds of such series (hereinafter called convertible bonds). In any case of the issue of a series of convertible bonds, if a subsequent series of bonds (not including United States certificates of indebtedness, war-savings certificates, and other obligations maturing not more than five years from the issue of such obligations, respectively) bearing interest at a higher rate shall under the authority of sections 745, 747, 752, 752a, 753, 754, 754a, 754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 773, 774, and 801 of this title, or any other Act, be issued by the United States before the termination of the war between the United States and the Imperial German Government, then the holders of such convertible bonds shall have the privilege, at the option of the several holders, at any time within such period, after the public offering of bonds of such subsequent series, and under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall have prescribed, of converting their bonds, at par, into bonds bearing such higher rate of interest at such price not less than par as the Secretary of the Treasury shall have prescribed. The bonds to be issued upon such conversion under sections 745, 747, 752-754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 773, 774, and 801 of this title shall be substantially the same in form and terms as shall be prescribed by or pursuant to law with respect to the bonds of such subsequent series, not only as to interest rate but also as to convertibility (if future bonds be issued at a still higher rate of interest) or nonconvertibility, and as to exemption from taxation, if any, and in all other respects, except that the bonds issued upon such conversion shall have the same dates of maturity, of principal, and of interest, and be subject to the same terms of redemption before maturity, as the bonds converted; and such bonds shall be issued from time to time if and when and to the extent that the privilege of conversion so conferred shall arise and shall be exercised. If the privilege of conversion so conferred under the aforesaid sections of this title shall once arise, and shall not be exercised with respect to any convertible bonds within the period so prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, then such privilege shall terminate as to such bonds and shall not arise again, though again thereafter bonds be issued bearing interest at a higher rate or rates.

Holders of bonds bearing interest at a higher rate than four per centum per annum, whether issued (a) under section 752 of this title, or (b) upon conversion of four per centum bonds issued under said section, or (c) upon conversion of three and one-half per centum bonds issued under sections 745, 746, 755, 759, 764, 771, 774, and 804 of this title, or (d) upon conversion of four per centum bonds issued upon conversion of such three and one-half per centum bonds, shall not be entitled to any privilege of conversion under or pursuant to this section or otherwise. The provisions of sections 747 and 758 of this title shall extend to all such bonds.

If bonds bearing interest at a higher rate than four per centum per annum shall be issued before July first, nineteen hundred and eighteen, then any bonds bearing interest at the rate of four per centum per annum which shall, after July first, nineteen hundred and eighteen, and before the expiration of the six months' conversion period prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, be presented for conversion into bonds bearing interest at such higher rate, shall, for the purpose of computing the amount of interest payable, be deemed to have been converted on the dates for the payment of the semiannual interest on the respective bonds so presented for conversion, last preceding the date of such presentation. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 4, 40 Stat. 290; Apr. 4, 1918, ch. 44, § 3, 40 Stat. 504.)

§ 753. United States notes—(a) Authority to issue; amount; forms and denominations; interest; payment and redemption.

In addition to the bonds and certificates of indebtedness and war-savings certificates authorized by sections 745, 747, 752, 752a, 753, 754, 754a, 754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 773, 774 and 801 of this title, the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, is authorized, subject to the limitation imposed by section 757b of this title, to borrow from time to time on the credit of the United States for the purposes of said sections, to provide for the purchase, redemption, or refunding, at or before maturity, of any outstanding bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, or Treasury bills of the United States, and to meet public expenditures authorized by law, such sum or sums as in his judgment may be necessary and to issue therefor notes of the United States at not less than par (except as provided in section 754b of this title) in such form or forms and denomination or denominations, containing such terms and conditions, and at such rate or rates of interest, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and each series of notes so issued shall be payable at such time not less than one year nor more than five years from the date of its issue as he may prescribe, and may be redeemable before maturity (at the option of the United States) in whole or in part, upon not more than one year's nor less than four months' notice, and under such rules and regulations and during such period as he may prescribe.

(b) Series; exemptions.

The notes authorized in this section may be issued in any one or more of the following series as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe in connection with the issue thereof:

(1) Exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except estate or inheritance taxes) imposed on September 14, 1917, or thereafter by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority;

(2) Exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation imposed on September 14, 1917, or thereafter by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, imposed on September 14, 1917, or thereafter by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations;

(3) Exempt, both as to principal and interest, as provided in paragraph (2); and with an additional exemption from the taxes referred to in clause (b) of such paragraph, of the interest on an amount of such notes the principal of which does not exceed $30,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation; or

(4) Exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation imposed on September 14, 1917, or thereafter by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) all income, excess-profits, and war profits taxes, imposed on September 14, 1917, or thereafter by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations.

(c) Conversion into other series.

If the notes authorized under this section are offered in more than one series bearing the same date of issue, the holder of notes of any such series shall (under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury) have the option of having such notes held by him converted at par into notes of any other such series offered bearing the same date of issue.

(d) No circulation privileges; payment in currency and coin; "bond" or "bonds" defined.

None of the notes authorized by this section shall bear the circulation privilege. The principal and interest thereof shall be payable in United States legal tender coin or currency of the present standard of value. The word "bond" or "bonds" where it appears in sections 760, 765, 771 and 773 of this title and section 84 of Title 12, but in such sections only, shall be deemed to include notes issued under this section. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 18, as added, Mar. 3, 1919, ch. 100, § 1, 40 Stat. 1309, and amended Nov. 23, 1921, ch. 136, § 1401, 42 Stat. 321; June 5, 1933, § 754. Second and third Liberty loans; certificates of indebtedness and Treasury bills—(a) Authority to issue additional amount; terms and conditions; payment and redemption; acceptance for foreign obligations.

In addition to the bonds and notes authorized by sections 752, 753 and 757c of this title the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, subject to the limitation imposed by section 757b of this title, to borrow from time to time, on the credit of the United States, for the purposes of sections 752, 752a, 753, 754, 754a, 754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 773, 774 and 801 of this title, to provide for the purchase, redemption, or refunding, at or before maturity, of any outstanding bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness or Treasury bills of the United States, and to meet public expenditures authorized by law, such sum or sums as in his judgment may be necessary, and to issue therefor (1) certificates of indebtedness of the United States at not less than par (except as provided in section 754b of this title) and at such rate or rates of interest, payable at such time or times as he may prescribe; or, (2) Treasury bills on a discount basis and payable at maturity without interest. Treasury bills to be issued hereunder shall be offered for sale on a competitive basis, under such regulations and upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and the decisions of the Secretary in respect of any issue shall be final. Certificates of indebtedness and Treasury bills issued hereunder shall be in such form or forms and subject to such terms and conditions, shall be payable at such time not exceeding one year from the date of issue, and may be redeemable before maturity upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Treasury bills issued hereunder shall not be acceptable before maturity in payment of interest or of principal on account of obligations of foreign governments held by the United States of America.

(b) Exemption from taxation.

All certificates of indebtedness and Treasury bills issued hereunder (after the date upon which this subdivision becomes law) shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except estate and inheritance taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority; and the amount of discount at which Treasury bills are originally sold by the United States shall be considered to be interest within the meaning of this subdivision.

- (c) "Bonds and notes" in Federal Reserve Act as including certificates of indebtedness and Treasury bills.

Wherever the words "bonds and notes of the United States", or bonds and notes of the Government of the United States, or "bonds or notes of the United States" are used in the Federal Reserve Act,<sup>1</sup> they shall be held to include certificates of indebtedness and Treasury bills issued hereunder.

- (d) Gain from sale of Treasury bills; exemption from taxation; loss from sale as tax deduction.

Any gain from the sale or other disposition of Treasury bills issued hereunder (after the date upon which this subdivision becomes law) shall be exempt from all taxation (except estate or inheritance taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority; and no loss from the sale or other disposition of such Treasury bills shall be allowed as a deduction, or otherwise recognized, for the purposes of any tax now or hereafter imposed by the United States or any of its possessions. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 5, 40 Stat. 290; Apr. 4, 1918, ch. 44, § 4, 40 Stat. 504; Mar. 3, 1919, ch. 100, § 3, 40 Stat. 1311; June 17, 1929, ch. 26, 46 Stat. 19; June 17, 1930, ch. 512, 46 Stat. 775; Feb. 4, 1935, ch. 5, §§ 2, 3, 49 Stat. 20.)

§ 754a. Issuance of obligations for purchase or refunding of public indebtedness.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, any obligations authorized by sections 745, 747, 752, 752a, 753, 754, 754a, 754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 773, 774 and 801 of this title may be issued for the purchase, redemption, or refunding, at or before maturity, of any outstanding bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, or Treasury bills, of the United States, or to obtain funds for such purchase, redemption, or refunding, under such rules, regulations, terms, and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 19, as added, Jan. 30, 1934, ch. 6, § 14 (a) (4), 48 Stat. 343.)

REPEAL

All laws inconsistent with the provisions of this section were repealed by section 446 of this title.

§ 754b. Issuance of obligations on discount or competitive basis.

The Secretary of the Treasury may issue any obligations authorized by sections 745, 747, 752-754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 773, 774, and 801 of this title and maturing not more than one year from the date of their issue on a discount basis and payable at maturity without interest. Any such obligations may also be offered for sale on a competitive basis under such regulations and upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and the decisions of the Secretary in respect of any issue shall be final. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 20, as added, Jan. 30, 1934, ch. 6, § 14 (a) (4), 48 Stat. 343.)

REPEAL

All laws inconsistent with the provisions of this section were repealed by section 446 of this title.

§ 755. First Liberty loan; certificates of indebtedness.

In addition to the bonds authorized by sections 1 and 4 of the Act of April 24, 1917 (chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 36), the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to borrow from time to time, on the credit of the United States, to meet public expenditures authorized by law, such sum or sums as, in his judgment, may be necessary, and to issue therefor certificates of indebtedness at not less than par in such form and subject to such terms and conditions and at such rate of interest, not exceeding  $3\frac{1}{2}$  per centum per annum, as he may prescribe; and each certificate so issued shall be payable, with the interest accrued thereon, at such time, not exceeding one year from the date of its issue, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Certificates of indebtedness authorized in this section shall not bear the circulation privilege, and the sum of such certificates outstanding shall at no time exceed in the aggregate \$2,000,000,000, and such certificates shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation, except estate or inheritance taxes, imposed by authority of the United States, or its possessions, or by any State or local taxing authority. (Apr. 24, 1917, ch. 4, § 6, 40 Stat. 36.)

Act of April 24, 1917, mentioned in text, was the First Liberty Bond Act. See Section 774 of this title.

§ 755a. Same; deposit of proceeds of sales of bonds and certificates of indebtedness; limit.

The Secretary of the Treasury, in his discretion, is authorized to deposit in such banks and trust companies as he may designate the proceeds, or any part thereof, arising from the sale of the bonds and certificates of indebtedness authorized by the First Liberty Bond Act (Act of April 24, 1917, chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35), or the bonds previously authorized as described in section 4 of said Act, and such deposits may bear such rate of interest and be subject to such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe: Provided, That the amount so deposited shall not in any case exceed the amount withdrawn from any such bank or trust company and invested in such bonds or certificates of indebtedness plus the amount so invested by such bank or trust company, and such deposits shall be secured in the manner required for other deposits by section 90 of Title 12. (Apr. 24, 1917, ch. 4, § 7, 40 Stat. 37.)

CODIFICATION

Second proviso formerly set out in this section is now covered by section 462a-1 of Title 12, Banks and Banking.

§ 756. Loans to meet public expenditures; certificates of indebtedness; limitation; counterfeiting.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to borrow, from time to time, at a rate of interest not exceeding 3 per centum per annum, such sum or sums as in his judgment may be necessary to meet public expenditures, and to issue therefor certificates of indebtedness in such form and in such denominations as he may prescribe; and each certificate so issued shall be payable, with the interest accrued thereon, at such time, not exceeding one year from the date of its issue, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe: Provided, That the sum of such certificates outstanding shall at no time exceed $300,000,000, and the provisions of existing law respecting counterfeiting and other fraudulent practices are extended to the certificates of indebtedness authorized by this section. (June 13, 1898, ch. 448, § 32, 30 Stat. 466; Aug. 5, 1909, ch. 6, § 40, 36 Stat. 117; Mar. 3, 1917, ch. 159, § 401, 39 Stat. 1003.)

§ 757. Second and third Liberty loans; additional loans; war-savings certificates.

In addition to the bonds authorized by section 752 of this title and the certificates of indebtedness authorized by section 754 of this title, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to borrow from time to time, on the credit of the United States, for the purposes of sections 745, 747, 752, 752a, 753, 754, 754a, 754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 773, 774, and 801 of this title and to meet public expenditures authorized by law, such sum or sums as in his judgment may be necessary, and to issue therefor, at such price or prices and upon such terms and conditions as he may determine, war-savings certificates of the United States on which interest to maturity may be discounted in advance at such rate or rates and computed in such manner as he may prescribe. Such war-savings certificate shall be in such form or forms and subject to such terms and conditions, and may have such provisions for payment thereof before maturity, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Each war-savings certificate so issued shall be payable at such time, not exceeding five years from the date of its issue, and may be redeemable before maturity, upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. The sum of such war-savings certificates outstanding shall not at any one time exceed in the aggregate $4,000,000,000. It shall not be lawful for any one person at any one time to hold war-savings certificates of any one series to an aggregate amount exceeding $5,000. The Secretary of the Treasury may, under such regulations and upon such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, issue, or cause to be issued, stamps to evidence payments for or on account of such certificates. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 6, 40 Stat. 291; Sept. 24, 1918, ch. 176, § 2, 40 Stat. 966; Nov. 23, 1921, ch. 136, § 1402, 42 Stat. 321.)

§ 757a. Gold certificates; issuance authorized.

Section, act Jan. 30, 1934, ch. 6, § 14 (c), 48 Stat. 344, is now covered by section 405b of this title.

§ 757b. Limitation on obligations issued under second Liberty loan; additional National Defense obligations.

(a) The face amount of bonds, certificates of indebtedness, Treasury bills, and notes issued under the authority of sections 745, 747, 752-754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 773, 774 and 801 of this title, and certificates of indebtedness issued under the authority of section 755 of this title, shall not exceed in the aggregate $45,000,000,000 outstanding at any one time.

(b) In addition to the amount authorized by paragraph (a) of this section, any obligations authorized by sections 754 and 753 of this title, not to exceed in the aggregate $4,000,000,000 outstanding at any one time, less any retirements made from the special fund made available under section 301 of the Revenue Act of 1940,<sup>1</sup> may be issued under said sections to provide the Treasury with funds to meet any expenditures made, after June 30, 1940, for the national defense, or to reimburse the general fund of the Treasury therefor. Any such obligations so issued shall be designated "National Defense Series". (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 21, as added Feb. 4, 1935, ch. 5, § 5, 49 Stat. 21, and amended May 26, 1938, ch. 285, § 2, 52 Stat. 447; July 20, 1939, ch. 336, 53 Stat. 1071; June 25, 1940, 11:45 a. m., E. S. T., ch. 419, title III, § 302, 54 Stat. 526.)

Section 301 of act June 25, 1940, cited to text, provided as follows: "The Secretary of the Treasury shall, as soon as practicable after the end of each quarter, determine the additional amount of taxes collected attributable to the increases in taxes made, and to the floor stocks taxes imposed, by the amendments to the Internal Revenue Code in title II of this Act (sections 15, 143, 500, 600, 1200, 951, 1001, 1250, 1801, 1802, 3403 (f) (1), 3452, 3460 (a), 3465, 3481 (b), 3482, 1650, 1700, 2004, 2005, 2800, 2887, 3190, 3191, 1807, 3403 of Internal Revenue Code) (not including the amount of taxes attributable solely to section 209 [sections 1801, 1802, 3403 (f) (1), 3452, 3460 (a), 3465, 3481 (b), 3482 of Internal Revenue Code] and not including any amount collected under section 1700 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code attributable to a basic admission charge of more than 40 cents), and the amounts so determined shall be set aside as a special fund which shall be available only for the retirement of any of the obligations issued pursuant to the authority contained in section 21 (b) of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended (section 757b (b) of this title). If at any time the amounts in the fund are not sufficient for such purpose, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to transfer to the fund moneys out of the general fund of the Treasury. Any amounts in the special fund not necessary for the retirement of such obligations shall be deposited in the general fund of the Treasury."

§ 757c. United States savings bonds—(a) Authority to issue; use of proceeds.

The Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, is authorized to issue, from time to time, through the Postal Service, or otherwise, bonds of the United States to be known as "United States Savings Bonds." The proceeds of the Savings Bonds shall be available to meet any public expenditures authorized by law and to retire any outstanding obligations of the United States bearing interest or issued on a discount basis. The various issues and series of the Savings Bonds shall be in such forms, shall be offered in such amounts within the limits of section 752 of this title and shall be issued in such manner and subject to such terms and conditions consistent with subsections (b) and (c) hereof, and including any restriction on their transfer, as the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time prescribe.

(b) Issuance on discount basis; terms and conditions; limitation on amount held by one person.

Each Savings Bond shall be issued on a discount basis to mature not less than ten nor more than twenty years from the date as of which the bond is issued, and provision may be made for redemption before maturity upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe: Provided, That the issue price of Savings Bonds and the terms upon which they may be redeemed prior to maturity shall be such as to afford an investment yield not in excess of three per centum per annum, compounded semiannually. The denominations of Savings Bonds shall be in terms of their maturity value and shall not be less than $25. It shall not be lawful for any one person at any one time to hold Savings Bonds issued during any one calendar year in an aggregate amount exceeding $10,000 (maturity value).

(c) Exemption from taxation; circulation privilege.

The provisions of section 747 of this title (relating to the exemptions from taxation both as to principal and as to interest of bonds issued under authority of section 752 of this title, as amended), shall apply as well to the Savings Bonds; and, for the purposes of determining taxes and tax exemptions, the increment in value represented by the difference between the price paid and the redemption value received (whether at or before maturity) shall be considered as interest. The Savings Bonds shall not bear the circulation privilege.

(d) Appropriation for expenses.

The appropriation for expenses provided by sections 760 and 761 of this title, shall be available for all necessary expenses under this section; and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to advance, from time to time, to the Postmaster General from such appropriation such sums as are shown to be required for the expenses of the Post Office Department, in connection with the handling of the bonds issued under this section.

(e) Withdrawal of postal savings for purchase of savings bonds.

The board of trustees of the Postal Savings System is authorized to permit, subject to such regulations as it may from time to time prescribe, the withdrawal of deposits on less than sixty days' notice for the purpose of acquiring Savings Bonds which may be offered by the Secretary of the Treasury; and in such cases to make payment of interest to the date of withdrawal whether or not a regular interest payment date. No further original issue of bonds authorized by section 760 of Title 39, shall be made after July 1, 1935.

(f) Postal employees as fiscal agents for issuance, etc., of bonds.

At the request of the Secretary of the Treasury the Postmaster General, under such regulations as he may prescribe, shall require the employees of the Post Office Department and of the Postal Service to perform, without extra compensation, such fiscal agency services as may be desirable and practicable in connection with the issue, delivery, safe-keeping, redemption, and payment of the Savings Bonds. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 22, as added Feb. 4, 1935, ch. 5, § 6, 49 Stat. 21.)

§ 758. Bonds and certificates not to bear circulation privilege.

None of the bonds authorized by section 752 of this title nor of the certificates authorized by sections 754 and 757 of this title shall bear the circulation privilege. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 7, 40 Stat. 291.)

§ 759. First Liberty loan; appropriation to pay expenses.

In order to pay all necessary expenses, including rent, connected with any operations under sections 745, 746, 755, 755a, 759, 764, and 804 of this title, a sum not exceeding one-tenth of 1 per centum of the amount of certificates of indebtedness therein authorized is hereby appropriated, or as much thereof as may be necessary, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended as the Secretary of the Treasury may direct. (Apr. 24, 1917, ch. 4, § 8, 40 Stat. 37; May 29, 1928, ch. 901, § 1 (20), 45 Stat. 987.)

§ 760. Second and third Liberty loans; appropriation to pay expenses of issue of bonds; report of expenditures.

In order to pay all necessary expenses, including rent, connected with any operations under sections 745, 747, 752, 752a, 753, 754, 754a, 754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 773, and 801 of this title, a sum not exceeding one-fifth of 1 per centum of the amount of bonds and war-saving certificates and one-tenth of 1 per centum of the amount of certificates of indebtedness therein authorized is hereby appropriated, or as much thereof as may be necessary, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended as the Secretary of the Treasury may direct. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 10, 40 Stat. 292; May 29, 1928, ch. 901, § 1 (20), 45 Stat. 987.)

§ 761a. Limitations of section 761 as inapplicable to certain savings bond transactions.

The proviso in section 761, limiting the availability of the appropriation for expenses of operations on account of any public debt issue to the close of the fiscal year next following the fiscal year in which such issue was made, shall not apply to savings bond transactions handled by the Federal Reserve banks for account of the Secretary of the Treasury. (Mar. 25, 1940, ch. 71, title I, 54 Stat. 59.)

§ 762. Expenses of sale and distribution of war-savings and thrift stamps.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to advance to the Postmaster General from the appropriation for expenses of preparation and issuance of war-savings stamps such sums as may be necessary to meet the expenses of the Post Office Department for clerical service and other necessary expenditures in connection with the distribution, sale, and keeping of accounts of war-savings and thrift stamps. (Nov. 4, 1918, ch. 201, § 1, 40 Stat. 1035.)

§ 763. First and second Liberty loans; bonds; conversion into bonds bearing higher interest rate; extension of time for.

The privilege of converting 4 per centum bonds of the first Liberty loan converted and 4 per centum bonds of the second Liberty loan into  $4\frac{1}{4}$  per centum bonds, which privilege arose on May 9, 1918, and expired on November 9, 1918, may be extended by the Secretary of the Treasury for such period, upon such terms and conditions and subject to such rules and regulations as he may prescribe. For the purpose of computing the amount of interest payable, bonds presented for conversion under any such extension shall be deemed to be converted on the dates for the payment of the semiannual interest on the respective bonds so presented for conversion next succeeding the date of such presentation. (Mar. 3, 1919, ch. 100, § 5, 40 Stat. 1311.)

§ 764. Use of proceeds; exchange of bonds.

Bonds shall be issued from time to time upon the interchange of bonds of different denominations and of coupon and registered bonds and upon the transfer of registered bonds issued under sections 1 and 4 of the Act of April 24, 1917 (chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 36), under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, and, if and to the extent that the privilege of conversion provided for in such bonds shall arise and shall be exercised, in accordance with such provision for such conversion. The proceeds of the bonds authorized by section 752 of this title may be used for the purpose of defraying expenditures, and to reimburse the Treasury for expenditures not covered by previous issues of bonds, on account of the Panama Canal; to raise the money necessary to carry into effect the provisions of section 79 of Title 50, relative to the production of nitrates; to meet expenditures and reimburse the Treasury for expenditures on account of the Mexican situation, the construction of the armor-plate plant, the construction of the Alaskan railway, and the purchase of the Danish West Indies; to meet emergency expenditures directed by the President for naval construction or the expediting thereof; and to redeem the 3 per centum loan of 1908 to 1918, maturing August 1, 1918. (Apr. 24, 1917, ch. 4, § 1, 40 Stat. 36; Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 11, 40 Stat. 292.)

Act April 24, 1917, mentioned in text, was the First Liberty Bond Act. See section 774 of this title.

§ 765. Bonds receivable in payment of estate or inheritance taxes.

Any bonds of the United States bearing interest at a higher rate than 4 per centum per annum (whether issued under section 752 of this title or upon conversion of bonds issued under that section or under the Act of April 24, 1917, chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35), which have been owned by any person continuously for at least six months prior to the date of his death, and which upon such date constitute part of his estate, shall, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, be receivable by the United States at par and accrued interest in payment of any estate or inheritance taxes imposed by the United States, under or by virtue of any present or future law upon such estate or the inheritance thereof. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 14, as added Apr. 4, 1918, ch. 44, § 6, 40 Stat. 505.)

§ 766. Bonds or certificates payable in foreign money.

Any of the bonds or certificates of indebtedness authorized by sections 745, 747, 752, 752a, 753, 754, 754a, 754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 773, 774, and 801 of this title may be issued by the Secretary of the Treasury payable, principal and interest, in any foreign money or foreign moneys, as expressed in such bonds or certificates, but not also in United States gold coin, and he may dispose of such bonds or certificates in such manner and at such prices, not less than par, as he may determine, without compliance with the provisions of the third paragraph of section 752 of this title. In determining the amount of bonds and certificates issuable under said sections the dollar equivalent of the amount of any bonds or certificates payable in foreign money or foreign moneys shall be determined by the par of exchange at the date of issue thereof, as estimated by the Director of the Mint, and proclaimed by the Secretary of the Treasury, in pursuance of the provisions of section 372 of this title. The Secretary of the Treasury may designate depositaries in foreign countries, with which may be deposited as he may determine all or any part of the proceeds of any bonds or certificates authorized by said sections payable in foreign money or foreign moneys. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 16, as added Apr. 4, 1918, ch. 44, § 6, 40 Stat. 505.)

§ 767. Sinking fund for retirement of Liberty bonds and notes.

There is created in the Treasury a cumulative sinking fund for the retirement of bonds and notes issued under sections 752-755 and 757 of this title and the First Liberty Bond Act (April 24, 1917, chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35), and outstanding on July 1, 1920, and of bonds and notes thereafter issued, under any of such sections. The sinking fund and all additions thereto are hereby appropriated for the payment of such bonds and notes at maturity, or for the redemption or purchase thereof before maturity by the Secretary of the Treasury at such prices and upon such terms and conditions as he shall prescribe, and shall be available until all such bonds and notes are retired. The average cost of the bonds and notes purchased shall not exceed par and accrued interest. Bonds and notes purchased, redeemed, or paid out of the sinking fund shall be canceled and retired and shall not be reissued. For each fiscal year, until all such bonds and notes are retired there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purposes of such sinking fund, an amount equal to the sum of (1)  $2\frac{1}{2}$  per centum of the aggregate amount of such bonds and notes outstanding on July 1, 1920, less an amount equal to the par amount of any obligations of foreign governments held by the United States on July 1, 1920, and (2) the interest which would have been payable during the fiscal year for which the appropriation is made on the bonds and notes purchased, redeemed, or paid out of the sinking fund during such year or in previous years. (Mar. 3, 1919, ch. 100, § 6, 40 Stat. 1311; Mar. 2, 1923, ch. 179, 42 Stat. 1427; May 29, 1928, ch. 901, § 1 (21), 45 Stat. 987; Jan. 30, 1934, ch. 6, § 14 (b), 48 Stat. 344.)

REPEAL

All laws inconsistent with the provisions of this section were repealed by section 446 of this title.

§ 767a. Same; additional appropriation.

For each fiscal year beginning with the fiscal year 1934 there is authorized to be appropriated, for the purposes of the sinking fund provided in section 767 of this title, as amended, in addition to amounts otherwise appropriated, an amount equal to  $2\frac{1}{2}$  per centum of the aggregate amount of the expenditures made, out of appropriations made or authorized in the Emergency Relief and Construction Act of July 21, 1932, chapter 520, Title III, 47 Statutes 716, on or after July 21, 1932, and on or before the last day of the fiscal year for which the appropriation is made. (July 21, 1932, ch. 520, § 308, 47 Stat. 724.)

§ 767b. Same; further appropriation.

To carry into effect the provisions of section 767a of this title, there is appropriated for each fiscal year beginning with the fiscal year 1935, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purposes of the cumulative sinking fund provided in section 767 of this title, in addition to amounts otherwise appropriated, a sum equal to  $2\frac{1}{2}$  per centum of the aggregate of the expenditures on or after June 30, 1933, from appropriations made or authorized in the Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932, July 21, 1932, chapter 520, Title III, sections 301, 302, 47 Statutes 716, 720. (Mar. 3, 1933, ch. 212, title I, § 1, 47 Stat. 1492; Mar. 15, 1934, ch. 70, title I, § 1, 48 Stat. 428.)

§ 768. Bonds and certificates of indebtedness payable in legal tender coin or currency.

Any bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the United States issued after February 4, 1910, shall be payable, principal and interest, in United States legal tender coin or currency of the standard of value on February 4, 1910; and such bonds may be issued in such denomination as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Feb. 4, 1910, ch. 25, § 1, 36 Stat. 192; Mar. 3, 1917, ch. 159, § 400, 39 Stat. 1002; Mar. 4, 1917, ch. 191, 39 Stat. 1201; Apr. 24, 1917, ch. 4, § 1, 40 Stat. 35; June 5, 1933, ch. 48, § 1, 48 Stat. 113.)

Provisions for payment of obligations in gold declared against public policy, see section 463 of this title.

§ 769. Certificates of indebtedness; taxation; expense of issue.

Any certificates of indebtedness issued after February 4, 1910, shall be exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States (but, in the case of certificates issued after September 1, 1917, only if and to the extent provided in connection with the issue thereof), as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal, or local authority; and a sum not exceeding one-tenth of 1 per centum of the amount of any certificates of indebtedness issued is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of preparing, advertising, and issuing the same. (Feb. 4, 1910, ch. 25, § 2, 36 Stat. 192; Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 11, 40 Stat. 292.)

§ 770. Certain bonds not receivable as security for national bank circulating notes.

The bonds issued under section 39 of the Act of August 5, 1909 (chapter 6, Thirty-sixth Statutes, page 117), which carry a provision that such bonds shall not be receivable by the Treasurer of the United States as security for the issue of circulating notes to national banks shall not be receivable for that purpose. (Mar. 2, 1911, ch. 195, 36 Stat. 1013.)

§ 771. Deposit of proceeds of sales of Liberty bonds, certificates of indebtedness, and war-savings certificates.

The Secretary of the Treasury, in his discretion, is authorized to deposit, in such incorporated banks and trust companies as he may designate, the proceeds, or any part thereof, arising from the sale of the bonds and certificates of indebtedness, Treasury bills, and war-savings certificates authorized by this section and sections 745, 747, 752, 752a, 753, 754, 754a, 754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 773, 774, and 801 of this title, and arising from the payment of income and excess-profits taxes, and such deposits shall bear such rate or rates of interest, and shall be secured in such manner, and shall be made upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time prescribe. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 8, 40 Stat. 291; Apr. 4, 1918, ch. 44, § 5, 40 Stat. 504; Jan. 30, 1934, ch. 6, § 14 (a) (2), 48 Stat. 343.)

CODIFICATION

Proviso formerly set out in this section is now covered by section 462a-1 of Title 12, Banks and Banking.

§ 772. Fiscal agents.

Any incorporated bank or trust company designated as a depository by the Secretary of the Treasury under the authority conferred by section 771 of this title, which gives security for such deposits as, and to amounts, by him prescribed, may, upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, act as a fiscal agent of the United States in connection with the operations of selling and delivering any bonds, certificates of indebtedness, or war-savings certificates of the United States. (July 9, 1918, ch. 142, § 4, 40 Stat. 845.)

§ 773. Performance of services by postal employees in connection with bonds, etc.

In connection with the operations of advertising, selling, and delivering any bonds, certificates of indebtedness, or war-savings certificates of the United States provided for in this section and sections 745, 747, 752, 752a, 753, 754, 754a, 754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 774, and 801 of this title, the Postmaster General, under such regulations as he may prescribe, shall require, at the request of the Secretary of the Treasury, the employees of the Post Office Department and of the Postal Service to perform such services as may be necessary, desirable, or practicable, without extra compensation. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 9, 40 Stat. 292.)

§ 773a. Gold clause securities; payment; exchange of coins or currencies.

The lawful holders of the coins or currencies of the United States shall be entitled to exchange them, dollar for dollar, for other coins or currencies which may be lawfully acquired and are legal tender for public and private debts. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to make such exchanges and payments upon presentation hereunder in the manner provided in regulations prescribed by him. (Aug. 27, 1935, 6:00 p. m., ch. 780, § 1, 49 Stat. 938.)

EXPIRATION

Provision of this section entitling holders of gold-clause securities to receive payment of the stated dollar amounts prior to maturity expired by its own limitations on July 1, 1936.

§ 773b. Same; withdrawal of consent to sue United States; exceptions.

Any consent which the United States may have given to the assertion against it of any right, privilege, or power whether by way of suit, counterclaim, set-off, recoupment, or other affirmative action or defense in its own name or in the name of any of its officers, agents, agencies, or instrumentalities in any proceeding of any nature whatsoever (1) upon any gold-clause securities of the United States or for interest thereon, or (2) upon any coin or currency of the United States, or (3) upon any claim or demand arising out of any surrender, requisition, seizure, or acquisition of any such coin or currency or of any gold or silver and involving the effect or validity of any change in the metallic content of the dollar or other regulation of the value of money, is withdrawn: Provided, That this section shall not apply to any suit commenced prior to August 27, 1935, or which may be commenced by January 1, 1936, or to any proceeding referred to in this section in which no claim is made for payment or credit in an amount in excess of the face or nominal value in dollars of the securities, coins, or currencies of the United States involved in such proceeding. (Aug. 27, 1935, 6:00 p. m., ch. 780, § 2, 49 Stat. 939.)

§ 773c. Same; manner of payment.

Except in cases with respect to which consent is not withdrawn under section 773b of this title, no sums, whether heretofore or hereafter appropriated or authorized to be expended, shall be available for, or expended in, payment upon securities, coins, or currencies of the United States except on an equal and uniform dollar for dollar basis. (Aug. 27, 1935, 6:00 p. m., ch. 780, § 3, 49 Stat. 939.)

§ 773d. Same; definitions of "gold clause" and "securities of the United States."

As used in 773a-773c of this title the phrase "gold clause" means a provision contained in or made with respect to an obligation which purports to give the obligee a right to require payment in gold, or in a particular kind of coin or currency of the United States, or in an amount in money of the United States measured thereby, declared to be against public policy by section 463 of this title; and the phrase "securities of the United States" means the domestic public debt obligations of the United States, including bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, and Treasury bills, and other obligations for the repayment of money, or for interest thereon, made, issued, or guaranteed by the United States. (Aug. 27, 1935, 6:00 p. m., ch. 780, § 4, 49 Stat. 939.)

§ 774. Short titles of Acts.

The short titles of the following Acts referred to or included, wholly or partly, in this chapter shall be as follows: (1) The short title of the Act of April 24, 1917 (chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35), sections 745, 746, 755, 755a, 759, 764, 768, 774, 804 of this title, shall be "First Liberty Bond Act."

(2) The short title of the Act of September 24, 1917 (chapter 56, Fortieth Statutes, page 288), sections 745, 747, 752-754b, 757, 757b, 757c, 758, 760, 764-766, 769, 771, 773, 774, 801 of this title, shall be "Second Liberty Bond Act."

(3) The short title of the Act of April 4, 1918 (chapter 44, Fortieth Statutes, page 502), sections

752, 752a, 754, 765, 766, 771, 774 of this title, shall be "Third Liberty Bond Act."

(4) The short title of the Act of July 9, 1918 (chapter 142, Fortieth Statutes, page 844), sections 750, 752, 772, 774 of this title, shall be "Fourth Liberty Bond Act."

(5) The short title of the Act of September 24, 1918 (chapter 176, Fortieth Statutes, page 965), sections 757, 774 of this title, shall be "Supplement to Second Liberty Bond Act."

(6) The short title of the Act of March 3, 1919 (chapter 100, Fortieth Statutes, page 1309), sections 749, 750, 753, 754, 763, 767, 774, 802 of this title, shall be "Victory Liberty Loan Act." (Apr. 24, 1917, ch. 4, § 9; Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 17, as added, Apr. 4, 1918, ch. 44, §§ 6-8, 40 Stat. 506, and amended July 9, 1918, ch. 142, § 5, 40 Stat. 845; Sept. 24, 1918, ch. 176, § 7, 40 Stat. 967; Mar. 3, 1919, ch. 100, § 11, 40 Stat. 1314.)

OBLIGATIONS OF FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS

§ 801. Conversion into obligations bearing higher interest rate; sale of obligations; redemption of United States bonds.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, from time to time, to exercise in respect to any obligations of foreign governments acquired under authority of sections 745, 746, 747, 752-755a, 757, 758, 759, 760, 764-766, 768, 769, 771, 773, 774, 801, and 804 of this title, any privilege of conversion into obligations bearing interest at a higher rate provided for in or pursuant to such sections, and to convert any short-time obligations of foreign governments which may have been purchased under the authority of such sections into long-term obligations of such foreign governments, respectively, maturing not later than the bonds of the United States then last issued under the authority of such sections, and in such form and terms as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; but the rate or rates of interest borne by any such long-time obligations at the time of their acquisition shall not be less than the rate borne by the short-time obligations so converted into such long-time obligations; and, under such terms and conditions as he may from time to time prescribe, to receive payment, on or before maturity, of any obligations of such foreign governments acquired on behalf of the United States under authority of such sections, and, with the approval of the President, to sell any of such obligations (but not at less than the purchase price with accrued interest unless otherwise hereafter provided by law), and to apply the proceeds thereof, and any payments so received from foreign governments on account of the principal of their said obligations, to the redemption or purchase, at not more than par and accrued interest, of any bonds of the United States issued under authority of such sections; and if such bonds cannot be so redeemed or purchased the Secretary of the Treasury shall redeem or purchase any other outstanding interest-bearing obligations of the United States which may at such time be subject to redemption or which can be purchased at not more than par and accrued interest. (Sept. 24, 1917, ch. 56, § 3, 40 Stat. 289.)

§ 802. Conversion of short-time obligations of foreign governments into long-time obligations; interest; payment of obligations.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized from time to time to convert any short-time obligations of foreign governments which may be received under the authority of paragraph (a) of section 7 of the Act of March 3, 1919 (chapter 100, Fortieth Statutes, page 1312), into long-time obligations of such foreign governments, respectively, maturing not later than October 15, 1938, and in such form and terms as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; but the rate or rates of interest borne by any such long-time obligations at the time of their acquisition shall not be less than the rate borne by the short-time obligations so converted into such long-time obligations; and, under such terms and conditions as he may from time to time prescribe, to receive payment, on or before maturity, of any obligations of such foreign governments acquired on behalf of the United States under authority of this section, and said paragraph "a" of section 7 of the Act of March 3, 1919 (chapter 100, Fortieth Statutes, page 1312), and, with the approval of the President, to sell any of such obligations (but not at less than par with accrued interest unless otherwise hereafter provided by law), and to apply the proceeds thereof, and any payments so received from foreign governments on account of the principal of such obligations, to the redemption or purchase, at not more than par and accrued interest, of any bonds of the United States issued under the authority of the First Liberty Bond Act (Apr. 24, 1917, ch. 4, 40 Stat. 35) or section 752 of this title, and if such bonds cannot be so redeemed or purchased, the Secretary of the Treasury shall redeem or purchase any other outstanding interest-bearing obligations of the United States which may at such time be subject to redemption or which can be purchased at not more than par and accrued interest. (Mar. 3, 1919, ch. 100, § 7, 40 Stat. 1312.)

§ 803. Maturity of obligations of foreign governments.

The obligations of foreign governments acquired by the Secretary of the Treasury by virtue of the provisions of sections 745, 746, 747, 752-755a, 757-760, 764-766, 768, 769, 771, 773, 774, 801, and 804 of this title, shall mature at such dates as shall be determined by the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That such obligations acquired by virtue of the provisions of sections 745, 746, 755, 759, 764, 768, 774, and 804 of this title, or through the conversion of short-time obligations acquired under such sections, shall mature not later than June 15, 1947, and all other such obligations of foreign governments shall mature not later than October 15, 1938. (Mar. 3, 1919, ch. 100, § 8, 40 Stat. 1313.)

§ 804. Payment before maturity or sale of obligations of foreign governments.

The Secretary of the Treasury, under such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, is authorized to receive on or before maturity payment for any obligations of foreign governments purchased on behalf of the United States, under the First Liberty Bond Act (April 24, 1917, chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35), and to sell at not less than the purchase price any of such obligations and to apply the proceeds thereof, and any payments made by foreign governments on account of their said obligations to the redemption or purchase at not more than par and accrued interest of any bonds of the United States issued under authority of such Act; and if such bonds are not available for this purpose the Secretary of the Treasury shall redeem or purchase any other outstanding interest-bearing obligations of the United States which may at such time be subject to call or which may be purchased at not more than par and accrued interest. (Apr. 24, 1917, ch. 4, § 3, 40 Stat. 35.)

§ 804a. Financial transactions with foreign governments in default to United States prohibited.

It shall be unlawful within the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States for any person to purchase or sell the bonds, securities, or other obligations of, any foreign government or political subdivision thereof or any organization or association acting for or on behalf of a foreign government or political subdivision thereof, issued after April 13, 1934, or to make any loan to such foreign government, political subdivision, organization, or association, except a renewal or adjustment of existing indebtedness while such government, political subdivision, organization, or association, is in default in the payment of its obligations, or any part thereof, to the Government of the United States. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both.

As used in this section the term "person" includes individual, partnership, corporation, or association other than a public corporation created by or pursuant to special authorization of Congress, or a corporation in which the Government of the United States has or exercises a controlling interest through stock ownership or otherwise. (Apr. 13, 1934, ch. 112, §§ 1, 2, 48 Stat. 574.)

REPEAL AND MODIFICATION

Section not to be deemed repealed or modified in any manner by Res. May 7, 1940, ch. 185, 54 Stat. 179, according to section 3 thereof, which resolution amended section 5 (b) of the Trading With the Enemy Act, set out as section 95a of Title 12 and section 5 (b) of appendix to Title 50, and which resolution approved and confirmed Ex. Ord. No. 8389, amending Ex. Ord. No. 6560, set out in note under section 95 of Title 12, and regulations and general rulings issued by Secretary of Treasury under said Ex. Ord. No. 8389.

Chapter 13.—CREDIT AND CURRENCY EXPANSION

Sec.

- 821. Purchase of Treasury bills and other obligations of United States; issuance of United States notes to repay money borrowed and purchase Government bonds; retirement of notes; legal tender; regulation of value of gold and silver coins.
- 822. Rules and regulations.

Sec.

- 822a. Stabilization of exchange value of dollar; stabilization fund; duration of section.
- 822b. Rules and regulations.
- 823. Acceptance of silver in payment of foreign debts; issuance of silver certificates; coinage of silver for redemption of certificates; redemption and reissuance of certificates; rules and regulations.
- 824. Ratification of acts of President and Secretary of Treasury.

§ 821. Purchase of Treasury bills and other obligations of United States; issuance of United States notes to repay money borrowed and purchase Government bonds; retirement of notes; legal tender; regulation of value of gold and silver coins.

Whenever the President finds, upon investigation, that (1) the foreign commerce of the United States is adversely affected by reason of the depreciation in the value of the currency of any other government or governments in relation to the present standard value of gold, or (2) action under this section is necessary in order to regulate and maintain the parity of currency issues of the United States, or (3) an economic emergency requires an expansion of credit, or (4) an expansion of credit is necessary to secure by international agreement a stabilization at proper levels of the currencies of various governments, the President is authorized, in his discretion—

(a) To direct the Secretary of the Treasury to enter into agreements with the several Federal Reserve banks and with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System whereby the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System will, and it is hereby authorized to, notwithstanding any provisions of law or rules and regulations to the contrary, permit such reserve banks to agree that they will, (1) conduct, pursuant to existing law, throughout specified periods, open market operations in obligations of the United States Government or corporations in which the United States is the majority stockholder, and (2) purchase directly and hold in portfolio for an agreed period or periods of time Treasury bills or other obligations of the United States Government in an aggregate sum of $3,000,000,000 in addition to those they may then hold, unless prior to the termination of such period or periods the Secretary shall consent to their sale. No suspension of reserve requirements of the Federal Reserve banks, under the terms of section 248 (c) of Title 12, necessitated by reason of operations under this section, shall require the imposition of the graduated tax upon any deficiency in reserves as provided in said section 248 (c). Nor shall it require any automatic increase in the rates of interest or discount charged by any Federal Reserve bank, as otherwise specified in that section. The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may require the Federal Reserve banks to take such action as may be necessary, in the judgment of the Board and of the Secretary of the Treasury, to prevent undue credit expansion.

(b) If the Secretary, when directed by the President, is unable to secure the assent of the several Federal Reserve banks and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System to the agreements authorized in this section, or if operations under the above provisions prove to be inadequate to meet the purposes of this section, or if for any other reason additional measures are required in the judgment of the President to meet such purposes, then the President is authorized—

(1) To direct the Secretary of the Treasury to cause to be issued in such amount or amounts as he may from time to time order, United States notes, as provided in section 401 of this title, in the same size and of similar color to the Federal Reserve notes heretofore issued and in denominations of $1, $5, $10, $20, $50, $100, $500, $1,000, and $10,000; but notes issued under this subsection shall be issued only for the purpose of meeting maturing Federal obligations to repay sums borrowed by the United States and for purchasing United States bonds and other interest-bearing obligations of the United States: Provided, That when any such notes are used for such purpose the bond or other obligation so acquired or taken up shall be retired and canceled. Such notes shall be issued at such times and in such amounts as the President may approve but the aggregate amount of such notes outstanding at any time shall not exceed $3,000,000,000. There is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, an amount sufficient to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to retire and cancel 4 per centum annually of such outstanding notes, and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed to retire and cancel annually 4 per centum of such outstanding notes.

All coins and currencies of the United States (including Federal Reserve notes and circulating notes of Federal Reserve banks and national banking associations) heretofore or hereafter coined or issued, shall be legal tender for all debts, public and private, public charges, taxes, duties, and dues, except that gold coins, when below the standard weight and limit of tolerance provided by law for the single piece, shall be legal tender only at valuation in proportion to their actual weight.

(2) By proclamation to fix the weight of the gold dollar in grains nine tenths fine, and also to fix the weight of the silver dollar in grains nine tenths fine at a definite fixed ratio in relation to the gold dollar at such amounts as he finds necessary from his investigation to stabilize domestic prices or to protect the foreign commerce against the adverse effect of depreciated foreign currencies, and to provide for the unlimited coinage of such gold and silver at the ratio so fixed, or in case the Government of the United States enters into an agreement with any government or governments under the terms of which the ratio between the value of gold and other currency issued by the United States and by any such government or governments is established, the President may fix the weight of the gold dollar in accordance with the ratio so agreed upon, and such gold dollar, the weight of which is so fixed, shall be the standard unit of value, and all forms of money issued or coined by the United States shall be maintained at a parity with this standard and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to maintain such parity, but in no event shall the weight of the gold dollar be fixed so as to reduce its present weight by more than 50 per centum. Nor shall the weight of the gold dollar be fixed in any event at more than 60 per centum of its present weight. The powers of the President specified in this paragraph shall be deemed to be separate, distinct, and continuing powers, and may be exercised by him, from time to time, severally or together, whenever and as the expressed objects of this section in his judgment may require; except that such powers shall expire June 30, 1941, unless the President shall sooner declare the existing emergency ended.

The President, in addition to the authority to provide for the unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio so fixed, under such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, is further authorized to cause to be issued and delivered to the tenderer of silver for coinage, silver certificates in lieu of the standard silver dollars to which the tenderer would be entitled and in an amount in dollars equal to the number of coined standard silver dollars that the tenderer of such silver for coinage would receive in standard silver dollars.

The President is further authorized to issue silver certificates in such denominations as he may prescribe against any silver bullion, silver, or standard silver dollars in the Treasury not then held for redemption of any outstanding silver certificates, and to coin standard silver dollars or subsidiary currency for the redemption of such silver certificates.

The President is authorized, in his discretion, to prescribe different terms and conditions and to make different charges, or to collect different seigniorage, for the coinage of silver of foreign production than for the coinage of silver produced in the United States or its dependencies. The silver certificates herein referred to shall be issued, delivered, and circulated substantially in conformity with the law now governing existing silver certificates, except as may herein be expressly provided to the contrary, and shall have and possess all of the privileges and the legal tender characteristics of existing silver certificates now in the Treasury of the United States, or in circulation.

The President is authorized, in addition to other powers, to reduce the weight of the standard silver dollar in the same percentage that he reduces the weight of the gold dollar.

The President is further authorized to reduce and fix the weight of subsidiary coins so as to maintain the parity of such coins with the standard silver dollar and with the gold dollar. [Coinage of Silver]

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES
OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

[Proc. No. 2067, Dec. 21, 1933, 48 Stat. 1723]

Whereas, by paragraph (3) of section 43, title III, of the act of Congress, approved May 12, 1933 (Public. No. 10), the President is authorized "By proclamation to fix the weight of the gold dollar in grains nine-tenths fine and also to fix the weight of the silver dollar in grains nine-tenths fine at a definite fixed ratio in relation to the gold dollar at such amounts as he finds necessary from his investigation to stabilize domestic prices or to protect the foreign commerce against the adverse effect of depreciated foreign currencies, and to provide for the unlimited coinage of such gold and silver at the ratio so fixed, * * *"; and

Whereas, from investigations made by me, I find it necessary, in aid of the stabilization of domestic prices and in accordance with the policy and program authorized by Congress which are now being administered, and to protect our foreign commerce against the adverse effect of depreciated foreign currencies, that the price of silver be enhanced and stabilized; and

Whereas a resolution presented by the delegation of the United States of America was unanimously adopted at the World Economic and Monetary Conference in London on July 20, 1933, by the representatives of 66 Governments, which in substance provided that said Governments will abandon the policy and practice of melting up or debasing silver coins; that low-valued silver currency be replaced with silver coins and that no legislation should be enacted that will depreciate the value of silver; and

Whereas, a separate and supplemental agreement was entered into, at the instance of the representatives of the United States, between China, India, and Spain, the holders and users of large quantities of silver, on the one hand, and Australia, Canada, Mexico, Peru, and the United States on the other hand, as the chief producers of silver, wherein China agreed not to dispose of any silver derived from the melting up or debasement of silver coins, and India agreed not to dispose of over 35,000,000 ounces of silver per annum during a period of 4 years commencing January 1, 1934, and Spain agreed not to dispose of over 5,000,000 ounces of silver annually during said period, and both of said Governments agreed that at the end of said period of 4 years they would then subject themselves to the general resolution adopted at the London Conference, and in consideration of such limitation it was agreed that the Governments of the five producing countries would each absorb from the mines in their respective countries a certain amount of silver, the total amount to be absorbed by said producing countries being 35,000,000 ounces per annum during the 4 years commencing the 1st day of January 1934; that such silver so absorbed would be retained in each of said respective countries for said period of 4 years, to be used for coinage purposes or as reserves for currency, or to otherwise be retained and kept off the world market during such period of time, it being understood that of the 35,000,000 ounces the United States was to absorb annually at least 24,421,410 ounces of the silver produced in the United States during such period of time.

Now, therefore, finding it proper to cooperate with other Governments and necessary to assist in increasing and stabilizing domestic prices, to augment the purchasing power of peoples in silver-using countries, to protect our foreign commerce against the adverse effect of depreciated foreign currencies, and to carry out the understanding between the 66 Governments that adopted the resolution hereinbefore referred to; by virtue of the power in me vested by the act of Congress above cited, the other legislation designated for national recovery, and by virtue of all other authority in me vested:

I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do proclaim and direct that each United States coinage mint shall receive for coinage into standard silver dollars any silver which such mint, subject to regulations prescribed hereunder by the Secretary of the Treasury, is satisfied has been mined, subsequently to the date of this proclamation, from natural deposits in the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof. The Director of the Mint, with the voluntary consent of the owner, shall deduct and retain of such silver so received 50 percent as seigniorage and for services performed by the Government of the United States relative to the coinage and delivery of silver dollars. The balance of such silver so received, that is, 50 percent thereof, shall be coined into standard silver dollars and the same, or an equal number of other standard silver dollars, shall be delivered to the owner or depositor of such silver. The 50 percent of such silver so deducted shall be retained as bullion by the Treasury and shall not be disposed of prior to the thirty-first day of December 1937, except for coining into United States coins.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe regulations to carry out the purposes of this proclamation. Such regulations shall contain provisions substantially similar to the provisions contained in the regulations made pursuant to the act of Congress, approved April 23, 1918 (40 Stat. L., p. 535), known as the Pittman Act, with such changes as he shall determine prescribing how silver mined, subsequently to the date of this proclamation from natural deposits in the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof, shall be identified.

This proclamation shall remain in force and effect until the 31st day of December 1937, unless repealed or modified by act of Congress or by subsequent proclamation.

The present ratio in weight and fineness of the silver dollar to the gold dollar shall, for the purposes of this proclamation, be maintained until changed by further order or proclamation.

Notice is hereby given that I reserve the right by virtue of the authority vested in me to revoke or modify this proclamation as the interest of the United States may seem to require.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

[Weight of Gold Dollar Reduced]

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES
OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

[Proc. No. 2072, Jan. 31, 1934, 48 Stat. 1730]

Whereas, by virtue of section 1 of the act of Congress approved March 14, 1900 (31 Stat. L. 45), the present weight of the gold dollar is fixed at 25.8 grains of gold nine-tenths fine; and

Whereas, by section 43, title III of the act approved May 12, 1933 (Public. No. 10, 73d Cong.), as amended by section 12 of the Gold Reserve Act of 1934, it is provided in part as follows:

"Whenever the President finds, upon investigation, that (1) the foreign commerce of the United States is adversely affected by reason of the depreciation in the value of the currency of any other government or governments in relation to the present standard value of gold, or (2) action under this section is necessary in order to regulate and maintain the parity of currency issues of the United States, or (3) an economic emergency requires an expansion of credit, or (4) an expansion of credit is necessary to secure by international agreement a stabilization at proper levels of the currencies of various governments, the President is authorized, in his discretion—

"(a) To direct the Secretary of the Treasury to enter into agreements with the several Federal Reserve banks and with the Federal Reserve Board whereby the Federal Reserve Board will, and it is hereby authorized to, notwithstanding any provisions of law or rules and regulations to the contrary, permit such reserve banks to agree that they will, (1) conduct, pursuant to existing law, throughout specified periods, open market operations in obligations of the United States Government or corporations in which the United States is the majority stockholder, and (2) purchase directly and hold in portfolio for an agreed period or periods of time Treasury bills or other obligations of the United States Government in an aggregate sum of $3,000,000,000 in addition to those they may then hold, unless prior to the termination of such period or periods the Secretary shall consent to their sale. No suspension of reserve requirements of the Federal Reserve banks, under the terms of section 11 (c) of the Federal Reserve Act, necessitated by reason of operations under this section, shall require the imposition of the graduated tax upon any deficiency in reserves as provided in said section 11 (c). Nor shall it require any automatic increase in the rates of interest or discount charged by any Federal Reserve bank, as otherwise specified in that section. The Federal Reserve Board, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may require the Federal Reserve banks to take such action as may be necessary, in the judgment of the Board and of the Secretary of the Treasury, to prevent undue credit expansion.

"(b) If the Secretary, when directed by the President, is unable to secure the assent of the several Federal Reserve banks and the Federal Reserve Board to the agreements authorized in this section, or if operations under the above provisions prove to be inadequate to meet the purposes of this section, or if for any other reason additional measures are required in the judgment of the President to meet such purposes then the President is authorized—

"(2) By proclamation to fix the weight of the gold dollar in grains nine-tenths fine and also to fix the weight of the silver dollar in grains nine-tenths fine at a definite fixed ratio in relation to the gold dollar at such amounts as he finds necessary from his investigation to stabilize domestic prices or to protect the foreign commerce against the adverse effect of depreciated foreign currencies, and to provide for the unlimited coinage of such gold and silver at the ratio so fixed, or in case the Government of the United States enters into an agreement with any government or governments under the terms of which the ratio between the value of gold and other currency issued by the United States and by any such government or governments is established, the President may fix the weight of the gold dollar in accordance with the ratio so agreed upon, and such gold dollar, the weight of which is so fixed, shall be the standard unit of value, and all forms of money issued or coined by the United States shall be maintained at a parity with this standard and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to maintain such parity, but in no event shall the weight of the gold dollar be fixed so as to reduce its present weight by more than 50 per centum. Nor shall the weight of the gold dollar be fixed in any event at more than 60 per centum of its present weight. The powers of the President specified in this paragraph shall be deemed to be separate, distinct, and continuing powers, and may be exercised by him, from time to time, severally or together, whenever and as the expressed objects of this section in his judgment may require; except that such powers shall expire two years after the date of enactment of the Gold Reserve Act of 1934 unless the President shall sooner declare the existing emergency ended, but the President may extend such period for not more than one additional year after such date by proclamation recognizing the continuance of such emergency"; and

Whereas, I find, upon investigation, that the foreign commerce of the United States is adversely affected by reason of the depreciation in the value of the currencies of other governments in relation to the present standard value of gold, and that an economic emergency requires an expansion of credit; and

Whereas, in my judgment, measures additional to those provided by subsection (a) of said section 43 are required to meet the purposes of such section; and

Whereas, I find, from my investigation, that, in order to stabilize domestic prices and to protect the foreign commerce against the adverse effect of depreciated foreign currencies, it is necessary to fix the weight of the gold dollar at 15½ grains nine-tenths fine.

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 43, Title III of said act of May 12, 1933, as amended, and by virtue of all other authority vested in me, do hereby proclaim, order, direct, declare, and fix the weight of the gold dollar to be 15½ grains nine-tenths fine, from and after the date and hour of this proclamation. The weight of the silver dollar is not altered or affected in any manner by reason of this proclamation.

This proclamation shall remain in force and effect until and unless repealed or modified by act of Congress or by subsequent proclamation; and notice is hereby given that I reserve the right by virtue of the authority vested in me to alter or modify this proclamation as the interest of the United States may seem to require.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and have caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done in the City of Washington at 3:10 o'clock in the afternoon, eastern standard time, this 31st day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty-eighth.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION [2092]

[Revoked in Part]

I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do proclaim and direct that each United States mint shall receive for coinage or for addition to the monetary stocks of the United States, as hereinafter determined, any silver which such mint, subject to regulations prescribed hereunder by the Secretary of the Treasury, is satisfied was situated on the effective date hereof in the continental United States, including the Territory of Alaska.

The silver so delivered shall be added to the monetary stocks of the United States and shall be coined from time to time into standard silver dollars in such amounts as are required to carry out the provisions of this proclamation and to provide for the redemption of silver certificates; and there shall be returned therefor in standard silver dollars, silver certificates, or any other coin or currency of the United States, the monetary value of the silver so delivered (that is, $1.2929+ a fine troy ounce), less a deduction of 61½ percent thereof for seigniorage, brassage, coinage, and other mint charges, such deduction having been determined by the Secretary of the Treasury with my approval.

The provisions hereof are supplemental to the provisions of the proclamation of the 21st day of December 1933, and the United States coinage mints shall continue to receive for coinage in accordance with the provisions of such proclamation silver which such mint, subject to regulations prescribed thereunder by the Secretary of the Treasury, is satisfied has been mined subsequently to the date of such proclamation, from natural deposits in the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof; Provided, however, That the Director of the Mint shall, at the option of the tenderer of such silver, deliver silver certificates in lieu of the standard silver dollars to which the tenderer of such silver for coinage would be entitled and in an amount in dollars equal to the coined standard silver dollars that the tenderer of such silver for coinage would receive in standard silver dollars.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe regulations to carry out the purposes of this proclamation.

Notice is hereby given that I reserve the right by virtue of the authority vested in me to revoke or modify this proclamation as the interest of the United States may seem to require.

August 9, 1934.

Proc. No. 2282, April 28, 1938, 3 Fed. Reg. 997, 52 Stat. 1543, revoked Proc. No. 2092 of August 9, 1934, "except as to the provisions thereof relating to settlement for silver received by the United States coinage mints pursuant to Proc. A PROCLAMATION [2124]

I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do proclaim and direct that, with respect to all silver received by a United States coinage mint under the provisions of the Proclamation of the twenty-first day of December, 1933 which such mint, subject to regulations prescribed hereunder by the Secretary of the Treasury, is satisfied has been mined on or after April 10, 1935, from natural deposits in the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof, the deduction for seigniorage and services performed by the Government shall be 45 per cent and there shall be returned therefor in standard silver dollars, silver certificates, or any other coin or currency of the United States the monetary value of the silver so received (that is, $1.2929+ a fine ounce), less such deduction of 45 per cent.

Notice is hereby given that I reserve the right by virtue of the authority vested in me to revoke or modify this proclamation as the interest of the United States may seem to require.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. (Promulgated, Proc. No. 2124, April 10, 1935, 49 Stat. 3445.)

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION [2125]

[Proc. No. 2125, April 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 3445]

I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do proclaim and direct that, with respect to all silver received by a United States coinage mint under the provisions of the Proclamation of the twenty-first day of December, 1933, which such mint, subject to regulations prescribed hereunder by the Secretary of the Treasury, is satisfied has been mined on or after April 24, 1935, from natural deposits in the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof, the deduction for seigniorage and services performed by the Government shall be 40 per cent and there shall be returned therefor in standard silver dollars, silver certificates, or any other coin or currency of the United States, the monetary value of the silver so received (that is, $1.2929+ a fine ounce), less such deduction of 40 per cent.

Notice is hereby given that I reserve the right by virtue of the authority vested in me to revoke or modify this proclamation as the interest of the United States may seem to require.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

[Proc. No. 2268, Dec. 30, 1937, 52 Stat. 1530]

Whereas, by Proclamation of the twenty-first day of December, 1933, as modified by Proclamations of the ninth day of August, 1934, and the tenth and twenty-fourth days of April, 1935, the United States coinage mints are directed to receive for coinage and addition to the monetary stocks of the United States silver mined subsequent to December 21, 1933, from natural deposits in the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof; and

Whereas, such Proclamation as so modified states in part that:

"This proclamation shall remain in force and effect until the thirty-first day of December, 1937, unless repealed or modified by Act of Congress or by subsequent proclamation." and that

"Notice is hereby given that I reserve the right by virtue of the authority vested in me to revoke or modify this proclamation as the interest of the United States may seem to require."

Now, therefore, finding that the interests of the United States require further modification of said Proclamation of the twenty-first day of December, 1933, as so modified: by virtue of the power in me vested by the Act of Congress cited in said Proclamation, and other legislation designated for national recovery, and by virtue of all other authority in me vested;

I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do hereby further modify the said Proclamation of the twenty-first day of December, 1933, so that the same shall remain in force and effect until the 31st day of December, 1938, and so that the amount of deduction for seigniorage, brassage, coinage and other mint charges from the monetary value of silver delivered thereunder which has been mined on or after January 1, 1938, shall be 50% of such monetary value; and I do proclaim and direct that, with respect to all silver received by a United States coinage mint under the provisions of the said Proclamation of the twenty-first day of December, 1933, which such mint, subject to regulations prescribed hereunder by the Secretary of the Treasury; is satisfied has been mined on or after January 1, 1938, from natural deposits in the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof, the deduction for seigniorage and services performed by the Government shall be 50% and there shall be returned therefor, in standard silver dollars, silver certificates, or any other coin or currency of the United States, the monetary value of the silver so received (that is, $1.2929+ per fine ounce), less such deduction of 50%, and that the said Proclamation of the twenty-first day of December, 1933, as heretofore and hereby modified shall remain in force and effect until the 31st day of December, 1938, unless repealed or further modified by Act of Congress or by subsequent Proclamation.

Notice is hereby given that I reserve the right by virtue of the authority vested in me to revoke or modify this Proclamation as the interests of the United States may seem to require.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

§ 822. Rules and regulations.

The Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, is hereby authorized to make and promulgate rules and regulations covering any action taken or to be taken by the President under subsection (a) or (b) of section 821 of this title. (May 12, 1933, ch. 25, title III, § 44, 48 Stat. 53.)

§ 822a. Stabilization of exchange value of dollar; stabilization fund; duration of section.

(a) For the purpose of stabilizing the exchange value of the dollar, the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, directly or through such agencies as he may designate, is authorized, for the account of the fund established in this section, to deal in gold and foreign exchange and such other instruments of credit and securities as he may deem necessary to carry out the purpose of this section. An annual audit of such fund shall be made and a report thereof submitted to the President and to the Congress.

(b) To enable the Secretary of the Treasury to carry out the provisions of this section there is hereby appropriated, out of the receipts which are directed to be covered into the Treasury under section 408b of this title, the sum of $2,000,000,000, which sum when available shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States in a stabilization fund (hereinafter called the "fund") under the exclusive control of the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, whose decisions shall be final and not be subject to review by any other officer of the United States. The fund shall be available for expenditure, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury and in his discretion, for any purpose in connection with carrying out the provisions of this section, including the investment and reinvestment in direct obligations of the United States of any portions of the fund which the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, may from time to time determine are not currently required for stabilizing the exchange value of the dollar. The proceeds of all sales and investments and all earnings and interest accruing under the operations of this section shall be paid into the fund and shall be available for the purposes of the fund.

(c) All the powers conferred by this section shall expire June 30, 1941, unless the President shall sooner declare the existing emergency ended and the operation of the stabilization fund terminated. (Jan. 30, 1934, ch. 6, § 10, 48 Stat. 341; Jan. 23, 1937, 2 p. m., ch. 5, § 1, 50 Stat. 4; July 6, 1939, ch. 260, §§ 1, 2, 53 Stat. 998.)

REPEAL

All laws inconsistent with the provisions of this section were repealed by section 446 of this title.

§ 823. Acceptance of silver in payment of foreign debts; issuance of silver certificates; coinage of silver for redemption of certificates; redemption and reissuance of certificates; rules and regulations.

(a) The President is authorized, for a period of six months from May 12, 1933, to accept silver in payment of the whole or any part of the principal or interest now due, or to become due within six months after such date, from any foreign government or governments on account of any indebtedness to the United States, such silver to be accepted at not to exceed the price of 50 cents an ounce in United States currency. The aggregate value of the silver accepted under this section shall not exceed $200,000,000.

(b) The silver bullion accepted and received under the provisions of this section shall be subject to the requirements of existing law and the regulations of the mint service governing the methods of determining the amount of pure silver contained, and the amount of the charges or deductions, if any, to be made; but such silver bullion shall not be counted as part of the silver bullion authorized or required to be purchased and coined under the provisions of existing law.

(c) The silver accepted and received under the provisions of this section shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States, to be held, used, and disposed of as in this section provided.

(d) The Secretary of the Treasury shall cause silver certificates to be issued in such denominations as he deems advisable to the total number of dollars for which such silver was accepted in payment of debts. Such silver certificates shall be used by the Treasurer of the United States in payment of any obligations of the United States.

(e) The silver so accepted and received under this section shall be coined into standard silver dollars and subsidiary coins sufficient, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury, to meet any demands for redemption of such silver certificates issued under the provisions of this section, and such coins shall be retained in the Treasury for the payment of such certificates on demand. The silver so accepted and received under this section, except so much thereof as is coined under the provisions of this section, shall be held in the Treasury for the sole purpose of aiding in maintaining the parity of such certificates as provided in existing law. Any such certificates or reissued certificates, when presented at the Treasury, shall be redeemed in standard silver dollars, or in subsidiary silver coin, at the option of the holder of the certificates: Provided, That in the redemption of such silver certificates issued under this section, not to exceed one-third of the coin required for such redemption may in the judgment of the Secretary of the Treasury be made in subsidiary coins, the balance to be made in standard silver dollars.

(f) When any silver certificates issued under the provisions of this section are redeemed or received into the Treasury from any source whatsoever, and belong to the United States, they shall not be retired, canceled, or destroyed, but shall be reissued and paid out again and kept in circulation; but nothing herein shall prevent the cancellation and destruction of mutilated certificates and the issue of other certificates of like denomination in their stead, as provided by law.

(g) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of this section. (May 12, 1933, ch. 25, title III, § 45, 48 Stat. 53.)

§ 4. National Guard of the States, Territories, and District of Columbia; composition.

The National Guard of each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia shall consist of members of the militia voluntarily enlisted therein, who upon original enlistment shall be not less than eighteen nor more than forty-five years of age, or who in subsequent enlistment shall be not more than sixty-four years of age, organized, armed, equipped, and federally recognized as hereinafter provided, and of commissioned officers and warrant officers who are citizens of the United States between the ages of twenty-one and sixty-four years: Provided, That former members of the Regular Army, Navy, or Marine Corps under sixty-four years of age may enlist in said National Guard. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 58, 39 Stat. 197; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 1, 43 Stat. 1075; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 5, 48 Stat. 155.)

§ 4a. National Guard of United States; establishment; composition.

The National Guard of the United States is hereby established. It shall be a reserve component of the Army of the United States and shall consist of those federally recognized National Guard units, and organizations, and of the officers, warrant officers, and enlisted members of the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, who shall have been appointed, enlisted and appointed, or enlisted, as the case may be, in the National Guard of the United States, as hereinafter provided, and of such other officers and warrant officers as may be appointed therein as provided in section 81 of this title: Provided, That the members of the National Guard of the United States shall not be in the active service of the United States except when ordered thereto in accordance with law, and, in time of peace, they shall be administered, armed, uniformed, equipped, and trained in their status as the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, as provided in this title: And provided further, That under such regulations as the Secretary of War shall prescribe, noncommissioned officers, first-class privates, and enlisted specialists of the National Guard may be appointed in corresponding grades, ratings, and branches of the National Guard of the United States, without vacating their respective grades and ratings in the National Guard: And provided further, That in the grades of first lieutenant and second lieutenant the number shall be unlimited. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 58, as amended June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 5, 48 Stat. 155; June 19, 1935, ch. 277, § 2, 49 Stat. 391.)

§ 4b. National Guard and National Guard of the United States defined.

In this title, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires—

(a) "National Guard" or "National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia" means that portion of the Organized Militia of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, active and inactive, federally recognized as provided in this title and organized, armed, and equipped in whole or in part at Federal expense and officered and trained under paragraph 16, section 8, article I of the Constitution.

(b) "National Guard of the United States" means a reserve component of the Army of the United States composed of those federally recognized units and organizations and persons duly appointed and commissioned in the active and inactive National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, who have taken and subscribed to the oath of office prescribed in section 112 of this title, and who have been duly appointed by the President in the National Guard of the United States, as provided in this title, and of those officers and warrant officers appointed as prescribed in sections 81 and 113 of this title, and of those persons duly enlisted in the National Guard of the United States and of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia who have taken and subscribed to the oath of enlistment prescribed in section 123 of this title. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 71, as added June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 9, 48 Stat. 157.)

§ 5. Organization of tactical units.

Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the organization of the National Guard, including the composition of all units thereof, shall be the same as that which is or may hereafter be prescribed for the Regular Army, subject in time of peace to such general exceptions as may be authorized by the Secretary of War. And the President may prescribe the particular unit or units, as to branch or arm of service, to be maintained in each State, Territory, or the District of Columbia in order to secure a force which, when combined, shall form complete higher tactical units: Provided, That no change in allotment, branch, or arm of units or organizations wholly within a single State will be made without the approval of the governor of the State concerned. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 60, 39 Stat. 197; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 36, 41 Stat. 780; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 6, 48 Stat. 156.)

§ 6. Location of units and headquarters.

The States and Territories shall have the right to determine and fix the location of the units and headquarters of the National Guard within their respective borders. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 68, 39 Stat. 200.)

§ 7. Location and designation of units comprised entirely within State or Territory.

Subject to general regulations approved by the Secretary of War, the location and designation of units of the National Guard entirely comprised within the limits of any State or Territory shall be determined by a board, a majority of whom shall be reserve officers, including reserve officers who hold or have held commissions in the National Guard and recommended for this duty by the governor of the State or Territory concerned. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 3a, as amended June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 3, 41 Stat. 760.)

§ 8. Assignment of National Guard to divisions, brigades, etc.; commanding officers.

For the purpose of maintaining appropriate organization and to assist in instruction and training, the President may assign the National Guard of the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia to divisions, brigades, and other tactical units, and may detail officers either from the National Guard or the Regular Army to command such units: Provided, That where complete units are organized within a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia the commanding officers thereof shall not be displaced under the provisions of this section. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 64, 39 Stat. 198.)

§ 9. Authorized officers and men of staff corps and departments.

The National Guard of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia shall include such officers and enlisted men of the staff corps and departments, corresponding to those of the Regular Army, as may be authorized by the Secretary of War. (July 9, 1918, ch. 143, 40 Stat. 875.)

§ 10. Chiefs of staff of divisions.

The President may detail one officer of the Regular Army as chief of staff and one officer of the Regular Army or the National Guard as assistant to the chief of staff of any division of the National Guard in the service of the United States as a National Guard organization: Provided, That, in order to insure the prompt mobilization of the National Guard in time of war or other emergency, the President may, in time of peace, detail an officer of the Regular Army to perform the duties of chief of staff for each fully organized tactical division of the National Guard. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 65, 39 Stat. 199.)

§ 11. Adjutant general for each State, Territory, and District of Columbia.

There shall be appointed in each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia an adjutant general, who shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the laws of such State, Territory, and District, respectively. (Jan. 21, 1903, ch. 196, § 12, 32 Stat. 776.)

§ 12. Appointment of adjutant generals for Territories and District of Columbia.

The adjutant generals of the Territories and of the District of Columbia shall be appointed by the President, with such rank and qualifications as he may prescribe, and each adjutant general for a Territory shall be a citizen of the Territory for which he is appointed. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 66, 39 Stat. 199.)

§ 13. Annual reports by adjutant generals of States, etc.

The adjutant generals of the States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, and the officers of the National Guard, shall make such returns and reports to the Secretary of War, or to such officers as he may designate, at such times and in such form as the Secretary of War may from time to time prescribe. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 66, 39 Stat. 199.)

§ 14. Annual report of Secretary of War to contain abstract of reports of adjutant generals.

The Secretary of War shall, with his annual report of each year, transmit to Congress an abstract of the returns and reports of the adjutant generals of the States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, with such observations thereon as he may deem necessary for the information of Congress. (Jan. 21, 1903, ch. 196, § 12, 32 Stat. 776.)

§ 15. Inspections of National Guard.

The Secretary of War shall cause an inspection to be made at least once each year by inspector generals, and if necessary by other officers, of the Regular Army, detailed by him for that purpose, to determine whether the amount and condition of the property in the hands of the National Guard is satisfactory; whether the National Guard is organized as hereinbefore prescribed; whether the officers and enlisted men possess the physical and other qualifications prescribed; whether the organization and the officers and enlisted men thereof are sufficiently armed, uniformed, equipped, and being trained and instructed for active duty in the field or coast defense, and whether the records are being kept in accordance with the requirements of this title. The reports of such inspections shall serve as the basis for deciding as to the issue to and retention by the National Guard of the military property provided for by this title, and for determining what organizations and individuals shall be considered as constituting parts of the National Guard within the meaning of this title. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 93, 39 Stat. 206.)

§ 18. Appointment of officers in National Guard of United States.

Appointments in the National Guard of the United States in grades below that of brigadier general shall be made by the President alone, and general officers by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 38, as amended June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 4, 48 Stat. 155.)

§ 18a. Form of commission; officers in National Guard.

All persons appointed officers in the National Guard of the United States are reserve officers and shall be commissioned in the Army of the United States. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 38; June 6, 1924, ch. 275, § 3, 43 Stat. 470; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 4, 48 Stat. 155.)

§ 19. Period of service by officer in National Guard of United States commissioned as reserve officer.

Officers in the National Guard of the United States shall be appointed for the period during which they are federally recognized in the same grade and branch in the National Guard: Provided, That an appointment in force at the outbreak of war shall continue in force until six months after its termination: And provided further, That such officer shall be entitled to be relieved from active Federal service within six months after its termination if he makes application therefor. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 38, as amended June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 4, 48 Stat. 155.)

§ 20. Officers in National Guard of United States as Government officers or employees.

Officers of the National Guard of the United States, while not on active duty, shall not, by reason solely of their appointments, oaths, commissions, or status as such, or any duties or functions performed or pay or allowances received as such, be held or deemed to be officers or employees of the United States, or persons holding any office of trust or profit or discharging any official function under or in connection with any department of the Government of the United States. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 38, 39 Stat. 190; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 4, 48 Stat. 155.)

Chapter 2.—FUNDS FOR SUPPORT OF NATIONAL GUARD

Sec.

21. Annual appropriation.
22. Apportionment and disbursement of appropriation.
23. Repealed.
24. Forfeiture of right to allotment of appropriation.
25. Annual estimates of expenses.
26. Reduction of certain units to meet appropriation.

§ 21. Annual appropriation.

A sum of money shall be appropriated annually, to be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the support of the National Guard, including the expense of providing arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster stores, and camp equipage, and all other military supplies for issue to the National Guard, and such other expenses pertaining to said guard as are or may be authorized by law. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 87, 39 Stat. 199.)

§ 22. Apportionment and disbursement of appropriation.

The appropriation provided for in section 21 of this title shall be apportioned among the several States and Territories under just and equitable procedure to be prescribed by the Secretary of War and in direct ratio to the number of enlisted men in active service in the National Guard existing in such States and Territories at the date of apportionment of said appropriation, and to the District of Columbia, under such regulations as the President may prescribe: Provided, That the sum so apportioned among the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia shall be available under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War for the actual and necessary expenses incurred by officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army when traveling on duty in connection with the National Guard; for actual and necessary expenses incurred by officers of the Regular Army, and Reserve Officers holding commissions in the National Guard on active duty in the National Guard Bureau or the War Department General Staff, while traveling in attending the annual conventions of the National Guard Association of the United States and The Adjutants General Association; for the transportation of supplies furnished to the National Guard for the permanent equipment thereof; for office rent and necessary office expenses of officers of the Regular Army on duty with the National Guard; for the expenses of the National Guard Bureau, including clerical services; for expenses of enlisted men of the Regular Army on duty with the National Guard, including an allowance for quarters and subsistence provided in section 19 of Title 37, medicine, and medical attendance; and such expenses shall constitute a charge against the whole sum annually appropriated for the support of the National Guard, and shall be paid therefrom and not from the allotment duly apportioned to any particular State, Territory, or the District of Columbia; for the promotion of rifle practice, including the acquisition, construction, maintenance, and equipment of shooting galleries, and suitable target ranges; for the hiring of horses and draft animals for use of mounted troops, batteries, and wagons for forage for the same; and for such other incidental expenses in connection with lawfully authorized encampments, maneuvers, and field instruction as the Secretary of War may deem necessary, and for such other expenses pertaining to the National Guard as are or may be authorized by law. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 87, 39 Stat. 199; Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 423, § 3, 42 Stat. 1034; Apr. 6, 1928, ch. 321, 45 Stat. 406; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 16, 48 Stat. 159.)

§ 38. Supplying and exchanging Infantry equipment; requisitions.

Whenever in the opinion of the Secretary of War a sufficient number of Infantry equipment, model of 1910, shall have been procured and shall be available for the purpose the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to issue on the requisition of the governors of the several States and Territories or the commanding general of the District of Columbia National Guard, such numbers thereof as are required for equipping the National Guard in said States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, without charging the cost or value thereof or any expenses connected therewith, against any allotments to said States, Territories, or the District of Columbia: Provided, That the equipment thus issued shall be receipted for and shall remain the property of the United States and be annually accounted for in the manner prescribed by section 49 of this title, and that each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia shall, upon receipt of new equipment, turn in to the Ordnance Department of the United States Army, without receiving any money credit therefor and without expense for transportation of Infantry equipment now in its possession, the property of the United States, and replaced by articles of the model of 1910 equipment. (May 12, 1917, ch. 12, 40 Stat. 68.)

§ 39. Purchase of supplies, etc., from War Department; requisition by Government after purchase.

Any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia may, with the approval of the Secretary of War, purchase for cash from the War Department for the use of the National Guard, including the officers thereof, any stores, supplies, matériel of war, and military publications furnished to the Army, in addition to those issued under the provisions of this title, at the price at which they shall be listed to the Army, with cost of transportation added. The funds received from such sale shall be credited to the appropriation to which they shall belong, shall not be covered into the Treasury, and shall be available until expended to replace therewith the supplies sold to the States in the manner herein authorized: Provided, That stores, supplies, and matériel of war so purchased by a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia may, in time of actual or threatened war, be requisitioned by the United States for use in the military service thereof, and when so requisitioned by the United States and delivered credit for the ultimate return of such property in kind shall be allowed to such State, Territory, or the District of Columbia. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 86, 39 Stat. 204.)

Credit to be made to replacement accounts on only such amounts as represent sales of stores, materials, and supplies at actual cost to War Department, see section 7251 of Title 31, Money and Finance.

§ 39a. Cash sales of Government articles for use of militia; authority to receive articles back on credit basis.

Whenever articles of Government property are sold for cash to any State, Territory, or to the District of Columbia, for the use of the organized militia, thereby ceasing to be the property of the United States, none of the articles so sold shall be received back by any department of the Government upon the basis of allowing any credit therefor, except when such articles form part of the equipment of troops mustered into the service of the United States in time of war. (June 23, 1910, ch. 370, § 3, 36 Stat. 603.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Requisition by United States in time of war of stores, supplies, and material of war sold by War Department to National Guard, and giving of credit for ultimate return of the property in kind to the States, see section 39 of this title.

§ 40. Purchase of animals with National Guard funds.

Funds allotted by the Secretary of War for the support of the National Guard shall be available for the purchase, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, of animals conforming to the Regular Army standards for the training of the National Guard, said animals to remain the property of the United States and to be used solely for military purposes. The number of animals so issued shall not exceed thirty-two for each battery of field artillery or troop of cavalry, and a proportionate number for other mounted organizations, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe; and the Secretary of War is further authorized to issue, in lieu of purchase, for the training of such organizations, condemned Army animals which are no longer fit for service, but which may be suitable for the purposes of instruction, such animals to be sold as provided by law when said purposes shall have been served. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 89, 39 Stat. 205; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 45, 41 Stat. 783.)

Section number 41 has not been used in the Code.

§ 42. Care of animals; armament, etc.

Funds allotted by the Secretary of War for the support of the National Guard shall be available for the purchase and issue of forage, bedding, shoeing, and veterinary services, and supplies for the Government animals issued to any organization, and for animals owned or hired by any State, Territory, District of Columbia, or National Guard organization, not exceeding the number of animals authorized by Federal law for such organization and used solely for military purposes, and for the compensation of competent help for the care of material, animals, armament, and equipment of organizations of all kinds, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe.

The compensation paid to caretakers who belong to the National Guard, as herein authorized, shall be in addition to any compensation authorized for members of the National Guard under any of the provisions of this title.

Under such regulations as the Secretary of War shall prescribe, the material, animals, armament, and equipment, or any part thereof, of the National Guard of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or organizations thereof, may be put into a common pool for care, maintenance, and storage; and the employment of caretakers therefor, not to exceed fifteen for any one pool, is hereby authorized.

Commissioned officers of the National Guard shall not be employed as caretakers except that, under such regulations as the Secretary of War shall prescribe, one such officer not above the grade of captain for each heavier-than-air squadron, and one such officer not above the grade of captain for each pool, may be employed. Either enlisted men or civilians may be employed as caretakers, but if there are as many as two caretakers in any unit, one of them shall be an enlisted man.

Funds hereafter appropriated under the provisions of this title, as amended, for the support of the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, shall be supplemental to moneys appropriated by the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, for the support of the National Guard, and shall be available for the hire of caretakers and clerks: Provided, That the Secretary of War shall, by regulations, fix the salaries of all caretakers and clerks hereby authorized to be employed, and shall also designate by whom they shall be employed. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 90, 39 Stat. 205; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 46, 41 Stat. 783; Mar. 1, 1922, ch. 90, 42 Stat. 401; June 6, 1924, #### § 43. Withdrawal of Coast Artillery equipment in emergency.

In time of war, or threatened war, material, equipment, books of instruction, range finders, and fire-control equipment purchased for the instruction and use of State Coast Artillery organizations may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be withdrawn from armories or other places where it is in use by the State Coast Artillery organizations, and may be used in the fortifications of the United States. (Mar. 23, 1910, ch. 115, 36 Stat. 261.)

§ 44. Issue of clothing, equipment, etc.

The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to issue from surplus stores and material on hand and purchased for the United States Army such articles of clothing and equipment and field artillery, engineer, and signal material and ammunition as may be needed by the National Guard organized under the provisions of this title. This issue shall be made without charge against National Guard appropriations except for actual expenses incident to such issue. (June 13, 1940, ch. 343, § 1, 54 Stat. 372.)

§ 45. Proceeds of sales of condemned stores.

The net proceeds of the sale of condemned stores issued to the National Guard and not charged to State allotments shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States, as shall also stoppages against officers and enlisted men, and the net proceeds of collections made from any person to reimburse the Government for the loss, damage, or destruction of said property not charged against the State allotment issued for the use of the National Guard. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 88, 39 Stat. 205.)

§ 46. Return of property replaced as obsolete or condemned.

Each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia shall, on the receipt of new property issued to replace obsolete or condemned prior issues, turn in to the War Department or otherwise dispose of, in accordance with the directions of the Secretary of War, all property so replaced or condemned, and shall not receive any money credit therefor. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 85, 39 Stat. 204.)

§ 47. Military property lost, destroyed, damaged, or becoming unserviceable.

All military property issued to the National Guard as herein provided shall remain the property of the United States. Whenever any such property issued to the National Guard in any State or Territory or the District of Columbia shall have been lost, damaged, or destroyed, or become unserviceable or unsuitable by use in service or from any other cause, it shall be examined by a disinterested surveying officer of the Regular Army or the National Guard, detailed by the Secretary of War, and the report of such surveying officer shall be forwarded to the Secretary of War, or to such officer as he shall designate to receive such reports; and if it shall appear to the Secretary of War from the record of survey that the property was lost, damaged, or destroyed through unavoidable causes, he is hereby authorized to relieve the State or Territory or the District of Columbia from further accountability therefor. If it shall appear that the loss, damage, or destruction of property was due to carelessness or neglect, or that its loss, damage, or destruction could have been avoided by the exercise of reasonable care, the money value of such property shall be charged to the accountable State, Territory, or District of Columbia to be paid from State, Territory, or District funds, or any funds other than Federal. If the articles so surveyed are found to be unserviceable or unsuitable, the Secretary of War shall direct what disposition by sale or otherwise shall be made of them; and if sold, the proceeds of such sale, as well as stoppages against officers and enlisted men, and the net proceeds of collections made from any person or from any State, Territory, or District to reimburse the Government for the loss, damage, or destruction of any property, shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as a credit to said State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, accountable for said property, and shall remain available throughout the then current fiscal year and throughout the fiscal year following that in which the sales, stoppages, and collections were effected, for the purposes provided for in that portion of its allotment set aside for the purchase of similar supplies, stores, or material of war: Provided, That if any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia shall neglect or refuse to pay, or to cause to be paid, the money equivalent of any loss, damage, or destruction of property charged against such State, Territory, or the District of Columbia by the Secretary of War after survey by a disinterested officer appointed as hereinbefore provided, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to debar such State, Territory, or the District of Columbia from further participation in any and all appropriations for the National Guard until such payment shall have been made: Provided further, That property issued to the National Guard and which has become unserviceable through fair wear and tear in service, may, after inspection thereof and finding to that effect made by an officer of the Regular Army designated by the Secretary of War, be sold or otherwise disposed of, and the State, Territory, or District of Columbia accountable shall be relieved from further accountability therefor; such inspection, and sale or other disposition, to be made under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War, and to constitute as to such property a discretionary substitute for the examination, report, and disposition provided for elsewhere in this section. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 87, 39 Stat. 204; June 3, 1924, ch. 244, § 1, 43 Stat. 363; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 4, 43 Stat. 1077.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Effective July 1, 1935, the appropriation provided for in the last sentence of this section was affected by act June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 4, 48 Stat. 1227. See section 725c (b) of Title 31, Money and Finance.

§ 47-1. Same; charging replacement issues to appropriations; limitation on issues.

The value of issues of military equipment and stores of all kinds and reserve supply thereof made to any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia to replace property surveyed in accordance with section 47 of this title, shall not be charged to the apportionments required by sections 21, 22, 49 of this title, but no such replacement issue shall be made in excess of receipts theretofore collected and covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts pursuant to section 47 of this title and section 725c (a) and (b) (22) of Title 31. (June 13, 1940, ch. 343, § 1, 54 Stat. 372.)

SIMILAR PROVISIONS

The text of this section was taken from the Military Appropriation Act, 1941. Similar provisions were contained in earlier appropriation acts.

§ 47a. State-owned property brought into Federal service; credit; set-off.

The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to give any State credit for the money value of property listed on approved surveys of military property and equipment charged to an accountable State under section 47 of this title, said credit to be allowed as a set-off against the credit in favor of such accountable State, which has heretofore been or may hereafter be set up on the books of the National Guard Bureau in favor of such State for State-owned military property, supplies, and equipment brought into the Federal service by any such State during or at the time of the National Guard mobilization of 1917. (June 28, 1930, ch. 711, § 1, 46 Stat. 828; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 16, 48 Stat. 159.)

§ 47b. Military property and supplies furnished States; ratification of requisitions; necessity that States account for property.

All requisitions for military property and supplies which were filled before June 28, 1930, by the War Department in favor of those States which were given a credit balance on the books of the National Guard Bureau for State-owned property brought into the Federal service in 1917 and which have been charged against said credit balance are hereby ratified and approved, and the States to which such property was issued shall not be required to account to the Secretary of War for said property. (June 28, 1930, ch. 711, § 2, 46 Stat. 829; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 16, 48 Stat. 159.)

§ 48. Bond to account for travel ration fund not required.

Officers of the Organized Militia who may after May 11, 1908, be furnished, under proper authority, with funds for the purchase of coffee, or other components of the travel ration for the use of their respective commands, shall not be required to furnish bonds for the safe-keeping and disbursement of the same. (May 11, 1908, ch. 163, 35 Stat. 117.)

§ 49. Property and disbursing officers.

The governor of each State and Territory and the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia shall appoint, designate, or detail, subject to the approval of the Secretary of War, the Adjutant General, or an officer of the National Guard of the State, Territory, or District of Columbia, who shall be regarded as property and disbursing officer of the United States. He shall receipt and account for all funds and property belonging to the United States in possession of the National Guard of his State, Territory, or District and shall make such returns and reports concerning the same as may be required by the Secretary of War. The Secretary of War is authorized, on the requisition of the governor of a State or Territory or the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, to pay to the property and disbursing officer thereof so much of its allotment out of the annual appropriation for the support of the National Guard as shall, in the judgment of the Secretary of War, be necessary for the purposes enumerated therein. He shall render, through the War Department, such accounts of Federal funds intrusted to him for disbursement as may be required by the General Accounting Office. Before entering upon the performance of his duties as property and disbursing officer he shall be required to give good and sufficient bond to the United States, the amount thereof to be determined by the Secretary of War, for the faithful performance of his duties and for the safe-keeping and proper disposition of the Federal property and funds intrusted to his care. He shall, after having qualified as property and disbursing officer, receive pay for his services at a rate to be fixed by the Secretary of War, and such compensation shall be a charge against the whole sum annually appropriated for the support of the National Guard: Provided, That when traveling in the performance of his official duties under orders issued by the proper authorities he shall be reimbursed for his actual necessary traveling expenses, the sum to be made a charge against the allotment of the State, Territory, or District of Columbia: Provided further, That the Secretary of War shall cause an inspection of the accounts and records of the property and disbursing officer to be made by an inspector general of the Army at least once each year: And provided further, That the Secretary of War is empowered to make all rules and regulations necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this section. (R. S. § 236, June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 67, 39 Stat. 200; July 9, 1918, ch. 143, subch. III, 40 Stat. 878; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 305, 42 Stat. 24.)

CODIFICATION

Section is from act June 3, 1916, cited to text. It was amended by act July 9, 1918, also cited, by inserting "The Adjutant General or" in the first sentence. Act June 10, 1921, amended R. S. § 236, both cited to text, to provide for the settlement and adjustment of all Government accounts in the General Accounting office, and is authority for the substitution in this section of the words "General Accounting Office" for "Treasury Department".

§ 50. Agents of disbursing officers.

Under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, property and disbursing officers of the National Guard accountable for public moneys may intrust money to other officers of the National Guard for the purpose of having them make disbursements as their agents, and the officers to whom the money is intrusted, as well as the officer intrusting the same to him, shall be held pecuniarily responsible therefor to the United States, and the agent officer shall be subject for his official misconduct to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law in like cases for the officer for whom he acts as agent. (June 3, 1924, ch. 244, § 5, 43 Stat. 365.)

§ 51. Specifications for motor vehicles for field service.

Specifications for motor vehicles for field service of the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, which shall be so drawn as to admit of competition, shall to the extent otherwise practicable conform with the requirements of the National Guard. (June 13, 1940, ch. 343, § 1, 54 Stat. 372.)

§ 62. Company drill and participation in maneuvers, etc.; annual amount required.

Under such regulations as the Secretary of War shall prescribe, each company, troop, battery, and detachment in the National Guard shall assemble for drill and instruction, including indoor target practice, not less than forty-eight times each year, and shall, in addition thereto, participate in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, at least fifteen days in training each year, including target practice, unless such company, troop, battery, or detachment shall have been excused from participation in any part thereof by the Secretary of War: Provided, That an assembly for drill and instruction may consist of a single duly ordered formation of a company, troop, battery, or detachment, or, when so authorized by the Secretary of War, of a series of duly ordered formations of subdivisions or parts thereof, but in the latter case the series of formations of subdivisions or groups must comprehend and include the entire organization, and must be included within the time limit of seven consecutive days within a calendar month. The sum total of the attendance at all the separate consecutive formations announced as constituting that assembly shall be counted as the attendance at the actual military assembly for the required period of time; but no officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man shall be counted more than once, nor receive credit for more than one required period of actual military attendance even though he may have attended more than one of the formations which constitute the assembly for the required period of time: Provided further, That credit for an assembly for drill or for indoor target practice shall not be given unless the number of officers and enlisted men present for duty at such assembly shall equal or exceed a minimum to be prescribed by the President, nor unless the period of actual military duty and instruction participated in by each officer and enlisted man at each assembly at which he shall be credited as having been present shall be of at least one and one-half hours' duration and the character of training such as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War: Provided further, That any flight ordered by competent authority and performed by an appropriately rated Air Corps officer or enlisted man of the National Guard assigned to an Air Corps unit thereof, or so performed by an officer or enlisted man of the Medical Department of the said National Guard regularly attached to an Air Corps unit of the National Guard by appropriate authority, may be credited for the same purpose and to the same extent as attendance at drill: Provided further, That in performing the flight so ordered the officer or enlisted man is prevented, by the making of such flight, from attending a regularly scheduled drill formation of his unit or the unit with which the said officer or enlisted man is required to drill. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 92, 39 Stat. 206; June 3, 1924, ch. 244, § 2, 43 Stat. 363; Oct. 14, 1940, ch. 875, § 2, 54 Stat. 1135.)

AMENDMENT

Section was "repealed and reenacted to read as follows" by act Oct. 14, 1940, cited to text.

§ 63. Encampments or maneuvers for field or coast-defense instruction.

Under such regulations as the President may prescribe the Secretary of War is authorized to provide for the participation of the whole or any part of the National Guard in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field or coast-defense instruction, either independently or in conjunction with any part of the Regular Army, and there may be set aside from the funds appropriated for that purpose and allotted to any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, such portion of said funds as may be necessary for the payment, subsistence, transportation, and other proper expenses of such portion of the National Guard of such State, Territory, or the District of Columbia as shall participate in such encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field and coast-defense instruction. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 94, 39 Stat. 206.)

§ 64. Assemblages for instruction of officers and enlisted men.

Under such regulations as the President may prescribe the Secretary of War may provide for assemblages of officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the National Guard for the purpose of attending schools to be conducted by officers of the Regular Army detailed by the Secretary of War for that purpose, or for the purpose of participating in small arms competitions. Such assemblages may be held either within or without the State, Territory, or District of Columbia, to which the members of the National Guard designated to attend them shall belong. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 97, 39 Stat. 207; May 28, 1926, ch. 417, § 2, 44 Stat. 674.)

§ 65. Officers or enlisted men selected to attend service schools or to receive practical routine instruction during field exercises.

Under such regulations as the President may prescribe, the Secretary of War may, upon the recommendation of the governor of any State or Territory, or the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, authorize a limited number of selected officers, warrant officers, or enlisted men of the National Guard to attend and pursue a regular course of study at any military-service school of the United States, except the United States Military Academy, or to be attached to an organization of the same arm, corps, or department to which such officer or enlisted man shall belong, for routine practical instruction at or near an Army post during a period of field training or other outdoor exercises. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 99, 39 Stat. 207; Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 423, § 5, 42 Stat. 1035; May 28, 1926, ch. 417, § 3, 44 Stat. 674.)

§ 66. Assignment of officers and men of Regular Army for instruction of National Guard.

For instruction of the National Guard, the President shall assign such number of officers of the Regular Army as he may deem necessary; also such number of enlisted men of the Regular Army for duty in the instruction of the National Guard. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 81, 39 Stat. 203; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 44, 41 Stat. 782; Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 423, § 4, 42 Stat. 1034; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 16, 48 Stat. 160.)

§ 67. Detail of officers and men of Regular Army to attend encampments, etc., of National Guard.

The Secretary of War may detail one or more officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army to attend any encampment, maneuver, or other exercise for field or coast-defense instruction of the National Guard, who shall give such instruction and information to the officers and men assembled for such encampment, maneuver, or other exercise as may be directed by the Secretary of War or requested by the governor or by the commanding officer of the National Guard there on duty. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 96, 39 Stat. 207.)

§ 68. Detail of officers and men of Regular Army to duty with National Guard.

The Secretary of War shall detail officers of the active list of the Army to duty with the National Guard in each State, Territory, or District of Columbia. The Secretary of War may detail one or more enlisted men of the Regular Army with each State, Territory, or District of Columbia for duty in connection with the National Guard. But nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent the detail of retired officers as provided by law. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 100, 39 Stat. 208.)

§ 69. Acceptance by Regular Army officers of commissions in National Guard.

The officers detailed under section 68 of this title may accept commissions in the National Guard, with the permission of the President and terminable in his discretion, without vacating their commissions in the Regular Army or being prejudiced in their relative or lineal standing therein. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 100, 39 Stat. 208.)

§ 70. Repealed. June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 16, 48 Stat. 159.

Section, acts June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 81, 39 Stat. 203; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 44, 41 Stat. 782; Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 423, § 4, 42 Stat. 1034; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077, related to assignment of National Guard officers to duty with the Army and their pay and allowances.

§ 71. Instruction in firing; supply of ammunition.

The troops of the militia encamped at any military post or camp of the United States may be furnished such amounts of ammunition for instruction in firing and target practice as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, and such instruction in firing shall be carried on under the direction of an officer selected for that purpose by the proper military commander. (Jan. 21, 1903, ch. 196, § 21, 32 Stat. 779.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Secretary of War to provide for National Guard participation in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field or coast-defense instruction, see section 63 of this title.

§ 72. Right of command during joint encampments, etc., with Regular Army.

When any part of the National Guard participates in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field or coast-defense instruction at a United States military post, or reservation, or elsewhere, if in conjunction with troops of the United States, the command of such military post or reservation and of the officers and troops of the United States on duty there or elsewhere shall remain with the commander of the United States troops without regard to the rank of the commanding or other officer of the National Guard temporarily engaged in the encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 95, 39 Stat. 207.)

§ 73. Reduced rates for transportation to and from encampments, etc.

Nothing in the Act of February fourth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven shall be construed to prohibit any common carrier from giving reduced rates for members of National Guard organizations traveling to and from joint encampments with the Regular Army. (Aug. 29, 1916, ch. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 646.)

§ 81. Authority of President; draft.

When Congress shall have declared a national emergency and shall have authorized the use of armed land forces of the United States for any purpose requiring the use of troops in excess of those of the Regular Army, the President may, under such regulations, including such physical examination as he may prescribe, order into the active military service of the United States, to serve therein for the period of the war or emergency, unless sooner relieved, any or all units and members of the National Guard of the United States. All persons so ordered into the active military service of the United States shall from the date of such order stand relieved from duty in the National Guard of their respective States, Territories, and the District of Columbia so long as they shall remain in the active military service of the United States, and during such time shall be subject to such laws and regulations for the government of the Army of the United States as may be applicable to members of the Army whose permanent retention in active military service is not contemplated by law. The organization of said units existing at the date of the order into active Federal service shall be maintained intact insofar as practicable.

Commissioned officers and warrant officers appointed in the National Guard of the United States and commissioned or holding warrants in the Army of the United States, ordered into Federal service as herein provided, shall be ordered to active duty under such appointments and commissions or warrants: Provided, That those officers and warrant officers of the National Guard who do not hold appointments in the National Guard of the United States and commissions or warrants in the Army of the United States may be appointed and commissioned or tendered warrants therein by the President, in the same grade and branch they hold in the National Guard.

Officers and enlisted men while in the service of the United States under the terms of this section shall receive the pay and allowances provided by law for officers and enlisted men of the reserve forces when ordered to active duty, except brigadier generals and major generals, who shall receive the same pay and allowances as provided by law for brigadier generals and major generals of the Regular Army, respectively. Upon being relieved from active duty in the military service of the United States all individuals and units shall thereupon revert to their National Guard status.

In the initial mobilization of the National Guard of the United States, war-strength officer personnel shall be taken from the National Guard as far as practicable, and for the purpose of this expansion warrant officers and enlisted men of the National Guard may, in time of peace, be appointed officers in the National Guard of the United States and commissioned in the Army of the United States. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 111, 39 Stat. 211; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 49, 41 Stat. 784; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 18, 48 Stat. 160; June 19, 1935, ch. 277, § 7, 49 Stat. 392.)

§ 81a. Authority to call forth militia.

Whenever the United States is invaded or in danger of invasion from any foreign nation, or of rebellion against the authority of the Government of the United States, or the President is unable, with the regular forces at his command to execute the laws of the Union, it shall be lawful for the President to call forth such number of the militia of the State or of the States or Territories or of the District of Columbia as he may deem necessary to repel such invasion, suppress such rebellion, or to enable him to execute such laws, and to issue his orders for that purpose through the governor of the respective State or Territory, or through the commanding general of the Militia of the District of Columbia, from which State, Territory, or District such troops may be called, to such officers of the militia as he may think proper. (Jan. 21, 1903, ch. 196, § 4, 32 Stat. 776; May 27, 1908, ch. 204, § 3, 35 Stat. 400.)

§ 81b. Calling forth militia; period of service; apportionment.

Whenever the President calls forth the organized militia (including the National Guard) of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, to be employed in the service of the United States, he may specify in his call the period for which such service is required, and the militia so called shall continue to serve during the term so specified, either within or without the territory of the United States, unless sooner relieved by the President: Provided, That no commissioned officer or enlisted man shall be held to service beyond the term of his existing commission or enlistment, except as provided in section 81 of this title. When the militia of more than one State is called into the actual service of the United States by the President he may, in his discretion, apportion them among such States or Territories or to the District of Columbia according to representative population. (Jan. 21, 1903, ch. 196, §§ 5, 6, 32 Stat. 776; May 27, 1908, ch. 204, § 4, 35 Stat. 400.)

§ 81c. Ordering officers to active duty in emergency.

To the extent provided for from time to time by appropriations for this specific purpose, the President may order officers of the National Guard of the United States to active duty in an emergency at any time and for the period thereof: Provided, That, except in time of a national emergency expressly declared by Congress, no officer of the National Guard of the United States shall be employed on active duty for more than fifteen days in any calendar year without his own consent. When on such active duty an officer of the National Guard of the United States shall receive the same pay and allowances as an officer of the Regular Army of the same grade and length of active service, and mileage from his home to his first station and from his last station to his home, but shall not be entitled to retirement or retired pay. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 38, as added June 19, 1935, ch. 277, § 1, 49 Stat. 391.)

§ 83. Physical examination.

Every officer and enlisted man of the National Guard who shall be called into the service of the United States as such shall be examined as to his physical fitness under such regulations as the President may prescribe without further commission or enlistment: Provided, That immediately preceding the muster out of an officer or enlisted man called into the active service of the United States he shall be physically examined under rules prescribed by the President of the United States, and the record thereof shall be filed and kept in the War Department. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 115, 39 Stat. 212.)

§ 84. Drafting Philippine Militia into Federal service.

The militia and other locally created armed forces in the Philippine Islands may be called into the service of the United States, and all members thereof may be drafted into said service and organized in such manner as is or may be provided by law for calling or drafting the National Guard into said service, and shall in all respects while therein be upon the same footing with members of the National Guard so called or drafted: Provided, That the pay and allowances of officers and men of the Philippine Militia and other locally created armed forces in the Philippine Islands called into the service of the United States under the provisions of this section when serving in the Philippine Islands shall in no case exceed the pay and allowances for corresponding grades of Philippine Scouts. (Jan. 26, 1918, ch. 11, 40 Stat. 432.)

91. System of courts-martial for National Guard.
92. General courts-martial.
93. Special courts-martial.
94. Summary courts.
95. Sentence to imprisonment in lieu of fine.
96. Approval of sentence of dismissal from service.
97. Issuance of warrants of arrest; execution of sentences.

§ 91. System of courts-martial for National Guard.

Except in organizations in the service of the United States, court-martial in the National Guard shall be of three kinds, namely, general courts-martial, special courts-martial, and summary courts-martial. They shall be constituted like, and have cognizance of the same subjects, and possess like powers, except as to punishments, as similar courts provided for by the laws and regulations governing the Army of the United States, and the proceedings of courts-martial of the National Guard shall follow the forms and modes of procedure prescribed for said similar courts. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 102, 39 Stat. 208.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Courts martial of the Army, see section 1474 et seq. of Title 10, Army.

§ 92. General courts-martial.

General courts-martial of the National Guard not in the service of the United States may be convened by orders of the President, or of the governors of the respective States and Territories, or by the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, and such courts shall have the power to impose fines not exceeding $200; to sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances; to a reprimand; to dismissal or dishonorable discharge from the service; to reduction of noncommissioned officers to the ranks; or any two or more of such punishments may be combined in the sentences imposed by such courts. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 103, 39 Stat. 208.)

§ 93. Special courts-martial.

In the National Guard, not in the service of the United States, the commanding officer of each garrison, fort, post, camp, or other place, brigade, regiment, detached battalion, or other detached command, may appoint special courts-martial for his command; but such special courts-martial may in any case be appointed by superior authority when by the latter deemed desirable. Special courts-martial shall have power to try any person subject to military law, except a commissioned officer, for any crime or offense made punishable by the military laws of the United States, and such special courts-martial shall have the same powers of punishment as do general courts-martial, except that fines imposed by such courts shall not exceed $100. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 104, 39 Stat. 208.)

§ 94. Summary courts.

In the National Guard, not in the service of the United States, the commanding officer of each garrison, fort, post, or other place, regiment, or corps, detached battalion, company, or other detachment of the National Guard may appoint for such place or command a summary court to consist of one officer, who shall have power to administer oaths and to try the enlisted men of such place or command for breaches of discipline and violations of laws governing such organizations; and said court, when satisfied of the guilt of such soldier, may impose fines not exceeding $25 for any single offense; may sentence noncommissioned officer to reduction to the ranks; may sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances. The proceedings of such court shall be informal, and the minutes thereof shall be the same as prescribed for summary courts of the Army of the United States. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 105, 39 Stat. 208.)

§ 95. Sentence to imprisonment in lieu of fine.

All courts-martial of the National Guard, not in the service of the United States, including summary courts, shall have power to sentence to confinement in lieu of fines authorized to be imposed: Provided, That such sentences of confinement shall not exceed one day for each dollar of fine authorized. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 106, 39 Stat. 209.)

§ 96. Approval of sentence of dismissal from service.

No sentence of dismissal from the service or dishonorable discharge, imposed by a National Guard court-martial, not in the service of the United States, shall be executed until approved by the governor of the State or Territory concerned, or by the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 107, 39 Stat. 209.)

§ 97. Issuance of warrants of arrest; execution of sentences.

In the National Guard, not in the service of the United States, presidents of courts-martial and summary court officers shall have power to issue warrants to arrest accused persons and to bring them before the court for trial whenever such persons shall have disobeyed an order in writing from the convening authority to appear before such court, a copy of the charge or charges having been delivered to the accused with such order, and to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum and to enforce by attachment attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers, and to sentence for a refusal to be sworn or to answer as provided in actions before civil courts.

All processes and sentences of said courts shall be executed by such civil officers as may be prescribed by the laws of the several States and Territories, and in any State where no provision shall have been made for such action, and in the Territories and the District of Columbia, such processes and sentences shall be executed by a United States marshal or his duly appointed deputy, and it shall be the duty of any United States marshal to execute all such processes and sentences and make return thereof to the officer issuing or imposing the same. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 108, 39 Stat. 209.)

111. Qualifications for officers.
112. Federal oath for officers.
113. Examinations for commissions.
- 113a. Appointment of National Guard officers in National Guard of United States.
114. Elimination and disposition of officers of the National Guard of the United States.
115. Withdrawal of Federal recognition.

§ 111. Qualifications for officers.

Persons commissioned as officers of the National Guard after June 4, 1920, shall not be recognized as such under any of the provisions of this title unless they shall have been selected from the following classes, and shall have taken and subscribed to the oath of office prescribed in section 112 of this title; officers or enlisted men of the National Guard; officers, active or retired, reserve officers, and former officers of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, enlisted men and former enlisted men of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps who have received an honorable discharge therefrom; graduates of the United States Military and Naval Academies; and graduates of schools, colleges, universities, and officers' training camps, where they have received military instruction under the supervision of an officer of the Regular Army who certified their fitness for appointment as commissioned officers; and for the technical branches or Staff Corps and departments, such other civilians as may be specially qualified for duty therein. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 74, 39 Stat. 201; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 41, 41 Stat. 781.)

§ 112. Federal oath for officers.

Commissioned officers and warrant officers of the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia and in the National Guard of the United States shall take and subscribe to the following oath of office:

I, ———, do solemnly swear that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of ——— against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and of the Governor of the State of ———; that I make this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of ——— in the National Guard of the United States and of the State of ——— upon which I am about to enter, so help me God. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 73, 39 Stat. 201; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 11, 48 Stat. 157.)

§ 113. Examinations for commissions.

The provisions of this title shall not apply to any person hereafter appointed as an officer of the National Guard unless he first shall have successfully passed such tests as to his physical, moral, and professional fitness as the President shall prescribe. The examination to determine such qualifications for appointment shall be conducted by a board of three commissioned officers appointed by the Secretary of War from the Regular Army or the National Guard of the United States, or both. The examination herein provided for may be held prior to the original appointment or promotion of any individual as an officer or warrant officer, and if the applicant has been found qualified he may be issued a certificate of eligibility by the Chief of the National Guard Bureau, which certificate, in the event of appointment or promotion within two years to the office for which he was found qualified, shall entitle the holder to Federal recognition without further examination, except as to his physical condition.

Upon being federally recognized such officers and warrant officers may be appointed in the National Guard of the United States. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 75, 39 Stat. 202; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 12, 48 Stat. 158.)

§ 113a. Appointment of National Guard officers in National Guard of United States.

The President is authorized to appoint in the same grade and branch in the National Guard of the United States any person who is an officer or warrant officer in the National Guard of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia and who is federally recognized in that grade and branch: Provided, That acceptance of appointment in the same grade and branch in the National Guard of the United States, by an officer of the National Guard of a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, shall not operate to vacate his State, Territory, or District of Columbia National Guard office.

Officers or warrant officers of the National Guard who are in a federally recognized status on June 15, 1933, shall take the oath of office prescribed in section 112 and shall be appointed in the National Guard of the United States in the same grade and branch without further examination, other than physical, within a time limit to be fixed by the President, and shall in the meantime continue to enjoy all the rights, benefits, and privileges conferred by this title. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 73, 39 Stat. 201; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 11, 48 Stat. 157.)

§ 114. Elimination and disposition of officers of the National Guard of the United States.

The appointments of officers and warrant officers of the National Guard may be terminated or vacated in such manner as the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia shall provide by law. Whenever the appointment of an officer or warrant officer of the National Guard of a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia has been vacated or terminated or upon reaching the age of sixty-four, the Federal recognition of such officer shall be withdrawn and he shall be discharged from the National Guard of the United States: Provided, That under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, upon termination of service in the active National Guard, an officer of the National Guard of the United States may, if he makes application therefor, transfer to the inactive National Guard and remain in the National Guard of the United States in the same or lower grade. When Federal recognition is withdrawn from any officer or warrant officer of the National Guard of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, as provided in section 115 of this title or upon reaching the age of sixty-four years, he shall thereupon cease to be a member thereof and shall be given a discharge certificate therefrom by the official authorized to appoint such officer. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 77, 39 Stat. 202; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 14, 48 Stat. 159; June 19, 1935, ch. 277, § 4, 49 Stat. 391.)

§ 115. Withdrawal of Federal recognition.

Under such regulations as the President shall prescribe the capacity and general fitness of any officer or warrant officer of the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia for continued Federal recognition may at any time be investigated by an efficiency board of officers senior in rank to the officer under investigation, appointed by the Secretary of War from the Regular Army or the National Guard of the United States, or both. If the findings of said board be unfavorable to the officer under investigation and be approved by the President, Federal recognition shall be withdrawn and he shall be discharged from the National Guard of the United States. Federal recognition may be withdrawn by the Secretary of War and his appointment in the National Guard of the United States may be terminated when an officer or warrant officer of the National Guard of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia has been absent without leave for three months. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 76, 39 Stat. 202; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 13, 48 Stat. 158.)

Sec.

- 121. Enlisted strength of National Guard.
- 122. Compliance with section 121.
- 123. Contract and oath of enlistment.
- 124. Periods of enlistment in National Guard and National Guard of United States.
- 125. Discharge of enlisted men.

§ 121. Enlisted strength of National Guard.

The number of enlisted men of the National Guard to be organized under this title within one year from June 3, 1916, shall be for each State in the proportion of two hundred such men for each Senator and Representative in Congress from such State, and a number to be determined by the President for each Territory and the District of Columbia, and shall be increased each year thereafter in the proportion of not less than 50 per centum until a total peace strength of not less than eight hundred enlisted men for each Senator and Representative in Congress shall have been reached: Provided, That in States which have but one Representative in Congress such increase shall be at the discretion of the President: Provided further, That this shall not be construed to prevent any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia from organizing the full number of troops required under this section in less time than is specified in this section, or from maintaining existing organizations if they shall conform to such rules and regulations regarding organization, strength, and armament as the President may prescribe: And provided further, That nothing in this title shall be construed to prevent any State with but one Representative in Congress from organizing one or more regiments of troops, with such auxiliary troops as the President may prescribe; such organizations and members of such organizations to receive all the benefits accruing under this title under the conditions set forth herein. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 62, 39 Stat. 198.)

§ 122. Compliance with section 121.

Section, act July 11, 1919, ch. 8, 41 Stat. 127, provided that provisions of section 121 of this title should be considered fulfilled if strengths mentioned therein were attained by June 30, 1920, and successive years.

§ 123. Contract and oath of enlistment.

Men enlisting in the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, and in the National Guard of the United States, shall sign an enlistment contract and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation:

"I do hereby acknowledge to have voluntarily enlisted this — day of —, 19—, as a soldier in the National Guard of the United States and of the State of —, for the period of three (or one) year—, under the conditions prescribed by law, unless sooner discharged by proper authority. And I do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America and to the State of —, and that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever, and that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and of the Governor of the State of —, and of the officers appointed over me according to law and the rules and Articles of War."

The oath of enlistment prescribed in this section may be taken before any officer of the National Guard authorized to administer oaths of enlistment in the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, by respective laws thereof. All oaths of enlistment heretofore administered by the officers described above are hereby validated. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 70, 39 Stat. 201; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. #### § 124. Periods of enlistment in National Guard and National Guard of United States.

Original enlistments in the National Guard and in the National Guard of the United States shall be for a period of three years, and subsequent enlistments for periods of one or three years each: Provided, That all enlisted men of the National Guard on June 15, 1933, may, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, be enlisted in grade, rating, and branch in the National Guard of the United States for the remaining unexpired portions of their enlistments in the National Guard: And provided further, That in the event of an emergency declared by Congress the period of any enlistment which otherwise would expire may by Presidential proclamation be extended for a period of six months after the termination of the emergency. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 69, 39 Stat. 200; July 11, 1919, ch. 8, 41 Stat. 127; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 37, 41 Stat. 781; June 6, 1924, ch. 275, § 4, 43 Stat. 470; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 7, 48 Stat. 156.)

§ 125. Discharge of enlisted men.

An enlisted man discharged from service in the National Guard and the National Guard of the United States shall receive a discharge in writing in such form and with such classification as is or shall be prescribed for the Regular Army, and in time of peace discharges may be given prior to the expiration of terms of enlistment under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 72, 39 Stat. 201; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 40, 41 Stat. 781; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 10, 48 Stat. 157.)

Chapter 9.—INACTIVE NATIONAL GUARD

Sec.

- 131. Repealed.
- 132. Enlistments in inactive National Guard.
- 133. Transfer from active to inactive National Guard and vice versa.
- 134. Pay and allowances when on active duty.

§ 131. Repealed. June 15, 1933, ch. 87, 48 Stat. 159.

Section. acts June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 78, 39 Stat. 202; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 42, 41 Stat. 782, related to establishment and organization of National Guard Reserve.

§ 132. Enlistments in inactive National Guard.

Men duly qualified for enlistment in the active National Guard may enlist for one term only in the inactive National Guard and in the National Guard of the United States for a period of one or three years, under such regulations as the Secretary of War shall prescribe, and on so enlisting they shall sign an enlistment contract and subscribe to the oath or affirmation in section 123 of this title. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 78, 39 Stat. 202; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 42, 41 Stat. 782; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 2, 43 Stat. 1076; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 15, 48 Stat. 159.)

§ 133. Transfer from active to inactive National Guard and vice versa.

Under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, enlisted men of the active National Guard, not formerly enlisted in the inactive National Guard or the National Guard of the United States, may be transferred to the inactive National Guard; likewise enlisted men hereafter enlisted in or transferred to the inactive National Guard may be transferred to the active National Guard: Provided, That in time of peace no enlisted man shall be required to serve under any enlistment for a longer time than the period for which he enlisted in the active or inactive National Guard, as the case may be. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 78, 39 Stat. 202; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 42, 41 Stat. 782; Feb.

28, 1925, ch. 371, § 2, 43 Stat. 1076; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 15, 48 Stat. 159.)

§ 134. Pay and allowances when on active duty.

Members of said inactive National Guard, when engaged in field or coast-defense training with the active National Guard, shall receive the same Federal pay and allowances as those occupying like grades on the active list of said National Guard when likewise engaged. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 78, 39 Stat. 202; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 42, 41 Stat. 782; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 2, 43 Stat. 1076; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 15, 48 Stat. 159.)

Section was "repealed and reenacted to read as follows" by act Oct. 14, 1940, cited to text.

CROSS REFERENCE

Armory drill pay to be computed on fiscal year basis instead of calendar year, see section 143a of this title.

§ 143a. Armory drill pay; basis of computation.

Armory drill pay shall be computed upon a fiscal year basis instead of calendar year. (Apr. 15, 1926, ch. 146, title I, 44 Stat. 282.)

§ 144. Pay and allowances for attending encampments, etc., for field or coast-defense instruction.

The officers and enlisted men of the National Guard while engaged in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field or coast-defense instruction, shall be entitled to the same pay, subsistence, and transportation as officers and enlisted men of corresponding grades of the Regular Army are or may be entitled by law. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 94, 39 Stat. 206.)

§ 145. Pay and allowances for attending instruction assemblages.

Officers and warrant officers of the National Guard attending assemblages provided for in section 64 of this title shall be entitled to pay, allowances, and transportation, and enlisted men to pay, transportation, and subsistence at the same rates as for encampments or maneuvers for field or coast-defense instruction. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 97, 39 Stat. 207; May 28, 1926, ch. 417, § 2, 44 Stat. 674.)

§ 146. Pay and allowances for attendance at service schools.

When any National Guard officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man is selected to attend and pursue a regular course of study at any military service school of the United States, except the United States Military Academy, or to be attached to an organization of the same arm, corps, or department to which such officer or enlisted man shall belong, for routine practical instruction at or near an Army post during a period of field training or other outdoor exercises, as provided for in section 65 of this title, such officer, or warrant officer, shall receive out of any National Guard allotment of funds available for the purpose, the pay and allowances provided in sections 1-3, 4-8, 9, 10, 11-20, 21, 22-26, 27-29, 30, 31 of Title 37, for officers and warrant officers of the National Guard when authorized by law to receive Federal pay and the travel allowances provided in section 20 of Title 37, and any such enlisted man shall receive therefrom, except as otherwise provided in section 23 of Title 37, the same pay and allowances, including allowances for quarters, subsistence, and travel to which an enlisted man of the Regular Army of like grade would be entitled for attending such school, college, or practical course of instruction under orders from proper military authority, while in actual attendance at such school, college, or practical course of instruction, and for the necessary period of travel from and to his home station: Provided, That all pay and allowances accruing to any officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man, including that for the period of travel to home stations, may be paid prior to departure from the post or other place at which such service is performed. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 99, 39 Stat. 207; Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 423, § 5, 42 Stat. 1035; May 28, 1926, ch. 417, § 3, 44 Stat. 674.)

§ 147. Pay and allowances for duty with Regular Army.

Section, act June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 81, 39 Stat. 203; act June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 44, 41 Stat. 782; act Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 423, § 4, 42 Stat. 1034; act Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077, provided National Guard officers assigned to duty with the Regular Army should receive the pay and allowances authorized in section 175 of this title.

§ 148. Administrative function pay of officers.

In addition to pay provided in section 143 of this title officers commanding organizations less than a brigade and having administrative functions connected therewith shall, whether or not such officers belong to such organizations, receive not more than $240 a year for the faithful performance of such administrative functions under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe; and for the purpose of determining how much shall be paid to such officers so performing such functions, the Secretary of War may, from time to time, divide them into classes and fix the amount payable to the officers in each class. Pay under the provisions of this section shall not accrue to any officer during a period when he shall be entitled under any provision of law to the full rate of his base pay prescribed in section 7 of Title 37. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 109, 39 Stat. 209; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 47, 41 Stat. 783; June 3, 1924, ch. 244, § 3, 43 Stat. 364; Oct. 14, 1940, ch. 875, § 3, 54 Stat. 1136.)

AMENDMENT

Section was "repealed and reenacted to read as follows" by act Oct. 14, 1940, cited to text.

§ 149. Pay of warrant officers; further provisions.

See section 23 of Title 37, Pay and Allowances.

§ 150. Additional pay for flying duty; travel allowance.

See section 29 of Title 37, Pay and Allowances.

§ 151. Quarters and subsistence for officers and warrant officers during instruction and training.

See section 23 of Title 37, Pay and Allowances.

§ 152. Armory drill pay of enlisted men of sixth and seventh grades.

See section 23 of Title 37, Pay and Allowances.

§ 153. Pay of specialist rating in sixth and seventh grades.

Enlisted men of the sixth and seventh grades of the National Guard holding specialists' ratings under the provisions of section 605 of Title 10, shall, in addition to the pay provided in section 23 of Title 37, be entitled to one-thirtieth of the specialists' pay provided in section 13 of Title 37 for each day of participation in exercises provided for by sections 63, 64, and 65 of this title: Provided, That payments made prior to June 3, 1924, to enlisted men of the sixth and seventh grades of the National Guard holding specialists' ratings of one-thirtieth of the specialists' pay provided in said section 13 of Title 37 for each day spent in participating in exercises or performing the duties provided for by sections 63, 64, 65, and 154 of this title are hereby validated. (June 3, 1924, ch. 244, § 6, 43 Stat. 365.)

§ 154. Pay of enlisted men of grades other than sixth and seventh.

Each enlisted man belonging to an organization of the National Guard, other than enlisted men of the sixth and seventh grades, shall receive compensation at the rate of one-thirtieth of the initial monthly pay of his grade in the Regular Army, and each of those of the sixth and seventh grades shall receive compensation as is provided in section 23 of Title 37, for each drill ordered for his organization where he is officially present and in which he participates for not less than one and one-half hours, not exceeding eight in any one calendar month and not exceeding sixty drills in one year: Provided, That the proviso contained in section 62 of this title shall not operate to prevent the payment of enlisted men actually present at any duly ordered drill or other exercise: Provided further, That periods of any actual military duty equivalent to the drills herein prescribed (except those periods of service provided for in sections 63, 64, 65, and 82 of this title, as amended) may be accepted as service in lieu of such drills when so provided by the Secretary of War: And provided further, That any enlisted man shall, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, receive compensation under the provisions of this section for any drill had in accordance with such provisions where he is officially present and in which he participates for not less than one and one-half hours with a National Guard organization within the same State at a station other than his own, upon presentation of a certificate in form prescribed in said regulations from the organization commander to the commanding officer of the organization of which he is a member showing such drill participation.

All amounts appropriated for the purpose of this section and sections 143 and 148 of this title shall be disbursed and accounted for by the officers and agents of the Finance Department of the Army, and effective as soon as practicable after July 1, 1928, all disbursements under the foregoing provisions of this section shall be made for such three-months' periods for the various units of the National Guard as shall be prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary of War and on pay rolls prepared and authenticated in the manner prescribed in said regulations: Provided, That for the period necessary to put into operation the payment plan herein provided for, the Secretary of War is authorized to fix initial pay periods of less than three months for such number of units as he may deem necessary: And provided further, That stoppages may be made against the compensation payable to any officer or enlisted man hereunder to cover the cost of public property lost or destroyed by, and chargeable to, such officer or enlisted man.

Except as otherwise specifically provided herein no money appropriated under the provisions of this section or sections 143, 148 of this title shall be paid to any person not on the active list, nor to any person over sixty-four years of age, nor to any person who shall fail to qualify as to fitness for military service under such regulations as the Secretary of War shall prescribe. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 110, 39 Stat. 209; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 48, 41 Stat. 784; Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 423, § 6, 42 Stat. 1035; June 6, 1924, ch. 275, § 7, 43 Stat. 471; Apr. 6, 1928, ch. 322, 45 Stat. 407; May 12, 1928, ch. 529, 45 Stat. 500.)

§ 155. Payment of men enlisted by State authorities.

Section, act Aug. 29, 1916, ch. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 624, related to appropriations made for the fiscal year 1917 and prior thereto and is considered executed by the Judge Advocate General's Division. See J. A. G. 0103, December 12, 1929, p. 28.

§ 156. Uniforms, accouterments, and equipment furnished to officers at cost.

Sections 904 and 1106 of Title 10 shall also apply to the purchase of uniforms, accouterments, and equipment for cash by officers of the active and inactive National Guard, whether in State or Federal service, on proper identification and under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 109, 39 Stat. 209; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 47, 41 Stat. 783; June 3, 1924, ch. 244, § 3, 43 Stat. 364; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 15, 48 Stat. 159; Oct. 14, 1940, ch. 875, § 3, 54 Stat. 1136.)

AMENDMENT

Section was "repealed and reenacted to read as follows" by act Oct. 14, 1940, cited to text.

§ 157. Pay and allowances of militia called into actual service.

The militia, when called into the actual service of the United States shall, during their time of service, be entitled to the same pay and allowances as are or may be provided by law for the Regular Army. When the militia is called into the actual service of the United States, or any portion of the militia is called forth under the provisions of section 81a of this title, their pay shall commence from the day of their appearing at the place of company rendezvous, but this provision shall not be construed to authorize any species of expenditure previous to arriving at such places of rendezvous which is not provided by existing laws to be paid after their arrival at such places of rendezvous. (Jan. 21, 1903, ch. 196, §§ 10, 11, 32 Stat. 776; May 27, 1908, ch. 204, § 7, 35 Stat. 401.)

§ 158. Time of payment for attending encampments, etc.

When any portion of the National Guard shall participate in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field or coast-defense instruction, under the provisions of this title, it may, after being duly mustered, be paid at any time after such muster for the period from the date of leaving the home rendezvous to date of return thereto as determined in advance, both dates inclusive; and such payment, if otherwise correct, shall pass to the credit of the disbursing officer making the same. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 98, 39 Stat. 207.)

§ 159. Payment of arrears.

Members of the National Guard who have or shall become entitled for a continuous period of less than one month to Federal pay at the rates fixed for the Regular Army, whether by virtue of a call by the President, of attendance at school or maneuver, or of any other cause, and whose accounts have not yet been settled, shall receive such pay for each day of such period, and the thirty-first day of a calendar month shall not be excluded from the computation. Such payments may include the entire amount lawfully accruing to such officers as pay, allowances, and mileage on account of such service, and, including pay and mileage for their return home, may be paid to the officers during said period and prior to their departure from the camp or other place at which such service is performed. (June 30, 1922, ch. 253, title I, 42 Stat. 749; Sept. 14, 1922, ch. 307, § 3, 42 Stat. 841; Mar. 4, 1923, ch. 281, § 3, 42 Stat. 1508; May 11, 1926, ch. 288, 44 Stat. 531.)

Sec.

- 171. National Guard Bureau; creation.
- 172. Appointment and term of office of Chief of Bureau; rank, pay, and allowances; retirement.
- 173. Vacancy in office of chief or disability of incumbent; acting chief.
- 174. Assignment of officers of Regular Army to National Guard Bureau.
- 175. Assignment of National Guard officers to National Guard Bureau; pay and allowances.
- 176. Fund for payment of Chief of the National Guard Bureau, etc.

§ 171. National Guard Bureau; creation.

The Militia Bureau of the War Department shall hereafter be known as the National Guard Bureau. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 81, 39 Stat. 203; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 44, 41 Stat. 782; Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 423, § 4, 42 Stat. 1934; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1076; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 16, 48 Stat. 159.)

§ 172. Appointment and term of office of chief of Bureau; rank, pay, and allowances; retirement.

The Chief of the National Guard Bureau shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, by selection from lists of officers of the National Guard of the United States recommended as suitable for such appointment by their respective governors, and who have had ten or more years' commissioned service in the active National Guard, at least five of which have been in the line, and who have attained at least the grade of colonel. The Chief of the National Guard Bureau shall hold office for four years unless sooner removed for cause, and shall be eligible to succeed himself, and when sixty-four years of age shall cease to hold such office. Upon accepting his office, the Chief of the National Guard Bureau shall be appointed a major general in the National Guard of the United States, and commissioned in the Army of the United States, and while so serving he shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a major general, provided by law, but shall not be entitled to retirement or retired pay. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 81, 39 Stat. 203; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. § 173. Vacancy in office of chief or disability of incumbent; acting chief.

In case the office of the Chief of the National Guard Bureau becomes vacant or the incumbent because of disability is unable to discharge the powers and duties of the office, the senior officer on duty in the National Guard Bureau, appointed from the National Guard of the United States, shall act as chief of said bureau until the incumbent is able to resume his duties or the vacancy in the office is regularly filled. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 81, 39 Stat. 203; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 44, 41 Stat. 782; Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 423, § 4, 42 Stat. 1034; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 16, 48 Stat. 160.)

§ 174. Assignment of officers of Regular Army to National Guard Bureau.

For duty in the National Guard Bureau the President shall assign such number of officers of the Regular Army as he may deem necessary. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 81, 39 Stat. 203; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 44, 41 Stat. 782; Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 423, § 4, 42 Stat. 1034; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 16, 48 Stat. 160.)

§ 175. Assignment of National Guard officers to National Guard Bureau; pay and allowances.

The President may order, with their consent, to active duty in the National Guard Bureau, not more than four officers who at the time of their initial assignments hold appointments in the National Guard of the United States, and any such officers while so assigned shall receive the pay and allowances provided by law. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 81, 39 Stat. 203; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 44, 41 Stat. 782; Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 423, § 4, 42 Stat. 1034; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 16, 48 Stat. 160.)

§ 176. Fund for payment of Chief of the National Guard Bureau, etc.

The pay and allowances provided in sections 147, 172, and 175 of this title, for the Chief of the National Guard Bureau and for the officers ordered to active duty from the National Guard of the United States shall be paid out of the funds appropriated for the pay of the National Guard. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 81, 39 Stat. 203; June 4, 1920, ch. 227, subch. I, § 44, 41 Stat. 782; Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 423, § 4, 42 Stat. 1034; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 16, 48 Stat. 160.)

Chapter 12.—RIFLE INSTRUCTION AND PRACTICE FOR CIVILIANS

Sec.

- 181. Rifle ranges and equipment for instruction and practice.
- 181a. Promotion of rifle practice; national matches; small-arms firing school.
- 181b. Same; rifle and pistol matches open to Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, National Guard, Militia, civilians, etc.; expenses; appropriation.
- 181c. Same; further expenses; appropriation.
- 182. Director of civilian marksmanship.
- 183. Detail of officers and enlisted men for duty at rifle ranges.
- 184. Detail of enlisted men to instruct rifle clubs.
- 185. Commutation of travelling expenses to members of civilian rifle teams.
- 186. Recommendations to Congress respecting rifle ranges.

§ 181. Rifle ranges and equipment for instruction and practice.

The Secretary of War shall, within the limits of appropriations made from time to time by Congress and in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations approved by him upon the recommendation of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, authorize and provide for—

(a) Construction, equipment, maintenance, and operation of indoor and outdoor rifle ranges and their accessories and appliances;

(b) Instruction of able-bodied citizens of the United States in marksmanship and, in connection therewith, the employment of necessary instructors;

(c) Promotion of practice in the use of rifled arms, the maintenance and management of matches or competitions in the use of such arms, and the issuance in connection therewith of the necessary arms, ammunition, targets, and other necessary supplies and appliances, and the award to competitors of trophies, prizes, badges, and other insignia;

(d) Sale to members of the National Rifle Association, at cost to the Government, and issue to clubs organized, for practice with rifled arms, under the direction of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, of arms, ammunition, targets, and other supplies and appliances necessary for target practice;

(e) Maintenance of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, including provision for the necessary expenses thereof and of its members;

(f) Procurement of necessary materials, supplies, appliances, trophies, prizes, badges, and other insignia, clerical and other services, and labor;

(g) Transportation of employees, instructors, and civilians to give or undergo instruction or to assist or engage in practice in the use of rifled arms, and the transportation and subsistence, or commutations in lieu of subsistence, of members of teams especially authorized by the Secretary of War to participate in matches or competitions in the use of rifled arms, making a full report of all things done hereunder annually to Congress. (June 7, 1924, ch. 291, title I, 43 Stat. 510.)

§ 181a. Promotion of rifle practice; national matches; small-arms firing school.

There shall be held an annual competition, known as the national matches, for the purpose of competing for a national trophy, medals, and other prizes to be provided, together with a small-arms firing school, which competition and school shall be held annually under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (Feb. 14, 1927, ch. 130, 44 Stat. 1095; May 28, 1928, ch. 816, § 1, 45 Stat. 786.)

§ 181b. Same; rifle and pistol matches open to Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, National Guard, Militia, civilians, etc.; expenses; appropriation.

The national matches contemplated in section 181a of this title shall consist of rifle and pistol matches for the national trophy, medals, and other prizes mentioned in said section, to be open to the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, National Guard, or Organized Militia of the several States, Territories, and District of Columbia, the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, and the citizens' military training camps, rifle clubs, and civilians, together with a small-arms firing school to be connected therewith and competitions for which trophies and medals are provided by the National Rifle Association of America; and for the cost and expenditures required for and incident to the conduct of the same, including the personal expenses of the members of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, the sum necessary for the above-named purposes is hereby authorized to be appropriated annually as a part of the total sum appropriated for national defense: Provided, That no competitor shall be entitled to commutation of rations in excess of $1.50 per day, and when meals are furnished no greater expenses than that sum per man per day for the period the contest is in progress: Provided further, That in lieu of traveling expenses and commutation of rations while traveling the sum of 5 cents per mile may be paid to civilian competitors, and such travel pay for the return trip may be paid in advance of the performance of the travel. (May 28, 1928, ch. 816, § 2, 45 Stat. 786; Apr. 11, 1936, ch. 207, 49 Stat. 1202.)

§ 181c. Same; further expenses; appropriation.

For the incidental expenses of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, including books, pamphlets, badges, trophies, prizes, and medals to be expended for such purposes, the sum of not more than $7,500 is hereby authorized to be appropriated annually. (May 28, 1928, ch. 816, § 3, 45 Stat. 786.)

§ 182. Director of civilian marksmanship.

The President is authorized, in his discretion, to appoint, as director of civilian marksmanship, under the direction of the Secretary of War, an officer of the Army or of the Marine Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, ch. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 648.)

§ 183. Detail of officers and enlisted men for duty at rifle ranges.

The President may detail capable officers and non-commissioned officers of the Regular Army and National Guard to duty at rifle ranges as instructors for the purpose of training the citizenry in the use of the military arm. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 113, 39 Stat. 211.)

§ 184. Detail of enlisted men to instruct rifle clubs.

The Secretary of War, in his discretion, and under such regulations as he may prescribe, may authorize the detail of enlisted men of the Army as temporary instructors in rifle practice to organized rifle clubs requesting such instruction. (May 12, 1917, ch. 12, 40 Stat. 64.)

§ 185. Commutation of traveling expenses to members of civilian rifle teams.

Provisions of this section, act June 5, 1920, ch. 240, 41 Stat. 966, are now covered by section 181b of this title.

§ 186. Recommendations to Congress respecting rifle ranges.

The Secretary of War shall annually submit to Congress recommendations and estimates for the establishment and maintenance of indoor and outdoor rifle ranges, under such a comprehensive plan as will ultimately result in providing adequate facilities for rifle practice in all sections of the country. And that all ranges so established and all ranges which have already been constructed, in whole or in part, with funds provided by Congress shall be open for use by those in any branch of the military or naval service of the United States and by all able-bodied males capable of bearing arms, under reasonable regulations to be prescribed by the controlling authorities and approved by the Secretary of War. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 113, 39 Stat. 211.)

Chapter 13.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Sec.

191. Preservation of names, numbers, flags, etc., of units serving in World War.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Regulations by Secretary of War for navigation of waters generally.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to prescribe such regulations for the use, administration, and navigation of the navigable waters of the United States as in his judgment the public necessity may require for the protection of life and property, or of operations of the United States in channel improvement, covering all matters not specifically delegated by law to some other executive department. Such regulations shall be posted, in conspicuous and appropriate places, for the information of the public; and every person and every corporation which shall violate such regulations shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof in any district court of the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) not exceeding six months, in the discretion of the court.

Any regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War in pursuance of this section may be enforced as provided in section 413 of this title, the provisions whereof are hereby made applicable to the said regulations. (Aug. 18, 1894, ch. 299, § 4, 28 Stat. 362; June 13, 1902, ch. 1079, §§ 6, 11, 32 Stat. 374; Aug. 8, 1917, ch. 49, § 7, 40 Stat. 266.)

§ 2. Regulations for navigation of South and Southwest Passes of Mississippi River; penalties.

The Secretary of War is authorized to make such rules and regulations for the navigation of the South and Southwest Passes of the Mississippi River as to him shall seem necessary or expedient for the purpose of preventing any obstruction to the channels through said South and Southwest Passes and any injury to the works therein constructed. The term "South and Southwest Passes", as employed in this section, shall be construed as embracing the entire extent of channel in each case, between the upper ends of the works at the head of the pass and the outer or sea ends of the jetties at the entrance from the Gulf of Mexico; and any willful violation of any rule or regulation made by the Secretary of War in pursuance of this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor, for which the owner or owners, agent or agents, master or pilot of the vessel so offending shall be separately or collectively responsible, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100, nor exceeding $500, or by imprisonment for not exceeding three months, or by both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court. (Mar. 3, 1909, ch. 264, § 5, 35 Stat. 818.)

§ 3. Regulations to prevent injuries from target practice.

Authority to adopt regulations.—In the interest of the national defense, and for the better protection of life and property on the navigable waters of the United States, the Secretary of War is authorized and empowered to prescribe such regulations as he may deem best for the use and navigation of any portion or area of the navigable waters of the United States or waters under the jurisdiction of the United States endangered or likely to be endangered by Coast Artillery fire in target practice or otherwise, or by the proving operations of the Government ordnance proving grounds at Sandy Hook, New Jersey, or at any Government ordnance proving ground that may be established elsewhere on or near such waters, and of any portion or area of said waters occupied by submarine mines, mine fields, submarine cables, or other material and accessories pertaining to sea-coast fortifications, or by any plant or facility engaged in the execution of any public project of river and harbor improvement; and the said Secretary shall have like power to regulate the transportation of explosives upon any of said waters: Provided, That the authority hereby conferred shall be so exercised as not unreasonably to interfere with or restrict the food fishing industry, and the regulations prescribed in pursuance hereof shall provide for the use of such waters by food fishermen operating under permits granted by the War Department.

Detail of vessels to enforce regulations.—To enforce the regulations prescribed pursuant to this section, the Secretary of War may detail any public vessel in the service of the War Department, or, upon the request of the Secretary of War, the head of any other department may enforce, and the head of any such department is hereby authorized to enforce, such regulations by means of any public vessel of such department.

Posting and violation of regulations.—The regulations made by the Secretary of War pursuant to this section shall be posted in conspicuous and appropriate places, designated by him, for the information of the public; and every person who and every corporation which shall willfully violate any regulations made by the said Secretary pursuant to this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) not exceeding six months, in the discretion of the court.

Venue and jurisdiction of offenses; procedure.—Offenses against the provisions of this section, or any regulation made pursuant thereto, committed in any Territory or other place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States where there is no court having general jurisdiction of crimes against the United States, shall be cognizable in any court of such place or Territory having original jurisdiction of criminal cases in the place or Territory in which the offense has been committed, with the same right of appeal in all cases as is given in other criminal cases where imprisonment not exceeding six months forms a part of the penalty, and jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon such courts and such courts shall exercise the same for such purposes; and in case any such offense be committed beyond the territorial jurisdiction of any court having jurisdiction thereof, the offense shall be deemed and held to have been committed within the jurisdiction in which the offender may be found or into which he is first brought, and shall be tried by the court having jurisdiction thereof. (July 9, 1918, ch. 143, subch. XIX, §§ 1-4, 40 Stat. 892, 893.)

§ 4. Water gauges on Mississippi River and tributaries.

The Secretary of War is hereby authorized and directed to have water gauges established, and daily observations made of the rise and fall of the Mississippi River and its tributaries.

For the purpose of securing the uninterrupted gauging of the waters of the Mississippi River and its tributaries, as provided for in this section, upon the application of the Chief of Engineers, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to draw his warrant or requisition, from time to time, upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sums as may be necessary to do such work, not to exceed in the aggregate for each year the sum of $9,600: Provided, however, That an itemized statement of said expenses shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers. § 53. Benton Harbor Canal, Michigan.

The Benton Harbor Canal at and above the west line of Ninth Street, in the city of Benton Harbor and State of Michigan, is hereby declared to be not a navigable water of the United States within the meaning of the Constitution and laws of the United States. The right to alter, amend, or repeal this section is hereby expressly reserved. (June 2, 1937, ch. 288, §§ 1-3, 50 Stat. 243.)

§ 54. Burr Creek, Bridgeport, Connecticut.

That portion of Burr Creek in the city of Bridgeport, Connecticut, lying north of a line across the creek beginning at the point of intersection of the south side of Yacht Street extended and the west harbor line of the harbor lines established by the Secretary of War December 9, 1924, thence south eighty-five degrees forty-six minutes seventeen seconds east to the east harbor line of said creek, is hereby declared to be not a navigable water of the United States within the meaning of the Constitution and laws of the United States.

Any project heretofore authorized by any Act of Congress, insofar as such project relates to the above described portion of Burr Creek in the city of Bridgeport, Connecticut, is hereby abandoned.

The right to alter, amend, or repeal this section is hereby expressly reserved. (Aug. 12, 1937, ch. 607, §§ 1-3, 50 Stat. 632.)

§ 55. Bayou Savage (or Chantilly) in New Orleans.

Bayou Savage, also styled Bayou Chantilly, in the city of New Orleans, Louisiana, is hereby declared to be a nonnavigable waterway within the meaning of the Constitution and laws of the United States.

The right to alter, amend, or repeal this section is hereby expressly reserved. (Aug. 16, 1937, ch. 650, §§ 1, 2, 50 Stat. 649.)

PRELIMINARY

- § 61. Adoption of rules for navigation on high seas.

The following regulations for preventing collisions at sea shall be followed by all public and private vessels of the United States upon the high seas and in all waters connected therewith, navigable by sea-going vessels: Provided, That such regulations shall not apply to the harbors, rivers and inland waters of the United States, nor to the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal, nor to the Red River of the North and rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico and their tributaries, in so far as special rules are adopted in pursuance of article 30. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 320; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, 28 Stat. 672; June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 96.)

- § 62. "Sailing vessel," "steam vessel," and "under way" defined.

In the following rules every steam vessel which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a sailing vessel, and every vessel under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a steam vessel.

The word "steam vessel" shall include any vessel propelled by machinery.

A vessel is "under way" within the meaning of these rules when she is not at anchor, or made fast to the shore, or aground. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 320.)

- § 63. "Visible" as applied to lights defined.

The word "visible" in these rules when applied to lights shall mean visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 321.)

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS, ETC.

- § 71. Time for lights; prescribed lights exclusive (article 1).

The rules concerning lights shall be complied with in all weathers from sunset to sunrise, and during such time no other lights which may be mistaken for the prescribed lights shall be exhibited. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 321.)

- § 72. Lights of steam vessel under way (article 2).

A steam vessel when under way shall carry—(a) On or in front of the foremast, or if a vessel without a foremast, then in the fore part of the vessel, at a height above the hull of not less than twenty feet, and if the breadth of the vessel exceeds twenty feet, then at a height above the hull not less than such breadth, so, however, that the light need not be carried at a greater height above the hull than forty feet, a bright white light, so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel, namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least five miles.

(b) On the starboard side a green light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(c) On the port side a red light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(d) The said green and red side lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

(e) A steam vessel when under way may carry an additional white light similar in construction to the light mentioned in subdivision (a). These two lights shall be so placed in line with the keel that one shall be at least fifteen feet higher than the other, and in such a position with reference to each other that the lower light shall be forward of the upper one. The vertical distance between these lights shall be less than the horizontal distance. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 321.)

§ 73. Lights of vessel towing another vessel or vessels (article 3).

A steam vessel when towing another vessel shall, in addition to her side lights, carry two bright white lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, and when towing more than one vessel shall carry an additional bright white light six feet above or below such light, if the length of the tow measuring from the stern of the towing vessel to the stern of the last vessel towed exceeds six hundred feet. Each of these lights shall be of the same construction and character, and shall be carried in the same position as the white light mentioned in article 2 (a) of this chapter, excepting the additional light, which may be carried at a height of not less than fourteen feet above the hull.

Such steam vessel may carry a small white light abaft the funnel or aftermast for the vessel towed to steer by, but such light shall not be visible forward of the beam. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 321.)

§ 74. Lights and day signals of vessel not under control and of telegraph cable vessel (article 4).

(a) A vessel which from any accident is not under command shall carry at the same height as a white light mentioned in article 2 (a) of this chapter, where they can best be seen, and if a steam vessel in lieu of that light, two red lights, in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, and of such a character as to be visible all around the horizon at a distance of at least two miles; and shall by day carry in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, where they can best be seen, two black balls or shapes, each two feet in diameter.

(b) A vessel employed in laying or in picking up a telegraph cable shall carry in the same position as the white light mentioned in article 2 (a) of this chapter, and if a steam vessel in lieu of that light, three lights in a vertical line one over the other not less than six feet apart. The highest and lowest of these lights shall be red, and the middle light shall be white, and they shall be of such a character as to be visible all around the horizon, at a distance of at least two miles. By day she shall carry in a vertical line, one over the other, not less than six feet apart, where they can best be seen, three shapes not less than two feet in diameter, of which the highest and lowest shall be globular in shape and red in color, and the middle one diamond in shape and white.

(c) The vessels referred to in this article, when not making way through the water, shall not carry the side lights, but when making way shall carry them.

(d) The lights and shapes required to be shown by this article are to be taken by other vessels as signals that the vessel showing them is not under command and cannot therefore get out of the way.

These signals are not signals of vessels in distress and requiring assistance. Such signals are contained in article 31 of this chapter. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 322.)

§ 75. Lights of sailing vessel under way and of vessel in tow (article 5).

A sailing vessel under way and any vessel being towed shall carry the same lights as are prescribed by article 2 of this chapter for a steam vessel under way, with the exception of the white lights mentioned therein, which they shall never carry. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 322.)

§ 76. Lights of small vessel under way in bad weather (article 6).

Whenever, as in the case of small vessels under way during bad weather, the green and red side lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept at hand, lighted and ready for use; and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side, nor, if practicable, more than two points abaft the beam on their respective sides.

To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the color of the light they respectively contain and shall be provided with proper screens. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 322.)

§ 77. Substitute lights for small vessel and rowing boats (article 7).

Steam vessels of less than forty, and vessels under oars or sails of less than twenty tons gross tonnage, respectively, and rowing boats, when under way, shall not be required to carry the lights mentioned in article 2 (a), (b), and (c) of this chapter, but if they do not carry them they shall be provided with the following lights:

First, Steam vessels of less than forty tons shall carry—

(a) In the fore part of the vessel, or on or in front of the funnel, where it can best be seen, and at a height above the gunwale of not less than nine feet, a bright white light constructed and fixed as prescribed in article 2 (a) of this chapter, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(b) Green and red side lights constructed and fixed as prescribed in article 2 (b) and (c) of this chapter, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least one mile, or a combined lantern

PRELIMINARY

- § 61. Adoption of rules for navigation on high seas.

The following regulations for preventing collisions at sea shall be followed by all public and private vessels of the United States upon the high seas and in all waters connected therewith, navigable by sea-going vessels: Provided, That such regulations shall not apply to the harbors, rivers and inland waters of the United States, nor to the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal, nor to the Red River of the North and rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico and their tributaries, in so far as special rules are adopted in pursuance of article 30. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 320; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, 28 Stat. 672; June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 96.)

- § 62. "Sailing vessel," "steam vessel," and "under way" defined.

In the following rules every steam vessel which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a sailing vessel, and every vessel under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a steam vessel.

The word "steam vessel" shall include any vessel propelled by machinery.

A vessel is "under way" within the meaning of these rules when she is not at anchor, or made fast to the shore, or aground. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 320.)

- § 63. "Visible" as applied to lights defined.

The word "visible" in these rules when applied to lights shall mean visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 321.)

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS, ETC.

- § 71. Time for lights; prescribed lights exclusive (article 1).

The rules concerning lights shall be complied with in all weathers from sunset to sunrise, and during such time no other lights which may be mistaken for the prescribed lights shall be exhibited. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 321.)

- § 72. Lights of steam vessel under way (article 2).

A steam vessel when under way shall carry—(a) On or in front of the foremast, or if a vessel without a foremast, then in the fore part of the vessel, at a height above the hull of not less than twenty feet, and if the breadth of the vessel exceeds twenty feet, then at a height above the hull not less than such breadth, so, however, that the light need not be carried at a greater height above the hull than forty feet, a bright white light, so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel, namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least five miles.

(b) On the starboard side a green light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(c) On the port side a red light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(d) The said green and red side lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

(e) A steam vessel when under way may carry an additional white light similar in construction to the light mentioned in subdivision (a). These two lights shall be so placed in line with the keel that one shall be at least fifteen feet higher than the other, and in such a position with reference to each other that the lower light shall be forward of the upper one. The vertical distance between these lights shall be less than the horizontal distance. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 321.)

§ 73. Lights of vessel towing another vessel or vessels (article 3).

A steam vessel when towing another vessel shall, in addition to her side lights, carry two bright white lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, and when towing more than one vessel shall carry an additional bright white light six feet above or below such light, if the length of the tow measuring from the stern of the towing vessel to the stern of the last vessel towed exceeds six hundred feet. Each of these lights shall be of the same construction and character, and shall be carried in the same position as the white light mentioned in article 2 (a) of this chapter, excepting the additional light, which may be carried at a height of not less than fourteen feet above the hull.

Such steam vessel may carry a small white light abaft the funnel or aftermast for the vessel towed to steer by, but such light shall not be visible forward of the beam. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 321.)

§ 74. Lights and day signals of vessel not under control and of telegraph cable vessel (article 4).

(a) A vessel which from any accident is not under command shall carry at the same height as a white light mentioned in article 2 (a) of this chapter, where they can best be seen, and if a steam vessel in lieu of that light, two red lights, in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, and of such a character as to be visible all around the horizon at a distance of at least two miles; and shall by day carry in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, where they can best be seen, two black balls or shapes, each two feet in diameter.

(b) A vessel employed in laying or in picking up a telegraph cable shall carry in the same position as the white light mentioned in article 2 (a) of this chapter, and if a steam vessel in lieu of that light, three lights in a vertical line one over the other not less than six feet apart. The highest and lowest of these lights shall be red, and the middle light shall be white, and they shall be of such a character as to be visible all around the horizon, at a distance of at least two miles. By day she shall carry in a vertical line, one over the other, not less than six feet apart, where they can best be seen, three shapes not less than two feet in diameter, of which the highest and lowest shall be globular in shape and red in color, and the middle one diamond in shape and white.

(c) The vessels referred to in this article, when not making way through the water, shall not carry the side lights, but when making way shall carry them.

(d) The lights and shapes required to be shown by this article are to be taken by other vessels as signals that the vessel showing them is not under command and cannot therefore get out of the way.

These signals are not signals of vessels in distress and requiring assistance. Such signals are contained in article 31 of this chapter. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 322.)

§ 75. Lights of sailing vessel under way and of vessel in tow (article 5).

A sailing vessel under way and any vessel being towed shall carry the same lights as are prescribed by article 2 of this chapter for a steam vessel under way, with the exception of the white lights mentioned therein, which they shall never carry. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 322.)

§ 76. Lights of small vessel under way in bad weather (article 6).

Whenever, as in the case of small vessels under way during bad weather, the green and red side lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept at hand, lighted and ready for use; and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side, nor, if practicable, more than two points abaft the beam on their respective sides.

To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the color of the light they respectively contain and shall be provided with proper screens. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 322.)

§ 77. Substitute lights for small vessel and rowing boats (article 7).

Steam vessels of less than forty, and vessels under oars or sails of less than twenty tons gross tonnage, respectively, and rowing boats, when under way, shall not be required to carry the lights mentioned in article 2 (a), (b), and (c) of this chapter, but if they do not carry them they shall be provided with the following lights:

First. Steam vessels of less than forty tons shall carry—

(a) In the fore part of the vessel, or on or in front of the funnel, where it can best be seen, and at a height above the gunwale of not less than nine feet, a bright white light constructed and fixed as prescribed in article 2 (a) of this chapter, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(b) Green and red side lights constructed and fixed as prescribed in article 2 (b) and (c) of this chapter, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least one mile, or a combined lantern showing a green light and a red light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on their respective sides. Such lanterns shall be carried not less than three feet below the white light.

Second. Small steamboats, such as are carried by seagoing vessels, may carry the white light at a less height than nine feet above the gunwale, but it shall be carried above the combined lantern mentioned in subdivision 1 (b).

Third. Vessels under oars or sails of less than twenty tons shall have ready at hand a lantern with a green glass on one side and a red glass on the other, which, on the approach of or to other vessels, shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

Fourth. Rowing boats, whether under oars or sail, shall have ready at hand a lantern showing a white light which shall be temporarily exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision.

The vessels referred to in this article shall not be obliged to carry the lights prescribed by article 4 (a) of this chapter and article 11, of this chapter, last paragraph. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 322; May 28, 1894, ch. 83, 28 Stat. 82.)

§ 78. Lights of pilot vessel on and off duty; steam pilot vessel (article 8).

Pilot vessels when engaged on their station on pilotage duty shall not show the lights required for other vessels, but shall carry a white light at the masthead, visible all around the horizon, and shall also exhibit a flare-up light or flare-up lights at short intervals, which shall never exceed fifteen minutes.

On the near approach of or to other vessels they shall have their side lights lighted, ready for use, and shall flash or show them at short intervals, to indicate the direction in which they are heading, but the green light shall not be shown on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side.

A pilot vessel of such a class as to be obliged to go alongside of a vessel to put a pilot on board may show the white light instead of carrying it at the masthead, and may, instead of the colored lights above mentioned, have at hand, ready for use, a lantern with a green glass on the one side and a red glass on the other, to be used as prescribed above.

Pilot vessels when not engaged on their station on pilotage duty shall carry lights similar to those of other vessels of their tonnage.

A steam pilot vessel, when engaged on her station on pilotage duty and in waters of the United States, and not at anchor, shall, in addition to the lights required for all pilot boats, carry at a distance of eight feet below her white masthead light a red light, visible all around the horizon and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least two miles, and also the colored side lights required to be carried by vessels when under way.

When engaged on her station on pilotage duty and in waters of the United States, and at anchor, she shall carry in addition to the lights required for all pilot boats the red light above mentioned, but not the colored side lights.

When not engaged on her station on pilotage duty, she shall carry the same lights as other steam vessels. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 323; Feb. 19, 1900, ch. 22, § 1, 31 Stat. 30.)

§ 79. Lights and day signals of fishing vessels and boats (article 9).

Fishing vessels and fishing boats, when under way and when not required by this article to carry or show the lights hereinafter specified, shall carry or show the lights prescribed for vessels of their tonnage under way.

(a) Open boats, by which is to be understood boats not protected from the entry of sea water by means of a continuous deck, when engaged in any fishing at night, with outlying tackle extending not more than one hundred and fifty feet horizontally from the boat into the seaway, shall carry one all-round white light.

Open boats, when fishing at night, with outlying tackle extending more than one hundred and fifty feet horizontally from the boat into the seaway, shall carry one all-round white light, and in addition, on approaching or being approached by other vessels, shall show a second white light at least three feet below the first light and at a horizontal distance of at least five feet away from it in the direction in which the outlying tackle is attached.

(b) Vessels and boats, except open boats as defined in subdivision (a), when fishing with drift nets, shall, so long as the nets are wholly or partly in the water, carry two white lights where they can best be seen. Such lights shall be placed so that the vertical distance between them shall be not less than six feet and not more than fifteen feet, and so that the horizontal distance between them, measured in a line with the keel, shall be not less than five feet and not more than ten feet. The lower of these two lights shall be in the direction of the nets, and both of them shall be of such a character as to show all around the horizon, and to be visible at a distance of not less than three miles.

Within the Mediterranean Sea and in the seas bordering the coasts of Japan and Korea sailing fishing vessels of less than twenty tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to carry the lower of these two lights. Should they, however, not carry it, they shall show in the same position (in the direction of the net or gear) a white light, visible at a distance of not less than one sea mile, on the approach of or to other vessels.

(c) Vessels and boats, except open boats as defined in subdivision (a), when line fishing with their lines out and attached to or hauling their lines, and when not at anchor or stationary within the meaning of subdivision (h), shall carry the same lights as vessels fishing with drift nets. When shooting lines, or fishing with towing lines, they shall carry the lights prescribed for a steam or sailing vessel under way, respectively.

Within the Mediterranean Sea and in the seas bordering the coasts of Japan and Korea sailing fishing vessels of less than twenty tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to carry the lower of these two lights. Should they, however, not carry it, they shall show in the same position (in the direction of the lines) a white light, visible at a distance of not less than one sea mile on the approach of or to other vessels.

(d) Vessels when engaged in trawling, by which is meant the dragging of an apparatus along the bottom of the sea—

First. If steam vessels, shall carry in the same position as the white light mentioned in article two (a) a tri-colored lantern so constructed and fixed as to show a white light from right ahead to two points on each bow, and a green light and a red light over an arc of the horizon from two points on each bow to two points abaft the beam on the starboard and port sides, respectively; and not less than six nor more than twelve feet below the tri-colored lantern a white light in a lantern, so constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light all around the horizon.

Second. If sailing vessels, shall carry a white light in a lantern, so constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light all around the horizon, and shall also, on the approach of or to other vessels, show where it can best be seen a white flare-up light or torch in sufficient time to prevent collision.

All lights mentioned in subdivision (d) first and second shall be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(e) Oyster dredgers and other vessels fishing with dredge nets shall carry and show the same lights as trawlers.

(f) Fishing vessels and fishing boats may at any time use a flare-up light in addition to the lights which they are by this article required to carry and show, and they may also use working lights.

(g) Every fishing vessel and every fishing boat under one hundred and fifty feet in length, when at anchor, shall exhibit a white light visible all around the horizon at a distance of at least one mile.

Every fishing vessel of one hundred and fifty feet in length or upward, when at anchor, shall exhibit a white light visible all around the horizon at a distance of at least one mile, and shall exhibit a second light as provided for vessels of such length by article eleven.

Should any such vessel, whether under one hundred and fifty feet in length or of one hundred and fifty feet in length or upward, be attached to a net or other fishing gear, she shall on the approach of other vessels show an additional white light at least three feet below the anchor light, and at a horizontal distance of at least five feet away from it in the direction of the net or gear.

(h) If a vessel or boat when fishing becomes stationary in consequence of her gear getting fast to a rock or other obstruction, she shall in daytime haul down the day signal required by subdivision (k); at night show the light or lights prescribed for a vessel at anchor; and during fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rain storms make the signal prescribed for a vessel at anchor. (See subdivision (d) and the last paragraph of article fifteen.)

(i) In fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rain storms, drift-net vessels attached to their nets, and vessels when trawling, dredging, or fishing with any kind of drag net, and vessels line fishing with their lines out, shall, if of twenty tons gross tonnage or upward, respectively, at intervals of not more than one minute make a blast; if steam vessels, with the whistle or siren, and if sailing vessels, with the foghorn, each blast to be followed by ringing the bell. Fishing vessels and boats of less than twenty tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to give the above-mentioned signals; but if they do not, they shall make some other efficient sound signal at intervals of not more than one minute.

(k)<sup>1</sup> All vessels or boats fishing with nets or lines or trawls, when under way, shall in daytime indicate their occupation to an approaching vessel by displaying a basket or other efficient signal where it can best be seen. If vessels or boats at anchor have their gear out, they shall, on the approach of other vessels, show the same signal on the side on which those vessels can pass.

The vessels required by this article to carry or show the lights hereinbefore specified shall not be obliged to carry the lights prescribed by article four (a) of this chapter and the last paragraph of article eleven, of this chapter. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 323; May 28, 1894, ch. 83, 28 Stat. 82; Jan. 19, 1907, ch. 300, § 1, 34 Stat. 850.)

§ 80. Lights on overtaken vessel (article 10).

A vessel which is being overtaken by another shall show from her stern to such last-mentioned vessel a white light or a flare-up light.

The white light required to be shown by this article may be fixed and carried in a lantern, but in such case the lantern shall be so constructed, fitted, and screened that it shall throw an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twelve points of the compass, namely, for six points from right aft on each side of the vessel, so as to be visible at a distance of at least one mile. Such light shall be carried as nearly as practicable on the same level as the side lights. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 324.)

§ 81. Lights on vessel at anchor or aground (article 11).

A vessel under one hundred and fifty feet in length, when at anchor, shall carry forward, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull, a white light in a lantern so constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light visible all around the horizon at a distance of at least one mile.

A vessel of one hundred and fifty feet or upwards in length, when at anchor, shall carry in the forward part of the vessel, at a height of not less than twenty and not exceeding forty feet above the hull, one such light, and at or near the stern of the vessel, and at such a height that it shall be not less than fifteen feet lower than the forward light, another such light.

The length of a vessel shall be deemed to be the length appearing in her certificate of registry.

A vessel aground in or near a fair-way shall carry the above light or lights and the two red lights prescribed by article four (a) of this chapter. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 324.)

§ 82. Additional lights and signals when necessary authorized (article 12).

Every vessel may, if necessary in order to attract attention, in addition to the lights which she is by these rules required to carry, show a flare-up light or use any detonating signal that can not be mistaken for a distress signal. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 325.)

§ 83. Special lights for ship of war and convoy; recognition signals adopted by shipowners (article 13).

Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the operation of any special rules made by the Government of any nation with respect to additional station and signal-lights for two or more ships of war or for vessels sailing under convoy, or with the exhibition of recognition signals adopted by shipowners, which have been authorized by their respective Governments and duly registered and published. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 325.)

§ 84. Day signal of steam vessel under sail (article 14).

A steam vessel proceeding under sail only but having her funnel up, shall carry in daytime, forward, where it can best be seen, one black ball or shape two feet in diameter. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 325.)

SOUND SIGNALS FOR FOG, ETC.; SPEED

§ 91. Sound signals for fog, etc., generally (article 15).

All signals prescribed by this article for vessels under way shall be given:

- First. By "steam vessels" on the whistle or siren.
- Second. By "sailing vessels" and "vessels towed" on the fog horn.

The words "prolonged blast" used in this article shall mean a blast of from four to six seconds duration.

A steam vessel shall be provided with an efficient whistle or siren, sounded by steam or by some substitute for steam, so placed that the sound may not be intercepted by any obstruction, and with an efficient fog horn, to be sounded by mechanical means, and also with an efficient bell. (In all cases where the rules require a bell to be used a drum may be substituted on board Turkish vessels, or a gong where such articles are used on board small seagoing vessels.)

A sailing vessel of twenty tons gross tonnage or upward shall be provided with a similar fog horn and bell.

In fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rainstorms, whether by day or night, the signals described in this article shall be used as follows, namely:

(a) A steam vessel having way upon her shall sound, at intervals of not more than two minutes, a prolonged blast:

(b) A steam vessel under way, but stopped, and having no way upon her, shall sound, at intervals of not more than two minutes, two prolonged blasts, with an interval of about one second between.

(c) A sailing vessel under way shall sound, at intervals of not more than one minute, when on the starboard tack, one blast; when on the port tack, two blasts in succession, and when with the wind abaft the beam, three blasts in succession.

(d) A vessel when at anchor shall, at intervals of not more than one minute, ring the bell rapidly for about five seconds.

(e) A vessel when towing, a vessel employed in laying or in picking up a telegraph cable, and a vessel under way, which is unable to get out of the way of an approaching vessel through being not under command, or unable to maneuver as required by the rules, shall, instead of the signals prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (c) of this article, at intervals of not more than two minutes, sound three blasts in succession, namely: One prolonged blast followed by two short blasts. A vessel towed may give this signal and she shall not give any other.

Sailing vessels and boats of less than twenty tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to give the above-mentioned signals, but, if they do not, they shall make some other efficient sound signal at intervals of not more than one minute. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 325; June 10, 1896, ch. 401, § 1, 29 Stat. 381.)

§ 92. Speed in fog, etc. (article 16).

Every vessel shall, in a fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rainstorms, go at a moderate speed, having careful regard to the existing circumstances and conditions.

A steam vessel hearing, apparently forward of her beam, the fog signal of a vessel the position of which is not ascertained shall, so far as the circumstances of the case admit, stop her engines, and then navigate with caution until danger of collision is over. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 326.)

STEERING AND SAILING RULES

§ 101. Suggestion for ascertainment of risk of collision.

Risk of collision can, when circumstances permit, be ascertained by carefully watching the compass bearing of an approaching vessel. If the bearing does not appreciably change, such risk should be deemed to exist. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 326.)

§ 102. Sailing vessels approaching one another (article 17).

When two sailing vessels are approaching one another, so as to involve risk of collision, one of them shall keep out of the way of the other, as follows, namely:

(a) A vessel which is running free shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled.

(b) A vessel which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.

(d) When both are running free, with the wind on the same side, the vessel which is to the windward shall keep out of the way of the vessel which is to leeward.

(e) A vessel which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other vessel. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 326.)

§ 103. Steam vessels meeting end on (article 18).

When two steam vessels are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, each shall alter her course to starboard, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

This article only applies to cases where vessels are meeting end on, or nearly end on, in such a manner as to involve risk of collision, and does not apply to two vessels which must, if both keep on their respective courses, pass clear of each other.

The only cases to which it does apply are when each of the two vessels is end on, or nearly end on, to the other; in other words, to cases in which, by day, each vessel sees the masts of the other in a line, or nearly in a line, with her own; and by night, to cases in which each vessel is in such a position as to see both the side lights of the other.

It does not apply by day to cases in which a vessel sees another ahead crossing her own course; or by night, to cases where the red light of one vessel is opposed to the red light of the other, or where the green light of one vessel is opposed to the green light of the other or where a red light without a green light, or a green light without a red light, is seen ahead, or where both green and red lights are seen anywhere but ahead. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 326.)

§ 104. Steam vessels crossing (article 19).

When two steam vessels are crossing, so as to involve risk of collision, the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

§ 105. Steam and sailing vessels meeting (article 20).

When a steam vessel and a sailing vessel are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam vessel shall keep out of the way of the sailing vessel. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

§ 106. Vessel having right-of-way to keep course (article 21).

Where, by any of these rules, one of two vessels is to keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course and speed.

NOTE.—When, in consequence of thick weather or other causes, such vessel finds herself so close that collision cannot be avoided by the action of the giving-way vessel alone, she also shall take such action as will best aid to avert collision. (See articles 27 and 29 of this chapter.) (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327; May 28, 1894, ch. 83, 28 Stat. 83.)

§ 107. Crossing ahead of vessel having right-of-way (article 22).

Every vessel which is directed by these rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, if the circumstances of the case admit, avoid crossing ahead of the other. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

§ 108. Duty of steam vessel to slacken speed (article 23).

Every steam vessel which is directed by these rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, on approaching her, if necessary, slacken her speed or stop or reverse. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

§ 109. Overtaking vessel to keep out of the way; definition of "overtaking vessel" (article 24).

Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules every vessel, overtaking any other, shall keep out of the way of the overtaken vessel.

Every vessel coming up with another vessel from any direction more than two points abaft her beam, that is, in such a position, with reference to the vessel which she is overtaking that at night she would be unable to see either of that vessel's side lights, shall be deemed to be an overtaking vessel; and no subsequent alteration of the bearing between the two vessels shall make the overtaking vessel a crossing vessel within the meaning of these rules, or relieve her of the duty of keeping clear of the overtaken vessel until she is finally past and clear.

As by day the overtaking vessel can not always know with certainty whether she is forward of or abaft this direction from the other vessel she should, if in doubt, assume that she is an overtaking vessel and keep out of the way. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

§ 110. Steam vessel in narrow channel (article 25).

In narrow channels every steam vessel shall, when it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the fairway or mid-channel which lies on the starboard side of such vessel. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

§ 111. Right-of-way of fishing vessels or boats; obstruction of fairway (article 26).

Sailing vessels under way shall keep out of the way of sailing vessels or boats fishing with nets, or lines, or trawls. This rule shall not give to any vessel or boat engaged in fishing the right of obstructing a fairway used by vessels other than fishing vessels or boats. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

§ 112. Special circumstances requiring departure from rules (article 27).

In obeying and construing these rules due regard shall be had to all dangers of navigation and collision, and to any special circumstances which may render a departure from the above rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

§ 113. Sound signals of steam vessel indicating course (article 28).

The words "short blast" used in this article shall mean a blast of about one second's duration.

When vessels are in sight of one another, a steam vessel under way, in taking any course authorized or required by these rules, shall indicate that course by the following signals on her whistle or siren, namely:

One short blast to mean, "I am directing my course to starboard."

Two short blasts to mean, "I am directing my course to port."

Three short blasts to mean, "My engines are going at full speed astern." (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 328.)

NO VESSEL, UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, TO NEGLECT PROPER PRECAUTIONS

§ 121. Additional precautions required generally (article 29).

Nothing in these rules shall exonerate any vessel, or the owner or master or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper lookout, or of the neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 328.)

RESERVATION OF RULES FOR HARBORS AND INLAND NAVIGATION

§ 131. Local rules for harbors and inland waters (article 30).

Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the operation of a special rule, duly made by local authority, relative to the navigation of any harbor, river, or inland waters. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 328.)

DISTRESS SIGNALS

§ 141. Distress signals in daytime and at night (article 31).

When a vessel is in distress and requires assistance from other vessels or from the shore the following shall be the signals to be used or displayed by her, either together or separately, namely:

In the day time—

First. A gun or other explosive signal fired at intervals of about a minute.

Second. The international code signal of distress indicated by N. C.

Third. The distance signal, consisting of a square flag, having either above or below it a ball or anything resembling a ball.

Fourth. A continuous sounding with any fog-signal apparatus.

At night—

First. A gun or other explosive signal fired at intervals of about a minute.

Second. Flames on the vessel (as from a burning tar barrel, oil barrel, and so forth.)

Third. Rockets or shells throwing stars of any color or description, fired one at a time, at short intervals.

Fourth. A continuous sounding with any fog-signal apparatus. (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 328; May 28, 1894, ch. 83, 28 Stat. 83.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Radio distress signals, see section 321 of Title 47, Telegraphs, Telephones, and Radiotelegraphs.

ORDERS

§ 142. Orders to helmsmen (article 32).

All orders to helmsmen shall be given as follows: "Right Rudder" to mean "Direct the vessel's head to starboard."

"Left Rudder" to mean "Direct the vessel's head to port." (Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, § 1, Art. 32, as added Aug. 21, 1935, ch. 595, § 1, 49 Stat. 668.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 5 of act August 21, 1935, cited to text, provided that the act "shall become fully effective for all ocean and coastwise vessels on January 1, 1936, and for all on the Great Lakes, bays, sounds, harbors, rivers, and lakes other than the Great Lakes of the United States on January 1, 1937."

Chapter 3.—NAVIGATION RULES FOR HARBORS, RIVERS, AND INLAND WATERS GENERALLY

PRELIMINARY

Sec.

151. Demarcation of high seas lines.
152. Regulation of length of towlines.
153. Penalty for use of unlawful towline.
154. Adoption of rules for navigation of harbors, rivers, and inland waters.
155. "Sailing vessel," "steam vessel," and "under way" defined.
156. "Visible" as applied to lights defined.
157. Special rules by inspectors, etc., of steam vessels authorized.
158. Penalty for violations by pilot, engineer, mate, or master.
159. Penalty for violations by vessel.

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS, ETC.

171. Time for lights; prescribed lights exclusive.
172. Lights of steam vessel under way.
173. Lights of vessel towing another vessel or vessels.
174. Lights of sailing vessel under way or in tow.
175. Lights of small vessel under way in bad weather.
176. Lights of rowboats.
177. Lights of pilot vessel on and off duty; steam pilot vessel.
178. Lights of fishing vessels; rafts and unspecified craft.
179. Lights on overtaken vessel.
180. Lights on vessel at anchor.
181. Additional lights when necessary authorized.
182. Special lights for ship of war and convoy; recognition signals adopted by shipowners.
183. Day signal of steam vessel under sail.

SOUND SIGNALS FOR FOG, ETC.; SPEED

191. Sound signals for fog, etc., generally.
192. Speed in fog, etc.

STEERING AND SAILING RULES AND SIGNALS

201. Suggestion for ascertainment of risk of collision.
202. Sailing vessels approaching one another.
203. Steam vessels approaching, meeting, or passing one another; banks obstructing view; leaving dock.
204. Steam vessels crossing.
205. Steam and sailing vessels meeting.
206. Vessel having right-of-way to keep course.
207. Crossing ahead of vessel having right-of-way.
208. Duty of steam vessel to slacken speed.
209. Overtaking vessel to keep out of the way; definition of "overtaking vessel."
210. Steam vessel in narrow channel.
211. Right-of-way of fishing vessels or boats; obstruction of fairway.
212. Special circumstances requiring departure from rules.
213. Signal of full speed of engines astern.

NO VESSEL UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES TO NEGLECT PROPER PRECAUTIONS

221. Usual additional precautions required generally.
222. Lights on war and Coast Guard vessels; exhibition suspended.

DISTRESS SIGNALS

231. Distress signals in daytime and at night.

232. Orders to helmsmen.

§ 151. Demarcation of high seas lines.

The Secretary of Commerce is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed from time to time to designate and define by suitable bearings or ranges with lighthouses, light vessels, buoys, or coast objects, the lines dividing the high seas from rivers, harbors, and inland waters. (Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 2, 28 Stat. 672; Feb. 14, 1903, ch. 552, § 10, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

§ 152. Regulation of length of towlines.

The Commandant of the Coast Guard and the Director of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation shall convene as a board at such times as the Secretary of Commerce shall prescribe to prepare regulations limiting the length of hawsers between towing vessels and seagoing barges in tow and the length of such tows within any of the inland waters of the United States designated and defined from time to time pursuant to section 151 of this title, and such regulations when approved by the Secretary of Commerce shall have the force of law. (May 28, 1908, ch. 212, § 14, 35 Stat. 428; June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 4, 36 Stat. 537; June 30, 1932, ch. 314, §§ 501, 502, 47 Stat. 415; May 27, 1936, ch. 463, § 1, 49 Stat. 1380; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), cited to text, transferred the Bureau of Lighthouses to the Coast Guard, and provided that it should be consolidated with and administered as part of the Coast Guard.

BUREAU OF MARINE INSPECTION AND NAVIGATION

The act of May 27, 1936, cited to text, changed the name of "Bureau of Navigation and Steamboat Inspection" to "Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation".

§ 153. Penalty for use of unlawful towline.

The master of the towing vessel shall be liable to the suspension or revocation of his license for any willful violation of regulations issued pursuant to section 152 of this title in the manner prescribed for incompetency, misconduct, or unskillfulness. (May 28, 1908, ch. 212, § 15, 35 Stat. 429.)

§ 154. Adoption of rules for navigation of harbors, rivers, and inland waters.

The following regulations for preventing collision shall be followed by all vessels navigating all harbors, rivers, and inland waters of the United States, except the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal and the Red River of the North and rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico and their tributaries, and are hereby declared special rules duly made by local authority. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 96.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Motorboats exempt from carrying copies of pilot rules, see section 522 of Title 46, Shipping.

§ 155. "Sailing vessel," "steam vessel," and "under way" defined.

In the following rules every steam vessel which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a sailing vessel, and every vessel under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a steam vessel.

The word "steam vessel" shall include any vessel propelled by machinery.

A vessel is "under way", within the meaning of these rules, when she is not at anchor, or made fast to the shore, or aground. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 96.)

§ 156. "Visible" as applied to lights defined.

The word "visible" in these rules, when applied to lights, shall mean visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 96.)

§ 157. Special rules by inspectors, etc., of steam vessels authorized.

The supervising inspectors of steam vessels and the Director of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation shall establish such rules to be observed by steam vessels in passing each other and as to the lights to be carried by ferryboats and by barges and canal boats when in tow of steam vessels, and as to the lights and day signals to be carried by vessels, dredges of all types, and vessels working on wrecks or other obstruction to navigation or moored for submarine operations, or made fast to a sunken object which may drift with the tide or be towed, not inconsistent with the provisions of sections 154-159, 171-183, 191, 192, 201-213, 221, 222, 231, 232 and 301 of this title, as they from time to time may deem necessary for safety, which rules when approved by the Secretary of Commerce are declared special rules duly made by local authority, as provided for in section 131 of this title. Two printed copies of such rules shall be furnished to such ferryboats, barges, dredges, canal boats, vessels working on wrecks, and steam vessels, which rules shall be kept posted up in conspicuous places in such vessels, barges, dredges, and boats. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 2, 30 Stat. 102; May 25, 1914, ch. 98, 38 Stat. 381; June 30, 1932, ch. 314, § 501, 47 Stat. 415; May 27, 1936, ch. 463, § 1, 49 Stat. 1380.)

CHANGE OF NAME

Act May 27, 1936, cited to text, changed the name of the "Bureau of Navigation and Steamboat Inspection" to "Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation."

§ 158. Penalty for violations by pilot, engineer, mate, or master.

Every pilot, engineer, mate, or master of any steam vessel, and every master or mate of any barge or canal boat, who neglects or refuses to observe the provisions of sections 154-159, 171-183, 191, 192, 201-213, 221, 222, 231, 232, and 301 of this title, or the regulations established in pursuance of section 157 of this title, shall be liable to a penalty of $50, and for all damages sustained by any passenger in his person or baggage by such neglect or refusal: Provided, That nothing herein shall relieve any vessel, owner, or corporation from any liability incurred by reason of such neglect or refusal. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 3, 30 Stat. 102.)

§ 159. Penalty for violations by vessel.

Every vessel that shall be navigated without complying with the provisions of sections 154-159, 171-183, 191, 192, 201-213, 221, 222, 231, 232, and 301 of this title, shall be liable to a penalty of $200, one-half to go to the informer, for which sum the vessel so navigated shall be liable and may be seized and proceeded against by action in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction of the offense. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 4, 30 Stat. 103.)

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS, ETC.*§ 171. Time for lights; prescribed lights exclusive (article 1).

The rules concerning lights shall be complied with in all weathers from sunset to sunrise, and during such time no other lights which may be mistaken for the prescribed lights shall be exhibited. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 96.)

§ 172. Lights of steam vessel under way (article 2).

A steam vessel when under way shall carry—

(a) On or in front of the foremast, or, if a vessel without a foremast, then in the fore part of the vessel, a bright white light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel, namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least five miles.

(b) On the starboard side a green light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(c) On the port side a red light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(d) The said green and red side lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

(e) A seagoing steam vessel when under way may carry an additional white light similar in construction to the light mentioned in subdivision (a).

These two lights shall be so placed in line with the keel that one shall be at least fifteen feet higher than the other, and in such a position with reference to each other that the lower light shall be forward of the upper one. The vertical distance between these lights shall be less than the horizontal distance.

(f) All steam vessels (except seagoing vessels and ferryboats) shall carry, in addition to green and red lights required by article 2 (b), (c) of this chapter, and screens as required by article 2 (d) of this chapter, a central range of two white lights, the afterlight being carried at an elevation at least fifteen feet above the light at the head of the vessel. The head-light shall be so constructed as to show an unbroken light through twenty points of the compass, namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side of the vessel, and the afterlight so as to show all around the horizon. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 96.)

§ 173. Lights of vessel towing another vessel or vessels (article 3).

A steam vessel when towing another vessel or vessels alongside shall, in addition to her side lights, carry two bright white lights in a vertical line, one over the other, not less than three feet apart, and when towing one or more vessels astern, regardless of the length of the tow, shall carry an additional bright white light three feet above or below such lights: Provided, That on the Red River of the North and the rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico and their tributaries, this article shall not affect the signal lights used on towing vessels which propel the tow by pushing at the rear of the tow. Each of these lights shall be of the same construction and character, and shall be carried in the same position as the white light mentioned in article 2 (a) of this chapter or the after range light mentioned in article 2 (f) of this chapter.

Such steam vessel may carry a small white light abaft the funnel or aftermast for the vessel towed to steer by, but such light shall not be visible forward of the beam. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 97; May 20, 1936, ch. 433, 49 Stat. 1367.)

§ 174. Lights of sailing vessel under way or in tow (article 5).

A sailing vessel under way and any vessel being towed, except barges, canal boats, scows, and other vessels of nondescript type, when in tow of steam vessels, shall carry the same lights as are prescribed by article 2 of this chapter for a steam vessel under way, with the exception of the white lights mentioned therein, which they shall never carry. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 97; Mar. 1, 1933, ch. 157, 47 Stat. 1417.)

§ 175. Lights of small vessel under way in bad weather (article 6).

Whenever, as in the case of vessels of less than ten gross tons under way during bad weather, the green and red side lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept at hand, lighted and ready for use, and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side, nor, if practicable, more than two points abaft the beam on their respective sides. To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the color of the light they respectively contain and shall be provided with proper screens. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 97.)

§ 176. Lights of rowboats (article 7).

Rowing boats, whether under oars or sail, shall have ready at hand a lantern showing a white light which shall be temporarily exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 98.)

§ 177. Lights of pilot vessel on and off duty; steam pilot vessel (article 8).

Pilot vessels when engaged on their station on pilotage duty shall not show the lights required for other vessels but shall carry a white light at the masthead, visible all around the horizon, and shall also exhibit a flare-up light or flare-up lights at short intervals, which shall never exceed fifteen minutes.

On the near approach of or to other vessels they shall have their side lights lighted, ready for use, and shall flash or show them at short intervals, to indicate the direction in which they are heading, but the green light shall not be shown on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

A pilot vessel of such a class as to be obliged to go alongside of a vessel to put a pilot on board may show the white light instead of carrying it at the masthead, and may, instead of the colored lights above mentioned, have at hand, ready for use, a lantern with a green glass on the one side and a red glass on the other, to be used as prescribed above.

Pilot vessels, when not engaged on their station on pilotage duty, shall carry lights similar to those of other vessels of their tonnage.

A steam pilot vessel, when engaged on her station on pilotage duty and in waters of the United States, and not at anchor, shall, in addition to the lights required for all pilot boats, carry at a distance of eight feet below her white masthead light a red light, visible all around the horizon and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least two miles, and also the colored side lights required to be carried by vessels when under way.

When engaged on her station on pilotage duty and in waters of the United States, and at anchor, she shall carry in addition to the lights required for all pilot boats the red light above mentioned, but not the colored side lights.

When not engaged on her station on pilotage duty, she shall carry the same lights as other steam vessels. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 98; Feb. 19, 1900, ch. 22, § 1, 31 Stat. 30.)

§ 178. Lights of fishing vessels; rafts and unspecified craft (article 9).

(a) Fishing vessels of less than ten gross tons, when under way and when not having their nets, trawls, dredges, or lines in the water, shall not be required to carry the colored side lights; but every such vessel shall, in lieu thereof, have ready at hand a lantern with a green glass on one side and a red glass on the other side, and on approaching to or being approached by another vessel such lantern shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

(b) All fishing vessels and fishing boats of ten gross tons or upward, when under way and when not having their nets, trawls, dredges, or lines in the water, shall carry and show the same lights as other vessels under way.

(c) All vessels, when trawling, dredging, or fishing with any kind of dragnets or lines, shall exhibit, from some part of the vessel where they can be best seen, two lights. One of these lights shall be red and the other shall be white. The red light shall be above the white light, and shall be at a vertical distance from it of not less than six feet and not more than twelve feet; and the horizontal distance between them, if any, shall not be more than ten feet. These two lights shall be of such a character and contained in lanterns of such construction as to be visible all round the horizon, the white light a distance of not less than three miles and the red light of not less than two miles.

(d) Rafts, or other water craft not herein provided for, navigating by hand power, horse power, or by the current of the river, shall carry one or more good white lights, which shall be placed in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 98.)

§ 179. Lights on overtaken vessel (article 10).

A vessel which is being overtaken by another, except a steam vessel with an after range light showing all around the horizon, shall show from her stern to such last-mentioned vessel a white light or a flare-up light. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 98.)

§ 180. Lights on vessel at anchor (article 11).

A vessel under one hundred and fifty feet in length when at anchor shall carry forward, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull, a white light in a lantern so constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light visible all around the horizon at a distance of at least one mile: Provided, That the Secretary of War may, after investigation, by rule, regulation, or order, designate such areas as he may deem proper as "special anchorage areas"; such special anchorage areas may from time to time be changed, or abolished, if after investigation the Secretary of War shall deem such change or abolition in the interest of navigation: Provided further, That vessels not more than sixty-five feet in length when at anchor in any such special anchorage area shall not be required to carry or exhibit the white light required by this article.

A vessel of one hundred and fifty feet or upward in length, when at anchor, shall carry in the forward part of the vessel, at a height of not less than twenty and not exceeding forty feet above the hull, one such light, and at or near the stern of the vessel, and at such a height that it shall be not less than fifteen feet lower than the forward light, another such light.

The length of a vessel shall be deemed to be the length appearing in her certificate of registry. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 98; Apr. 22, 1940, ch. 128, § 1, 54 Stat. 150.)

§ 181. Additional lights when necessary authorized (article 12).

Every vessel may, if necessary, in order to attract attention, in addition to the lights which she is by these rules required to carry, show a flare-up light or use any detonating signal that cannot be mistaken for a distress signal. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 99.)

§ 182. Special lights for ship of war and convoy; recognition signals adopted by shipowners (article 13).

Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the operation of any special rules made by the government of any nation with respect to additional station and signal lights for two or more ships of war or for vessels sailing under convoy, or with the exhibition of recognition signals adopted by shipowners, which have been authorized by their respective governments and duly registered and published. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 99.)

§ 183. Day signal of steam vessel under sail (article 14).

A steam vessel proceeding under sail only, but having her funnel up, may carry in daytime, forward, where it can best be seen, one black ball or shape two feet in diameter. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 99.)

SOUND SIGNALS FOR FOG, ETC.; SPEED

§ 191. Sound signals for fog, etc., generally (article 15).

All signals prescribed by this article for vessels under way shall be given—

1. By "steam vessels" on the whistle or siren.
2. By "sailing vessels" and "vessels towed" on the foghorn.

The words "prolonged blast" used in this article shall mean a blast of from four to six seconds duration.

A steam vessel shall be provided with an efficient whistle or siren, sounded by steam or by some substitute for steam, so placed that the sound may not be intercepted by any obstruction, and with an efficient foghorn; also with an efficient bell.

A sailing vessel of twenty tons gross tonnage or upward shall be provided with a similar foghorn and bell.

In fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rainstorms, whether by day or night, the signals described in this article shall be used as follows, namely:

(a) A steam vessel under way shall sound, at intervals of not more than one minute, a prolonged blast.

(c)<sup>1</sup> A sailing vessel under way shall sound, at intervals of not more than one minute, when on the starboard tack, one blast; when on the port tack, two blasts in succession; and when with the wind abaft the beam, three blasts in succession.

(d) A vessel when at anchor shall, at intervals, of not more than one minute, ring the bell rapidly for about five seconds.

(e) A steam vessel when towing, shall, instead of the signals prescribed in subdivision (a) of this article, at intervals of not more than one minute, sound three blasts in succession, namely, one prolonged blast followed by two short blasts.

A vessel towed may give this signal and she shall not give any other.

(f) All rafts or other water craft, not herein provided for, navigating by hand power, horse power, or by the current of the river, shall sound a blast of the foghorn, or equivalent signal, at intervals of not more than one minute. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 99.)

<sup>1</sup> So in original. There is no subsection (b).

§ 192. Speed in fog, etc. (article 16).

Every vessel shall, in a fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rainstorms, go at a moderate speed, having careful regard to the existing circumstances and conditions.

A steam vessel hearing, apparently forward of her beam, the fog signal of a vessel the position of which is not ascertained shall, so far as the circumstances of the case admit, stop her engines, and then navigate with caution until danger of collision is over. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 99.)

STEERING AND SAILING RULES AND SIGNALS

§ 201. Suggestion for ascertainment of risk of collision.

Risk of collision can, when circumstances permit, be ascertained by carefully watching the compass bearing of an approaching vessel. If the bearing does not appreciably change, such risk should be deemed to exist. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 100.)

§ 202. Sailing vessels approaching one another (article 17).

When two sailing vessels are approaching one another, so as to involve risk of collision, one of them shall keep out of the way of the other as follows, namely:

(a) A vessel which is running free shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled.

(b) A vessel which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.

(d) When both are running free, with the wind on the same side, the vessel which is to the windward shall keep out of the way of the vessel which is to the leeward.

(e) A vessel which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other vessel. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 100.)

§ 203. Steam vessels approaching, meeting, or passing one another; banks obstructing view; leaving dock (article 18).

Rule I. When steam vessels are approaching each other head and head, that is, end on, or nearly so, it shall be the duty of each to pass on the port side of the other; and either vessel shall give, as a signal of her intention, one short and distinct blast of her whistle, which the other vessel shall answer promptly by a similar blast of her whistle, and thereupon such vessels shall pass on the port side of each other.

But if the courses of such vessels are so far on the starboard of each other as not to be considered as meeting head and head, either vessel shall immediately give two short and distinct blasts of her whistle, which the other vessel shall answer promptly by two similar blasts of her whistle, and they shall pass on the starboard side of each other.

The foregoing only applies to cases where vessels are meeting end on or nearly end on, in such a manner as to involve risk of collision; in other words, to cases in which, by day, each vessel sees the masts of the other in a line, or nearly in a line, with her own and by night to cases in which each vessel is in such a position as to see both the sidelights of the other.

It does not apply by day to cases in which a vessel sees another ahead crossing her own course, or by night to cases where the red light of one vessel is opposed to the red light of the other, or where the green light of one vessel is opposed to the green light of the other, or where a red light without a green light or a green light without a red light, is seen ahead, or where both green and red lights are seen anywhere but ahead.

Rule III. If, when steam vessels are approaching each other, either vessel fails to understand the course or intention of the other, from any cause, the vessel so in doubt shall immediately signify the same by giving several short and rapid blasts, not less than four, of the steam whistle.

Rule V. Whenever a steam vessel is nearing a short bend or curve in the channel, where, from the height of the banks or other cause, a steam vessel approaching from the opposite direction cannot be seen for a distance of half a mile, such steam vessel, when she shall have arrived within half a mile of such curve or bend, shall give a signal by one long blast of the steam whistle, which signal shall be answered by a similar blast, given by any approaching steam vessel that may be within hearing. Should such signal be so answered by a steam vessel upon the farther side of such bend, then the usual signals for meeting and passing shall immediately be given and answered; but, if the first alarm signal of such vessel be not answered, she is to consider the channel clear and govern herself accordingly.

When steam vessels are moved from their docks or berths, and other boats are liable to pass from any direction toward them, they shall give the same signal as in the case of vessels meeting at a bend, but immediately after clearing the berths so as to be fully in sight they shall be governed by the steering and sailing rules.

Rule VIII. When steam vessels are running in the same direction, and the vessel which is astern shall desire to pass on the right or starboard hand of the vessel ahead, she shall give one short blast of the steam whistle, as a signal of such desire, and if the vessel ahead answers with one blast, she shall direct her course to starboard; or if she shall desire to pass on the left or port side of the vessel ahead, she shall give two short blasts of the steam whistle as a signal of such desire, and if the vessel ahead answers with two blasts, shall direct her course to port; or if the vessel ahead does not think it safe for the vessel astern to attempt to pass at that point, she shall immediately signify the same by giving several short and rapid blasts of the steam whistle, not less than four, and under no circumstances shall the vessel astern attempt to pass the vessel ahead until such time as they have reached a point where it can be safely done, when said vessel ahead shall signify her willingness by blowing the proper signals.

The vessel ahead shall in no case attempt to cross the bow or crowd upon the course of the passing vessel.

Rule IX. The whistle signals provided in the rules under this article, for steam vessels meeting, passing, or overtaking, are never to be used except when steamers are in sight of each other, and the course and position of each can be determined in the daytime by a sight of the vessel itself, or by night by seeing its signal lights.

In fog, mist, falling snow or heavy rainstorms, when vessels cannot so see each other, fog signals only must be given. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 100; Aug. 21, 1935, ch. 595, § 2, 49 Stat. 669.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 5 of act August 21, 1935, cited to text, provided that the act "shall become fully effective for all ocean and coastwise vessels on January 1, 1936, and for all on the Great Lakes, bays, sounds, harbors, rivers, and lakes other than the Great Lakes of the United States on January 1, 1937."

§ 204. Steam vessels crossing (article 19).

When two steam vessels are crossing, so as to involve risk of collision, the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

§ 205. Steam and sailing vessels meeting (article 20).

When a steam vessel and a sailing vessel are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam vessel shall keep out of the way of the sailing vessel. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

§ 206. Vessel having right-of-way to keep course (article 21).

Where, by any of these rules, one of the two vessels is to keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course and speed. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

§ 207. Crossing ahead of vessel having right-of-way (article 22).

Every vessel which is directed by these rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, if the circumstances of the case admit, avoid crossing ahead of the other. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

§ 208. Duty of steam vessel to slacken speed (article 23).

Every steam vessel which is directed by these rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, on approaching her, if necessary, slacken her speed or stop or reverse. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

§ 209. Overtaking vessel to keep out of the way; definition of "overtaking vessel" (article 24).

Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules every vessel, overtaking any other, shall keep out of the way of the overtaken vessel.

Every vessel coming up with another vessel from any direction more than two points abaft her beam, that is, in such a position with reference to the vessel which she is overtaking that at night she would be unable to see either of that vessel's side lights, shall be deemed to be an overtaking vessel; and no subsequent alteration of the bearing between the two vessels shall make the overtaking vessel a crossing vessel within the meaning of these rules, or relieve her of the duty of keeping clear of the overtaken vessel until she is finally past and clear.

As by day the overtaking vessel cannot always know with certainty whether she is forward of or abaft this direction from the other vessel she should, if in doubt, assume that she is an overtaking vessel and keep out of the way. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

§ 210. Steam vessel in narrow channel (article 25).

In narrow channels every steam vessel shall, when it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the fairway or mid-channel which lies on the starboard side of such vessel. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

§ 211. Right-of-way of fishing vessel or boats; obstruction of fairway (article 26).

Sailing vessels under way shall keep out of the way of sailing vessels or boats fishing with nets, or lines, or trawls. This rule shall not give to any vessel or boat engaged in fishing the right of obstructing a fairway used by vessels other than fishing vessels or boats. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 102.)

§ 212. Special circumstances requiring departure from rules (article 27).

In obeying and construing these rules due regard shall be had to all dangers of navigation and collision, and to any special circumstances which may render a departure from the above rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 102.)

§ 213. Signal of full speed of engines astern (article 28).

When vessels are in sight of one another a steam vessel under way whose engines are going at full speed astern shall indicate that fact by three short blasts on the whistle. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 102.)

NO VESSEL UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES TO NEGLECT PROPER PRECAUTIONS

§ 221. Usual additional precautions required generally (article 29).

Nothing in these rules shall exonerate any vessel, or the owner or master or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper lookout, or of the neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 102.)

§ 222. Lights on war and Coast Guard vessels; exhibition suspended (article 30).

The exhibition of any light on board of a vessel of war of the United States or a Coast Guard vessel may be suspended whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Navy, the commander in chief of a squadron, or the commander of a vessel acting singly, the special character of the service may require it. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 102; Jan. 28, 1915, ch. 20, § 1, 38 Stat. 800.)

DISTRESS SIGNALS

§ 231. Distress signals in daytime and at night (article 31).

When a vessel is in distress and requires assistance from other vessels or from the shore the following shall be the signals to be used or displayed by her, either together or separately, namely:

IN THE DAYTIME.—A continuous sounding with any fog-signal apparatus, or firing a gun.

AT NIGHT.—First, Flames on the vessel as from a burning tar barrel, oil barrel, and so forth.

Second. A continuous sounding with any fog-signal apparatus, or firing a gun. (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 102.)

CROSS REFERENCE

ORDERS

§ 232. Orders to helmsmen (article 32).

All orders to helmsmen shall be given as follows: "Right Rudder" to mean "Direct the vessel's head to starboard."

"Left Rudder" to mean "Direct the vessel's head to port." (June 7, 1897, ch. 4, § 1, Art. 32, as added Aug. 21, 1935, ch. 595, § 2, 49 Stat. 669.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 5 of act August 21, 1935, cited to the text, provided that the act "shall become fully effective for all ocean and coastwise vessels on January 1, 1936, and for all on the Great Lakes, bays, sounds, harbors, rivers, and lakes other than the Great Lakes of the United States on January 1, 1937."

PRELIMINARY

Sec.

241. Adoption of rules for navigation of Great Lakes, etc.

242. "Sailing vessel", "steam vessel", and "under way" defined.

243. Special regulation by Secretary of Commerce and by Board of Supervising Inspectors.

244. Penalty for violation of provisions.

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS, ETC.

251. Time for lights; prescribed lights exclusive; visible defined.

252. Lights of steam vessel under way.

253. Lights of steam vessel having a tow other than raft.

254. Lights of steam vessel having raft in tow.

255. Lights of sailing vessel under way and vessel in tow.

- Sec.
 256. Lights of small tugs, boats on River St. Lawrence, ferryboats, rafts, and canal boats; regulations by Board of Supervising Inspectors.
 257. Lights of small vessels under way in bad weather.
 258. Lights of vessel at anchor.
 259. Lights of produce boats, canal boats, etc., navigating by hand or horsepower or by sail or by current, or at anchor.
 260. Lights of open boat.
 261. Use of torch by sailing vessel on approach of steamer.
 262. Suspension of lights by vessel of war or Coast Guard vessels.

Light and sounding signal devices on motor boats, and sailing and steering rules, relating thereto, see sections 513, 514, and 520 of Title 46, Shipping.

PRELIMINARY

- § 241. Adoption of rules for navigation of Great Lakes, etc.

The following rules for preventing collisions shall be followed in the navigation of all public and private vessels of the United States upon the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 645.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Motorboats exempt from carrying copies of pilot rules, see section 522 of Title 46, Shipping.

- § 242. "Sailing vessel," "steam vessel," and "under way" defined (Rule 1).

Every steam vessel which is under sail and not under steam, shall be considered a sail vessel; and every steam vessel which is under steam, whether under sail or not, shall be considered a steam vessel. The words "steam vessel" shall include any vessel propelled by machinery. A vessel is under way within the meaning of these rules when she is not at anchor or made fast to the shore or aground. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 645.)

- § 243. Special regulation by Secretary of Commerce and by Board of Supervising Inspectors.

The Secretary of Commerce of the United States shall have authority to establish all necessary regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of sections 241-244, 251-262, 271, 272, 281-293, and 301 of this title, required to carry the same into effect.

The Board of Supervising Inspectors of the United States shall have authority to establish such regulations to be observed by all steam vessels in passing each other, not inconsistent with the provisions of such sections, as they shall from time to time deem necessary; and all regulations adopted by the said Board of Supervising Inspectors under the authority of such sections, when approved by the Secretary of Commerce, shall have the force of law. Two printed copies of any such regulations for passing, signed by them, shall be furnished to each steam vessel, and shall at all times be kept posted up in conspicuous places on board. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 3, 28 Stat. 649; Feb. 14, 1903, ch. 552, § 10, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

- § 244. Penalty for violation of provisions.

A fine, not exceeding $200, may be imposed for the violation of any of the provisions of sections 241-244, 251-262, 271, 272, 281-293, and 301 of this title. The vessel shall be liable for the said penalty, and may be seized and proceeded against, by way of libel, in the district court of the United States for any district within which such vessel may be found. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 2, 28 Stat. 649.)

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS, ETC.

- § 251. Time for lights; prescribed lights exclusive; visible defined (Rule 2).

The lights mentioned in the following rules, and no others which may be mistaken for the prescribed lights, shall be exhibited in all weathers from sunset to sunrise. The word "visible" in these rules, when applied to lights, shall mean visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 645; May 17, 1928, ch. 600, 45 Stat. 592.)

- § 252. Lights of steam vessel under way (Rule 3).

Except in the cases hereinafter expressly provided for, a steam vessel when under way shall carry:

(a) On or in front of the foremast, or if a vessel without a foremast, then in the fore part of the vessel, at a height above the hull of not less than twenty feet, and if the beam of the vessel exceeds twenty feet, then at a height above the hull not less than such beam, so, however, that such height need not exceed forty feet, a bright white light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel, namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side, and of such character as to be visible at a distance of at least five miles: Provided, however, That such vessels built to navigate the New York State Barge Canal or other similar canals where the bridges prevent them from carrying the headlight at the height prescribed herein, shall carry such headlight not less than twenty feet above the hull.

(b) On the starboard side, a green light, so constructed as to throw an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(c) On the port side, a red light, so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(d) The said green and red lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

(e) A steamer of over one hundred and fifty feet register length shall carry also, when under way, a bright white light so fixed as to throw the light all around the horizon, and of such character as to be visible at a distance of at least three miles. Such light shall be placed in line with the keel at least fifteen feet higher from the deck and more than seventy-five feet abaft the light mentioned in subdivision (a); or in lieu thereof two such lights of the same character and height as herein described placed not over thirty inches apart horizontally, one on either side of the keel, and so arranged that one or the other or both shall be visible from any angle of approach. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 645; May 17, 1928, ch. 600, 45 Stat. 592; Feb. 28, 1929, ch. 370, 45 Stat. 1405; May 9, 1932, ch. 175, § 1, 47 Stat. 152.)

§ 253. Lights of steam vessel having a tow other than raft (Rule 4).

A steam vessel having a tow other than a raft shall in addition to the forward bright light mentioned in subdivision (a) of rule 3 carry in a vertical line not less than six feet above or below that light a second bright light of the same construction and character and fixed and carried in the same manner as the forward bright light mentioned in said subdivision (a) of rule 3 of this chapter. Such steamer shall also carry a small bright light abaft the funnel or after mast for the tow to steer by, but such light shall not be visible forward of the beam. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 646.)

§ 254. Lights of steam vessel having raft in tow (Rule 5).

A steam vessel having a raft in tow shall, instead of the forward lights mentioned in rule 4, carry on or in front of the foremast, or if a vessel without a foremast then in the fore part of the vessel, at a height above the hull of not less than twenty feet, and if the beam of the vessel exceeds twenty feet, then at a height above the hull not less than such beam, so however that such height need not exceed forty feet, two bright lights in a horizontal line athwartships and not less than eight feet apart, each so fixed as to throw the light all around the horizon and of such character as to be visible at a distance of at least five miles. Such steamer shall also carry the small bright steering light aft, of the character and fixed as required in rule 4 of this chapter. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 646.)

§ 255. Lights of sailing vessel under way and vessel in tow (Rule 6).

A sailing vessel under way and any vessel being towed shall carry the side lights mentioned in rule 3 of this chapter.

A vessel in tow shall also carry a small bright light aft, but such light shall not be visible forward of the beam. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 646.)

§ 256. Lights of small tugs, boats on River St. Lawrence, ferryboats, rafts, and canal boats; regulations by Board of Supervising Inspectors (Rule 7).

The lights for tugs under one hundred tons register (net), whose principal business is harbor towing, and for boats navigating only on the River Saint Lawrence, also ferryboats, rafts, and canal boats, shall be regulated by rules which have been or may hereafter be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 646; May 17, 1928, ch. 601, §§ 1, 2, 45 Stat. 593.)

§ 257. Lights of small vessels under way in bad weather (Rule 8).

Whenever, as in the case of small vessels under way during bad weather, the green and red side lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept at hand lighted and ready for use, and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side, nor, if practicable, more than two points abaft the beam on their respective sides. To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, they shall each be painted outside with the color of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with suitable screens. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 646.)

§ 258. Lights of vessel at anchor (Rule 9).

A vessel under one hundred and fifty feet register length, when at anchor, shall carry forward, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull, a white light constructed so as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light visible all around the horizon at a distance of at least one mile: Provided, That the Secretary of War may, after investigation, by rule, regulation, or order designate such areas as he may deem proper as "special anchorage areas"; such special anchorage areas may from time to time be changed, or abolished, if after investigation the Secretary of War shall deem such change or abolition in the interest of navigation: Provided further, That vessels not more than sixty-five feet in length, when at anchor, in any such special anchorage area shall not be required to carry or exhibit the white light required by this article.

A vessel of one hundred and fifty feet or upward in register length, when at anchor, shall carry in the forward part of the vessel, two white lights at the same height of not less than twenty and not exceeding forty feet above the hull and not less than ten feet apart horizontally and athwartships, except that each need not be visible all around the horizon but so arranged that one or the other, or both, shall show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light and be visible from any angle of approach at a distance of at least one mile; and at or near the stern of the vessel two similar lights, similarly arranged and at such a height that they shall not be less than fifteen feet lower than the forward lights. In addition the four anchor lights above specified, at least one white deck light shall be displayed in every interval of one hundred feet along the deck measuring from the forward lights, said deck lights to be not less than two feet above the deck and arranged, so far as intervening structures will permit, so as to be visible from any angle of approach. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 647; May 17, 1928, ch. 600, 45 Stat. 592; Apr. 22, 1940, ch. 128, § 2, 54 Stat. 150.)

§ 259. Lights of produce boats, canal boats, etc., navigating by hand or horsepower or by sail or by current, or at anchor (Rule 10).

Produce boats, canal boats, fishing boats, rafts, or other water craft navigating any bay, harbor, or river by hand power, horsepower, sail, or by the current of the river, or which shall be anchored or moored in or near the channel or fairway of any bay, harbor, or river, and not otherwise provided for in these rules, shall carry one or more good white lights, which shall be placed in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 647.)

§ 260. Lights of open boat (Rule 11).

Open boats shall not be obliged to carry the side lights required for other vessels, but shall, if they do not carry such lights, carry a lantern having a green slide on one side and a red slide on the other side; and on the approach of or to other vessels, such lantern shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, and in such a manner that the green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side. Open boats, when at anchor or stationary, shall exhibit a bright white light. They shall not, however, be prevented from using a flare-up in addition if considered expedient. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 647.)

§ 261. Use of torch by sailing vessel on approach of steamer (Rule 12).

Sailing vessels shall at all times, on the approach of any steamer during the nighttime, show a lighted torch upon that point or quarter to which such steamer shall be approaching. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 647.)

§ 262. Suspension of lights by vessel of war or Coast Guard vessels (Rule 13).

The exhibition of any light on board of a vessel of war or Coast Guard vessel of the United States may be suspended whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Navy, the commander in chief of a squadron, or the commander of a vessel acting singly, the special character of the service may require it. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 647; Jan. 28, 1915, ch. 20, § 1, 38 Stat. 800.)

SOUND SIGNALS FOR FOG, ETC.; SPEED

§ 271. Sound signals in fog, etc., of steam and sailing vessels under way, at anchor or aground (Rule 14).

A steam vessel shall be provided with an efficient whistle, sounded by steam or by some substitute for steam, placed before the funnel not less than eight feet from the deck, or in such other place as the local inspectors of steam vessels shall determine, and of such character as to be heard in ordinary weather at a distance of at least two miles, and with an efficient bell, and it is hereby made the duty of the United States local inspectors of steam vessels when inspecting the same to require each steamer to be furnished with such whistle and bell. A sailing vessel shall be provided with an efficient fog horn and with an efficient bell.

Whenever there is thick weather by reason of fog, mist, falling snow, heavy rainstorms, or other causes, whether by day or by night, fog signals shall be used as follows:

(a) A steam vessel under way, excepting only a steam vessel with raft in tow, shall sound at intervals of not more than one minute three distinct blasts of her whistle.

(b) Every vessel in tow of another vessel shall, at intervals of one minute, sound four bells on a good and efficient and properly placed bell as follows: By striking the bell twice in quick succession, followed by a little longer interval, and then again striking twice in quick succession (in the manner in which four bells is struck in indicating time).

(c) A steamer with a raft in tow shall sound at intervals of not more than one minute a screeching or Modoc whistle for from three to five seconds.

(d) A sailing vessel under way and not in tow shall sound at intervals of not more than one minute—

If on the starboard tack with wind forward of abeam, one blast of her fog horn;

If on the port tack with wind forward of the beam, two blasts of her fog horn;

If she has the wind abaft the beam on either side, three blasts of her fog horn.

(e) Any vessel at anchor and any vessel aground in or near a channel or fairway shall at intervals of not more than two minutes ring the bell rapidly for three to five seconds.

(f) Vessels of less than ten tons registered tonnage, not being steam vessels, shall not be obliged to give the above-mentioned signals, but if they do not they shall make some other efficient sound signal at intervals of not more than one minute.

(g) Produce boats, fishing boats, rafts, or other water craft navigating by hand power or by the current of the river, or anchored or moored in or near the channel or fairway and not in any port, and not otherwise provided for in these rules, shall sound a fog horn or equivalent signal, at intervals of not more than one minute. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 647.)

§ 272. Speed in fog, etc. (Rule 15).

Every vessel shall, in thick weather, by reason of fog, mist, falling snow, heavy rain storms, or other causes, go at moderate speed. A steam vessel hearing, apparently not more than four points from right ahead, the fog signal of another vessel shall at once reduce her speed to bare steerageway, and navigate with caution until the vessels shall have passed each other. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 648.)

STEERING AND SAILING RULES

§ 281. Sailing vessels approaching one another (Rule 16).

When two sailing vessels are approaching one another so as to involve risk of collision one of them shall keep out of the way of the other, as follows, namely:

(a) A vessel which is running free shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled.

(b) A vessel which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.

(c) When both are running free, with the wind on different sides, the vessel which has the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the other.

(d) When they are running free, with the wind on the same side, the vessel which is to windward shall keep out of the way of the vessel which is to leeward. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 648.)

§ 282. Steam vessels meeting end on (Rule 17).

When two steam vessels are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision each shall alter her course to starboard, so that each shall pass on the port side of the other. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 648.)

§ 283. Steam vessels crossing (Rule 18).

When two steam vessels are crossing so as to involve risk of collision the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 648.)

§ 284. Steam and sailing vessels meeting (Rule 19).

When a steam vessel and a sailing vessel are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision the steam vessel shall keep out of the way of the sailing vessel. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 648.)

§ 285. Vessel having right-of-way to keep course (Rule 20).

Where, by any of the rules in sections 241-244, 251-262, 271, 272, 281-293, and 301 of this title prescribed, one of two vessels shall keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course and speed. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

§ 286. Duty of steam vessel to slacken speed (Rule 21).

Every steam vessel which is directed by these rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, on approaching her, if necessary, slacken her speed or stop or reverse. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

§ 287. Overtaking vessel to keep out of the way (Rule 22).

Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules every vessel overtaking any other shall keep out of the way of the overtaken vessel. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

§ 288. Whistle signals of steam vessels to indicate course (Rule 23).

In all weathers every steam vessel under way in taking any course authorized or required by these rules shall indicate that course by the following signals on her whistle, to be accompanied whenever required by corresponding alteration of her helm; and every steam vessel receiving a signal from another shall promptly respond with the same signal or, as provided in rule 26 of this chapter:

One blast to mean, "I am directing my course to starboard."

Two blasts to mean, "I am directing my course to port." But the giving or answering signals by a vessel required to keep her course shall not vary the duties and obligations of the respective vessels. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

§ 289. Steam vessels meeting in narrow channels having current and certain rivers; right-of-way (Rule 24).

In all narrow channels where there is a current, and in the rivers Saint Mary, Saint Clair, Detroit, Niagara, and Saint Lawrence, when two steamers are meeting, the descending steamer shall have the right-of-way, and shall, before the vessels shall have arrived within the distance of one-half mile of each other, give the signal necessary to indicate which side she elects to take. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

§ 290. Steam vessels passing in narrow channels; slackening speed (Rule 25).

In all channels less than five hundred feet in width, no steam vessel shall pass another going in the same direction unless the steam vessel ahead be disabled or signify her willingness that the steam vessel astern shall pass, when the steam vessel astern may pass, subject, however, to the other rules applicable to such a situation. And when steam vessels proceeding in opposite directions are about to meet in such channels, both such vessels shall be slowed down to a moderate speed, according to the circumstances. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

§ 291. Dissent to or misunderstanding of signal given; duty to reduce speed (Rule 26).

If the pilot of a steam vessel to which a passing signal is sounded deems it unsafe to accept and assent to said signal, he shall not sound a cross signal; but in that case, and in every case where the pilot of one steamer fails to understand the course or intention of an approaching steamer, whether from signals being given or answered erroneously, or from other causes, the pilot of such steamer so receiving the first passing signal, or the pilot so in doubt, shall sound several short and rapid blasts of the whistle; and if the vessels shall have approached within half a mile of each other both shall reduce their speed to bare steerageway, and, if necessary, stop and reverse. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

§ 292. Departure from rules to avert immediate danger (Rule 27).

In obeying and construing these rules due regard shall be had to all dangers of navigation and collision and to any special circumstances which may render a departure from the above rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

§ 293. Usual additional precautions required generally (Rule 28).

Nothing in these rules shall exonerate any vessel, or the owner or master or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper lookout, or of a neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case. (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

ORDERS

§ 294. Orders to helmsmen (Rule 29).

All orders to helmsmen shall be given as follows: "Right Rudder" to mean "Direct the vessel's head to starboard."

"Left Rudder" to mean "Direct the vessel's head to port." (Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, § 1, rule 29, as added Aug. 21, 1935, ch. 595, § 3, 49 Stat. 669.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 5 of act August 21, 1935, cited to text, provided that the act "shall become fully effective for all ocean and coastwise vessels on January 1, 1936, and for all on the Great Lakes, bays, sounds, harbors, rivers, and lakes other than the Great Lakes of the United States on January 1, 1937."

PRELIMINARY

§ 301. Adoption of rules.

The following rules for preventing collisions on the water, shall be followed in the navigation of vessels of the Navy and of the mercantile marine of the United States upon the Red River of the North and rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico and their tributaries.

Such rules and regulations pursuant to the provisions of sections 302, 311-323, 331, 341-351 of this title and section 381 of Title 46 are hereby declared special rules duly made by local authority relative to the navigation of harbors, rivers, and inland waters as provided for in section 131 of this title. (R. S. § 4233; Aug. 19, 1890, ch. 802, 26 Stat. 320; Feb. 8, 1895, ch. 64, 28 Stat. 645; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672; June 7, 1897, ch. 4, 30 Stat. 96.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 302. "Sail vessel" and "steam vessel" defined (Rule 1).

Every steam vessel which is under sail and not under steam shall be considered a sail vessel; and every steam vessel which is under steam, whether under sail or not, shall be considered a steam vessel. The words steam vessel shall include any vessel propelled by machinery. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672; Mar. 3, 1905, ch. 1457, § 10, 33 Stat. 1032.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 303. Penalty for violation by vessel.

Collectors or other chief officers of the customs shall require all sail vessels navigating the Red River of the North and rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico, and their tributaries to be furnished with proper signal lights.

Every such vessel that shall be navigated without complying with the Statutes of the United States, or the regulations that may be lawfully made thereunder, shall be liable to a penalty of $200, one-half to go to the informer; for which sum the vessel so navigated shall be liable, and may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction of the offense. (Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 3, 28 Stat. 672.)

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS

§ 311. Time for lights; prescribed lights exclusive (Rule 2).

The lights mentioned in the following rules, and no others, shall be carried in all weathers, between sunset and sunrise. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 312. Lights of ocean-going steamers and steamers carrying sail, when under way (Rule 3).

All ocean-going steamers, and steamers carrying sail, shall, when under way, carry—

(a) At the foremast head, a bright white light, of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least five miles, and so constructed as to show a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, and so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel, namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side.

(b) On the starboard side, a green light, of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles, and so constructed as to show a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, and so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side.

(c) On the port side, a red light, of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles, and so constructed as to show a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, and so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side.

The green and red lights shall be fitted with in-board screens, projecting at least three feet forward from the lights, so as to prevent them from being seen across the bow. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 313. Lights of steam vessels towing other vessels (Rule 4).

Steam vessels, when towing other vessels, shall carry two bright white masthead lights vertically, in addition to their side lights, so as to distinguish them from other steam vessels. Each of these masthead lights shall be of the same character and construction as the masthead lights prescribed by Rule 3. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 314. Lights of steam vessels other than ocean-going steamers and steamers carrying sail (Rule 5).

All steam vessels, other than ocean-going steamers and steamers carrying sail, shall, when under way, carry on the starboard and port sides lights of the same character and construction and in the same position as are prescribed for side lights by Rule 3, except in the case provided in Rule 6 of this chapter. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 315. Lights of river steamers on waters flowing into Gulf of Mexico (Rule 6).

River steamers navigating waters flowing into the Gulf of Mexico, and their tributaries, shall carry the following lights, namely: One red light on the outboard side of the port smoke pipe, and one green light on the outboard side of the starboard smoke pipe. Such lights shall show both forward and abeam on their respective sides. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 316. Lights of steam vessels not otherwise provided for; ferryboats, barges, and canal boats (Rule 7).

All steam vessels other than ferryboats and vessels otherwise expressly provided for, except those mentioned in Rule 6, section 315 of this title, shall carry the red and green lights, as prescribed for ocean-going steamers; and, in addition thereto, a central range of two white lights; the afterlight being carried at an elevation of at least fifteen feet above the light at the head of the vessel. The headlight shall be so constructed as to show a good light through twenty points of the compass, namely: from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side of the vessel; and the afterlight so as to show all around the horizon. The lights for ferryboats, barges, and canal boats when in tow of steam vessels, shall be regulated by such rules as the board of supervising inspectors of steam vessels shall prescribe. (R. S. § 4233; Mar. 3, 1893, ch. 202, 27 Stat. 557; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 317. Lights of sailing vessels under way or in tow (Rule 8).

Sail vessels, under way or being towed, shall carry the same lights as steam vessels under way, with the exception of the white masthead lights, which they shall never carry. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 318. Lights of small vessels in bad weather (Rule 9).

Whenever, as in case of small vessels during bad weather, the green and red lights can not be fixed, these lights shall be kept on deck, on their respective sides of the vessel, ready for instant exhibition, and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side. To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, they shall each be painted outside with the color of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with suitable screens. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 319. Lights of vessels at anchor (Rule 10).

All vessels, whether steam vessels or sail vessels, when at anchor in roadsteads or fairways, shall, between sunset and sunrise, exhibit where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull, a white light in a globular lantern of eight inches in diameter, and so constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light, visible all around the horizon, and at a distance of at least one mile: Provided, That the Secretary of War may, after investigation, rule, regulation, or order, designate such areas as he may deem proper as "special anchorage areas"; such special anchorage areas may from time to time be changed, or abolished, if after investigation the Secretary of War shall deem such change or abolition in the interest of navigation: Provided further, That vessels not more than sixty-five feet in length when at anchor in any such special anchorage area shall not be required to carry or exhibit the white light required by this article.<sup>1</sup> (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672; Apr. 22, 1940, ch. 128, § 3, 54 Stat. 151.)

<sup>1</sup> So in original. Probably should read "rule." R. S. § 4233 captioned as "rules" those divisions of act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58, originally entitled "articles".

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 320. Lights of sailing and steam pilot vessels (Rule 11).

Sailing pilot vessels shall not carry the lights required for other sailing vessels, but shall carry a white light at the masthead, visible all around the horizon, and shall also exhibit a flare-up light every fifteen minutes.

Steam pilot boats shall, in addition to the masthead light and green and red side lights required for ocean steam vessels, carry a red light hung vertically from three to five feet above the foremost headlight, for the purpose of distinguishing such steam pilot boats from other steam vessels. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672; Mar. 3, 1897, ch. 389, § 5, 29 Stat. 689.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 321. Lights of coal boats, produce boats, etc., navigating by hand power, horsepower, or by current of river (Rule 12).

Coal boats, trading boats, produce boats, canal boats, oyster boats, fishing boats, rafts, or other water craft, navigating any bay, harbor, or river, by hand power, horsepower, sail, or by the current of the river, or which shall be anchored or moored in or near the channel or fairway of any bay, harbor, or river, shall carry one or more good white lights, which shall be placed in such manner as shall be prescribed by the board of supervising inspectors of steam vessels. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 322. Lights of open boats (Rule 13).

Open boats shall not be required to carry the side lights required for other vessels, but shall, if they do not carry such lights, carry a lantern having a green slide on one side and a red slide on the other side; and, on the approach of or to other vessels, such lantern shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, and in such a manner that the green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side. Open boats, when at anchor or stationary, shall exhibit a bright white light. They shall not, however, be prevented from using a flare-up, in addition, if considered expedient. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 323. Vessel of war or Coast Guard vessel; suspension of exhibition of lights (Rule 14).

The exhibition of any light on board of a vessel of war of the United States may be suspended whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Navy, the commander in chief of a squadron, or the commander of a vessel acting singly, the special character of the service may require it. The exhibition of any light on board of a Coast Guard vessel of the United States may be suspended whenever, in the opinion of the commander of the vessel, the special character of the service may require it. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672; Mar. 3, 1897, ch. 389, § 12, 29 Stat. 690.)

SOUND SIGNALS FOR FOG, ETC.

§ 331. Sound signals for fog, etc.; steamers, sailing vessels, and other water craft, at anchor or under way (Rule 15).

Whenever there is a fog, or thick weather, whether by day or night, fog signals shall be used as follows: (a) Steam vessels under way shall sound a steam whistle placed before the funnel, not less than eight feet from the deck, at intervals of not more than one minute. Steam vessels, when towing, shall sound three blasts of quick succession repeated at intervals of not more than one minute.

(b) Sail vessels under way shall sound a foghorn at intervals of not more than one minute.

(c) Steam vessels and sail vessels, when not under way, shall sound a bell at intervals of not more than two minutes.

(d) Coal boats, trading boats, produce boats, canal boats, oyster boats, fishing boats, rafts, or other water craft, navigating any bay, harbor, or river, by hand power, horsepower, sail, or by the current of the river, or anchored or moored in or near the channel or fairway of any bay, harbor, or river, and not in any port, shall sound a foghorn, or equivalent signal, which shall make a sound equal to a steam whistle, at intervals of not more than two minutes. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672; Mar. 3, 1897, ch. 389, § 12, 29 Stat. 690.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

STEERING AND SAILING RULES

§ 341. Suggestion for ascertainment of risk of collision (Rule 16).

Risk of collision can, when circumstances permit, be ascertained by carefully watching the compass bearing of an approaching vessel. If the bearing does not appreciably change such risk should be deemed to exist. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672; Mar. 3, 1897, ch. 389, § 12, 29 Stat. 690.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 342. Sailing vessels approaching one another (Rule 17).

When two sailing vessels are approaching one another, so as to involve risk of collision, one of them shall keep out of the way of the other, as follows, namely:

(a) A vessel which is running free shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled.

(b) A vessel which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.

(d) When both vessels are running free, with the wind on the same side, the vessel which is to the windward shall keep out of the way of the vessel which is to the leeward.

(e) A vessel which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other vessel. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672; Mar. 3, 1897, ch. 389, § 12, 29 Stat. 690.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 343. Steam vessels meeting end on (Rule 18).

If two vessels under steam are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, the helms of both shall be put to port, so that each may pass on the port side of the other. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 344. Steam vessels crossing (Rule 19).

If two vessels under steam are crossing so as to involve risk of collision, the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 345. Steam and sailing vessels meeting (Rule 20).

If two vessels, one of which is a sail vessel and the other a steam vessel, are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam vessel shall keep out of the way of the sail vessel. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 346. Duty of steam vessel to slacken speed; fog (Rule 21).

Every steam vessel, when approaching another vessel, so as to involve risk of collision, shall slacken her speed, or, if necessary, stop and reverse; and every steam vessel shall, when in a fog, go at a moderate speed. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 347. Overtaking vessel to keep out of the way (Rule 22).

Every vessel overtaking any other vessel shall keep out of the way of the last-mentioned vessel. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 348. Vessel having right-of-way to keep course (Rule 23).

Where, by Rules 17, 19, 20, and 22 of this chapter, one of two vessels shall keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course, subject to the qualifications of rule 24. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 349. Special circumstance requiring departure from rules (Rule 24).

In construing and obeying these rules, due regard must be had to all dangers of navigation, and to any special circumstances which may exist in any particular case rendering a departure from them necessary in order to avoid immediate danger. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 350. Overtaken sailing vessel to show light (Rule 25).

A sail vessel which is being overtaken by another vessel during the night shall show from her stern to such last-mentioned vessel a torch or a flare-up light. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672; Mar. 3, 1897, ch. 389, § 13, 29 Stat. 690.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

§ 351. Usual additional precautions required (Rule 26).

Nothing in these rules shall exonerate any ship, or the owner, or master, or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper lookout, or of the neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen or by the special circumstances of the case. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, 28 Stat. 672; Mar. 3, 1897, ch. 389, § 13, 29 Stat. 690.)

DERIVATION

Act Apr. 29, 1864, ch. 69, 13 Stat. 58.

ORDERS

§ 352. Orders to helmsmen (Rule 27).

All orders to helmsmen shall be given as follows: "Right Rudder" to mean "Direct the vessel's head to starboard."

"Left Rudder" to mean "Direct the vessel's head to port." (Feb. 19, 1895, ch. 102, § 1, Rule 27, as added Aug. 21, 1935, ch. 595, § 4, 49 Stat. 669.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 5 of act August 21, 1935, cited to the text, provided that the act "shall become fully effective for all ocean and coastwise vessels on January 1, 1936, and for all on the Great Lakes, bays, sounds, harbors, rivers, and lakes other than the Great Lakes of the United States on January 1, 1937."

Chapter 6.—GENERAL DUTIES OF SHIP OFFICERS AND OWNERS AFTER COLLISION OR OTHER ACCIDENT

Sec.

- 361. Reports of accidents generally; penalty.
- 362. Report of probable loss of vessel; penalty.
- 363. Transmission by collectors of customs of reports to Secretary of Commerce.
- 364. Remission and recovery of penalties.
- 365. Reports by owners, etc., of barges in tow.
- 366. Reports by Secretary of Commerce to Congress.
- 367. Duty of master of vessel in collision to give aid, name of his vessel, etc.
- 368. Penalty for failure to give aid, etc.

§ 361. Reports of accidents generally; penalty.

Whenever any vessel of the United States has sustained or caused any accident involving the loss of life, the material loss of property, or any serious injury to any person, or has received any material damage affecting her seaworthiness or her efficiency, the managing owner, agent, or master of such vessel, shall within five days after the happening of such accident or damage, or as soon thereafter as possible, send, by letter to the collector of customs of the district wherein such vessel belongs or of that within which such accident or damage occurred, a report thereof, signed by such owner, agent, or master, stating the name and official number (if any) of the vessel, the port to which she belongs, the place where she was, the nature and probable occasion of the casualty, the number and names of those lost, and the estimated amount of loss or damage to the vessel or cargo; and shall furnish, upon the request of either of such collectors of customs, such other information concerning the vessel, her cargo, and the casualty as may be called for; and if he neglect or refuse to comply with the foregoing requirements after a reasonable time, he shall incur a penalty of $100. (June 20, 1874, ch. 344, § 10, 18 Stat. 128.)

§ 362. Report of probable loss of vessel; penalty.

Whenever the managing owner or agent of any vessel of the United States has reason, owing to the nonappearance of such vessel, or to any other circumstance, to apprehend that such vessel has been lost, he shall, as soon as conveniently may be, send notice, in writing, to the collector of customs of the port to which said vessel belonged, of such loss, and the probable occasion thereof stating the name and the official number (if any) of the vessel, and the names of all persons on board, so far as the same can be ascertained, and shall furnish, upon request of the collector of such port, such additional information as he may be able; and if he neglect to comply with the above requirements within a reasonable time, he shall incur a penalty of $100. (June 20, 1874, ch. 344, § 11, 18 Stat. 128.)

Transmission by collectors of customs of reports to Secretary of Commerce.

It shall be the duty of the collectors of customs to immediately transmit to the Secretary of Commerce such reports and information as they may receive under the provisions of the two preceding sections, and they shall also report to the Secretary of Commerce any neglect or refusal on the part of the managing owner, agent, or master of any vessel of the United States to comply with the requirements thereof. (June 20, 1874, ch. 344, § 12, 18 Stat. 128; Feb. 14, 1903, ch. 552, § 10, 32 Stat. 829.)

4. Remission and recovery of penalties.

The Secretary of Commerce may, upon application therefor, remit or mitigate any penalty provided for in section 361 of this title, or discontinue any prosecution to recover the same, upon such terms as he, in his discretion, shall think proper, and shall have authority to ascertain the facts upon all such applications in such manner and under such regulations as he may think proper. All penalties provided in section 361 of this title may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of in the manner prescribed by section 396 of this title. (June 20, 1874, ch. 344, § 13, 18 Stat. 128; Mar. 3, 1897, ch. 389, § 11, 29 Stat. 690; Feb. 14, 1903, ch. 552, § 10, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

§ 365. Reports by owners, etc., of barges in tow.

The owner, agent, or master of every barge which, while in tow through the open sea, has sustained or caused any accident, shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of this title, and the reports therein prescribed shall be transmitted by collectors of customs to the Secretary of Commerce. (Mar. 4, 1915, ch. 153, § 15, 38 Stat. 1184.)

§ 366. Reports by Secretary of Commerce to Congress.

The Secretary of Commerce shall transmit annually to Congress a summary of the reports, transmitted to him by the collectors of customs as required in sections 361-365 of this title during the previous fiscal year, together with a brief statement of the action of the department in respect to such accidents. (Mar. 4, 1915, ch. 153, § 15, 38 Stat. 1184.)

§ 367. Duty of master of vessel in collision to give aid, name of his vessel, etc.

In every case of collision between two vessels it shall be the duty of the master or person in charge of each vessel, if and so far as he can do so without serious danger to his own vessel, crew, and passengers (if any), to stay by the other vessel until he has ascertained that she has no need of further assistance, and to render to the other vessel, her master, crew, and passengers (if any) such assistance as may be practicable and as may be necessary in order to save them from any danger caused by the collision, and also to give to the master or person in charge of the other vessel the name of his own vessel and her port of registry, or the port or place to which she belongs, and also the name of the ports and places from which and to which she is bound. If he fails so to do, and no reasonable cause for such failure is shown, the collision shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to have been caused by his wrongful act, neglect, or default. (Sept. 4, 1890, ch. 875, § 1, 26 Stat. 425.)

§ 368. Penalty for failure to give aid, etc.

Every master or person in charge of a United States vessel who fails, without reasonable cause, to render such assistance or give such information as required in the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years; and for the above sum the vessel shall be liable and may be seized and proceeded against by process in any district court of the United States by any person; one-half such sum to be payable to the informer and the other half to the United States. (Sept. 4, 1890, ch. 875, § 2, 26 Stat. 425.)

Chapter 8.—SUMMARY TRIALS FOR CERTAIN OFFENSES AGAINST NAVIGATION LAWS

Sec.

- 391. Summary trials authorized.
- 392. Complaint and answer; jury trial.
- 393. Amendments of complaint and adjournments.
- 394. Challenge to jurors.
- 395. Limit of sentence.
- 396. Recovery of penalties and forfeitures generally.

§ 391. Summary trials authorized.

Whenever a complaint shall be made against any master, officer, or seaman of any vessel belonging, in whole or in part, to any citizen of the United States, of the commission of any offense, not capital or otherwise infamous, against any law of the United States made for the protection of persons or property engaged in commerce or navigation, it shall be the duty of the district attorney to investigate the same, and the general nature thereof, and if, in his opinion, the case is such as should be summarily tried, he shall report the same to the district judge, and the judge shall forthwith, or as soon as the ordinary business of the court will permit, proceed to try the cause, and for that purpose may, if necessary, hold a special session of the court, either in term time or vacation. (R. S. § 4300.)

DERIVATION

Act June 11, 1864, ch. 121, § 2, 13 Stat. 124.

§ 392. Complaint and answer; jury trial.

At the summary trial of offenses against the laws for the protection of persons or property engaged in commerce or navigation, it shall not be necessary that the accused shall have been previously indicted, but a statement of complaint, verified by oath in writing, shall be presented to the court, setting out the offense in such manner as clearly to apprise the accused of the character of the offense complained of, and to enable him to answer the complaint. The complaint or statement shall be read to the accused, who may plead to or answer the same, or make a counterstatement. The trial shall thereupon be proceeded with in a summary manner, and the case shall be decided by the court, unless, at the time for pleading or answering, the accused shall demand a jury, in which case the trial shall be upon the complaint and plea of not guilty. (R. S. § 4301.)

DERIVATION

Act June 11, 1864, ch. 121, §§ 3, 4, 13 Stat. 125.

§ 393. Amendments of complaint and adjournments.

It shall be lawful for the court to allow the district attorney to amend his statement of complaint at any stage of the proceedings, before verdict, if, in the opinion of the court, such amendment will work no injustice to the accused; and if it appears to the court that the accused is unprepared to meet the charge as amended, and that an adjournment of the cause will promote the ends of justice, such adjournment shall be made, until a further day, to be fixed by the court. (R. S. § 4302.)

DERIVATION

Act June 11, 1864, ch. 121, § 6, 13 Stat. 125.

§ 394. Challenge to jurors.

At the trial in summary cases, if by jury, the United States and the accused shall each be entitled to three peremptory challenges. Challenges for cause, in such cases, shall be tried by the court without the aid of triers. (R. S. § 4303.)

DERIVATION

Act June 11, 1864, ch. 121, § 7, 13 Stat. 125.

§ 395. Limit of sentence.

It shall not be lawful for the court to sentence any person convicted in such trial to any greater punishment than imprisonment in jail for one year, or to a fine exceeding $500, or both, in its discretion, in those cases where the laws of the United States authorize such imprisonment and fine. (R. S. § 4304.)

DERIVATION

Act June 11, 1864, ch. 121, § 5, 13 Stat. 125.

§ 396. Recovery of penalties and forfeitures generally.

All the penalties and forfeitures which may be incurred for offenses against this title<sup>1</sup> may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered in such court, and be disposed of in such manner, as any penalties and forfeitures which may be incurred for offenses against the laws relating to the collection of duties, except when otherwise expressly prescribed. (R. S. § 4305.)

- § 402. Construction of bridges, etc., over Illinois and Mississippi Canal.

The provisions of section 401 of this title are hereby made applicable alike to the completed and uncompleted portions of the Illinois and Mississippi Canal. Whenever the Secretary of War shall approve plans for a bridge to be built across said canal he may, in his discretion, and subject to such terms and conditions as in his judgment are equitable, expedient, and just to the public, grant to the person or corporation building and owning such bridge a right of way across the lands of the United States on either side of and adjacent to the said canal; also the privilege of occupying so much of said lands as may be necessary for the piers, abutments, and other portions of the bridge structure and approaches. (June 13, 1902, ch. 1079, § 10, 32 Stat. 374.)

§ 403. Obstruction of navigable waters generally; wharves; piers, etc.; excavations and filling in.

The creation of any obstruction not affirmatively authorized by Congress, to the navigable capacity of any of the waters of the United States is hereby prohibited; and it shall not be lawful to build or commence the building of any wharf, pier, dolphin, boom, weir, breakwater, bulkhead, jetty, or other structures in any port, roadstead, haven, harbor, canal, navigable river, or other water of the United States, outside established harbor lines, or where no harbor lines have been established, except on plans recommended by the Chief of Engineers and authorized by the Secretary of War; and it shall not be lawful to excavate or fill, or in any manner to alter or modify the course, location, condition, or capacity of, any port, roadstead, haven, harbor, canal, lake, harbor of refuge, or inclosure within the limits of any breakwater, or of the channel of any navigable water of the United States, unless the work has been recommended by the Chief of Engineers and authorized by the Secretary of War prior to beginning the same. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 10, 30 Stat. 1151.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Virgin Islands, application of this section to, see section 1399 of Title 48, Territories and Insular Possessions.

§ 404. Establishment of harbor lines; conditions to grants for extension of piers, etc.

Where it is made manifest to the Secretary of War that the establishment of harbor lines is essential to the preservation and protection of harbors he may, and is hereby, authorized to cause such lines to be established, beyond which no piers, wharves, bulkheads, or other works shall be extended or deposits made, except under such regulations as may be prescribed from time to time by him: Provided, That whenever the Secretary of War grants to any person or persons permission to extend piers, wharves, bulkheads, or other works, or to make deposits in any tidal harbor or river of the United States beyond any harbor lines established under authority of the United States, he shall cause to be ascertained the amount of tidewater displaced by any such structure or by any such deposits, and he shall, if he deem it necessary, require the parties to whom the permission is given to make compensation for such displacement either by excavating in some part of the harbor, including tidewater channels between high and low water mark, to such an extent as to create a basin for as much tidewater as may be displaced by such structure or by such deposits, or in any other mode that may be satisfactory to him. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 11, 30 Stat. 1151.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Virgin Islands, application of this section to, see section 1399 of Title 48, Territories and Insular Possessions.

§ 405. Establishment and modification of harbor lines on Potomac and Anacostia Rivers.

The provisions of section 404 of this title are made applicable to the Potomac and Anacostia Rivers, and after July 25, 1912, harbor lines in the District of Columbia, or elsewhere on said rivers, shall be established or modified as therein provided. (July 25, 1912, ch. 253, § 1, 37 Stat. 206.)

§ 406. Penalty for wrongful construction of bridges, piers, etc.; removal of structures.

Every person and every corporation that shall violate any of the provisions of sections 401, 403, and 404 of this title or any rule or regulation made by the Secretary of War in pursuance of the provisions of said section 404, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,500 nor less than $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) not exceeding one year, or by both such punishments, in the discretion of the court. And further, the removal of any structures or parts of structures erected in violation of the provisions of the said sections may be enforced by the injunction of any district court exercising jurisdiction in any district in which such structures may exist, and proper proceedings to this end may be instituted under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 12, 30 Stat. 1151; Feb. 20, 1900, ch. 23, § 2, 31 Stat. 32; Mar. 3, 1911, ch. 231, § 291, 36 Stat. 1167.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 407. Deposit of refuse in navigable waters generally.

It shall not be lawful to throw, discharge, or deposit, or cause, suffer, or procure to be thrown, discharged, or deposited either from or out of any ship, barge, or other floating craft of any kind, or from the shore, wharf, manufacturing establishment, or mill of any kind, any refuse matter of any kind or description whatever other than that flowing from streets and sewers and passing therefrom in a liquid state, into any navigable water of the United States, or into any tributary of any navigable water from which the same shall float or be washed into such navigable water; and it shall not be lawful to deposit, or cause, suffer, or procure to be deposited material of any kind in any place on the bank of any navigable water, or on the bank of any tributary of any navigable water, where the same shall be liable to be washed into such navigable water, either by ordinary or high tides, or by storms or floods, or otherwise, whereby navigation shall or may be impeded or obstructed: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall extend to, apply to, or prohibit the operations in connection with the improvement of navigable waters or construction of public works, considered necessary and proper by the United States officers supervising such improvement or public work: And provided further, That the Secretary of War, whenever in the judgment of the Chief of Engineers anchorage and navigation will not be injured thereby, may permit the deposit of any material above mentioned in navigable waters, within limits to be defined and under conditions to be prescribed by him, provided application is made to him prior to depositing such material; and whenever any permit is so granted the conditions thereof shall be strictly complied with, and any violation thereof shall be unlawful. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 13, 30 Stat. 1152.)

§ 408. Taking possession of, use of, or injury to harbor or river improvements.

It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to take possession of or make use of for any purpose, or build upon, alter, deface, destroy, move, injure, obstruct by fastening vessels thereto or otherwise, or in any manner whatever impair the usefulness of any sea wall, bulkhead, jetty, dike, levee, wharf, pier, or other work built by the United States, or any piece of plant, floating or otherwise, used in the construction of such work under the control of the United States, in whole or in part, for the preservation and improvement of any of its navigable waters or to prevent floods, or as boundary marks, tide gauges, surveying stations, buoys, or other established marks, nor remove for ballast or other purposes any stone or other material composing such works: Provided, That the Secretary of War may, on the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, grant permission for the temporary occupation or use of any of the aforementioned public works when in his judgment such occupation or use will not be injurious to the public interest. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 14, 30 Stat. 1152.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Virgin Islands, application of this section to, see section 1399 of Title 48, Territories and Insular Possessions.

§ 409. Obstruction of navigable waters by vessels; floating timber; marking and removal of sunken vessels.

It shall not be lawful to tie up or anchor vessels or other craft in navigable channels in such a manner as to prevent or obstruct the passage of other vessels or craft; or to voluntarily or carelessly sink, or permit or cause to be sunk, vessels or other craft in navigable channels; or to float loose timber and logs, or to float what is known as "sack rafts of timber and logs" in streams or channels actually navigated by steamboats in such manner as to obstruct, impede, or endanger navigation. And whenever a vessel, raft, or other craft is wrecked and sunk in a navigable channel, accidentally or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the owner of such sunken craft to immediately mark it with a buoy or beacon during the day and a lighted lantern at night, and to maintain such marks until the sunken craft is removed or abandoned, and the neglect or failure of the said owner so to do shall be unlawful; and it shall be the duty of the owner of such sunken craft to commence the immediate removal of the same, and prosecute such removal diligently, and failure to do so shall be considered as an abandonment of such craft, and subject the same to removal by the United States as provided for in sections 411-416, 418, and 502 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 15, 30 Stat. 1152.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Virgin Islands, application of this section to, see section 1399 of Title 48, Territories and Insular Possessions.

§ 410. Exception as to floating loose timber, sack rafts, etc.; violation of regulations; penalty.

The prohibition contained in section 409 of this title against floating loose timber and logs, or sack rafts, so called, of timber and logs in streams or channels actually navigated by steamboats, shall not apply to any navigable river or waterway of the United States or any part thereof whereon the floating of loose timber and logs and sack rafts of timber and logs is the principal method of navigation. But such method of navigation on such river or waterway or part thereof shall be subject to the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War as hereinafter in this section provided.

The Secretary of War shall have power, and he is hereby authorized and directed to prescribe rules and regulations, which he may at any time modify, to govern and regulate the floating of loose timber and logs, and sack rafts, (so called) of timber and logs and other methods of navigation on the streams and waterways, or any thereof, of the character, as to navigation, heretofore in this section described. The said rules and regulations shall be so framed as to equitably adjust conflicting interests between the different methods or forms of navigation; and the said rules and regulations shall be published at least once in such newspaper or newspapers of general circulation as in the opinion of the Secretary of War shall be best adapted to give notice of said rules and regulations to persons affected thereby and locally interested therein. And all modifications of said rules and regulations shall be similarly published. And such rules and regulations when so prescribed and published as to any such stream or waterway shall have the force of law, and any violation thereof shall be a misdemeanor, and every person convicted of such violation shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding $2,500 nor less than $500, or by imprisonment (in case of a natural person) for not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That the proper action to enforce the provisions of this section may be commenced before any commissioner, judge, or court of the United States, and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in the case of crimes or misdemeanors committed against the United States.

The right to alter, amend, or repeal this section at any time is hereby reserved. (May 9, 1900, ch. 387, §§ 1-3, 31 Stat. 172.)

§ 411. Penalty for wrongful deposit of refuse; use of or injury to harbor improvements, and obstruction of navigable waters generally.

Every person and every corporation that shall violate, or that shall knowingly aid, abet, authorize, or instigate a violation of the provisions of sections 407, 408, and 409 of this title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,500 nor less than $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) for not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, one-half of said fine to be paid to the person or persons giving information which shall lead to conviction. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 16, 30 Stat. 1153.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Virgin Islands, application of this section to, see section 1399 of Title 48, Territories and Insular Possessions.

§ 412. Liability of masters, pilots, and so forth, and of vessels engaged in violations.

Any and every master, pilot, and engineer, or person or persons acting in such capacity, respectively, on board of any boat or vessel who shall knowingly engage in towing any scow, boat, or vessel loaded with any material specified in section 407 of this title to any point or place of deposit or discharge in any harbor or navigable water, elsewhere than within the limits defined and permitted by the Secretary of War, or who shall willfully injure or destroy any work of the United States contemplated in section 408 of this title, or who shall willfully obstruct the channel of any waterway in the manner contemplated in section 409 of this title, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of sections 401, 403, 404, 406-409, 411-416, 418, 502, 549, 686, 687 of this title, and shall upon conviction be punished as provided in section 411 of this title, and shall also have his license revoked or suspended for a term to be fixed by the judge before whom tried and convicted. And any boat, vessel, scow, raft, or other craft used or employed in violating any of the provisions of sections 407, 408, and 409 of this title shall be liable for the pecuniary penalties specified in section 411 of this title, and in addition thereto for the amount of the damages done by said boat, vessel, scow, raft, or other craft, which latter sum shall be placed to the credit of the appropriation for the improvement of the harbor or waterway in which the damage occurred, and said boat, vessel, scow, raft, or other craft may be proceeded against summarily by way of libel in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 16, 30 Stat. 1153.)

§ 413. Duty of district attorneys and other Federal officers in enforcement of provisions; arrest of offenders.

The Department of Justice shall conduct the legal proceedings necessary to enforce the provisions of sections 401, 403, 404, 406-409, 411, 549, 686, and 687 of this title; and it shall be the duty of district attorneys of the United States to vigorously prosecute all offenders against the same whenever requested to do so by the Secretary of War or by any of the officials hereinafter designated, and it shall furthermore be the duty of said district attorneys to report to the Attorney General of the United States the action taken by him against offenders so reported, and a transcript of such reports shall be transmitted to the Secretary of War by the Attorney General; and for the better enforcement of the said provisions and to facilitate the detection and bringing to punishment of such offenders, the officers and agents of the United States in charge of river and harbor improvements, and the assistant engineers and inspectors employed under them by authority of the Secretary of War, and the United States collectors of customs and other revenue officers shall have power and authority to swear out process, and to arrest and take into custody, with or without process, any person or persons who may commit any of the acts or offenses prohibited by the aforesaid sections, or who may violate any of the provisions of the same: Provided, That no person shall be arrested without process for any offense not committed in the presence of some one of the aforesaid officials: And provided further, That whenever any arrest is made under such sections, the person so arrested shall be brought forthwith before a commissioner, judge, or court of the United States for examination of the offenses alleged against him; and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 17, 30 Stat. 1153.)

ENFORCEMENT OF ACT SEPT. 19, 1890

Act Sept. 19, 1890, ch. 907, § 11, 26 Stat. 455, was probably omitted from the code as superseded by this section, or as rendered obsolete by act March 3, 1899, cited to text, different sections of which superseded provisions of the act of 1890, the enforcement of which was provided for by section 11. It read as follows: "It shall be the duty of officers and agents having the supervision, on the part of the United States, of the works in progress for the preservation and improvement of said navigable waters, and, in their absence, of the United States collectors of customs and other revenue officers to enforce the provisions of this act by giving information to the district attorney of the United States for the district in which any violation of any provision of this act shall have been committed: Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not apply to Torch Lake, Houghton County, Michigan."

§ 414. Removal by Secretary of War of sunken water craft generally.

Whenever the navigation of any river, lake, harbor, sound, bay, canal, or other navigable waters of the United States shall be obstructed or endangered by any sunken vessel, boat, water craft, raft, or other similar obstruction, and such obstruction has existed for a longer period than thirty days, or whenever the abandonment of such obstruction can be legally established in a less space of time, the sunken vessel, boat, water craft, raft, or other obstruction shall be subject to be broken up, removed, sold, or otherwise disposed of by the Secretary of War at his discretion, without liability for any damage to the owners of the same: Provided, That in his discretion, the Secretary of War may cause reasonable notice of such obstruction of not less than thirty days, unless the legal abandonment of the obstruction can be established in a less time, to be given by publication, addressed "To whom it may concern," in a newspaper published nearest to the locality of the obstruction, requiring the removal thereof: And provided also, That the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, at or after the time of giving such notice, cause sealed proposals to be solicited by public advertisement, giving reasonable notice of not less than ten days, for the removal of such obstruction as soon as possible after the expiration of the above specified thirty days' notice, in case it has not in the meantime been so removed, these proposals and contracts, at his discretion, to be conditioned that such vessel, boat, water craft, raft, or other obstruction, and all cargo and property contained therein, shall become the property of the contractor, and the contract shall be awarded to the bidder making the proposition most advantageous to the United States: Provided, That such bidder shall give satisfactory security to execute the work: Provided further, That any money received from the sale of any such wreck, or from any contractor for the removal of wrecks, under this paragraph shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 19, 30 Stat. 1154.)

§ 415. Summary removal of water craft obstructing navigation.

Under emergency, in the case of any vessel, boat, water craft, or raft, or other similar obstruction, sinking or grounding, or being unnecessarily delayed in any Government canal or lock, or in any navigable waters mentioned in section 414 of this title, in such manner as to stop, seriously interfere with, or specially endanger navigation, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, or any agent of the United States to whom the Secretary may delegate proper authority, the Secretary of War or any such agent shall have the right to take immediate possession of such boat, vessel, or other water craft, or raft, so far as to remove or to destroy it and to clear immediately the canal, lock, or navigable waters aforesaid of the obstruction thereby caused, using his best judgment to prevent any unnecessary injury; and no one shall interfere with or prevent such removal or destruction: Provided, That the officer or agent charged with the removal or destruction of an obstruction under this section may in his discretion give notice in writing to the owners of any such obstruction requiring them to remove it: And provided further, That the expense of removing any such obstruction as aforesaid shall be a charge against such craft and cargo; and if the owners thereof fail or refuse to reimburse the United States for such expense within thirty days after notification, then the officer or agent aforesaid may sell the craft or cargo, or any part thereof that may not have been destroyed in removal, and the proceeds of such sale shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 20, 30 Stat. 1154.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Virgin Islands, application of this section to, see section 1399 of Title 48, Territories and Insular Possessions.

§ 416. Appropriation for removal of sunken water craft.

Such sum of money as may be necessary to execute sections 414 and 415 of this title is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be paid out on the requisition of the Secretary of War. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 20, 30 Stat. 1155.)

REPEAL

Effective July 1, 1935, the permanent appropriation provided for in this section was repealed by Act June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 2, 48 Stat. 1225, incorporated in section 725a of Title 31, Money and Finance, authorizing, in lieu thereof, an annual appropriation from the general fund of the Treasury.

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 417. Expenses of investigations by War Department.

Expenses incurred by the Engineer Department of the War Department in all investigations, inspections, hearings, reports, service of notice, or other action incidental to examination of plans or sites of bridges or other structures built or proposed to be built in or over navigable waters, or to examinations into alleged violations of laws for the protection and preservation of navigable waters, or to the establishment or marking of harbor lines, shall be payable from any funds which may be available for the improvement, maintenance, operation, or care of the waterways or harbors affected, or if such funds are not available in sums judged by the Chief of Engineers to be adequate, then from any funds available for examinations, surveys, and contingencies of rivers and harbors. (Mar. 3, 1905, ch. 1482, § 6, 33 Stat. 1148.)

§ 418. Provisions for protection of New York Harbor unaffected.

Nothing contained in sections 401, 403, 404, 406, 407, 408, 409, 411–416, 502, 549, 686, and 687 of this title shall be construed as repealing, modifying, or in any manner affecting the provisions of sections 441–451 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 20, 30 Stat. 1154; Feb. 20, 1900, ch. 23, § 3, 31 Stat. 32; June 13, 1902, ch. 1079, § 12, 32 Stat. 375.)

§ 419. Regulation by Secretary governing transportation and dumping of dredgings, refuse, etc., into navigable waters; oyster lands; appropriations.

The Secretary of War is authorized and empowered to prescribe regulations to govern the transportation and dumping into any navigable water, or waters adjacent thereto, of dredgings, earth, garbage, and other refuse materials of every kind or description, whenever in his judgment such regulations are required in the interest of navigation. Such regulations shall be posted in conspicuous and appropriate places for the information of the public; and every person or corporation which shall violate the said regulations, or any of them, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in sections 411 and 412 of this title, for violation of the provisions of section 407 of this title: Provided, That any regulations made in pursuance hereof may be enforced as provided in section 413 of this title, the provisions whereof are hereby made applicable to the said regulations: Provided further, That this section shall not apply to any waters within the jurisdictional boundaries of any State which are now or may hereafter be used for the cultivation of oysters under the laws of such State, except navigable channels which have been or may hereafter be improved by the United States, or to be designated as navigable channels by competent authority, and in making such improvements of channels, the material dredged shall not be deposited upon any ground in use in accordance with the laws of such State for the cultivation of oysters, except in compliance with said laws: And provided further, That any expense necessary in executing this section may be paid from funds available for the improvement of the harbor or waterway, for which regulations may be prescribed, and in case no such funds are available the said expense may be paid from appropriations made by Congress for examinations, surveys, and contingencies of rivers and harbors. (Mar. 3, 1905, ch. 1482, § 4, 33 Stat. 1147.)

§ 420. Piers and cribs on Mississippi and St. Croix Rivers.

The owners of sawmills on the Mississippi River and the Saint Croix River in the States of Wisconsin and Minnesota are authorized and empowered under the direction of the Secretary of War, to construct piers or cribs in front of their mill property on the banks of the river, for the protection of their mills and rafts against damage by floods and ice: Provided, however, That the piers or cribs so constructed shall not interfere with or obstruct the navigation of the river. And in case any pier or crib constructed under authority of this section shall at any time, and for any cause, be found to obstruct the navigation of the river, the Government expressly reserves the right to remove or direct the removal of it, at the cost and expense of the owners thereof. (R. S. § 5254; May 1, 1882, ch. 112, 22 Stat. 52.)

DERIVATION

Act Mar. 3, 1873, ch. 278, 17 Stat. 606.

§ 421. Deposit of refuse, etc., in Lake Michigan near Chicago.

It shall not be lawful to throw, discharge, dump, or deposit, or cause, suffer, or procure, to be thrown, discharged, dumped, or deposited, any refuse matter of any kind or description whatever other than that flowing from streets and sewers and passing therefrom in a liquid state into Lake Michigan, at any point opposite or in front of the county of Cook, in the State of Illinois, or the county of Lake in the State of Indiana, within eight miles from the shore of said lake, unless said material shall be placed inside of a breakwater so arranged as not to permit the escape of such refuse material into the body of the lake and cause contamination thereof; and no officer of the Government shall dump or cause or authorize to be dumped any material contrary to the provisions of this section: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to work in connection with the construction, repair, and protection of breakwaters and other structures built in aid of navigation, or for the purpose of obtaining water supply. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined for each offense not exceeding $1,000. (June 23, 1910, ch. 359, 36 Stat. 593.)

§ 422. Modification and extension of harbor lines at Chicago.

The Secretary of War is authorized, in his discretion, to modify and extend harbor lines in front of the city of Chicago in such manner as to permit park extension work which may be desired by the municipal authorities, including the changing and widening of the southern entrance to the Chicago Harbor. (Aug. 26, 1912, ch. 408, § 5, 37 Stat. 626.)

§ 423. Establishment of pierhead and bulkhead lines in Wilmington Harbor, California.

The Secretary of War is authorized to fix and establish pierhead and bulkhead lines, either or both, in the inner harbor of San Pedro, otherwise known as Wilmington Harbor, California, beyond which no piers, wharves, bulkheads, or other works shall be extended or deposits made except under such regulations as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of War. (Mar. 26, 1908, No. 14, 35 Stat. 569.)

§ 424. Establishment of pierhead or bulkhead lines in Newport Harbor, California.

The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to fix and establish pierhead and bulkhead lines, either or both, at Newport Harbor, California, in accordance with plan dated United States Engineer Office, Los Angeles, California, March 25, 1913, and entitled "Newport Bay, California", showing harbor lines, beyond which no piers, wharfs, bulkheads, or other works shall be extended or deposit made, except under such regulations as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of War. (July 27, 1916, ch. 260, § 3, 39 Stat. 411.)

§ 424a. Modification of harbor lines in Newport Harbor, California.

The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to modify, from time to time, the harbor lines at Newport

Harbor, California, established in pursuance of section 424 of this title: Provided, That in his opinion such modification will not injuriously affect the interests of navigation. (Mar. 3, 1925, ch. 467, § 10, 43 Stat. 1197.)

§ 425. Investigations by Secretary of War as to pollution of navigable waters.

Section, act June 7, 1924, ch. 316, § 9, 43 Stat. 606, directed Secretary of War to investigate depositing of polluting substances into navigable streams and report the results to Congress not later than two years from June 7, 1924.

§ 426. Investigations concerning erosion of shores of coastal and lake waters; cooperation with States; personnel conducting investigations; salaries and expenses.

The Chief of Engineers of the United States Army, under the direction of the Secretary of War, is authorized and directed to cause investigations and studies to be made in cooperation with the appropriate agencies of various States on the Atlantic, Pacific, and Gulf coasts and on the Great Lakes, and the Territories, with a view to devising effective means of preventing erosion of the shores of coastal and lake waters by waves and currents; and any expenses incident and necessary thereto may be paid from funds appropriated for examinations, Surveys the Contingencies for Rivers and Harbors: Provided, That the War Department may release to the appropriate State agencies information obtained by these investigations and studies prior to the formal transmission of reports to Congress: Provided further, That no money shall be expended under authority of this section in any State which does not provide for cooperation with the agents of the United States and contribute to the project such funds and/or services as the Secretary of War may deem appropriate and require; that there shall be organized under the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, by detail from time to time from the Corps of Engineers and from the engineers of State agencies charged with beach erosion and shore protection, a board of seven members, of whom four shall be officers of the Corps of Engineers and three shall be selected with regard to their special fitness by the Chief of Engineers from among the State agencies cooperating with the War Department. The board will furnish such technical assistance as may be directed by the Chief of Engineers in the conduct of such studies as may be undertaken and will review the reports of the investigations made. In the consideration of such studies as may be referred to the board by the Chief of Engineers, the board shall, when it considers it necessary and with the sanction of the Chief of Engineers, make, as a board or through its members, personal examinations of localities under investigation: Provided further, That the salary of the civilian members shall be paid by their respective States, but the traveling and other necessary expenses connected with their duties on the board shall be paid in accordance with the law and regulations governing the payment of such expenses to civilian employees of the Engineer Department. (July 3, 1930, ch. 847, § 2, 46 Stat. 945.)

§ 427. Improvement and protection of beaches; beaches defined.

It is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States to assist in the construction where Federal interests are involved, but not the maintenance, of works for the improvement and protection of the beaches along the shores of the United States, and to prevent erosion due to the action of waves, tides, and currents, with the purpose of preventing damage to property along the shores of the United States, and promoting and encouraging the healthful recreation of the people. As used in this section and section 428 of this title, the word "beaches" includes all those situated on the coasts of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, the Gulf of Mexico, and the shores of the Great Lakes, and all estuaries and bays directly connected therewith. (June 26, 1936, ch. 849, § 1, 49 Stat. 1982.)

§ 428. Same; investigations by Beach Erosion Board; duties of Board.

(a) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War, through the Beach Erosion Board, organized under the provisions of section 426 of this title, to make investigations with a view to determining the most suitable methods of beach protection and restoration of beaches in different localities; to advise the States, counties, municipalities, or individuals of the appropriate locations for recreational facilities; and to publish from time to time such useful data and information concerning the protection of beaches as the Board may deem to be of value to the people of the United States: Provided, That not more than 75 per centum of the cost of any specific investigation shall be borne by the United States.

(b) All provisions of existing law relating to examinations and surveys and to works of improvement of rivers and harbors shall apply, insofar as practicable, to examinations and surveys and to works of improvement relating to shore protection; except that all projects having to do with shore protection shall be referred for consideration and recommendation to the Beach Erosion Board instead of to the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors. (June 26, 1936, ch. 849, § 2, 49 Stat. 1982.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, powers and duties generally, see section 541 of this title.

§ 429. Same; report of Beach Erosion Board.

The Beach Erosion Board, in making its report on any work or project relating to shore protection shall, in addition to any other matters upon which it may be required to report, state its opinion as to (a) the advisability of adopting the project, (b) what Federal interest, if any, is involved in the proposed improvement, and (c) what share of the expense, if any, should be borne by the United States. (June 26, 1936, ch. 849, § 3, 49 Stat. 1983.)

§ 430. Same; payment of expenses.

Any expenses incident and necessary in the undertaking of the investigations and studies authorized in section 428 of this title may be paid from funds hitherto or hereafter appropriated for examinations, surveys, and contingencies for rivers and harbors. (June 26, 1936, ch. 849, § 4, 49 Stat. 1983.)

OIL POLLUTION OF COASTAL WATERS

§ 431. Short title; "Oil Pollution Act."

Sections 431–437 of this title may be cited as the "Oil Pollution Act, 1924." (June 7, 1924, ch. 316, § 1, 43 Stat. 604.)

§ 432. Definitions; "oil"; "person"; "coastal navigable waters"; "Secretary."

When used in sections 431–437 of this title, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) The term "oil" means oil of any kind or in any form, including fuel oil, oil sludge, and oil refuse;

(b) The term "person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, or association; any owner, master, officer or employee of a vessel; and any officer, agent, or employee of the United States;

(c) The term "coastal navigable waters of the United States" means all portions of the sea within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, and all inland waters navigable in fact in which the tide ebbs and flows;

(d) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of War. (June 7, 1924, ch. 316, § 2, 43 Stat. 604.)

§ 433. Prohibition against discharge of oil generally.

Except in case of emergency imperiling life or property, or unavoidable accident, collision, or stranding, and except as otherwise permitted by regulations prescribed by the Secretary as in sections 434–437 of this title authorized, it shall be unlawful for any person to discharge, or suffer, or permit the discharge of oil by any method, means, or manner into or upon the coastal navigable waters of the United States from any vessel using oil as fuel for the generation of propulsion power, or any vessel carrying or having oil thereon in excess of that necessary for its lubricating requirements and such as may be required under the laws of the United States and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder. The Secretary is authorized and empowered to prescribe regulations permitting the discharge of oil from vessels in such quantities, under such conditions, and at such times and places as in his opinion will not be deleterious to health or sea food, or a menace to navigation, or dangerous to persons or property engaged in commerce on such waters, and for the loading, handling, and unloading of oil. (June 7, 1924, ch. 316, § 3, 43 Stat. 605.)

§ 434. Penalties for violations; liability of vessel.

Any person who violates section 433 of this title or any regulation prescribed in pursuance thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,500 nor less than $500, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year nor less than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, for each offense. And any vessel (other than a vessel owned and operated by the United States) from which oil is discharged in violation of the preceding section, or any regulation prescribed in pursuance thereof, shall be liable for the pecuniary penalty specified in this section, and clearance of such vessel from a port of the United States may be withheld until the penalty is paid, and said penalty shall constitute a lien on such vessel which may be recovered in proceedings by libel in rem in the district court of the United States for any district within which the vessel may be. (June 7, 1924, ch. 316, § 4, 43 Stat. 605.)

§ 435. Revocation or suspension of license of officers of offending vessels.

A board of local inspectors of vessels may, subject to the provisions of section 239 of Title 46, Shipping, and of sections 431–434 of Title 46, Shipping, suspend or revoke a license issued by any such board to the master or other licensed officer of any vessel found violating the provisions of section 433 of this title. (June 7, 1924, ch. 316, § 5, 43 Stat. 605.)

§ 436. Personnel for enforcement of provisions; arrest of offenders and procedure.

In the administration of sections 431–437 of this title, the Secretary may make use of the organization, equipment, and agencies, including engineering, clerical, and other personnel, employed under his direction in the improvement of rivers and harbors, and in the enforcement of laws for the preservation and protection of navigable waters. And for the better enforcement of the provisions of the said sections, the officers and agents of the United States in charge of river and harbor improvements, and the assistant engineers and inspectors employed under them by authority of the Secretary, and officers of the Customs and Coast Guard of the United States, shall have power and authority and it shall be their duty to swear out process and to arrest and take into custody, with or without process, any person who may violate any of said provisions: Provided, That no person shall be arrested without process for a violation not committed in the presence of some one of the aforesaid officials: And provided further, That whenever any arrest is made under the provisions of the said sections the person so arrested shall be brought forthwith before a commissioner, judge, or court of the United States for examination of the offenses alleged against him; and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in cases of crimes against the United States. (June 7, 1924, ch. 316, § 7, 43 Stat. 605.)

§ 437. Other statutes for preservation and protection of navigable waters unaffected.

Sections 431–436 of this title shall be in addition to the laws existing prior to June 7, 1924, for the preservation and protection of navigable waters and shall not be construed as repealing, modifying, or in any manner affecting the provisions of those laws. (June 7, 1924, ch. 316, § 8, 43 Stat. 606.)

NEW YORK HARBOR AND ADJACENT WATERS

§ 441. Deposit of refuse in New York Harbor and adjacent waters prohibited; penalty.

The placing, discharging, or depositing, by any process or in any manner, of refuse, dirt, ashes, cinders, mud, sand, dredgings, sludge, acid, or any other matter of any kind, other than that flowing from streets, sewers, and passing therefrom in a liquid state, in the tidal waters of the harbor of New York, or its adjacent or tributary waters, or in those of Long Island Sound, within the limits which shall be prescribed by the supervisor of the harbor, is hereby strictly forbidden, and every such act is made a misdemeanor, and every person engaged in or who shall aid, abet, authorize, or instigate a violation of this section, shall, upon conviction, be punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, such fine to be not less than $250 nor more than $2,500, and the imprisonment to be not less than thirty days nor more than one year, either or both united, as the judge before whom conviction is obtained shall decide, one-half of said fine to be paid to the person or persons giving information which shall lead to conviction of this misdemeanor. (June 29, 1888, ch. 496, § 1, 25 Stat. 209.)

§ 442. Liability of officers of towing vessel.

Any and every master and engineer, or person or persons acting in such capacity, respectively, on board of any boat or vessel, who shall knowingly engage in towing any scow, boat, or vessel loaded with any such prohibited matter to any point or place of deposit, or discharge in the waters of the harbor of New York, or in its adjacent, or tributary waters, or in those of Long Island Sound, or to any point or place elsewhere than within the limits defined and permitted by the supervisor of the harbor mentioned in section 451 of this title, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of section 441 of this title, and shall, upon conviction, be punishable as provided for offenses in violation of section 441 of this title, and shall also have his license revoked or suspended for a term to be fixed by the judge before whom tried and convicted. (June 29, 1888, ch. 496, § 2, 25 Stat. 209.)

§ 443. Permit for dumping; penalty for taking or towing boat or scow without permit.

In all cases of receiving on board of any scows or boats such forbidden matter or substance as described in section 441 of this title, the owner or master, or person acting in such capacity on board of such scows or boats, before proceeding to take or tow the same to the place of deposit, shall apply for and obtain from the supervisor of the harbor appointed, as provided in section 451 of this title, a permit defining the precise limits within which the discharge of such scows or boats may be made; and it shall not be lawful for the owner or master, or person acting in such capacity, of any tug or towboat to tow or move any scow or boat so loaded with such forbidden matter until such permit shall have been obtained; and every person violating the foregoing provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 nor less than $500, and in addition thereto the master of any tug or towboat so offending shall have his license revoked or suspended for a term to be fixed by the judge before whom tried and convicted. (June 29, 1888, ch. 496, § 3, 25 Stat. 209; Aug. 18, 1894, ch. 299, § 3, 28 Stat. 360; May 28, 1908, ch. 212, § 8, 35 Stat. 426.)

§ 444. Dumping at other place than designated dumping grounds; penalty; person liable; excuses for deviation.

Any deviation from such dumping or discharging place specified in such permit shall be a misdemeanor, and the owner and master, or person acting in the capacity of master, of any scows or boats dumping or discharging such forbidden matter in any place other than that specified in such permit shall be liable to punishment therefor as provided in section 441 of this title; and the owner and master, or person acting in the capacity of master, of any tug or towboat towing such scows or boats shall be liable to equal punishment with the owner and master, or person acting in the capacity of master, of the scows or boats; and, further, every scowman or other employee on board of both scows and towboats shall be deemed to have knowledge of the place of dumping specified in such permit, and the owners and masters, or persons acting in the capacity of masters, shall be liable to punishment, as aforesaid, for any unlawful dumping, within the meaning of sections 441-449 of this title, which may be caused by the negligence or ignorance of such scowman or other employee; and, further, neither defect in machinery nor avoidable accidents to scows or towboats, nor unfavorable weather, nor improper handling or moving of scows or boats of any kind whatsoever shall operate to release the owners and master and employees of scows and towboats from the penalties mentioned in section 441 of this title. (June 29, 1888, ch. 496, § 3, 25 Stat. 209; Aug. 18, 1894, ch. 299, § 3, 28 Stat. 360; May 28, 1908, ch. 212, § 8, 35 Stat. 426.)

§ 445. Equipment and marking of boats or scows.

Every scow or boat engaged in the transportation of dredgings, earth, sand, mud, cellar dirt, garbage, or other offensive material of any description shall have its name or number and owner's name painted in letters and numbers at least fourteen inches long on both sides of the scow or boat; these names and numbers shall be kept distinctly legible at all times, and no scow or boat not so marked shall be used to transport or dump any such material. Each such scow or boat shall be equipped at all times with a life line or rope extending at least the length of and three feet above the deck thereof, such rope to be attached to the coaming thereof, also with a life preserver and a life buoy for each person on board thereof, also with anchor to weigh not less than two hundred and seventy-five pounds, and at least one hundred feet of cable attached thereto; a list of the names of all men employed on any such scow or boat shall be kept by the owner or master thereof and the said list shall be open to the inspection of all parties. Failure to comply with any of the foregoing provisions shall render the owner of such scow or boat liable upon conviction thereof to a penalty of not more than $500: Provided, That the requirements in regard to life line or rope contained in this section shall not apply to any scow or boat the deck outside the coaming or rail of which shall not exceed one foot in width: And provided further, That on any such scow or boat its name or number and owner's name painted in letters and numbers, at least fourteen inches long on both ends of such scow or boat, shall be a compliance with the provisions of this section in regard to name, number, and owner's name. (June 29, 1888, ch. 496, § 3, 25 Stat. 209; Aug. 18, 1894, ch. 299, § 3, 28 Stat. 360; May 28, 1908, ch. 212, § 8, 35 Stat. 426; Feb. 16, 1909, ch. 132, 35 Stat. 623.)

§ 446. Inspectors; appointment, powers, and duties.

The supervisor of the harbor of New York, designated as provided in section 451 of this title, is authorized and directed to appoint inspectors and deputy inspectors, and, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of sections 1, 31, 441-449, 452 of this title, and of detecting and bringing to punishment offenders against the same, the said supervisor of the harbor, and the inspectors and deputy inspectors so appointed by him, shall have power and authority:

First. To arrest and take into custody, with or without process, any person or persons who may commit any of the acts or offenses prohibited by sections 441-449 of this title, or who may violate any of the provisions of the same: Provided, That no person shall be arrested without process for any offense not committed in the presence of the supervisor or his inspectors or deputy inspectors, or either of them: And provided further, That whenever any such arrest is made the person or persons so arrested shall be brought forthwith before a commissioner, judge, or court of the United States for examination of the offenses alleged against him; and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States.

Second. To go on board of any scow or towboat engaged in unlawful dumping of prohibited material, or in moving the same without a permit, as required in section 443 of this title, or otherwise violating any of the provisions of sections 443-445 of this title, and to seize and hold said boats until they are discharged by action of the commissioner, judge, or court of the United States before whom the offending persons are brought.

Third. To arrest and take into custody any witness or witnesses to such unlawful dumping of prohibited material, the said witnesses to be released under proper bonds.

Fourth. To go on board of any towboat having in tow scows or boats loaded with such prohibited material, and accompany the same to the place of dumping, whenever such action appears to be necessary to secure compliance with the requirements of sections 1, 31, 441-453 of this title.

Fifth. To enter gas and oil works and all other manufacturing works for the purpose of discovering the disposition made of sludge, acid, or other injurious material, whenever there is good reason to believe that such sludge, acid, or other injurious material is allowed to run into tidal waters of the harbor in violation of section 441 of this chapter. (June 29, 1888, ch. 496, § 3, 25 Stat. 209; Aug. 18, 1894, ch. 299, § 3, 28 Stat. 360; May 28, 1908, ch. 212, § 8, 35 Stat. 426.)

§ 447. Bribery of inspector; penalty.

Every person who, directly or indirectly, gives any sum of money or other bribe, present, or reward, or makes any offer of the same to any inspector, deputy inspector, or other employee of the office of the supervisor of the harbor with intent to influence such inspector, deputy inspector, or other employee to permit or overlook any violation of the provisions of sections 441-449 of this title, shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than one year. (June 29, 1888, ch. 496, § 3, 25 Stat. 209; Aug. 18, 1894, ch. 299, § 3, 28 Stat. 360; May 28, 1908, ch. 212, § 8, 35 Stat. 426.)

§ 448. Return of permit; penalty for failure to return.

Every permit issued in accordance with the provisions of section 443 of this title, which may not be taken up by an inspector or deputy inspector, shall be returned within four days after issuance to the office of the supervisor of the harbor; such permit shall bear an indorsement by the master of the towboat, or the person acting in such capacity, stating whether the permit has been used, and, if so, the time and place of dumping. Any person violating the provisions of sections 443-448 of this title shall be liable to a fine of not more than $500 nor less than $100. (June 29, 1888, ch. 496, § 3, 25 Stat. 209; Aug. 18, 1894, ch. 299, § 3, 28 Stat. 360; May 28, 1908, ch. 212, § 8, 35 Stat. 426.)

§ 449. Disposition of dredged matter; persons liable; penalty.

All mud, dirt, sand, dredgings, and material of every kind and description whatever taken, dredged, or excavated from any slip, basin, or shoal in the harbor of New York, or the waters adjacent or tributary thereto, and placed on any boat, scow, or vessel for the purpose of being taken or towed upon the waters of the harbor of New York to a place of deposit, shall be deposited and discharged at such place or within such limits as shall be defined and specified by the supervisor of the harbor, as in section 443 of this title prescribed, and not otherwise. Every person, firm, or corporation being the owner of any slip, basin, or shoal, from which such mud, dirt, sand, dredgings, and material shall be taken, dredged, or excavated, and every person, firm, or corporation in any manner engaged in the work of dredging or excavating any such slip, basin, or shoal, or of removing such mud, dirt, sand, or dredgings therefrom, shall severally be responsible for the deposit and discharge of all such mud, dirt, sand, or dredgings at such place or within such limits so defined and prescribed by said supervisor of the harbor; and for every violation of the provisions of this section the person offending shall be guilty of an offense, and shall be punished by a fine equal to the sum of $5 for every cubic yard of mud, dirt, sand, dredgings, or material not deposited or discharged as required by this section. (June 29, 1888, ch. 496, § 4, 25 Stat. 210.)

§ 450. Liability of vessel.

Any boat or vessel used or employed in violating any provision of sections 441-449 of this title, shall be liable to the pecuniary penalties imposed thereby, and may be proceeded against, summarily by way of libel in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof. (June 29, 1888, ch. 496, § 4, 25 Stat. 210.)

§ 451. Supervisor of harbor; appointment and duties.

A line officer of the Navy shall be designated by the President of the United States as supervisor of the harbor, to act under the direction of the Secretary of War in enforcing the foregoing provisions of sections 441-449 of this title, and in detecting offenders against the same. This officer shall have personal charge and supervision under the Secretary of War, and shall direct the patrol boats and other means to detect and bring to punishment offenders, against the provisions of said sections. (June 29, 1888, ch. 496, § 5, 25 Stat. 210.)

§ 452. Taking shellfish or otherwise interfering with navigation in New York Harbor channels; penalty; arrest and procedure.

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to engage in fishing or dredging for shellfish in any of the channels leading to and from the harbor of New York, or to interfere in any way with the safe navigation of those channels by ocean steamships and ships of deep draft.

Any person or persons violating the foregoing provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both, such fine to be not more than $250 nor less than $50, and the imprisonment to be not more than six months nor less than thirty days, either or both united, as the judge before whom conviction is obtained shall decide.

It shall be the duty of the United States supervisor of the harbor to enforce this section, and the deputy inspectors of the said supervisor shall have authority to arrest and take into custody, with or without process, any person or persons, who may commit any of the acts or offenses prohibited by this section: Provided, That no person shall be arrested without process for any offense not committed in the presence of the supervisor or his inspector or deputy inspectors, or either of them: And provided further, That whenever any such arrest is made the person or persons so arrested shall be brought forthwith before a commissioner, judge, or court of the United States for examination of the offenses alleged against him; and such commissioner, judge or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States. (Aug. 18, 1894, ch. 299, § 2, 28 Stat. 360.)

§ 453. Regulations for navigation of Ambrose Channel; exclusion of tows and sailing vessels.

The Secretary of War is authorized to make such rules and regulations for the navigation of Ambrose Channel as he may deem necessary or expedient to insure its safe use in all kinds of weather, night and day, for all vessels under control and running under their own power, and to this end he may, in his discretion, forbid its use to tows of every description and to sailing vessels. (Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 144, § 1, 37 Stat. 803.)

§ 454. Consent of Congress to obstruction of waters by New York City.

The consent of Congress is hereby given to the city of New York, in the State of New York, to obstruct navigation of any river or other waterway which does not form a connecting link between other navigable waters of the United States, and lying wholly within the limits of said city, by closing all or any portion of the same or by building structures in or over the same when the said city shall be lawfully authorized to do so by the State of New York: Provided, however, That any such obstruction shall be unlawful unless the location and plans for the proposed work or works before the commencement thereof shall have been filed with and approved by the Secretary of War and Chief of Engineers; and when the plans for any such obstruction have been approved by the Chief of Engineers and by the Secretary of War it shall not be lawful to deviate from such plans either before or after the completion of such obstruction, unless the modification of such plans has previously been submitted to and received the approval of the Chief of Engineers and the Secretary of War: And provided further, That the city of New York shall be liable for any damage that may be inflicted upon private property by reason of any of the provisions of this section.

The right to alter, amend, or repeal this section is expressly reserved, and the United States shall incur no liability for the alteration, amendment, or repeal thereof to the city of New York, or to the owner or owners, or any other persons interested in any obstruction which shall have been constructed under its provisions. (June 25, 1910, ch. 436, §§ 1, 2, 36 Stat. 866, 867.)

POTOMAC RIVER AND TRIBUTARIES IN DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

§§ 461-464. District of Columbia waters.

Sections, act May 19, 1896, ch. 208, §§ 1-4, 29 Stat. 126, 127, relate to the District of Columbia. See District of Columbia Code, § 22-1702.

NAVIGABLE WATERS OF MARYLAND

§ 465. Authority to dredge; riparian rights of United States.

Subject to the provisions of section 403 of this title authority is granted to dredge, without cost to the United States, in the navigable waters of the United States included within the State of Maryland and outside the limits of projects for improvement of navigation facilities approved by Congress, regardless of rights accruing to the United States as riparian owner under the laws of the State of Maryland: Provided, That in the opinion of the Chief of Engineers such dredging will improve facilities for navigation. (July 3, 1930, ch. 847, § 12, 46 Stat. 949.)

Chapter 10.—ANCHORAGE GROUNDS AND HARBOR REGULATIONS GENERALLY

Sec.

471. Establishment by Secretary of War of anchorage grounds and regulations generally.

472. Marking anchorage grounds by Commissioner of Lighthouses.

473. Anchorage and harbor regulations for Potomac River at Washington.

Sec.

474. Anchorage and general regulations for Saint Marys River.

475. Regulations for Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

§ 471. Establishment by Secretary of War of anchorage grounds and regulations generally.

The Secretary of War is authorized, empowered, and directed to define and establish anchorage grounds for vessels in all harbors, rivers, bays, and other navigable waters of the United States whenever it is manifest to the said Secretary that the maritime or commercial interests of the United States require such anchorage grounds for safe navigation and the establishment of such anchorage grounds shall have been recommended by the Chief of Engineers, and to adopt suitable rules and regulations in relation thereto; and such rules and regulations shall be enforced by the Coast Guard under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That at ports or places where there is no Coast Guard vessel available such rules and regulations may be enforced by the Chief of Engineers under the direction of the Secretary of War. In the event of the violation of any such rules and regulations by the owner, master, or person in charge of any vessel such owner, master, or person in charge of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $100; and the said vessel may be holden for the payment of such penalty, and may be seized and proceeded against summarily by libel for the recovery of the same in any United States district court for the district within which such vessel may be and in the name of the officer designated by the Secretary of War. (Jan. 28, 1915, ch. 20, § 1, 38 Stat. 800; Mar. 4, 1915, ch. 142, § 7, 38 Stat. 1053.)

§ 473. Anchorage and harbor regulations for Potomac River at Washington.

Section, act Mar. 2, 1895, ch. 172, §§ 1, 2, 28 Stat. 740, is set out in section 22-1701 of the District of Columbia Code.

§ 474. Anchorage and general regulations for Saint Marys River.

The Secretary of Commerce is authorized and directed to adopt and prescribe suitable rules and regulations governing the movements and anchorage of vessels and rafts in Saint Marys River from Point Iroquois, on Lake Superior, to Point Detour, on Lake Huron, and for the purpose of enforcing the observance of such regulations the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to detail one or more Coast Guard cutters for duty upon the request of the Secretary of Commerce on said river.

All officers of the Coast Guard who are directed to enforce the regulations prescribed by the above rules are hereby empowered and directed, in case of necessity, or when a proper notice has been disregarded, to use the force at their command to remove from channels or stop any vessel found violating the prescribed rules.

In the event of the violation of any such regulations or rules of the Secretary of Commerce by the owners, master, or person in charge of such vessel, such owners, master, or person in charge shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $200: Provided, That the Secretary of Commerce may remit said fine on such terms as he may prescribe: Provided also, That nothing in this section shall be construed to amend or repeal chapter 4 of this title regulating navigation on the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal. (Mar. 6, 1896, ch. 49, §§ 1-3, 29 Stat. 54-55; Apr. 26, 1906, ch. 1874, §§ 1, 2, 34 Stat. 136; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; Jan. 28, 1915, ch. 20, § 1, 38 Stat. 800.)

 522. Existing provisions of law.
 523. Relocation of bridges.

§ 491. Approval of and deviation from plans.

When, after March 23, 1906, authority is granted by Congress to any persons to construct and maintain a bridge across or over any of the navigable waters of the United States, such bridge shall not be built or commenced until the plans and specifications for its construction, together with such drawings of the proposed construction and such map of the proposed location as may be required for a full understanding of the subject, have been submitted to the Secretary of War and Chief of Engineers for their approval, nor until they shall have approved such plans and specifications and the location of such bridge and accessory works; and when the plans for any bridge to be constructed under the provisions of sections 491-498 of this title, have been approved by the Chief of Engineers and by the Secretary of War it shall not be lawful to deviate from such plans, either before or after completion of the structure, unless the modification of such plans has previously been submitted to and received the approval of the Chief of Engineers and of the Secretary of War. (Mar. 23, 1906, ch. 1130, § 1, 34 Stat. 84.)

§ 492. Bridge as post route; limitation as to charges against Government; telegraph and telephone lines.

Any bridge built in accordance with the provisions of sections 491-498 of this title, shall be a lawful structure and shall be recognized and known as a post route, upon which no higher charge shall be made for the transmission over the same of the mails, the troops, and the munitions of war of the United States than the rate per mile paid for the transportation over any railroad, street railway, or public highway leading to said bridge; and the United States shall have the right to construct, maintain, and repair, without any charge therefor, telegraph and telephone lines across and upon said bridge and its approaches; and equal privileges in the use of said bridge and its approaches shall be granted to all telegraph and telephone companies. (Mar. 23, 1906, ch. 1130, § 2, 34 Stat. 85.)

§ 493. Use of railroad bridges by other railroad companies.

All railroad companies desiring the use of any railroad bridge built in accordance with the provisions of sections 491-498 of this title, shall be entitled to equal rights and privileges relative to the passage of railway trains or cars over the same and over the approaches thereto upon payment of a reasonable compensation for such use; and in case of any disagreement between the parties in regard to the terms of such use or the sums to be paid all matters at issue shall be determined by the Secretary of War upon hearing the allegations and proofs submitted to him. (Mar. 23, 1906, ch. 1130, § 3, 34 Stat. 85.)

§ 494. Obstruction of navigation; alterations and removals; lights and signals; draws; tolls.

No bridge erected or maintained under the provisions of sections 491-498 of this title, shall at any time unreasonably obstruct the free navigation of the waters over which it is constructed, and if any bridge erected in accordance with the provisions of sections 491-498 of this title, shall, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, at any time unreasonably obstruct such navigation, either on account of insufficient height, width of span, or otherwise, or if there be difficulty in passing the draw opening or the drawspan of such bridge by rafts, steamboats, or other water craft, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War, after giving the parties interested reasonable opportunity to be heard, to notify the persons owning or controlling such bridge to so alter the same as to render navigation through or under it reasonably free, easy, and unobstructed, stating in such notice the changes required to be made, and prescribing in each case a reasonable time in which to make such changes, and if at the end of the time so specified the changes so required have not been made, the persons owning or controlling such bridge shall be deemed guilty of a violation of sections 491-498 of this title; and all such alterations shall be made and all such obstructions shall be removed at the expense of the persons owning or operating said bridge. The persons owning or operating any such bridge shall maintain, at their own expense, such lights and other signals thereon as the Secretary of Commerce shall prescribe. If the bridge shall be constructed with a draw, then the draw shall be opened promptly by the persons owning or operating such bridge upon reasonable signal for the passage of boats and other water craft. If tolls shall be charged for the transit over any bridge constructed under the provisions of sections 491-498 of this title, of engines, cars, street cars, wagons, carriages, vehicles, animals, foot passengers, or other passengers, such tolls shall be reasonable and just, and the Secretary of War may, at any time, and from time to time, prescribe the reasonable rates of toll for such transit over such bridge, and the rates so prescribed shall be the legal rates and shall be the rates demanded and received for such transit. (Mar. 23, 1906, ch. 1130, § 4, 34 Stat. 85; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

LIGHTS ON BRIDGES

Act of Aug. 7, 1882, ch. 433, § 1, 22 Stat. 309, read as follows: All parties owning, occupying, or operating bridges over any navigable river shall maintain at their own expense, from sunset to sunrise, throughout the year, such lights on their bridges as may be required by the Light-House Board for the security of navigation; and in addition thereto all persons owning, occupying, or operating any bridge over any navigable river shall, in any event, maintain all lights on their bridge that may be necessary for the security of navigation.

BUREAU OF LIGHTHOUSES

Reorganization Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1431, transferred the Bureau of Lighthouses in the Department of Commerce and its functions to the Coast Guard in the Department of the Treasury and provided that it should be consolidated with, and administered as part of, the Coast Guard.

CROSS REFERENCE

Section inapplicable to any bridge to which provisions of sections 511-523 of this title are applicable, see section 522 (a) of this title.

§ 495. Failure to comply with regulations; penalty; removal of bridge.

Any persons who shall fail or refuse to comply with the lawful order of the Secretary of War or the Chief of Engineers, made in accordance with the provisions of sections 491-498 of this title, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of sections 491-498 of this title, and any persons who shall be guilty of a violation of sections 491-498 of this title, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished in any court of competent jurisdiction by a fine not exceeding $5,000, and every month such persons shall remain in default shall be deemed a new offense and subject such persons to additional penalties therefor; and in addition to the penalties above described the Secretary of War and the Chief of Engineers may, upon refusal of the persons owning or controlling any such bridge and accessory works to comply with any lawful order issued by the Secretary of War or Chief of Engineers in regard thereto, cause the removal of such bridge and accessory works at the expense of the persons owning or controlling such bridge, and suit for such expense may be brought in the name of the United States against such persons, and recovery had for such expense in any court of competent jurisdiction; and the removal of any structures erected or maintained in violation of the provisions of sections 491-498 of this title, or the order or direction of the Secretary of War or Chief of Engineers made in pursuance thereof may be enforced by injunction, mandamus, or other summary process, upon application to the district court in the district in which such structure may, in whole or in part, exist, and proper proceedings to this end may be instituted under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States at the request of the Secretary of War; and in case of any litigation arising from any obstruction or alleged obstruction to navigation created by the construction of any bridge under sections 491-498 of this title, the cause or question arising may be tried before the district court of the United States in any district which any portion of said obstruction or bridge touches. (Mar. 23, 1906, ch. 1130, § 5, 34 Stat. 85; Mar. 3, 1911, ch. 231, §§ 289, 291, 36 Stat. 1167.)

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Abolition of writ of mandamus, see Rule 81, following section 723c of Title 28, Judicial Code and Judiciary.

§ 496. Time for commencement and completion of bridge.

Whenever Congress shall by law authorize the construction of any bridge over or across any of the navigable waters of the United States, and no time for the commencement and completion of such bridge is named in said Act, the authority thereby granted shall cease and be null and void unless the actual construction of the bridge authorized in such Act be commenced within one year and completed within three years from the date of the passage of such Act. (Mar. 23, 1906, ch. 1130, § 6, 34 Stat. 86.)

§ 497. "Persons" defined.

The word "persons" as used in sections 491-498 of this title, shall be construed to import both the singular and the plural, as the case demands, and shall include municipalities, quasi-municipal corporations, corporations, companies, and associations. (Mar. 23, 1906, ch. 1130, § 7, 34 Stat. 86.)

§ 498. Reservation of right to alter or repeal.

§ 498a. Application of sections 491-497 to bridges authorized prior to June 10, 1930.

In the case of bridges authorized, prior to June 10, 1930, by Acts of Congress specifically reserving to Congress the right to subsequently regulate tolls on such bridges, such bridges shall, in respect of the regulation of all tolls, be subject to the provisions of sections 491-497 of this title. (June 10, 1930, ch. 441, § 17, 46 Stat. 552.)

§ 498b. Application of sections 491-497 to bridges authorized prior to March 23, 1906.

Any bridge authorized, prior to March 23, 1906, by Act of Congress specifically reserving to Congress the right to alter, amend, or repeal such Act, shall, in respect of the regulation of all tolls, be subject to the provisions of sections 491-497 of this title. (June 27, 1930, ch. 640, § 1, 46 Stat. 821.)

§ 499. Regulations for drawbridges; penalties for violation; enforcement.

It shall be the duty of all persons owning, operating, and tending the drawbridges built prior to August 18, 1894, or which may thereafter be built across the navigable rivers and other waters of the United States, to open, or cause to be opened, the draws of such bridges under such rules and regulations as in the opinion of the Secretary of War the public interests require to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law. Every such person who shall willfully fail or refuse to open, or cause to be opened, the draw of any such bridge for the passage of a boat or boats, or who shall unreasonably delay the opening of said draw after reasonable signal shall have been given, as provided in such regulations, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $2,000 nor less than $1,000, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) for not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That the proper action to enforce the provisions of this section may be commenced before any commissioner, judge, or court of the United States, and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States: Provided further, That whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, the public interests require it, he may make rules and regulations to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law, and any violation thereof shall be punished as hereinbefore provided: Provided further, That any regulations made in pursuance of this section may be enforced as provided in section 413 of this title, the provisions whereof are made applicable to the said regulations. (Aug. 18, 1894, ch. 299, § 5, 28 Stat. 362; June 13, 1902, ch. 1079, § 6, 32 Stat. 374.)

§ 500. Deflection of current; liability to riparian owners.

Whenever complaint shall be made to the Secretary of War that by reason of the placing in any navigable waters of the United States of any bridge pier or abutment, the current of such waters has been so deflected from its natural course as to cause by producing caving of banks or otherwise serious damage or danger to property, it shall be his duty to make inquiry, and if it shall be ascertained that the complaint is well founded, he shall cause the owners or persons operating such bridge to repair such damage or prevent such danger to property by such means as he shall indicate and within such time as he may name, and in default thereof the owners or persons operating such bridge shall be liable in any court of competent jurisdiction to the persons injured in a sum double the amount of said injury: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to affect any rights of action which may have existed prior to August 11, 1888. (Aug. 11, 1888, ch. 860, § 2, 25 Stat. 423.)

§ 501. Consent to bridges over Maquoketa River, Iowa.

Section, R. S. § 5250, gave assent of Congress to construction of bridges across the Maquoketa River in State of Iowa.

§ 502. Criminal liability for failure to alter bridge obstructing navigation.

Whenever the Secretary of War shall have good reason to believe that any railroad or other bridge over any of the navigable waterways of the United States is an unreasonable obstruction to the free navigation of such waters on account of insufficient height, width of span, or otherwise, or where there is difficulty in passing the draw opening or the draw span of such bridge by rafts, steamboats, or other water craft, it shall be the duty of the said Secretary, first giving the parties reasonable opportunity to be heard, to give notice to the persons or corporations owning or controlling such bridge so to alter the same as to render navigation through or under it reasonably free, easy, and unobstructed; and in giving such notice he shall specify the changes recommended by the Chief of Engineers that are required to be made, and shall prescribe in each case a reasonable time in which to make them. If at the end of such time the alteration has not been made, the Secretary of War shall forthwith notify the United States district attorney for the district in which such bridge is situated, to the end that the criminal proceedings hereinafter in this section mentioned may be taken. If the persons, corporation, or association owning or controlling any railroad or other bridge shall, after receiving notice to that effect, as hereinbefore required, from the Secretary of War, and within the time prescribed by him willfully fail or refuse to remove the same or to comply with the lawful order of the Secretary of War in the premises, such persons, corporation, or association shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, and every month such persons, corporation, or association shall remain in default in respect to the removal or alteration of such bridge shall be deemed a new offense, and subject the persons, corporation, or association so offending to the penalties above prescribed: Provided, That in any case arising under the provisions of this section an appeal may be taken from the district courts direct to the Supreme Court either by the United States or by the defendants. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 18, 30 Stat. 1153; Mar. 3, 1911, ch. 231, § 291, 36 Stat. 1167; Jan. 31, 1928, ch. 14, § 1, 45 Stat. 54.)

§ 503. Tolls; reasonableness; bridges to which provisions not applicable.

Tolls for passage or transit over any bridge over any of the navigable waters of the United States, if such bridge is used for purposes of travel or transportation in interstate or foreign commerce, shall be just and reasonable; but the provisions of this section and sections 504–507 of this title shall not apply to any bridge subject to the provisions of sections 491–498 of this title, nor to any bridge built under the authority of the legislature of the State across rivers or other waterways the navigable portions of which lie wholly within the limits of a single State, nor to any bridge on which the tolls are prescribed by a contract entered into by or with any State or political subdivision thereof, or any municipality. (Aug. 21, 1935, ch. 597, § 1, 49 Stat. 670.)

§ 504. Same; determination of reasonableness by Secretary of War; effect of order prescribing toll.

The Secretary of War is authorized, either upon complaint or upon his own initiative, to conduct an inquiry at any time for the purpose of determining whether any toll charged for passage or transit over any bridge to which sections 503–507 of this title apply is in violation of the provisions of section 503 of this title, and if he finds, after full opportunity for hearing, that such toll is in violation of such provisions he is authorized and empowered to determine and by order to prescribe what will be the just and reasonable toll to be thereafter charged, and after such order takes effect it shall be unlawful to collect a toll for such passage or transit in excess of that so prescribed. Any such order shall take effect upon the expiration of thirty days after its issuance. (Aug. 21, 1935, ch. 597, § 2, 49 Stat. 671.)

§ 505. Same; review of order.

Any order issued under section 504 of this title may be reviewed by the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, or the circuit court of appeals for any judicial circuit in which the bridge in question is wholly or partly located, if a petition for such review is filed within three months after the date such order was issued. The judgment of any such court shall be final, except that it shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certiorari, in the manner provided in section 347 of Title 28. The review by such courts shall be limited to questions of law, and the findings of fact by the Secretary of War, if supported by substantial evidence, shall be conclusive. Upon such review, such courts shall have power to affirm or, if the order is not in accordance with law, to modify or to reverse the order, with or without remanding the case for a rehearing as justice may require. (Aug. 21, 1935, ch. 597, § 3, 49 Stat. 671.)

CHANGE OF NAME

Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia was changed to United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia by act June 7, 1934, ch. 426, 48 Stat. 926.

§ 506. Same; hearings to determine reasonableness; attendance of witnesses; punishment for failure to attend.

In the execution of his functions under sections 504 and 505 of this title and this section the Secretary of War, or any officer or employee designated by him, is authorized to hold hearings, examine witnesses, and receive evidence at any place designated by him, and to administer oaths and affirmations, and require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, and documents from any place in the United States. In any case<sup>1</sup> disobedience to any such subpoena the Secretary of War may invoke the aid of any court of the United States in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, and documents. No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing books, papers, and documents in any inquiry under this section and section 504 of this title, or in obedience to any such subpoena, or in any cause or proceeding, criminal or otherwise, based upon or arising under said sections, on the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to criminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except that any individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying. Any person who shall neglect or refuse to attend and testify, or to answer any lawful inquiry, or to produce books, papers, or documents, if in his power to do so, in obedience to a subpoena or lawful requirement under this section, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not to exceed $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Aug. 21, 1935, ch. 597, § 4, 49 Stat. 671.)

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Subpoena, see Rule 45, following section 723c of Title 28, Judicial Code and Judiciary.

§ 507. Same; failure to obey order prescribing toll; punishment.

In any case where there is in effect a toll prescribed by an order issued under section 504 of this title, for passage or transit over any bridge to which this section and sections 503–506 of this title apply, any person who demands or collects a toll for such passage or transit in excess of that so prescribed shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not to exceed $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Aug. 21, 1935, ch. 597, § 5, 49 Stat. 672.)

ALTERATION OF BRIDGES

Act of June 21, 1940, set out in sections 511–523 of this title, was returned by the President with his objections but was passed by a vote of two-thirds of both the House of Representatives and the Senate.

§ 511. Definitions.

When used in sections 511–523 of this title, unless the context indicates otherwise—

The term "alteration" includes changes of any kind, reconstruction, or removal in whole or in part.

The term "bridge" means a lawful bridge over navigable waters of the United States, including approaches, fenders and appurtenances thereto, used and operated for the purpose of carrying railroad traffic, or both railroad and highway traffic.

The term "bridge owner" means any corporation, association, partnership, or individual owning any bridge, and, when any bridge shall be in the possession or under the control of any trustee, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or lessee, said term shall include both the owner of the legal title and the person or entity in possession or control of such bridge.

The term "bridge owner" shall also mean and include all joint owners, particularly States, counties, municipalities, or other participants in ownership of bridges for both railroad and highway traffic.

The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of War acting directly or through the Chief of Engineers.

The term "United States", when used in a geographical sense, includes the Territories and possessions of the United States. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 1, 54 Stat. 497.)

§ 512. Obstruction of navigation.

No bridge shall at any time unreasonably obstruct the free navigation of any navigable waters of the United States. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 2, 54 Stat. 498.)

§ 513. Notice, hearings, and findings.

Whenever any bridge shall, in the opinion of the Secretary, at any time unreasonably obstruct such navigation, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, after notice to interested parties, to hold a hearing at which the bridge owner, those interested in water navigation thereunder or therethrough, those interested in either railroad or highway traffic thereover, and any other party or parties in interest shall have full opportunity to offer evidence and be heard as to whether any alteration of such bridge is needed, and if so what alterations are needed, having due regard to the necessity of free and unobstructed water navigation and to the necessities of the rail or highway traffic. If, upon such hearing, the Secretary determines that any alterations of such bridge are necessary in order to render navigation through or under it reasonably free, easy, and unobstructed, having due regard also for the necessities of rail or highway traffic thereover, he shall so find and shall issue and cause to be served upon interested parties an order requiring such alterations of such bridge as he finds to be reasonably necessary for the purposes of navigation. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 3, 54 Stat. 498.)

§ 514. Submission and approval of general plans and specifications.

It shall be the duty of the bridge owner to prepare and submit to the Secretary, within ninety days after service of his order, general plans and specifications to provide for the alteration of such bridge in accordance with such order, and for such additional alteration of such bridge as the bridge owner may desire to meet the necessities of railroad or highway traffic, or both. The Secretary may approve or reject such general plans and specifications, in whole or in part, and may require the submission of new or additional plans and specifications, but when the Secretary shall have approved general plans and specifications, they shall be final and binding upon all parties unless changes therein be afterward approved by the Secretary and the bridge owner. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 4, 54 Stat. 498.)

§ 515. Contracts for project; guaranty of cost.

After approval of such general plans and specifications by the Secretary, and within ninety days after notification of such approval, the bridge owner shall, in such manner as the Secretary may prescribe, take bids for the alteration of such bridge in accordance with such general plans and specifications. All bids, including any bid for all or part of the project submitted by the bridge owner, shall be submitted to the Secretary, together with a recommendation by the bridge owner as to the most competent bid or bids, and at the same time the bridge owner shall submit to the Secretary a written guaranty that the total cost of the project, including the cost of such work as is to be performed by the bridge owner and not included in the work to be performed by contract, shall not exceed the sum stated in said guaranty. The Secretary may direct the bridge owner to reject all bids and to take new bids, or may authorize the bridge owner to proceed with the project, by contract, or partly by contract and partly by the bridge owner, or wholly by the bridge owner. Upon such authorization and fixing of the proportionate shares of the cost as provided in section 516 of this title, the bridge owner shall, within a reasonable time to be prescribed by the Secretary, proceed with the work of alteration; and the cost thereof shall be borne by the United States and by the bridge owner, as provided in sections 516, 517 of this title. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 5, 54 Stat. 498.)

§ 516. Apportionment of cost.

At the time the Secretary shall authorize the bridge owner to proceed with the project, as provided in section 515 of this title, and after an opportunity to the bridge owner to be heard thereon, the Secretary shall determine and issue an order specifying the proportionate shares of the total cost of the project to be borne by the United States and by the bridge owner. Such apportionment shall be made on the following basis: The bridge owner shall bear such part of the cost as is attributable to the direct and special benefits which will accrue to the bridge owner as a result of the alteration, including the expectable savings in repair or maintenance costs; and that part of the cost attributable to the requirements of traffic by railroad or highway, or both, including any expenditure for increased carrying capacity of the bridge, and including such proportion of the actual capital cost of the old bridge or of such part of the old bridge as may be altered or changed or rebuilt, as the used service life of the whole or a part, as the case may be, bears to the total estimated service life of the whole or such part: Provided, That the part of the cost of alteration of any bridge for both highway and railroad traffic, attributable to the requirements of traffic by highway, shall be borne by the proprietor of the highway: Provided further, That in the event the alteration or relocation of any bridge may be desirable for the reason that the bridge unreasonably obstructs navigation, but also for some other reason, the Secretary may require equitable contribution from any interested person, firm, association, corporation, municipality, county, or State desiring such alteration or relocation for such other reason, as a condition precedent to the making of an order for such alteration or relocation. The United States shall bear the balance of the cost, including that part attributable to the necessities of navigation. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 6, 54 Stat. 499.)

§ 517. Payment of share of United States.

When the Secretary shall have approved the general plans and specifications for the alteration of such bridge and the guaranty with respect to the cost thereof, and shall have fixed the proportionate shares thereof as between the United States and the bridge owner, he shall furnish to the Secretary of the Treasury a certified copy of his approval of such plans and specifications and guaranty, and of his order fixing the proportionate shares of the United States and of the bridge owner, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall thereupon set aside, out of any appropriation available for such purpose, the share of the United States payable under sections 511-523 of this title on account of the project. When the Secretary finds that such project has been completed in accordance with his order, he shall cause to be paid to the bridge owner, out of the funds so set aside, the proportionate share of the total cost of the project allocated to the United States; or he may, in his discretion, from time to time, cause payments to be made on such construction costs as the work progresses. The total payments out of Federal funds shall not exceed the proportionate share of the United States of the total cost of the project paid or incurred by the bridge owner, and, if such total cost exceeds the cost guaranteed by the bridge owner, shall not exceed the proportionate share of the United States of such guaranteed cost, except that if the cost of the work exceeds the guaranteed cost by reason of emergencies, conditions beyond the control of the owner, or unforeseen or undetermined conditions, the Secretary may, after full review of all the circumstances, provide for additional payments by the United States to help defray such excess cost to the extent he deems to be reasonable and proper, and shall certify such additional payments to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment. All payments to any bridge owner herein provided for shall be made by the Secretary of the Treasury through the Fiscal Service upon certifications of the Secretary of War. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 7, 54 Stat. 499; Reorg. Plan No. III, § 1 (a) (1), eff. June 30, 1940, 5 Fed. Reg. 2107, 54 Stat. 1231.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Reorganization Plan No. III, § 1 (a) (1), cited to text, consolidated the Division of Disbursement in the Treasury Department, and various other offices and divisions, and their functions, into one agency of the Treasury Department to be known as the Fiscal Service.

§ 518. Appropriation.

There are hereby authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 511-523 of this title. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 8, 54 Stat. 500.)

§ 519. Noncompliance with orders; penalties; removal of bridge.

Any bridge owner who shall willfully fail or refuse to comply with any lawful order of the Secretary, made in accordance with the provisions of sections 511-523 of this title, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished in any court of competent jurisdiction by a fine not exceeding $5,000, and every month such bridge owner shall remain in default shall be deemed a new offense and subject such bridge owner to additional penalties therefor. In addition to the penalties above prescribed the Secretary may, upon the failure or refusal of any bridge owner to comply with any lawful order issued by the Secretary in regard thereto, cause the removal of any such bridge and accessory works at the expense of the bridge owner; and suit for such expense may be brought in the name of the United States against such bridge owner and recovery had for such expense in any court of competent jurisdiction. The removal of any bridge erected or maintained in violation of the provisions of such sections or the order or direction of the Secretary made in pursuance thereof, and compliance with any order of the Secretary made with respect to any bridge in accordance with the provisions of such sections, may be enforced by injunction, mandamus, or other summary process upon application to the district court of any district in which such bridge may, in whole or in part, exist, and proper proceedings to this end may be instituted under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States at the request of the Secretary. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 9, 54 Stat. 500.)

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Writ of mandamus abolished, see Rule 81 (b), following section 723c of Title 28, Judicial Code and Judiciary.

0. Review of findings and orders.

Any order made or issued under section 516 of this title may be reviewed by the circuit court of appeals for any judicial circuit in which the bridge in question is wholly or partly located, if a petition for such review is filed within three months after the date such order is issued. The judgment of any such court shall be final except that it shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certification or certiorari, in the manner provided in sections 346 and 347 of Title 28, as amended. The review by such Court shall be limited to questions of law, and the findings of fact by the Secretary, if supported by substantial evidence, shall be conclusive. Upon such review, such Court shall have power to affirm or, if the order is not in accordance with law, to modify or to reverse the order, with or without remanding the case for a rehearing as justice may require. Proceedings under this section shall not operate as a stay of any order of the Secretary issued under provisions of sections 511-523 of this title other than section 516 of this title, or relieve any bridge owner of any liability or penalty under such provisions. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 10, 54 Stat. 501.)

§ 521. Regulations and orders.

The Secretary is authorized to prescribe such rules and regulations, and to make and issue such orders, as may be necessary or appropriate for carrying out the provisions of sections 511-523 of this title. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 11, 54 Stat. 501.)

§ 522. Existing provisions of law.

(a) The first sentence of section 494 of this title, and section 502 of this title, shall be inapplicable with respect to any bridge to which the provisions of sections 511-523 of this title are applicable, except to the extent provided in this section.

(b) Any bridge, the construction, reconstruction, or alteration of which was required by an order of the Secretary issued prior to July 1, 1939, and was not completed on such date, and in the case of which no penalties have accrued at the time of the enactment of such sections, shall be constructed, reconstructed, or altered as required by such order, and not in accordance with the provisions of such sections. In the case of any such bridge, however, the Secretary shall apportion the cost of the project between the bridge owner and the United States, and payment of the share of the United States shall be made, in the same manner as if the provisions of sections 511-523 of this title applied to such construction, reconstruction, or alteration, subject to the following limitations:

(1) In case such construction, reconstruction, or alteration has not begun on or before April 1, 1940, such apportionment of cost shall be made only if (A) the construction, reconstruction, or alteration is carried out in accordance with plans and specifications, and pursuant to bids, approved by the Secretary, and (B) the bridge owner has submitted to the Secretary a written guaranty of cost as provided for in section 515 of this title.

(2) The Secretary's determination as to such apportionment, and as to such plans and specifications and bids, shall be final.

(3) Such apportionment shall not be made if such construction, reconstruction, or alteration is not completed within the time fixed in such order of the Secretary or within such additional time as the Secretary, for good cause shown, may allow.

(c) Any bridge (except a bridge to which subsection (b) applies) the construction, reconstruction, or alteration of which was required by an order of the Secretary issued prior to July 1, 1939, and was not begun before such date, shall be subject to the provisions of sections 511-523 of this title as though such order had not been issued, and compliance with the provisions of such sections and with such orders as may be issued thereunder shall be considered to constitute compliance with such order issued prior to July 1, 1939, and with the provisions of law under which it was issued. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 12, 54 Stat. 501.)

§ 523. Relocation of bridges.

If the owner of any bridge used for railroad traffic and the Secretary shall agree that in order to remove an obstruction to navigation, or for any other purpose, a relocation of such bridge or the construction of a new bridge upon a new location would be preferable to an alteration of the existing bridge, such relocation or new construction may be carried out at such new site and upon such terms as may be acceptable to the bridge owner and the Secretary, and the cost of such relocation or new construction, including also any expense of changes in and additions to rights-of-way, stations, tracks, spurs, sidings, switches, signals, and other railroad facilities and property, and relocation of shippers required for railroad connection with the bridge at the new site, shall be apportioned as between the bridge owner and the United States in the manner which is provided for in section 516 of this title in the case of an alteration and the share of the United States paid from the appropriation authorized in section 518 of this title: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the United States to pay any part of the expense of building any bridge across a navigable stream which the Secretary of War shall not find to be, in fact, a relocation of an existing bridge. (June 21, 1940, ch. 409, § 13, 54 Stat. 502.)

583. Payment of allowances, etc., incident to change of station of Engineer officers from appropriation for improvements.
584. Expenses incident to transportation of household effects of civilian employees.
- 584a. Travel expenses of civilian employees on river and harbor works; available funds for payment.

ACQUISITION OF LAND AND MATERIALS

591. Condemnation, purchase, and donation of land and materials.
592. Condemnation of land in aid of person, company, corporation, municipal or private.
593. Condemnation of land in aid of State or State agency.
594. When immediate possession of land may be taken.
595. Consideration of benefits in assessing compensation.

PARTICULAR WORK OR IMPROVEMENTS

601. Mississippi River; regulation of reservoirs at headwaters.
602. Maintenance of channel of South Pass of Mississippi River.
603. Removal of snags, etc., from tributaries; minor improvements in navigable waters.
604. Removal of snags, etc., from Mississippi River.
605. Operation of snag boats on Upper Mississippi River.
606. Removal of snags, and so forth, from Ohio River.
607. Removal of drift from New York Harbor.
- 607a. Same; appropriations; separate project.
608. Construction of fishways.
609. Sluices and other work in dams for development of water power.

PROSECUTION OF WORK GENERALLY

621. By what methods river and harbor work may be authorized to be prosecuted.
622. Method of doing work generally.
623. Letting contract to lowest responsible bidder.
624. Limitation on power to let contract based on estimation of cost.
625. Combining several projects in one contract.

- Sec.
626. Prosecution of work when appropriation insufficient.
627. Application of appropriation when separate works are included therein.
628. Expenditure for dredging within harbor lines.
629. Contract for hire of dredging plant.
630. Limitation on expenditure for purchase of dredges.
631. Transfer of property between projects.
632. Written contracts; application to contracts relating to river and harbor improvements.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 540. Investigations and improvements; control by War Department; wildlife conservation.

Hereafter Federal investigations and improvements of rivers, harbors, and other waterways shall be under the jurisdiction of and shall be prosecuted by the War Department under the direction of the Secretary of War and the supervision of the Chief of Engineers, except as otherwise specifically provided by Act of Congress, which said investigations and improvements shall include a due regard for wildlife conservation. (June 20, 1938, ch. 535, § 1, 52 Stat. 802.)

SIMILAR PROVISIONS

Acts Aug. 30, 1935, ch. 831, 49 Stat. 1028 and Aug. 26, 1937, ch. 832, 50 Stat. 844, contained similar provisions.

NICARAGUA CANAL

Act Mar. 2, 1929, ch. 584, §§ 2-5, 45 Stat. 1539-1540, provided as follows: "Sec. 2. The President is hereby authorized to cause to be made under the direction of the Secretary of War and the supervision of the Chief of Engineers, and with the aid of such civilian engineers as the President shall deem advisable, a full and complete investigation and survey for the purpose of revising and bringing down to date the reports of the Isthmian Canal Commission transmitted to Congress, with respect to the practicability and advantages and approximate cost of constructing a canal across Nicaragua, and for the purpose of obtaining all additional available information respecting (1) the most practical route for an interoceanic ship canal across the Republic of Nicaragua by way of the San Juan River and the Great Lake of Nicaragua, or by way of any other route over Nicaraguan territory, including suitable locations for harbors at each of the terminal thereof; (2) the practicability and approximate cost of constructing and maintaining such canal; and (3) the approximate cost of acquiring all private rights, properties, privileges, and franchises, if any, included in or necessarily affected by such canal route.

"Sec. 3. The Chief of Engineers, under the direction of the Secretary of War, may establish and maintain, during the investigations and surveys authorized by this resolution, such stations as he may deem necessary for ascertaining the water supply available for the operation of a canal across Nicaragua or elsewhere and for the operation of the additional locks and other facilities at the Panama Canal.

"Sec. 4. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $150,000, to be expended by the Secretary of War for the purposes of this resolution and to remain available until expended.

"Sec. 5. The President is hereby requested to report to the Congress not later than two years from the approval of this resolution the results of the investigations and surveys hereby authorized, together with such recommendations in connection therewith as he may deem advisable."

Act June 20, 1938, ch. 535, § 12, 52 Stat. 806, provided as follows: "The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to continue the gathering of hydrological data, concerning the proposed Nicaragua Canal, by personnel operating continuously in Nicaragua under the supervision of the Chief of Engineers, as recommended in House Document Numbered 139, 72d Congress, 1st Session; the cost of this work, and such incidental expenses as may be necessary in connection therewith, to be paid from appropriations hereafter made for examinations, surveys and contingencies of Rivers and Harbors."

Act Mar. 4, 1928, ch. 707, 45 Stat. 1667, made appropriation for determining the practicability, necessity, and cost of a Nicaragua Canal.

§ 541. Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors; establishment; duties and powers generally.

There shall be organized in the office of the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, by detail from time to time from the Corps of Engineers, a board of seven engineer officers, a majority of whom shall be of rank not less than lieutenant colonel, whose duties shall be fixed by the Chief of Engineers, and to whom shall be referred for consideration and recommendation, in addition to any other duties assigned, so far as in the opinion of the Chief of Engineers may be necessary, all reports upon examinations and surveys provided for by Congress, and all projects or changes in projects for works of river and harbor improvement prior to June 13, 1902, or thereafter provided for. And the board shall submit to the Chief of Engineers recommendations as to the desirability of commencing or continuing any and all improvements upon which reports are required. And in the consideration of such works and projects the board shall have in view the amount and character of commerce existing or reasonably prospective which will be benefited by the improvement, and the relation of the ultimate cost of such work, both as to cost of construction and maintenance, to the public commercial interests involved, and the public necessity for the work and propriety of its construction, continuance, or maintenance at the expense of the United States. And such consideration shall be given as time permits to such works as have, prior to June 13, 1902, been provided for by Congress, the same as in the case of new works proposed. The board shall, when it considers the same necessary, and with the sanction and under orders from the Chief of Engineers, make, as a board or through its members, personal examinations of localities. And all facts, information, and arguments which are presented to the board for its consideration in connection with any matter referred to it by the Chief of Engineers shall be reduced to and submitted in writing, and made a part of the records of the office of the Chief of Engineers. It shall further be the duty of said board, upon a request transmitted to the Chief of Engineers by the Committee on Rivers and Harbors of the House of Representatives, or the Committee on Commerce of the Senate, in the same manner to examine and report through the Chief of Engineers upon any projects adopted, prior to June 13, 1902, by the Government or upon which appropriations have been made, and report upon the desirability of continuing the same or upon any modifications thereof which may be deemed desirable. As used in this section the term "commerce" shall include the use of waterways by seasonal passenger craft, yachts, house boats, fishing boats, motor boats, and other similar water craft, whether or not operated for hire.

The board shall have authority, with the approval of the Chief of Engineers, to rent quarters, if necessary, for the proper transaction of its business, and to employ such civil employees as may, in the opinion of the Chief of Engineers, be required for properly transacting the business assigned to it, and the necessary expenses of the board shall be paid from allotments made by the Chief of Engineers from any appropriations made by Congress for the work or works to which the duties of the board pertain. (June 13, 1902, ch. 1079, § 3, 32 Stat. 372; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 144, § 4, 37 Stat. 826; Feb. 10, 1932, ch. 26, 47 Stat. 42.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 542. Review by Board of Engineers of reports on examinations and surveys and special reports.

All reports on examinations and surveys authorized by law shall be reviewed by the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors as provided for in section 541 of this title, and all special reports ordered by Congress shall, in the discretion of the Chief of Engineers, be reviewed in like manner by said board; and the said board shall also, on request by resolution of the Committee on Commerce of the Senate or the Committee on Rivers and Harbors of the House of Representatives, submitted to the Chief of Engineers, examine and review the report of any examination or survey made pursuant to any Act or resolution of Congress, and report thereon through the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, who shall submit his conclusions thereon as in other cases: Provided, That in no case shall the board, in its report thus called for by committee resolution, extend the scope of the project contemplated in the original report upon which its examination and review has been requested, or in the provision of law authorizing the original examination or survey. (Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 144, § 4, 37 Stat. 826.)

§ 543. Employment of civil engineers on western and northwestern rivers.

The Chief of Engineers may, with the approval of the Secretary of War, employ such civil engineers, not exceeding five in number, for the purpose of executing the surveys and improvements of western and northwestern rivers, ordered by Congress, as may be necessary to the proper and diligent prosecution of the same; and the persons so employed may be allowed a reasonable compensation for their services, not to exceed the sum of $3,000 a year. (R. S. § 5253.)

DERIVATION

Res. Mar. 29, 1867, No. 27, 15 Stat. 28.

§ 544. Employment of retired officers of Army or Navy.

Section 62 of Title 5, shall not be so construed as to prevent the employment of any retired officer of the Army or Navy to do work under the direction of the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army in connection with the improvement of rivers and harbors of the United States, or the payment by the proper officer of the Treasury of any amounts agreed upon as compensation for such employment. (June 3, 1896, ch. 314, § 7, 29 Stat. 235.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 544a. Employment of retired civil service employees.

The provisions of sections 715 and 715a of Title 5 shall not be so construed as to prevent the employment by the Chief of Engineers under agreement as authorized by sections 569a, 584a, and 607a of this title, of any retired civilian employee whose expert assistance may be needed in connection with the prosecution of river and harbor or flood control works: Provided, That during the period of such employment a sum equal to the retired pay of the employee shall be deducted from the compensation agreed upon. (June 20, 1938, ch. 535, § 5, 52 Stat. 805.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Section is also set out as section 701f of this title.

§ 545. Preliminary examinations and reports; surveys; contents of report to Congress generally.

In all cases where preliminary examinations and surveys are authorized a preliminary examination of the river, harbor, or other proposed improvement mentioned shall first be made and a report as to the advisability of its improvement shall be submitted unless a survey or estimate is expressly directed. If upon such preliminary examination the proposed improvement is not deemed advisable, no further action shall be taken thereon without the further direction of Congress; but in case the report shall be favorable to such proposed improvement, or that a survey and estimate should be made to determine the advisability of improvement, the Secretary of War is authorized, in his discretion, to cause surveys to be made, and the cost and advisability to be reported to Congress. And such reports containing plans and estimates shall also contain a statement as to the rate at which the work should be prosecuted: Provided, That every report submitted to Congress, in addition to full information regarding the present and prospective commercial importance of the project covered by the report and the benefit to commerce likely to result from any proposed plan of improvement, shall also contain such data as it may be practicable to secure in regard to the following subjects:

(b) The development and utilization of water power for industrial and commercial purposes.

(c) Such other subjects as may be properly connected with such project: Provided, That in the investigation and study of these questions consideration shall be given only to their bearing upon the improvement of navigation, to the possibility and desirability of their being coordinated in a logical and proper manner with improvements for navigation to lessen the cost of such improvements and to compensate the Government for expenditures made in the interest of navigation, and to their relation to the development and regulation of commerce: Provided further, That the investigation and study of these questions may, upon review by the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors when called for as provided by law, be extended to any work of improvement under way and to any locality the examination and survey of which has heretofore been, or may hereafter be, authorized by Congress. (Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 144, § 3, 37 Stat. 825.)

§ 546. Investigation of stream flow and watersheds; surveys in connection with dams.

The surveys of navigable streams shall include such stream-flow measurements and other investigations of the watersheds as may be necessary for preparation of plans of improvement and a proper consideration of all uses of the stream affecting navigation, and whenever necessary similar investigations may be made in connection with all navigable streams under improvement. Whenever permission for the construction of dams in navigable streams is granted, or is under consideration by Congress, such surveys and investigations of the sections of the streams affected may be made as are necessary to secure conformity with rational plans for the improvement of the streams for navigation. (June 25, 1910, ch. 382, § 3, 36 Stat. 669.)

§ 546a. Same; information as to configuration of shore line.

Every report submitted to Congress in pursuance of any provision of law for preliminary examination and survey looking to the improvement of the entrance at the mouth of any river or at any inlet, in addition to other information which the Congress has directed shall be given, shall contain information concerning the configuration of the shore line and the probable effect thereon that may be expected to result from the improvement having particular reference to erosion and/or accretion for a distance of not less than ten miles on either side of the said entrance. (Aug. 30, 1935, ch. 831, § 5, 49 Stat. 1048.)

§ 547. Reports as to local benefits of improvement and recommendations as to local cooperation.

Every report submitted to Congress in pursuance of any provision of law for a survey, in addition to other information which the Congress has directed shall be given, shall contain a statement of special or local benefit which will accrue to localities affected by such improvement and a statement of general or national benefits, with recommendations as to what local cooperation should be required, if any, on account of such special or local benefit. (June 5, 1920, ch. 252, § 2, 41 Stat. 1010.)

§ 548. Reports on discontinuance or curtailment of projects.

Section, act Mar. 3, 1925, ch. 467, § 7, 43 Stat. 1191, required a report on projects adopted prior to March 3, 1925.

§ 549. Report of deterioration in improvements.

The Secretary of War shall cause the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army, in submitting his annual reports to Congress with regard to works of river and harbor improvement under his charge, to state what deterioration, if any, has taken place by destruction, decay, obstructions, or otherwise, in connection with any of such works, together with an estimate of the cost of rebuilding or repairing such works, or removing such obstructions; and he shall also cause the said Chief of Engineers to recommend, with his reasons therefor, the discontinuance of appropriations for any river and harbor work which he may deem unworthy of further improvement. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 7, 30 Stat. 1150.)

§ 550. Report on water terminal and transfer facilities.

The Chief of Engineers, United States Army, shall indicate in his annual reports the character of the terminal and transfer facilities existing on every harbor or waterway under maintenance or improvement by the United States, and state whether they are considered adequate for existing commerce. He shall also submit one or more special reports on this subject, as soon as possible after January 18, 1918, including, among other things, the following:

(a) A brief description of such water terminals, including location and the suitability of such terminals to the existing traffic conditions, and whether such terminals are publicly or privately owned, and the terms and conditions under which they may be subjected to public use.

(b) Whether such water terminals are connected by a belt or spur line of railroad with all the railroads serving the same territory or municipality, and whether such connecting railroad is owned by the public and the conditions upon which the same may be used, and also whether there is an interchange of traffic between the water carriers and the railroad or railroads as to such traffic which is carried partly by rail and partly by water to its destination, and also whether improved and adequate highways have been constructed connecting such water terminal with the other lines of highways.

(c) If no water terminals have been constructed by the municipality or other existing public agency there shall be included in his report an expression of opinion in general terms as to the necessity, number, and appropriate location of such a terminal or terminals.

(d) An investigation of the general subject of water terminals, with descriptions and general plans of terminals of appropriate types and construction for the harbors and waterways of the United States suitable for various commercial purposes and adapted to the varying conditions of tides, floods, and other physical characteristics. (July 18, 1918, ch. 155, § 7, 40 Stat. 911.)

§ 551. Policy of Government as to terminal facilities for new projects.

It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Congress that water terminals are essential at all cities and towns located upon harbors or navigable waterways and that at least one public terminal should exist, constructed, owned, and regulated by the municipality or other public agency of the State and open to the use of all on equal terms. The Secretary of War, through the Chief of Engineers, shall give full publicity, as far as may be practicable, to this provision. (Mar. 2, 1919, ch. 95, § 1, 40 Stat. 1286.)

§ 552. Repealed. May 29, 1928, ch. 901, § 1 (28), 45 Stat. 988.

Section, act Aug. 5, 1886, ch. 929, § 8, 24 Stat. 335, required reports to Congress concerning civilian engineers employed in improving rivers and harbors.

§ 553. Freight statistics.

In the collection of statistics relating to traffic, the Corps of Engineers is directed to adopt a uniform system of classification for freight, and upon rivers or inland waterways to collate ton-mileage statistics as far as practicable. (July 25, 1912, ch. 253, § 1, 37 Stat. 223.)

§ 554. Duty of shipowners and officers to furnish information to person in local charge of improvement; penalty.

Owners, agents, masters, and clerks of vessels arriving at or departing from localities where works of river and harbor improvement are carried on shall furnish, on application of the persons in local charge of the works, a comprehensive statement of vessels, passengers, freight, and tonnage.

Every person or persons offending against the provisions of this section shall, for each and every offense, be liable to a fine of $100, or imprisonment not exceeding two months, to be enforced in any district court in the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed. (Feb. 21, 1891, ch. 252, §§ 1, 2, 26 Stat. 766.)

§ 555. Duty of shipowners and officers to furnish information required by Secretary of War.

Owners, agents, masters, and clerks of vessels and other craft plying upon the navigable waters of the United States, and all individuals and corporations engaged in transporting their own goods upon the navigable waters of the United States, shall furnish such statements relative to vessels, passengers, freight, and tonnage as may be required by the Secretary of War: Provided, That this provision shall not apply to those rafting logs except upon a direct request upon the owner to furnish specific information.

Every person or persons offending against the provisions of this section shall, for each and every offense, be liable to a fine of $100, or imprisonment not exceeding two months, to be enforced in any district court in the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed. (Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 427, § 11, 42 Stat. 1043.)

§ 556. Printing reports generally.

The Secretary of War shall cause the manuscript of the annual report of the Chief of Engineers and subordinate engineers, relating to the improvement of rivers and harbors, and the report of the Mississippi River Commission to be placed in the hands of the Public Printer on or before the 15th day of October in each year, and the Public Printer shall cause said reports to be printed with an accurate and comprehensive index thereof, on or before the first Monday in December in each year, for the use of Congress.

All reports on examinations and surveys which may be prepared during the recess of Congress shall, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be printed by the Public Printer as documents of the following session of Congress. (Aug. 11, 1888, ch. 860, § 8, 25 Stat. 424; June 13, 1902, ch. 1079, 32 Stat. 367; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 144, § 3, 37 Stat. 825.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Time of furnishing manuscript and proofs of annual reports and accompanying documents to Public Printer, see section 108 of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 557. Payment of costs of printing.

The printing of matter relating to river and harbor works, including all reports, compilations, regulations, and so forth, whose preparation is allowable under War Department regulations, shall be done and paid for out of regular annual appropriations for printing and binding for the War Department. (July 25, 1912, ch. 253, § 13, 37 Stat. 234; July 1, 1916, ch. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 330.)

§ 558. Sale of property acquired for improvement.

When any property which has been heretofore or may be hereafter purchased or acquired for the improvement of rivers and harbors is no longer needed, or is no longer serviceable, it may be sold in such manner as the Secretary of War may direct, and the proceeds credited to the appropriation for the work for which it was purchased or acquired; and the Secretary of War may direct the transfer of any property employed in river and harbor works, and in such event the property so transferred shall be valued and credited to the project upon which it was theretofore used and charged to the project to which it shall be transferred. (June 13, 1902, ch. 1079, § 5, 32 Stat. 373; Feb. 20, 1931, ch. 235, 46 Stat. 1191.)

CODIFICATION

Section originally read, "When any land or other property . . . etc." The words, "land or other", were deleted on the basis of act February 20, 1931, cited to text, which provided, "that hereafter no real estate of the War Department shall be sold or disposed of without authority of Congress, and all existing Acts or parts thereof in conflict with this proviso, other than special Acts for the sale of stated tracts of land, are hereby repealed."

§ 558a. Same; canals, rivers, and harbors.

When any land which has been heretofore or may be hereafter purchased or acquired for the improvement of canals, rivers and harbors is no longer needed, or is no longer serviceable, it may be sold in such manner as the Secretary of War may direct, and any moneys received from such sale shall be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of miscellaneous receipts. (Aug. 30, 1935, ch. 831, § 7, 49 Stat. 1048.)

§ 558b. Exchange of land or property.

In any case in which it may be necessary or advisable in the execution of an authorized work of river and harbor improvement to exchange land or other property of the Government for private lands or property required for such project, the Secretary of War may, upon the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, authorize such exchange upon terms and conditions deemed appropriate by him, and any conveyance of Government land or interests therein necessary to effect such exchange may be executed by the Secretary of War: Provided further, That the authority hereby granted to the Secretary of War shall not extend to or include lands held or acquired by the Tennessee Valley Authority pursuant to the terms of sections 831-831dd of Title 16. This section shall apply to any exchanges heretofore deemed advisable in connection with the construction of the Bonneville Dam in the Columbia River. (June 20, 1938, ch. 535, § 2, 52 Stat. 804.)

CROSS REFERENCES

Flood control, applicability of this section to works of, see section 558b-1 of this title.

§ 558b-1. Same; application to authorized works of flood control.

Section 558b of this title is hereby made applicable to authorized works of flood control. (Aug. 11, 1939, ch. 699, § 3, 53 Stat. 1414.)

§ 558c. Rights-of-way over United States land.

The Secretary of War is hereby authorized and empowered, under such terms and conditions as are deemed advisable by him, to grant easements for rights-of-way for public roads and streets on and across lands acquired by the United States for river and harbor and flood control improvements including, whenever necessary, the privilege of occupying so much of said lands as may be necessary for the piers, abutments, and other portions of a bridge structure: Provided, That such rights-of-way shall be granted only upon a finding by the Secretary of War that the same will be in the public interest and will not substantially injure the interest of the United States in the property affected thereby: Provided further, That all or any part of such rights-of-way may be annulled and forfeited by the Secretary of War for failure to comply with the terms or conditions of any grant hereunder or for nonuse or for abandonment of rights granted under the authority hereof: Provided further, That the authority hereby granted to the Secretary of War shall not extend to or include lands held or acquired by the Tennessee Valley Authority pursuant to the terms of Sections 831-831dd of Title 16. (June 20, 1938, ch. 535, § 10, 52 Stat. 808.)

§ 559. Disposition of rentals for Government plants.

Amounts paid by private parties or other agencies for rental of plant owned by the Government in connection with the prosecution of river and harbor works shall be deposited in each case to the credit of the appropriation to which the plant belongs. (Aug. 8, 1917, ch. 49, § 13, 40 Stat. 268.)

§ 560. Contributions from private parties; return of excess.

The Secretary of War is authorized to receive from private parties such funds as may be contributed by them to be expended in connection with funds appropriated by the United States for any authorized work of public improvement of rivers and harbors whenever such work and expenditure may be considered by the Chief of Engineers as advantageous to the interests of navigation: Provided, That when contributions heretofore or hereafter made by local interests for river and harbor improvements, in accordance with specific requirements or under general authority of Congress, are in excess of the actual cost of the work contemplated and properly chargeable to such contributions, such excess contributions may, with the approval of the Secretary of War, be returned to the proper representatives of the contributing interests, unless the provision of law under which the contribution is made requires that the entire contribution be retained by the United States. (Mar. 4, 1915, ch. 142, § 4, 38 Stat. 1053.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Classification as trust funds, appropriation and disbursement of funds contributed for improvement of rivers and harbors, see section 725a (84) of Title 31, Money and Finance.

§ 561. Advances by private parties; repayment.

Whenever local interests shall offer to advance funds for the prosecution of a work of river and harbor improvement duly adopted and authorized by law the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, receive such funds and expend the same in the immediate prosecution of such work. The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to repay without interest, from appropriations which may be provided by Congress for river and harbor improvements, the moneys so contributed and expended: Provided, That no repayment of funds which may be contributed for the purpose of meeting any conditions of local cooperation imposed by Congress, nor under the authority of section 560 of this title shall be made. (Mar. 3, 1925, ch. 467, § 11, 43 Stat. 1197.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Classification as trust funds, appropriation and disbursement of funds advanced for improvement of rivers and harbors, see section 725a (65) of Title 31, Money and Finance.

§ 561a. Contributions from local interests; reduction to meet lowered cost.

When the authorization of a project of river and harbor improvement requires that local interests shall contribute a specific sum of money toward its cost, the Secretary of War, upon the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, may reduce the sum to be contributed to an amount which shall be in the same ratio to the amount of the required contribution as the actual cost of the work to which said contribution is applicable bears to its original estimated cost as set forth in the project document: Provided, That the reduction hereby authorized shall not extend to contributions made prior to March 3, 1933. (Mar. 3, 1933, ch. 216, 47 Stat. 1545.)

§ 562. Channel depths and dimensions defined.

In the preparation of projects under River and Harbor Acts, unless otherwise expressed, the channel depths referred to shall be understood to signify the depth at mean low water in tidal waters tributary to the Atlantic and Gulf coasts and at mean lower low water in tidal waters tributary to the Pacific coast and the mean depth for a continuous period of fifteen days of the lowest water in the navigation season of any year in rivers and nontidal channels, and the channel dimensions specified shall be understood to admit of such increase at the entrances, bends, sidings, and turning places as may be necessary to allow of the free movement of boats. (Mar. 4, 1915, ch. 142, § 5, 38 Stat. 1053.)

§ 563. Use of unexpended sums for preservation, etc., of existing works and for new projects.

Section, act Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 427, § 6, 42 Stat. 1042, made unexpended funds, appropriated prior to Sept. 22, 1922, for river and harbor improvements, available for preservation and maintenance of existing river and harbor works and prosecution of desirable new projects.

§ 564. Settlement of claims for injuries to or loss of private property.

Whenever any vessel belonging to or employed by the United States engaged upon river and harbor works collides with and damages another vessel, pier, or other legal structure belonging to any person or corporation, and whenever, in the prosecution of river and harbor works, an accident occurs, damaging or destroying property belonging to any person or corporation, and whenever personal property of employees of the United States, who are employed on or in connection with river and harbor works, is damaged or destroyed in connection with the loss, threatened loss, or damage to United States property, or through efforts to save life or to preserve United States property, the Chief of Engineers shall cause an immediate examination to be made, and if, in his judgment, the facts and circumstances are such as to make the whole or any part of the damages or destruction a proper charge against the United States, the Chief of Engineers, subject to the approval of the Secretary of War, shall have authority to adjust and settle all claims for damages or destruction caused by the above designated collisions, accidents, and so forth, in cases where the damage or expense does not exceed $500, and pay the same from the appropriation directly involved, and to report such as exceed $500 to Congress for its consideration. (June 25, 1910, ch. 382, § 4, 36 Stat. 676; June 5, 1920, ch. 252, § 9, 41 Stat. 1015.)

§ 565. River and harbor improvement by private or municipal enterprise.

Any person or persons, corporations, municipal or private, who desire to improve any navigable river, or any part thereof, at their or its own expense and risk may do so upon the approval of the plans and specifications of said proposed improvement by the Secretary of War and Chief of Engineers of the Army. The plan of said improvement must conform with the general plan of the Government improvements, must not impede navigation, and no toll shall be imposed on account thereof, and said improvement shall at all times be under the control and supervision of the Secretary of War and Chief of Engineers. (June 13, 1902, ch. 1079, § 1, 32 Stat. 371.)

§ 566. Improvement by or under authority of State of New Jersey.

Authority is given to the State of New Jersey, or, through it, to any commission, individual, corporation, or municipality, singly or collectively, designated by the legislature of said State, or by a commission appointed or authorized by said legislature, to improve the channels on the New Jersey seacoast, or any portion of said coast, or the waters adjacent thereto, lying between thirty-eight degrees fifty-six minutes and forty degrees twenty minutes north latitude, by dredging, or by the construction of piers, jetties, or breakwaters, or other river and harbor work of any description or nature adapted to attain the ends now pursued by the United States Government for the advantage of said coast or the relief of commerce: Provided, That such operations shall not encroach upon those portions of said coast, or the channels adjacent thereto, for which the United States Government may undertake similar work according to its own plans: And provided, That the plans for said work shall be placed on file with the Chief of Engineers of the War Department for thirty days, during which time he is authorized to disapprove said plans and forbid such work if, in his judgment, the improvements when completed will interfere with navigation or with any works of the United States Government commenced or proposed to be made: Provided further, That no tolls or other charges upon commerce shall be imposed by those making such improvements: And provided further, That this section shall not be construed as affecting in any way the jurisdiction and control of the Federal Government over any waters that may be improved in pursuance of the provisions thereof, nor as exempting such waters from the operation of the laws heretofore or hereafter enacted by Congress for the preservation and protection of navigable waters. The right to alter, amend, or repeal this section is hereby expressly reserved. (June 30, 1906, ch. 3923, §§ 1, 2, 34 Stat. 800.)

§ 567. Navigation and flood control improvements by Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota.

Congress hereby consents that the States of Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota, or any two of them, may enter into any agreement or agreements with each other to aid in improving navigation and to prevent and control floods on boundary waters of said States and the waters tributary thereto. And said States, or any two of them, may agree with each other upon any project or projects for the purpose of making such improvements, and upon the amount of money to be contributed by each to carry out such projects. The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to make a survey of any project proposed, as aforesaid, by said States, or any two of them, to determine the feasibility and practicability thereof and the expenses of carrying the same into effect and what share of such expenses should be borne by the respective States, local interests, or by the National Government. If the Secretary of War approves any such projects, he may authorize the States to make such improvements at their own expense, but under his supervision. (Aug. 8, 1917, ch. 49, § 5, 40 Stat. 266.)

§ 567a. Flood and pollution control compacts between certain States.

The consent of the Congress of the United States is hereby given to the States of Maine, New York, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Tennessee, and Ohio, or any two or more of them, to negotiate and enter into agreements or compacts for conserving and regulating the flow, lessening flood damage, removing sources of pollution of the waters thereof, or making other public improvements on any rivers or streams whose drainage basins lie within any two or more of the said States.

No such compact or agreement shall be binding or obligatory upon any State a party thereto unless and until it has been approved by the legislatures of each of the States whose assent is contemplated by the terms of the compact or agreement and by the Congress. (June 8, 1936, ch. 542, §§ 1, 2, 49 Stat. 1490.)

APPROVAL OF COMPACT BY CONGRESS

Act July 11, 1940, ch. 581, 54 Stat. 752, provided, in part, as follows:

"The consent and approval of Congress is hereby given to an interstate compact relating to the control and reduction of the pollution of the streams of the Ohio River drainage basin negotiated and entered into or to be entered into under authority of Public Resolution Numbered 104, Seventy-fourth Congress, approved June 8, 1936, [this section] and now ratified by the States of New York, Illinois, Kentucky, and Indiana, and by the State of Ohio (whose ratification is to go into effect at the time at which the States of New York, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia enter into said compact as parties and signatory States), also by the State of West Virginia (whose ratification is to go into effect at the time at which the States of New York, Ohio, Virginia, and Pennsylvania enter into said compact as parties and signatory States) * * *."

"Sec. 2. Without further submission of said compact, the consent of Congress is hereby given to the State of Virginia or any other State with waters in the Ohio River drainage basin, entering into said compact as a signatory State and party in addition to the States therein named or any of them.

"Sec. 3. The commissioners to represent the United States, as provided in article IV of said compact, shall be appointed by the President.

"Sec. 4. Nothing contained in this Act or in the compact herein approved shall be construed as impairing or affecting the sovereignty of the United States or any of its rights or jurisdiction in and over the area or waters which are the subject of such compact.

"Sec. 5. The right to alter, amend, or repeal the provisions of section 1 is hereby expressly reserved."

§ 567b. Pollution of Potomac drainage basin; control by State compacts.

The consent of Congress is hereby given to the States of Maryland and West Virginia and the Commonwealths of Virginia and Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia to enter into the compact to create a Potomac Valley Conservancy District and to establish an Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin: Provided, That nothing contained in such compact shall be construed as impairing or in any manner affecting any right or jurisdiction of the United States in and over the region which forms the subject of this compact. (July 11, 1940, ch. 579, 54 Stat. 748.)

§ 568. Limitation on power of committee of Congress to consider projects.

No project shall be considered by any committee of Congress with a view to its adoption, except with a view to a survey, if five years have elapsed since a report upon a survey of such project has been submitted to Congress pursuant to law. (Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 427, § 9, 42 Stat. 1043.)

§ 569. Personal equipment for employees; use of funds for purpose.

Funds heretofore or hereafter appropriated for rivers and harbors to be expended under the supervision of the Secretary of War shall be available for expenditure in the purchase of such personal equipment for employees as in the opinion of the Chief of Engineers are essential for the efficient prosecution of the works. (Jan. 21, 1927, ch. 47, § 5 (b), 44 Stat. 1021.)

§ 569a. Public hearings; expert assistance; stenographic assistance; authority of Chief of Engineers.

The Chief of Engineers is authorized to engage under agreement, when deemed necessary, expert assistance in the various arts and sciences, including expert stenographic assistance for reporting the proceedings of public hearings held in connection with preliminary examinations, surveys, or improvements of rivers and harbors, upon terms and rates of compensation for services and incidental expenses in excess of the maximum of the salaries authorized by sections 661-663, 664-673, and 674 of Title 5; and all agreements entered into for such purposes prior to July 3, 1930, are validated to the amount of the current rates charged for such services. (July 3, 1930, ch. 847, § 6, 46 Stat. 948.)

§ 570. Default in contract; disposition of amounts collected.

Any amounts collected from defaulting contractors or their sureties under contracts entered into in connection with river and harbor or flood-control work prosecuted by the Engineer Department, whether collected in cash or by deduction from amounts otherwise due such contractors, hereafter shall be credited in each case to the appropriation under which the contract was made. (Aug. 30, 1935, ch. 831, § 8, 49 Stat. 1048.)

§ 571. Crediting reimbursements for lost, stolen, or damaged property.

Any amounts collected from any person, persons, or corporations as a reimbursement for lost, stolen, or damaged property, purchased in connection with river and harbor or flood control work prosecuted under the direction of the Secretary of War and the supervision of the Chief of Engineers, whether collected in cash or by deduction from amounts otherwise due such person, persons, or corporations, hereafter shall be credited in each case to the appropriation that bore the cost of purchase, repair, or replacement of the lost, stolen, or damaged property. (June 20, 1938, ch. 535, § 4, 52 Stat. 805.)

TRAVELING EXPENSES AND SUBSISTENCE

§ 581. Hiring special means of transportation.

In their execution and inspection of river and harbor improvement work, at points beyond easy reach of ordinary regular transportation lines, Engineer officers are authorized to hire and use such transportation as they may consider desirable and advantageous to the progress of work. (July 25, 1912, ch. 253, § 9, 37 Stat. 233.)

§ 582. Subsistence allowance to persons engaged in field work.

When the expenses of persons engaged in field work or traveling on official business outside of the District of Columbia and away from their designated posts of duty are chargeable to appropriations of the Engineer Department, a per diem of not exceeding $4 may be allowed in lieu of subsistence when not otherwise fixed by law. (July 18, 1918, ch. 155, § 9, 40 Stat. 912.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Per diem in lieu of expenses allowed Government officers and employees away on official business, see section 823 of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 583. Payment of allowances, etc., incident to change of station of Engineer officers from appropriation for improvements.

When in the opinion of the Secretary of War the changes of a station of an officer of the Corps of Engineers is primarily in the interest of river and harbor improvement, the mileage and other allowances to which he may be entitled incident to such change of station may be paid from appropriations for such improvements. (Mar. 3, 1925, ch. 467, § 5, 43 Stat. 1191.)

§ 584. Expenses incident to transportation of household effects of civilian employees.

Actual expenses heretofore and hereafter incurred by civilian employees on river and harbor works for packing, crating, hauling, and transporting household effects, within the weight limits as prescribed in Army Regulations, when making permanent change of station under competent orders, may, on approval of the Chief of Engineers, be paid or reimbursed from funds pertaining to river and harbor works. (Jan. 21, 1927, ch. 47, § 5 (d), 44 Stat. 1021.)

§ 584a. Travel expenses of civilian employees on river and harbor works; available funds for payment.

Actual expenses incurred by civilian employees on river and harbor works for travel when making permanent change of station under competent orders, may, on approval of the Chief of Engineers, be paid or reimbursed from funds pertaining to river and harbor works. (July 3, 1930, ch. 847, § 6, 46 Stat. 948.)

ACQUISITION OF LAND AND MATERIALS

§ 591. Condemnation, purchase, and donation of land and materials.

The Secretary of War may cause proceedings to be instituted, in the name of the United States, in any court having jurisdiction of such proceedings, for the acquirement by condemnation of any land, right-of-way, or material needed to enable him to maintain, operate, or prosecute works for the improvement of rivers and harbors for which provision has been made by law; such proceedings to be prosecuted in accordance with the laws relating to suits for the condemnation of property of the States wherein the proceedings may be instituted: Provided, however, That when the owner of such land, right-of-way, or material shall fix a price for the same, which in the opinion of the Secretary of War, shall be reasonable, he may purchase the same at such price without further delay: And provided further, That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to accept donations of lands or materials required for the maintenance or prosecution of such works. (Apr. 24, 1888, ch. 194, 25 Stat. 94.)

§ 592. Condemnation of land in aid of person, company, corporation, municipal or private.

Whenever any person, company, or corporation, municipal or private, shall undertake to secure any land or easement therein needed in connection with a work of river and harbor improvement duly authorized by Congress, for the purpose of conveying the same to the United States free of cost, or for the purpose of constructing, maintaining, and operating locks, dry docks, or other works to be conveyed to the United States free of cost, and of constructing, maintaining and operating dams for use in connection therewith, and shall be unable for any reason to obtain the same by purchase and acquire a valid title thereto, the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, cause proceedings to be instituted in the name of the United States for the acquirement by condemnation of said land or easement, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General of the United States to institute and conduct such proceedings upon the request of the Secretary of War: Provided, That all expenses of said proceedings and any award that may be made thereunder shall be paid by the said person, company, or corporation, to secure which payment the Secretary of War may require the said person, company, or corporation to execute a proper bond in such amount as he may deem necessary before said proceedings are commenced. (May 16, 1906, ch. 2465, 34 Stat. 196; June 29, 1906, ch. 3628, 34 Stat. 632.)

§ 593. Condemnation of land in aid of State or State agency.

Whenever any State, or any reclamation, flood control or drainage district, or other public agency created by any State, shall undertake to secure any land or easement therein, needed in connection with a work of river and harbor improvement duly authorized by Congress, for the purpose of conveying the same to the United States free of cost, and shall be unable for any reason to obtain the same by purchase and acquire a valid title thereto, the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, cause proceedings to be instituted in the name of the United States for the acquirement by condemnation of said land or easement, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General of the United States to institute and conduct such proceedings upon the request of the Secretary of War: Provided, That all expenses of said proceedings and any award that may be made thereunder shall be paid by such State, or reclamation, flood control or drainage district, or other public agency as aforesaid, to secure which payment the Secretary of War may require such State, or reclamation, flood control or drainage district, or other public agency as aforesaid, to execute a proper bond in such amount as he may deem necessary before said proceedings are commenced. (Aug. 8, 1917, ch. 49, § 9, 40 Stat. 267.)

§ 594. When immediate possession of land may be taken.

Whenever the Secretary of War, in pursuance of authority conferred on him by law, causes proceedings to be instituted in the name of the United States for the acquirement by condemnation of any lands, easements, or rights of way needed for a work of river and harbor improvements duly authorized by Congress, the United States, upon the filing of the petition in any such proceedings, shall have the right to take immediate possession of said lands, easements, or rights-of-way, to the extent of the interest to be acquired, and proceed with such public works thereon as have been authorized by Congress: Provided, That certain and adequate provision shall have been made for the payment of just compensation to the party or parties entitled thereto, either by previous appropriation by the United States or by the deposit of moneys or other form of security in such amount and form as shall be approved by the court in which such proceedings shall be instituted. The respondent or respondents may move at any time in the court to increase or change the amounts or securities, and the court shall make such order as shall be just in the premises and as shall adequately protect the respondents. In every case the proceedings in condemnation shall be diligently prosecuted on the part of the United States in order that such compensation may be promptly ascertained and paid. (July 18, 1918, ch. 155, § 5, 40 Stat. 911.)

§ 595. Consideration of benefits in assessing compensation.

In all cases where private property shall be taken by the United States for the public use in connection with any improvement of rivers, harbors, canals, or waterways of the United States, and in all condemnation proceedings by the United States to acquire lands or easements for such improvements, where a part only of any such parcel, lot, or tract of land shall be taken, the jury or other tribunal awarding the just compensation or assessing the damages to the owner, whether for the value of the part taken or for any injury to the part not taken, shall take into consideration by way of reducing the amount of compensation or damages any special and direct benefits to the remainder arising from the improvement, and shall render their award or verdict accordingly. (July 18, 1918, ch. 155, § 6, 40 Stat. 911.)

PARTICULAR WORK OR IMPROVEMENTS

§ 601. Mississippi River; regulation of reservoirs at headwaters.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to prescribe such rules and regulations in respect to the use and administration of the reservoirs at the headwaters of the Mississippi River as in his judgment the public interest and necessity may require; which rules and regulations shall be posted in some conspicuous place or places for the information of the public. And any person knowingly and willfully violating such rules and regulations shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $500, or imprisonment, not exceeding six months, the same to be enforced by prosecution in any district court of the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed. And the Secretary of War shall cause such gaugings to be made at or near Saint Paul during the annual operation of said reservoirs as shall determine accurately the discharge at that point, the cost of same to be paid out of the annual appropriation for gauging the waters of the Mississippi River and its tributaries. (Aug. 11, 1888, ch. 860, § 1, 25 Stat. 419.)

§ 602. Maintenance of channel of South Pass of Mississippi River.

Upon the termination of the contract entered into with the late James B. Eads for the maintenance of the channel through the South Pass of the Mississippi River, the Secretary of War is directed to take charge of said channel, including the jetties, and all auxiliary works connected therewith, and thereafter to maintain with the utmost efficiency said South Pass Channel; and for that purpose he is authorized to draw his warrants from time to time on the Treasurer of the United States, until otherwise provided for by law, for such sums of money as may be necessary, not to exceed in the aggregate for any one year $100,000. For that purpose any available Government dredge may be used.

For the purpose of securing the uninterrupted examinations and surveys of the South Pass of the Mississippi River, the Secretary of War, upon the application of the Chief of Engineers, is authorized to draw his warrant or requisition from time to time upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sums as may be necessary to do such work, not to exceed in the aggregate for each year the sum of $10,000: Provided, however, That an itemized statement of said expenditures shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers. (Aug. 11, 1888, ch. 860, §§ 1, 4, 25 Stat. 422, 424; June 6, 1900, ch. 790, § 3, 31 Stat. 584; June 13, 1902, ch. 1079, § 1, 32 Stat. 340.)

REPEAL

Effective July 1, 1935, the permanent appropriations provided for in the first and second paragraphs of this section were repealed by act June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 2, 48 Stat. 1225, 1226, such act authorizing, in lieu thereof, annual appropriations from the general fund of the Treasury. See section 725a (b) of Title 31, Money and Finance.

§ 603. Removal of snags, etc., from tributaries; minor improvements in navigable waters.

The Chief of Engineers, in his discretion, and after approval by the Secretary of War, is hereby authorized to make preliminary examinations and minor surveys preliminary thereto and to remove snags and other temporary or readily removable obstructions from tributaries of waterways already under Federal improvement or in general use by navigation, or to make such minor improvements in any of the navigable waters of the United States as he may deem advisable in the interest of national defense, the cost thereof to be paid from funds appropriated for the maintenance and improvement of rivers and harbors: Provided, That the cost of such work in any single year shall not exceed $3,000 per tributary. (July 25, 1912, ch. 253, § 1, 37 Stat. 222; July 3, 1930, ch. 847, § 3, 46 Stat. 946; Oct. 17, 1940, ch. 895, § 3, 54 Stat. 1200.)

§ 604. Removal of snags, etc., from Mississippi River.

For the purpose of removing snags, wrecks, and other obstructions in the Mississippi River, the Atchafalaya and Old Rivers from the junction with the Mississippi and Red Rivers down the Atchafalaya River as far down as Melville, Louisiana, the Secretary of War, upon the application of the Chief of Engineers, is hereby authorized to draw his warrant or requisition from time to time upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sums as may be necessary to do such work, not to exceed in the aggregate for each year the sum of $100,000: Provided, however, That an itemized statement of said expenses shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers. (Aug. 11, 1888, ch. 860, §§ 1, 7, 25 Stat. 421, 424; Mar. 3, 1909, ch. 264, § 3, 35 Stat. 817.)

REPEAL

Effective July 1, 1935, the permanent appropriation provided for in this section was repealed by act June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 2, 48 Stat. 1225, incorporated in section 725a of Title 31, Money and Finance, authorizing, in lieu thereof, an annual appropriation from the general fund of the Treasury.

§ 605. Operation of snag boats on Upper Mississippi River.

For the purpose of securing the uninterrupted work of operating snag boats on the Upper Mississippi River, the Illinois River from its mouth to Copperas Creek, and the Minnesota River and other tributaries of the Upper Mississippi River improved by the United States, the Secretary of War, upon the application of the Chief of Engineers, is hereby authorized to draw his warrant or requisition from time to time upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sums as may be necessary to do such work, not to exceed in the aggregate for each year the sum of $25,000: Provided, however, That an itemized statement of said expenses shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers. (Aug. 11, 1888, ch. 860, §§ 1, 7, 25 Stat. 420, 421, 424; Mar. 2, 1907, ch. 2509, § 1, 34 Stat. 1102; Mar. 3, 1909, ch. 264, § 3, 35 Stat. 817.)

REPEAL

Effective July 1, 1935, the permanent appropriation provided for in this section was repealed by act June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 2, 48 Stat. 1225, incorporated in section 725a of Title 31, Money and Finance, authorizing, in lieu thereof, an annual appropriation from the general fund of the Treasury.

§ 606. Removal of snags, and so forth, from Ohio River.

For the purpose of securing the uninterrupted work of operating snag boats on the Ohio River and removing snags, wrecks, and other obstructions in said river, the Secretary of War, upon the application of the Chief of Engineers, is hereby authorized to draw his warrant or requisition from time to time upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sums as may be necessary to do such work, not to exceed in the aggregate for each year the sum of $50,000: Provided, however, That an itemized statement of said expenses shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers. (Sept. 19, 1890, ch. 907, § 13, 26 Stat. 455; June 3, 1896, ch. 314, § 3, 29 Stat. 234.)

REPEAL

Effective July 1, 1935, the permanent appropriation provided for in this section was repealed by act June 26, 1934, ch. 756, § 2, 48 Stat. 1225, incorporated in section 725a of Title 31, Money and Finance, authorizing, in lieu thereof, an annual appropriation from the general fund of the Treasury.

§ 607. Removal of drift from New York Harbor.

So much as may be necessary of any appropriations made for specific portions of New York Harbor and its immediate tributaries may be allotted by the Secretary of War for the maintenance of these waterways by the collection and removal of drift. (Aug. 8, 1917, ch. 49, § 1, 40 Stat. 252.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Separate project, with direct allotments from appropriation for maintaining rivers and harbors, to be made of work of removing drift from New York Harbor, see section 607a of this title.

§ 607a. Same; appropriations; separate project.

Direct allotments from appropriations for maintenance and improvement of existing river and harbor works or other available appropriation may be made by the Secretary of War for the collection and removal of drift in New York Harbor and its tributary waters, and this work shall be carried as a separate and distinct project. (July 3, 1930, ch. 847, § 6, 46 Stat. 947.)

§ 608. Construction of fishways.

Whenever river and harbor improvements shall be found to operate (whether by lock and dam or otherwise), as obstructions to the passage of fish, the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, direct and cause to be constructed practical and sufficient fishways, to be paid for out of the general appropriations for the streams on which such fishways may be constructed. (Aug. 11, 1888, ch. 860, § 11, 25 Stat. 425.)

§ 609. Sluices and other work in dams for development of water power.

In order to make possible the economical future development of water power, the Secretary of War, upon recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to provide in the permanent parts of any dam authorized at any time by Congress for the improvement of navigation such foundations, sluices, and other works, as may be considered desirable for the future development of its water power. (July 25, 1912, ch. 253, § 12, 37 Stat. 233.)

PROSECUTION OF WORK GENERALLY

§ 621. By what methods river and harbor work may be authorized to be prosecuted.

Any public work on canals, rivers, and harbors adopted by Congress may be prosecuted by direct appropriations, by continuing contracts, or by both direct appropriations and continuing contracts. (Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 427, § 10, 42 Stat. 1043.)

§ 622. Method of doing work generally.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to apply the money appropriated for improvements of rivers and harbors, other than surveys, estimates and gaugings, in carrying on the various works, by contract or otherwise, as may be most economical and advantageous to the Government. And all works of improvement authorized to be prosecuted or completed under contracts may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be carried on by contract or otherwise, as may be most economical or advantageous to the United States. In all cases where the project for a work of river or harbor improvement provides for the construction or use of Government dredging plant, the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, have the work done by contract if reasonable prices can be obtained. (Aug. 11, 1888, ch. 860, § 3, 25 Stat. 423; July 25, 1912, ch. 253, § 1, 37 Stat. 222; Mar. 2, 1919, ch. 95, § 3, 40 Stat. 1287.)

CROSS REFERENCE

No work to be done on private contract at cost of more than 25 per centum in excess of estimated cost of doing the work by Government plant, see section 624 of this title.

§ 623. Letting contract to lowest responsible bidder.

Where works for river and harbor improvements are done by contract, such contract shall be made after sufficient public advertisement for proposals, in such manner and form as the Secretary of War shall prescribe; and such contracts shall be made with the lowest responsible bidders, accompanied by such securities as the Secretary of War shall require, conditioned for the faithful prosecution and completion of the work according to such contract. (Aug. 11, 1888, ch. 860, § 3, 25 Stat. 423.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Section not to be construed as prohibiting cumulation of two or more works in the same proposal and contract when in same region and of same kind, see section 626 of this title.

§ 624. Limitation on power to let contract based on estimation of cost.

No part of the funds appropriated for works of river and harbor improvement shall be used to pay for any work done by private contract if the contract price is more than 25 per centum in excess of the estimated cost of doing the work by Government plant: Provided, That in estimating the cost of doing the work by Government plant, including the cost of labor and materials, there shall also be taken into account proper charges for depreciation of plant and all supervising and overhead expenses and interest on the capital invested in the Government plant, but the rate of interest shall not exceed the maximum prevailing rate being paid by the United States on current issues of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness. (Mar. 2, 1919, ch. 95, § 8, 40 Stat. 1290.)

§ 625. Combining several projects in one contract.

Whenever the appropriations made by Congress for river and harbor works can be more advantageously expended by combining in one contract two or more works, such combinations shall be made, and nothing contained in section 9 of Title 41, nor in section 623 of this title, shall be so construed as to prohibit or prevent the cumulation of two or more works of river and harbor improvement in the same proposal and contract, where such works are situated in the same region and of the same kind or character. (Sept. 19, 1890, ch. 907, § 2, 26 Stat. 452; July 25, 1912, ch. 253, § 8, 37 Stat. 233.)

§ 626. Prosecution of work when appropriation insufficient.

Whenever the appropriations made, or authorized to be made, for the completion of any river and harbor work shall prove insufficient therefor, the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, on the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, apply the funds so appropriated or authorized to the prosecution of such work. (July 25, 1912, ch. 253, § 8, 37 Stat. 233.)

§ 627. Application of appropriation when separate works are included therein.

Where separate works or items are consolidated in River and Harbor Acts and an aggregate amount is appropriated therefor, any balances remaining to the credit of the separate works or items may be transferred to the credit of the corresponding aggregate amounts appropriated for the consolidated items, and the amounts appropriated or transferred shall, unless otherwise expressed, be expended in securing maintenance and improvement according to the respective projects adopted by Congress, after giving due regard to the respective needs of traffic. The allotments to the respective works consolidated shall be made by the Secretary of War upon recommendations by the Chief of Engineers. In case such works or items are consolidated and separate amounts are given with each project, the amounts so named shall be expended upon such separate projects unless, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, another allotment or division should be made of the same. Any balances remaining to the credit of the consolidated items shall be carried to the credit of the respective aggregate amounts appropriated for the consolidated items. (Mar. 4, 1915, ch. 142, § 3, 38 Stat. 1052.)

§ 628. Expenditure for dredging within harbor lines.

No money appropriated for the improvement of rivers and harbors shall be expended for dredging inside of harbor lines duly established. (July 13, 1892, ch. 158, § 5, 27 Stat. 111.)

§ 629. Contract for hire of dredging plant.

Whenever it shall become, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, necessary or desirable to hire a dredging plant or plants for the performance of any of the public work carried on under his direction the said Secretary may, in his discretion, agree for the same, either in the manner customary on March 2, 1907, or on the basis of an equitable reimbursement for deterioration of plant when in use by the Government, and a reasonable percentage of the total cost of the work. (Mar. 2, 1907, ch. 2509, § 5, 34 Stat. 1119.)

§ 630. Limitation on expenditure for purchase of dredges.

No money authorized to be expended for the acquirement of any dredge or dredges shall be so expended for the purchase of any dredge or dredges from private contractors, which at the time of the proposed purchase can be manufactured at any navy yard or other Government-owned factory for a sum less than it can be purchased for from such private contractor. (Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 427, § 5, 42 Stat. 1042.)

§ 631. Transfer of property between projects.

The Secretary of War may direct a temporary transfer of any property employed in the improvement of rivers and harbors whenever, in his judgment, such transfer would secure efficient or economical results, and such adjustment in the way of charges and credits shall be made between the projects affected as may be equitable. (June 13, 1902, ch. 1079, § 5, 32 Stat. 373.)

§ 632. Written contracts; application to contracts relating to river and harbor improvements.

The requirements of section 16 of Title 41 shall not apply to the lease of lands, or easements therein, or of buildings, rooms, wharves, or rights of wharfage or dockage, or to the hire of vessels, boats, and other floating craft, for use in connection with river and harbor improvements, where the period of any such lease or hire is not to exceed three months. (June 25, 1910, ch. 382, § 5, 36 Stat. 676.)

Chapter 13.—MISSISSIPPI RIVER COMMISSION

- Sec.
 641. Creation of Mississippi River Commission.
 642. Appointment of commissioners; vacancies; chairman; tenure of office.
 643. Compensation of commissioners.
 644. Secretary of commission.
 645. Traveling expenses of civilian members of commission and of Assistant Engineer of Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors.
 646. Headquarters and meetings of commission.
 647. Mississippi River survey; detail of assistants; vessels and instruments.
 648. Arkansas River; levee and bank protection.
 649. Vicksburg Harbor and Ohio River below Cache River.
 650. Mississippi River below Rock Island; levee and bank protection.
 651. Tributaries of Mississippi River below Cairo; levee and bank protection.

§ 641. Creation of Mississippi River Commission.

A commission is created to be called "The Mississippi River Commission", to consist of seven members. (June 28, 1879, ch. 43, § 1, 21 Stat. 37.)

§ 642. Appointment of commissioners; vacancies; chairman; tenure of office.

The President of the United States shall, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint seven commissioners, three of whom shall be selected from the Engineer Corps of the Army, one from the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and three from civil life, two of whom shall be civil engineers. And any vacancy which may occur in the commission shall in like manner be filled by the President of the United States; and he shall designate one of the commissioners appointed from the Engineer Corps of the Army to be president of the commission. The commissioners appointed under sections 641-644, 646, 647 of this title shall remain in office subject to removal by the President of the United States. (June 28, 1879, ch. 43, § 2, 21 Stat. 37.)

CROSS REFERENCE

President of commission as executive officer, qualifications, rank, etc., see section 702h of this title.

§ 643. Compensation of commissioners.

Section, acts June 28, 1879, ch. 43, § 2, 21 Stat. 37; June 25, 1910, ch. 382, § 1, 36 Stat. 658; Mar. 1, 1917, ch. 144, § 4, 39 Stat. 951, is now covered by section 702h of this title.

§ 644. Secretary of commission.

The Secretary of War may detail from the Engineer Corps of the Army of the United States an officer to act as secretary of said commission. (June 28, 1879, ch. 43, § 6, 21 Stat. 38.)

§ 645. Traveling expenses of civilian members of commission and of Assistant Engineer of Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors.

The traveling expenses of the civilian members of the Mississippi River Commission, and of the Assistant Engineer of the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, when on duty, shall be computed and paid in the same way as the traveling expenses of the Army members of said commission and of said board. (July 25, 1912, ch. 253, § 1, 37 Stat. 218.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Per diem in lieu of expenses allowed government officers and employees away on official business, see section 823 of Title 5, Executive Departments, and Government Officers and Employees.

§ 646. Headquarters and meetings of commission.

The headquarters and general offices of said commission shall be located at some city or town on the Mississippi River, to be designated by the Secretary of War, and the meetings of the commission except such as are held on Government boats during the time of the semiannual inspection trips of the commission shall be held at said headquarters and general offices, the times of said meetings to be fixed by the president of the commission, who shall cause due notice of such meetings to be given members of the commission and the public. (June 28, 1879, ch. 43, § 8; Feb. 18, 1901, ch. 377, 31 Stat. 793.)

§ 647. Mississippi River survey; detail of assistants; vessels and instruments.

It shall be the duty of the Mississippi River Commission to direct and complete such surveys of the Mississippi River, between the Head of the Passes near its mouth to its headwaters as may have been in progress June 28, 1879, and to make such additional surveys, examinations, and investigations, topographical, hydrographical, and hydrometrical, of said river and its tributaries, as may be deemed necessary by said commission to carry out the objects of this chapter. And to enable said commission to complete such surveys, examinations, and investigations, the Secretary of War shall, when requested by said commission, detail from the Engineer Corps of the Army such officers and men as may be necessary, and shall place in the charge and for the use of said commission such vessel or vessels and such machinery and instruments as may be under his control and may be deemed necessary. And the Secretary of Commerce shall, when requested by said commission in like manner detail from the Coast and Geodetic Survey such officers and men as may be necessary, and shall place in the charge and for the use of said commission such vessel or vessels and such machinery and instruments as may be under his control and may be deemed necessary. And the said commission may, with the approval of the Secretary of War, employ such additional force and assistants, and provide, by purchase or otherwise, such vessels or boats and such instruments and means as may be deemed necessary.

Plans; report.—It shall be the duty of said commission to take into consideration and mature such plan or plans and estimates as will correct, permanently locate, and deepen the channel and protect the banks of the Mississippi River; improve and give safety and ease to the navigation thereof; prevent destructive floods; promote and facilitate commerce, trade, and the postal service; and when so prepared and matured, to submit to the Secretary of War a full and detailed report of their proceedings and actions, and of such plans, with estimates of the cost thereof, for the purposes aforesaid, to be by him transmitted to Congress: Provided, That the commission shall report in full upon the practicability, feasibility, and probable cost of the various plans known as the jetty system, the levee system, and the outlet system, as well as upon such others as they deem necessary.

Plans for immediate works.—The said commission may, prior to the completion of all the surveys and examinations contemplated by this chapter, prepare and submit to the Secretary of War, plans, specifications, and estimates of costs for such immediate works as, in the judgment of said commission, may constitute a part of the general system of works herein contemplated, to be by him transmitted to Congress. (June 28, 1879, ch. 43, §§ 3-5, 21 Stat. 37, 38; Feb. 14, 1903, ch. 552, § 4, 32 Stat. 826.)

TRIBUTARIES

Act Mar. 3, 1881, ch. 136, 21 Stat. 474, provided in part as follows: "It shall be the duty of said commission to take into consideration, and of the Secretary of War to extend operations, under their supervision, to tributaries of the Mississippi River to the extent, and not further, that may be necessary in the judgment of said commission to the perfection of the general and permanent improvement of said Mississippi River."

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 648. Arkansas River; levee and bank protection.

The jurisdiction of the Mississippi River Commission is extended so as to include that part of the Arkansas River between its mouth and the intersection thereof with the division line between Lincoln and Jefferson Counties, and any funds which are appropriated by Congress for improving the Mississippi River between Head of Passes and the mouth of the Ohio River, and which may be allotted to levees and bank revetment, may be expended within the limits of said extended jurisdiction under the direction of the Secretary of War, in accordance with the plans, specifications, and recommendations of the Mississippi River Commission, as approved by the Chief of Engineers, and upon like terms and conditions for levees and bank revetment upon any part of the Mississippi River now under the jurisdiction of said commission, and in such manner as will best promote and accomplish the purposes for which commission was created, in so far as the territory hereby added to its said jurisdiction may be involved. (July 27, 1916, ch. 260, § 1, 39 Stat. 402.)

§ 649. Vicksburg Harbor and Ohio River below Cache River.

The harbor at Vicksburg, Mississippi, and the Ohio River from its mouth to the mouth of the Cache River, are transferred to and placed under the control and jurisdiction of the Mississippi River Commission: Provided, That no part of the improvement of the Ohio River, with a view to the construction of locks and dams, shall be considered as transferred to or placed under the control and jurisdiction of the Mississippi River Commission. (July 27, 1916, ch. 260, § 1, 39 Stat. 402.)

§ 650. Mississippi River below Rock Island; levee and bank protection.

Any funds which are appropriated by Congress for improving the Mississippi River between Head of Passes and the mouth of the Ohio River, and which may be allotted to levees, may be expended, under the direction of the Secretary of War, in accordance with the plans, specifications, and recommendations of the Mississippi River Commission, as approved by the Chief of Engineers, for levees upon any part of said river between Head of Passes and Rock Island, Illinois, in such manner as, in their opinion, shall best improve navigation and promote the interest of commerce at all stages of the river. (July 27, 1916, ch. 260, § 1, 39 Stat. 402.)

§ 651. Tributaries of Mississippi River below Cairo; levee and bank protection.

The jurisdiction of the Mississippi River Commission is extended, for the purposes of levee protection and bank protection, to the tributaries and outlets of the Mississippi River between Cairo, Illinois, and the Head of the Passes, in so far as these tributaries and outlets are affected by the flood waters of the Mississippi River. (Sept. 22, 1922, ch. 427, § 13, 42 Stat. 1047.)

Chapter 14.—CALIFORNIA DÉBRIS COMMISSION

Sec.

661. Creation of commission; appointment of members; vacancies; powers generally.
662. Organization; compensation of members; rules and regulations of procedure; traveling expenses.
663. Territorial jurisdiction over hydraulic mining; hydraulic mining injurious to navigation prohibited.
664. General duties as to plans for protection of navigation.
665. Survey for débris reservoirs; study of methods of mines and mining.
666. Noting conditions of navigable channels.
667. Annual reports.
668. "Hydraulic mining" and "mining by hydraulic process" defined.
669. Petition by hydraulic miners.
670. Surrender to United States of right to regulate débris of mine.
671. Petition for common dumping ground, etc.
672. Notice of petition for dumping grounds, etc.; hearing.
673. Order by commission directing method of mining, etc.; expenses of complying with order; exemption from mining taxes.
674. Plans for and supervision of work required by order; permit to commence mining.
675. Conditions precedent for commencement of mining operations.
676. Allotment of expenses for common dumping grounds; location of impounding works.
677. Limitation as to quantity of débris washed away.
678. Modification and revocation of permit to mine.
679. Violation of permit to mine; penalty.
680. Examination of mines; reports.
681. Use of public lands and materials; withdrawal of lands required from sale or entry.
682. Malicious injury to works; injury to navigable waters by hydraulic mining; penalty.
683. Tax on gross proceeds of hydraulic mines; "débris fund"; advances by mine owners.
684. Cooperation by commission with State authorities.
685. Construction by commission of restraining works, etc.; use of débris fund.
686. Construction of restraining works in conjunction with State.
687. Use of State dredge and appliances in river and harbor improvements

§ 661. Creation of commission; appointment of members; vacancies; powers generally.

A commission is created, to be known as the California Débris Commission, consisting of three members. The President of the United States shall, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint the commission from officers of the Corps of Engineers, United States Army. Vacancies occurring therein shall be filled in like manner. It shall have the authority, and exercise the powers set forth in sections 662–685 of this title, under the supervision of the Chief of Engineers and direction of the Secretary of War. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 1, 27 Stat. 507.)

§ 662. Organization; compensation of members; rules and regulations of procedure; traveling expenses.

Said commission shall organize by the selection of such officers as may be required in the performance of its duties the same to be selected from the members thereof. The members of said commission shall receive no greater compensation than is now allowed by law to each, respectively, as an officer of said Corps of Engineers. It shall also adopt rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, to govern its deliberations and prescribe the method of procedure under the provisions of this chapter. While traveling on duty the officers of the commission shall receive the mileage allowed by law. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 2, 27 Stat. 507; June 6, 1900, ch. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 631.)

§ 663. Territorial jurisdiction over hydraulic mining; hydraulic mining injurious to navigation prohibited.

The jurisdiction of said commission, in so far as the same affects mining carried on by the hydraulic process, shall extend to all such mining in the territory drained by the Sacramento and San Joaquin River systems in the State of California. Hydraulic mining, as defined in section 668 of this title, directly or indirectly injuring the navigability of said river systems, carried on in said territory other than as permitted under the provisions of sections 661–685 of this title is hereby prohibited and declared unlawful. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 3, 27 Stat. 507.)

§ 664. General duties as to plans for protection of navigation.

It shall be the duty of said commission to mature and adopt such plan or plans, from examinations and surveys made prior to March 1, 1893, and from such additional examinations and surveys as it may deem necessary, as will improve the navigability of all the rivers comprising said systems, deepen their channels, and protect their banks. Such plan or plans shall be matured with a view of making the same effective as against the encroachment of and damage from débris resulting from mining operations, natural erosion, or other causes, with a view of restoring, as near as practicable and the necessities of commerce and navigation demand, the navigability of said rivers to the condition existing in 1860, and permitting mining by the hydraulic process, as the term is understood in said State, to be carried on, provided the same can be accomplished, without injury to the navigability of said rivers or the lands adjacent thereto. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 4, 27 Stat. 507.)

§ 665. Survey for débris reservoirs; study of methods of mines and mining.

It shall further examine, survey, and determine the utility and practicability, for the purposes hereinafter indicated, of storage sites in the tributaries of said rivers and in the respective branches of said tributaries, or in the plains, basins, sloughs, and tule and swamp lands adjacent to or along the course of said rivers, for the storage of débris or water or as settling reservoirs, with the object of using the same by either or all of these methods to aid in the improvement and protection of said navigable rivers by preventing deposits therein of débris resulting from mining operations, natural erosion, or other causes, or for affording relief thereto in flood time and providing sufficient water to maintain scouring force therein in the summer season; and in connection therewith to investigate such hydraulic and other mines as are or may have been worked by methods intended to restrain the débris and material moved in operating such mines by impounding dams, settling reservoirs, or otherwise, and in general to make such study of and researches in the hydraulic mining industry as science, experience, and engineering skill may suggest as practicable and useful in devising a method or methods whereby such mining may be carried on as aforesaid. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 5, 27 Stat. 507.)

§ 666. Noting conditions of navigable channels.

The said commission shall from time to time note the conditions of the navigable channels of said river systems, by cross-section surveys or otherwise, in order to ascertain the effect therein of such hydraulic mining operations as may be permitted by its orders and such as is caused by erosion, natural or otherwise. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 6, 27 Stat. 508.)

§ 667. Annual reports.

Said commission shall submit to the Chief of Engineers, for the information of the Secretary of War, on or before the 15th day of November of each year, a report of its labors and transactions, with plans for the construction, completion, and preservation of the public works outlined in sections 661–685 of this title, together with estimates of the cost thereof, stating what amounts can be profitably expended thereon each year. The Secretary of War shall thereupon submit same to Congress on or before the meeting thereof. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 7, 27 Stat. 508.)

§ 668. "Hydraulic mining" and "mining by hydraulic process" defined.

For the purposes of sections 661–685 of this title "hydraulic mining" and "mining by the hydraulic process" are hereby declared to have the meaning and application given to said terms in the State of California. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 8, 27 Stat. 508.)

§ 669. Petition by hydraulic miners.

The individual proprietor or proprietors, or in case of a corporation, its manager or agent appointed for that purpose, owning mining ground in the territory in the State of California mentioned in section 663 of this title, which it is desired to work by the hydraulic process, must file with said commission a verified petition, setting forth such facts as will comply with law and the rules prescribed by said commission. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 9, 27 Stat. 508.)

§ 670. Surrender to United States of right to regulate débris of mine.

Said petition shall be accompanied by an instrument duly executed and acknowledged, as required by the law of the said State, whereby the owner or owners of such mine or mines surrender to the United States the right and privilege to regulate by law, as provided in this chapter, or any law that may be enacted after March 1, 1893, or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by virtue thereof, the manner and method in which the débris resulting from the working of said mine or mines shall be restrained, and what amount shall be produced therefrom; it being understood that the surrender aforesaid shall not be construed as in any way affecting the right of such owner or owners to operate said mine or mines by any other process or method in use in said State on March 1, 1893: Provided, That they shall not interfere with the navigability of the aforesaid rivers. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 10, 27 Stat. 508.)

§ 671. Petition for common dumping ground, etc.

The owners of several mining claims situated so as to require a common dumping ground or dam or other restraining works for the débris issuing therefrom in one or more sites may file a joint petition setting forth such facts in addition to the requirements of section 669 of this title; and where the owner of a hydraulic mine or owners of several such mines have and use common dumping sites for impounding débris or as settling reservoirs, which sites are located below the mine of an applicant not entitled to use same, such fact shall also be stated in said petition. Thereupon the same proceedings shall be had as provided for in sections 661–685 of this title. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 11, 27 Stat. 508.)

§ 672. Notice of petition for dumping grounds, etc.; hearing.

A notice specifying briefly the contents of said petition and fixing a time previous to which all proofs are to be submitted shall be published by said commission in some newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the communities interested in the matter set forth therein. If published in a daily paper such publication shall continue for at least ten days; if in a weekly paper in at least three issues of the same. Pending publication thereof said commission, or a committee thereof, shall examine the mine and premises described in such petition. On or before the time so fixed all parties interested, either as petitioners or contestants, whether miners or agriculturists, may file affidavits, plans, and maps in support of their respective claims. Further hearings, upon notice to all parties of record, may be granted by the commission when necessary. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 12, 27 Stat. 508.)

§ 673. Order by commission directing method of mining, etc.; expenses of complying with order; exemption from mining taxes.

In case a majority of the members of said commission, within thirty days after the time so fixed, concur in the decision in favor of the petitioner or petitioners, the said commission shall thereupon make an order directing the methods and specifying in detail the manner in which operations shall proceed in such mine or mines; what restraining or impounding works, if any, if facilities therefor can be found, shall be built and maintained; how and of what material; where to be located; and in general set forth such further requirements and safeguards as will protect the public interests and prevent injury to the said navigable rivers and the lands adjacent thereto, with such further conditions and limitations as will observe all the provisions of sections 661–685 of this title in relation to the working thereof and the payment of taxes on the gross proceeds of the same: Provided, That all expense incurred in complying with said order shall be borne by the owner or owners of such mine or mines: And provided further, That where it shall appear to said commission that hydraulic mining may be carried on without injury to the navigation of said navigable rivers and the lands adjacent thereto, an order may be made authorizing such mining to be carried on without requiring the construction of any restraining or impounding works or any settling reservoirs: And provided also, That where such an order is made a license to mine, no taxes provided for in this chapter on the gross proceeds of such mining operations shall be collected. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 13, 27 Stat. 508; Feb. 27, 1907, ch. 2077, 34 Stat. 1001.)

§ 674. Plans for and supervision of work required by order; permit to commence mining.

Such petitioner or petitioners must within a reasonable time present plans and specifications of all works required to be built in pursuance of said order for examination, correction, and approval by said commission; and thereupon work may immediately commence thereon under the supervision of said commission or representative thereof attached thereto from said Corps of Engineers, who shall inspect same from time to time. Upon completion thereof, if found in every respect to meet the requirements of the said order and said approved plans and specifications, permission shall thereupon be granted to the owner or owners of such mine or mines to commence mining operations, subject to the conditions of said order and the provisions of sections 661–685 of this title. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 14, 27 Stat. 509.)

§ 675. Conditions precedent for commencement of mining operations.

No permission granted to a mine owner or owners under sections 661–685 of this title shall take effect, so far as regards the working of a mine, until all impounding dams or other restraining works, if any are prescribed by the order granting such permission, have been completed and until the impounding dams or other restraining works or settling reservoirs provided by said commission have reached such a stage as, in the opinion of said commission, it is safe to use the same: Provided, however, That if said commission shall be of the opinion that the restraining and other works already constructed at the mine or mines shall be sufficient to protect the navigable rivers of said systems and the work of said commission, then the owner or owners of such mine or mines may be permitted to commence operations. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 15, 27 Stat. 509.)

§ 676. Allotment of expenses for common dumping grounds; location of impounding works.

In case the joint petition referred to in section 671 of this title is granted, the commission shall fix the respective amounts to be paid by each owner of such mines toward providing and building necessary impounding dams or other restraining works. In the event of a petition being filed after the entry of such order, or in case the impounding dam or dams or other restraining works have already been constructed and accepted by said commission, the commission shall fix such amount as may be reasonable for the privilege of dumping therein, which amount shall be divided between the original owners of such impounding dams or other restraining works in proportion to the amount respectively paid by each party owning same. The expense of maintaining and protecting such joint dam or works shall be divided among mine owners using the same in such proportion as the commission shall determine. In all cases where it is practicable, restraining and impounding works are to be provided, constructed, and maintained by mine owners near or below the mine or mines before reaching the main tributaries of said navigable waters. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 16, 27 Stat. 509.)

§ 677. Limitation as to quantity of débris washed away.

At no time shall any more débris be permitted to be washed away from any hydraulic mine or mines situated on the tributaries of said rivers and the respective branches of each, worked under the provisions of sections 661–685 of this title, than can be impounded within the restraining works erected. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 17, 27 Stat. 509.)

§ 678. Modification and revocation of permit to mine.

The said commission may, at any time when the condition of the navigable rivers or when the capacities of all impounding and settling facilities erected by mine owners or such as may be provided by Government authority require same, modify the order granting the privilege to mine by the hydraulic mining process so as to reduce the amount thereof to meet the capacities of the facilities then in use; or, if actually required in order to protect the navigable rivers from damage or in case of failure to pay the tax prescribed by section 683 of this title within thirty days after same becomes due, may revoke same until the further notice of the commission. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 18, 27 Stat. 509; June 19, 1934, ch. 661, § 1, 48 Stat. 1118.)

§ 679. Violation of permit to mine; penalty.

An intentional violation on the part of a mine owner or owners, company, or corporation, or the agents or employees of either, of the conditions of the order granted pursuant to section 673 of this title, or such modifications thereof as may have been made by said commission, shall work a forfeiture of the privileges thereby conferred, and upon notice being served by the order of said commission upon such owner or owners, company, or corporation, or agent in charge, work shall immediately cease. Said commission shall take necessary steps to enforce its orders in case of the failure, neglect, or refusal of such owner or owners, company, or corporation, or agents thereof, to comply therewith, or in the event of any person or persons, company, or corporation working by said process in said territory contrary to law. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 19, 27 Stat. 510.)

§ 680. Examination of mines; reports.

Said commission, or a committee therefrom, or officer of said corps assigned to duty under its orders, shall, whenever deemed necessary, visit said territory and all mines operating under the provisions of sections 661–685 of this title. A report of such examination shall be placed on file. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 20, 27 Stat. 510.)

§ 681. Use of public lands and materials; withdrawal of lands required from sale or entry.

The said commission is hereby granted the right to use any of the public lands of the United States, or any rock, stone, timber, trees, brush, or material thereon or therein, for any of the purposes of sections 661–685 of this title; and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and requested, after notice has been filed with the Commissioner of the General Land Office by said commission, setting forth what public lands are required by it under the authority of this section, that such land or lands shall be withdrawn from sale and entry under the laws of the United States. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 21, 27 Stat. 510.)

§ 682. Malicious injury to works; injury to navigable waters by hydraulic mining; penalty.

Any person or persons who willfully or maliciously injure, damage, or destroy, or attempt to injure, damage, or destroy, any dam or other work erected under the provisions of sections 661–685 of this title for restraining, impounding, or settling purposes, or for use in connection therewith, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not to exceed the sum of $5,000 or be imprisoned not to exceed five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. And any person or persons, company or corporation, their agents or employees, who shall mine by the hydraulic process directly or indirectly injuring the navigable waters of the United States, in violation of the provisions of sections 661–685 of this title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 22, 27 Stat. 510.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Offense punishable by imprisonment for term in excess of one year declared a felony, see section 541 of Title 18. Criminal Code and Criminal Procedure.

§ 683. Tax on gross proceeds of hydraulic mines; "débris fund"; advances by mine owners.

Upon the construction by the said commission of dams or other works for the detention of débris from hydraulic mines and the issuing of the order provided for by sections 661–685 of this title to any individual, company, or corporation to work any mine or mines by hydraulic process, the individual, company, or corporation operating thereunder working any mine or mines by hydraulic process, the débris from which flows into or is in whole or in part restrained by such dams or other works erected by said commission, shall pay for each cubic yard mined from the natural bank a tax equal to the total capital cost of the dam, reservoir, and rights-of-way divided by the total capacity of the reservoir for the restraint of débris, as determined in each case by the California Débris Commission, which tax shall be paid annually on a date fixed by said commission and in accordance with regulations to be adopted by the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Treasurer of the United States is hereby authorized to receive the same. All sums of money paid into the Treasury under this section shall be set apart and credited to a fund to be known as the "débris fund", and shall be expended by said commission under the supervision of the Chief of Engineers and direction of the Secretary of War, for repayment of any funds advanced by the Federal Government or other agency for the construction of restraining works and settling reservoirs, and for maintenance: Provided, That said commission is hereby authorized to receive and pay into the Treasury from the owner or owners of mines worked by the hydraulic process, to whom permission may have been granted so to work under the provisions thereof, such money advances as may be offered to aid in the construction of such impounding dams, or other restraining works, or settling reservoirs, or sites therefor, as may be deemed necessary by said commission to protect the navigable channels of said river systems, on condition that all moneys so advanced shall be refunded as the said tax is paid into the said débris fund: And provided further, That in no event shall the Government of the United States be held liable to refund same except as directed by this section. The Secretary of War is authorized to enter into contracts to supply storage for water and use of outlet facilities from débris storage reservoirs, for domestic and irrigation purposes and power development upon such conditions of delivery, use, and payment as he may approve: Provided, That the moneys received from such contracts shall be deposited to the credit of the reservoir project from which the water is supplied, and the total capital cost of said reservoir, which is to be repaid by tax on mining operations as provided in this section, shall be reduced in the amount so received. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 23, 27 Stat. 510; June 19, 1934, ch. 661, § 2, 48 Stat. 1118; June 25, 1938, ch. 653, 52 Stat. 1040.)

§ 684. Cooperation by commission with State authorities.

For the purpose of securing harmony of action and economy in expenditures in the work to be done by the United States and the State of California, respectively, the former in its plans for the improvement and protection of the navigable streams and to prevent the depositing of mining débris or other materials within the same, and the latter in its plans authorized by law for the reclamation, drainage, and protection of its lands, or relating to the working of hydraulic mines, the said commission is empowered to consult thereon with a commission of engineers of said State, if authorized by said State for said purpose, the result of such conference to be reported to the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army, and if by him approved shall be followed by said commission. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 24, 27 Stat. 511.)

§ 685. Construction by commission of restraining works, etc.; use of débris fund.

Said commission, in order that such material as is now or may hereafter be lodged in the tributaries of the Sacramento and San Joaquin River systems resulting from mining operations, natural erosion, or other causes, shall be prevented from injuring the said navigable rivers or such of the tributaries of either as may be navigable and the land adjacent thereto, is hereby directed and empowered, when appropriations are made therefor by law, or sufficient money is deposited for that purpose in said débris fund, to build at such points above the head of navigation in said rivers and on the main tributaries thereof, or branches of such tributaries, or any place adjacent to the same, which in the judgment of said commission, will effect said object (the same to be of such material as will insure safety and permanency), such restraining or impounding dams and settling reservoirs, with such canals, locks, or other works adapted and required to complete same. The recommendations contained in Executive Document Numbered 267, Fifty-first Congress, second session, and Executive Document Numbered 98, Forty-seventh Congress, first session, as far as they refer to impounding dams, or other restraining works, are hereby adopted, and the same are directed to be made the basis of operations. (Mar. 1, 1893, ch. 183, § 25, 27 Stat. 511.)

§ 686. Construction of restraining works in conjunction with State.

The Secretary of War, in expending appropriations in the preparation for and construction of works for the restraining or impounding of mining débris in the State of California, is authorized to enter into an agreement that the contractor shall look solely to the State of California for one-half of such expense, to be paid out of said State's appropriation, and the United States shall in nowise be liable for said one-half.

The Secretary of War, in carrying out the provisions of any Act of Congress, providing for the restraining or impounding of mining débris in California, may, in his discretion, when in his judgment the aggregate of appropriations already made by said State and Congress and available therefor are sufficient to complete the same, undertake the works necessary thereto by hired labor and by purchase of supplies and materials therefor, and may accept payments on account thereof as the work progresses under and according to the provisions of the acts of the legislature of said State for such purposes. (July 1, 1898, ch. 546, 30 Stat. 631; Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 1, 30 Stat. 1148.)

§ 687. Use of State dredge and appliances in river and harbor improvements.

The Secretary of War is authorized to accept from the State of California the use of any dredger, or appliances owned or controlled by said State, conformably to any offer thereof by the said State; and the Secretary of War is authorized to use any such dredger or appliances in any river or harbor improvement that may be prosecuted therein by the United States, either on the part of the United States alone or conjointly with said State: Provided, That nothing shall be paid to the State of California for the use of said dredger, and that nothing herein contained shall create any liability against the United States. (Mar. 3, 1899, ch. 425, § 1, 30 Stat. 1148.)

§ 701. Flood control generally.

Laws applicable to works of improvement relating to flood control.—All the provisions of existing law relating to examinations and surveys and to works of improvement of rivers and harbors shall apply, so far as applicable to examinations and surveys and to works of improvement relating to flood control. And all expenditures of funds appropriated for works and projects relating to flood control shall be made in accordance with and subject to the law governing the disbursement and expenditure of funds appropriated for the improvement of rivers and harbors.

Examinations and surveys; details from Government departments; reports.—All examinations and surveys of projects relating to flood control shall include a comprehensive study of the watershed or watersheds, and the report thereon in addition to any other matter upon which a report is required shall give such data as it may be practicable to secure in regard to (a) the extent and character of the area to be affected by the proposed improvement; (b) the probable effect upon any navigable water or waterway; (c) the possible economical development and utilization of water power; and (d) such other uses as may be properly related to or coordinated with the project. And the heads of the several departments of the Government may, in their discretion, and shall upon the request of the Secretary of War, detail representatives from their respective departments to assist the Engineers of the Army in the study and examination of such watersheds, to the end that duplication of work may be avoided and the various services of the Government economically coordinated therein: Provided, That all reports on preliminary examinations hereafter authorized, together with the report of the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors thereon and the separate report of the representative of any other department, shall be submitted to the Secretary of War by the Chief of Engineers, with his recommendations, and shall be transmitted by the Secretary of War to the House of Representatives, and are hereby ordered to be printed when so made.

Reports by Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors.—In the consideration of all works and projects relating to flood control which may be submitted to the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors for consideration and recommendation, said board shall, in addition to any other matters upon which it may be required to report, state its opinion as to (a) what Federal interest, if any, is involved in the proposed improvement; (b) what share of the expense, if any, should be borne by the United States; and (c) the advisability of adopting the project.

Aiding Committee on Flood Control.—All examinations and reports which may now be made by the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors upon request of the Committee on Rivers and Harbors relating to works or projects of navigation shall in like manner be made upon request of the Committee on Flood Control on all works and projects relating to flood control. (Mar. 1, 1917, ch. 144, § 3, 39 Stat. 950.)

§ 701a. Same; declaration of policy.

It is hereby recognized that destructive floods upon the rivers of the United States, upsetting orderly processes and causing loss of life and property, including the erosion of lands, and impairing and obstructing navigation, highways, railroads, and other channels of commerce between the States, constitute a menace to national welfare; that it is the sense of Congress that flood control on navigable waters or their tributaries is a proper activity of the Federal Government in cooperation with States, their political subdivisions, and localities thereof; that investigations and improvements of rivers and other waterways, including watersheds thereof, for flood-control purposes are in the interest of the general welfare; that the Federal Government should improve or participate in the improvement of navigable waters or their tributaries, including watersheds thereof, for flood-control purposes if the benefits to whomsoever they may accrue are in excess of the estimated costs, and if the lives and social security of people are otherwise adversely affected. (June 22, 1936, ch. 688, § 1, 49 Stat. 1570.)

§ 701b. Same; supervision of Secretary of War and Secretary of Agriculture; reclamation projects unaffected.

Hereafter Federal investigations and improvements of rivers and other waterways for flood control and allied purposes shall be under the jurisdiction of and shall be prosecuted by the War Department under the direction of the Secretary of War and supervision of the Chief of Engineers, and Federal investigations of watersheds and measures for run-off and waterflow retardation and soil erosion prevention on watersheds shall be under the jurisdiction of and shall be prosecuted by the Department of Agriculture under the direction of the Secretary of Agriculture, except as otherwise provided by Act of Congress; and that in their reports upon examinations and surveys, the Secretary of War and the Secretary of Agriculture shall be guided as to flood-control measures by the principles set forth in section 701a of this title in the determination of the Federal interests involved: Provided, That the foregoing grants of authority shall not interfere with investigations and river improvements incident to reclamation projects that may now be in progress or may be hereafter undertaken by the Bureau of Reclamation of the Interior Department pursuant to any general or specific authorization of law. (June 22, 1936, ch. 688, § 2, 49 Stat. 1570; June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 1, 52 Stat. 1215.)

PRELIMINARY EXAMINATIONS AND SURVEYS

Act August 28, 1937, ch. 877, § 3, 50 Stat. 877, authorized Secretary of Agriculture to cause preliminary examinations and surveys to be made for run-off and water-flow retardation and soil erosion prevention on watersheds.

CROSS REFERENCE

River, harbor, and other waterways, supervision of, see section 540 of this title.

§ 701b-1. Transfer of jurisdiction in certain cases to Department of Agriculture.

In order to effectuate the policy declared in sections 701a and 701b of this title, and to correlate the program for the improvement of rivers and other waterways by the Department of War with the program for the improvement of watersheds by the Department of Agriculture, works of improvement for measures of run-off and water-flow retardation and soil-erosion prevention on the watersheds of waterways, for which works of improvement for the benefit of navigation and the control of destructive floodwaters and other provisions have been adopted and authorized to be prosecuted under the direction of the Secretary of War and supervision of the Chief of Engineers, are hereby authorized to be prosecuted by the Department of Agriculture under the direction of the Secretary of Agriculture and in accordance with plans approved by him. For prosecuting said work and measures there is hereby authorized to be appropriated the sum of $10,000,000 to be expended at the rate of $2,000,000 per annum during the five-year period ending June 30, 1944: Provided, That such works and measures which are herein authorized to be prosecuted by the Department of Agriculture may be carried out on the watersheds of the Rio Grande and Pecos Rivers subject to the proviso in section 701b of this title. (June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 7, 52 Stat. 1225.)

§ 701b-2. Same; cooperation by Secretaries of War and Agriculture; expenditures.

In carrying out the purposes of sections 701b, 701b-1, 701b-2, 701c-1, 701f-1, 701i, 701j, 702a-1½, 702a-11, and 706 of this title, the Secretary of War and the Secretary of Agriculture are hereby authorized to cooperate with institutions, organizations, and individuals, and to utilize the services of Federal, State, and other public agencies, and to pay by check to the cooperating public agency, either in advance or upon the furnishing or performance of said services, all or part of the estimated or actual cost thereof; and to make expenditures for personal services and rent in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, for purchase of reference and law books and periodicals, for printing and binding, for the purchase, exchange, operation, and maintenance of motor-propelled passenger-carrying vehicles and motorboats for official use, and for other necessary expenses. (June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 5, 52 Stat. 1223.)

§ 701b-3. Examinations and surveys; availability of appropriations.

Funds heretofore or hereafter appropriated for construction and maintenance of flood-control works by the War Department shall be available for expenditure by the War Department in making examinations and surveys for flood control heretofore or hereafter authorized, or in preparing reports in review thereof as authorized by law, in addition to funds heretofore authorized to be expended for such purposes by the War Department. (Aug. 11, 1939, ch. 699, § 2, 53 Stat. 1414.)

§ 701b-4. Same; administration of surveys; number authorized; reports.

The surveys authorized to be performed under the direction of the Secretary of War as well as all duties performed by the Chief of Engineers under the direction of the Secretary of War shall be functions of the Engineer Corps, United States Army, and its head, to be administered under the direction of the Secretary of War and the supervision of the Chief of Engineers except as otherwise specifically provided by Congress: Provided, That the power and authority conferred by sections 701b, 701b-1, 701b-2, 701c-1, 701f-1, 701i, 701j, 702a-1½, 702a-11, and 706 of this title, and previously conferred, upon the Federal Power Commission shall remain in full force and effect: Provided, That no preliminary examination, survey, project, or estimate for new works other than those designated in sections 558b-1, 701b-3, 701b-4, 701c-1, 701g, and 707 of this title or some prior Act or joint resolution shall be made: Provided further, That after the regular or formal reports made as required by law on any examination, survey, project, or work under way or proposed, are submitted, no supplemental or additional report or estimate shall be made unless authorized by law. (Aug. 11, 1939, ch. 699, § 6, 53 Stat. 1415.)

After June 22, 1936, no money appropriated under authority of section 701f of this title shall be expended on the construction of any project until States, political subdivisions thereof, or other responsible local agencies have given assurances satisfactory to the Secretary of War that they will (a) provide without cost to the United States all lands, easements, and rights-of-way necessary for the construction of the project, except as otherwise provided herein; (b) hold and save the United States free from damages due to the construction works; (c) maintain and operate all the works after completion in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War: Provided, That the construction of any dam authorized by section 5 of the Act of June 22, 1936, ch. 688, 49 Stat. 1572, may be undertaken without delay when the dam site has been acquired and the assurances prescribed herein have been furnished, without awaiting the acquisition of the easements and rights-of-way required for the reservoir area: And provided further, That whenever expenditures for lands, easements, and rights-of-way by States, political subdivisions thereof, or responsible local agencies for any individual project or useful part thereof shall have exceeded the present estimated construction cost therefor, the local agency concerned may be reimbursed one-half of its excess expenditures over said estimated construction cost: And provided further, That when benefits of any project or useful part thereof accrue to lands and property outside of the State in which said project or part thereof is located, the Secretary of War with the consent of the State wherein the same are located may acquire the necessary lands, easements, and rights-of-way for said project or part thereof after he has received from the States, political subdivisions thereof, or responsible local agencies benefited the present estimated cost of said lands, easements, and rights-of-way, less one-half the amount by which the estimated cost of these lands, easements, and rights-of-way exceeds the estimated construction cost corresponding thereto: And provided further, That the Secretary of War shall determine the proportion of the present estimated cost of said lands, easements, and rights-of-way that each State, political subdivision thereof, or responsible local agency should contribute in consideration for the benefits to be received by such agencies: And provided further, That whenever not less than 75 per centum of the benefits as estimated by the Secretary of War of any project or useful part thereof accrue to lands and property outside of the State in which said project or part thereof is located, provision (c) of this section shall not apply thereto; nothing herein shall impair or abridge the powers now existing in the Department of War with respect to navigable streams: And provided further, That nothing herein shall be construed to interfere with the completion of any reservoir or flood control work authorized by the Congress and now under way; (d) as a condition to the extending of any benefits, in prosecuting measures for run-off and water-flow retardation and soil erosion prevention authorized by Act of Congress pursuant to the policy declared in section 701a of this title, to any lands not owned or controlled by the United States or any of its agencies, the Secretary of Agriculture may, insofar as he may deem necessary for the purposes of such Acts, require—

(1) The enactment and reasonable safeguards for the enforcement of State and local laws imposing suitable permanent restrictions on the use of such lands and otherwise providing for run-off and water-flow retardation and soil-erosion prevention:

(2) Agreements or covenants as to the permanent use of such lands; and

(3) Contributions in money, services, materials, or otherwise to any operations conferring such benefits. (June 22, 1936, ch. 688, § 3, 49 Stat. 1571; Aug. 28, 1937, ch. 877, § 4, 50 Stat. 877.)

ACT JUNE 22, 1936, § 5

Section 5 of act June 22, 1936, referred to in the first proviso in the text, set out in part in section 701h of this title, also enumerated the improvement projects adopted and authorized to be prosecuted for the benefit of navigation and the control of flood waters.

APPLICATION OF STATUTE

Act June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 2, 52 Stat. 1215, provided that this section, as theretofore amended and therein further modified, should apply to all flood control projects, except as otherwise specifically provided by law.

MUSKINGUM RIVER VALLEY

Provisions of act June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 2, 52 Stat. 1215, referred to above, were extended to the Muskingum River Valley dams and reservoirs by section 4 of act Aug. 11, 1939, ch. 699, 53 Stat. 1414.

§ 701c-1. Same; acquirement of titles for certain projects and to lands, easements, rights-of-way; reimbursement of local agencies.

In case of any dam and reservoir project, or channel improvement or channel rectification project for flood control, authorized in sections 701b, 701b-1, 701b-2, 701c-1, 701f-1, 701i, 701j, 702a-1½, 702a-11, and 706 of this title or by sections 701a, 701b, 701c, 701d, 701e, 701f, and 701h of this title, and sections 702a, 702a-1, 702a-2 to 702a-11, 702b-702d, 702e-702m, and 704 of this title, title to all lands, easements, and rights-of-way for such project shall be acquired by the United States or by States, political subdivisions thereof or other responsible local agencies and conveyed to the United States, and provisions (a), (b), and (c) of section 701c of this title shall not apply thereto. Notwithstanding any restrictions, limitations, or requirement of prior consent provided by any other Act, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized and directed to acquire in the name of the United States title to all lands, easements, and rights-of-way necessary for any dam and reservoir project or channel improvement or channel rectification project for flood control, with funds heretofore or hereafter appropriated or made available for such projects, and States, political subdivisions thereof, or other responsible local agencies, shall be granted and reimbursed, from such funds, sums equivalent to actual expenditures deemed reasonable by the Secretary of War and the Chief of Engineers and made by them in acquiring lands, easements, and rights-of-way for any dam and reservoir project, or any channel improvement or channel rectification project for flood control heretofore or herein authorized: Provided, That no reimbursement shall be made for any indirect or speculative damages: Provided further, That lands, easements, and rights-of-way shall include lands on which dams, reservoirs, channel improvements, and channel rectifications are located; lands or flowage rights in reservoirs and highway, railway, and utility relocation: Provided further, That in all cases of the acquisition hereunder by the United States from the Los Angeles County Flood Control District or the Muskingum Watershed Conservancy District of lands, easements, or rights-of-way, wherein the written opinion of the Attorney General in favor of the validity of the title to such lands, easements, or rights-of-way is or may be required or authorized by law, the Attorney General may, in his discretion, base such opinion upon a certificate of title of the district from which said lands, easements, or rights-of-way are to be acquired accompanied by an agreement, duly executed by the district in conformity with the constitutions and laws of the State where the district in question is situated to indemnify the United States against all claims, liabilities, loss, expenses, and attorneys' fees of whatsoever kind or nature, resulting from or arising out of any defect or defects whatsoever in the title to any such lands, easements, or rights-of-way so conveyed to the United States, including all just compensation, costs, and expenses which may be incurred in any condemnation proceeding deemed necessary and instituted by the United States in order to perfect title to any such lands, easements, or rights-of-way. (June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 2, 52 Stat. 1215; Aug. 11, 1939, ch. 699, § 5, 53 Stat. 1415.)

§ 701d. Same; compacts between States; consent of Congress.

The consent of Congress is hereby given to any two or more States to enter into compacts or agreements in connection with any project or operation authorized by sections 5, 6 and 7 of the Act of June 22, 1936, ch. 688, 49 Stat. 1572-1596, for flood control or the prevention of damage to life or property by reason of floods upon any stream or streams and their tributaries which lie in two or more such States, for the purpose of providing, in such manner and such proportion as may be agreed upon by such States and approved by the Secretary of War, funds for construction and maintenance, for the payment of damages, and for the purchase of rights-of-way, lands, and easements in connection with such project or operation. No such compact or agreement shall become effective without the further consent or ratification of Congress, except a compact or agreement which provides that all money to be expended pursuant thereto and all work to be performed thereunder shall be expended and performed by the Department of War, with the exception of such reasonable sums as may be reserved by the States entering into the compact or agreement for the purpose of collecting taxes and maintaining the necessary State organizations for carrying out the compact or agreement. (June 22, 1936, ch. 688, § 4, 49 Stat. 1571.)

REFERENCES IN TEXT

Sections 5, 6, and 7 of the act of June 22, 1936, referred to in the first sentence of the text, enumerated the improvement projects adopted and authorized to be prosecuted for the benefit of navigation and the control of flood waters, authorized preliminary examinations and surveys for flood control at named localities, and authorized surveys of flood control operations at named localities with opportunities for power development. See, also, notes to section 701f of this title.

CODIFICATION

The part of section 5 of act June 22, 1936, added by act July 19, 1937, ch. 511, § 1, 50 Stat. 518, is set out as section 701h of this title.

§ 701e. Same; effect of act June 22, 1936, on provisions for Mississippi River and other projects.

Nothing in sections 701a-701f of this title and sections 5, 6, and 7 of the Act of June 22, 1936, ch. 688, 49 Stat. 1572-1596, shall be construed as repealing or amending any provision of sections 702a-702m of this title. The authority conferred by sections 701a-701f of this title and sections 5, 6, and 7 of Act June 22, 1936, ch. 688, 49 Stat. 1572-1596, and any funds appropriated pursuant thereto for expenditure are supplemental to all other authority and appropriations relating to the departments or agencies concerned, and nothing in sections 701a-701f of this title and sections 5, 6, and 7 of Act June 22, 1936, ch. 688, 49 Stat. 1572-1596 shall be construed to limit or retard any department or agency in carrying out similar and related activities heretofore or hereafter authorized, or to limit the exercise of powers conferred on any department or agency by other provisions of law is<sup>1</sup> carrying out similar and related activities. (June 22, 1936, ch. 688, § 8, 49 Stat. 1596.)

§ 701f. Same; appropriation; payment of employees from funds of Works Progress Administration.

The sum of $310,000,000 is authorized to be appropriated for carrying out the improvements authorized by section 5 of the Act of June 22, 1936, ch. 688, 49 Stat. 1572, and the sum of $10,000,000 is authorized to be appropriated and expended in equal amounts by the Departments of War and Agriculture for carrying out any examinations and surveys provided for in sections 6 and 7 of the said Act and other Acts of Congress: Provided, That not more than $50,000,000 of such sum shall be expended during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1937: Provided further, That for the relief of unemployment, in addition to the regular appropriation, persons may be employed on such works of improvement and the compensation of said persons when so employed shall be paid from the funds available to the Works Progress Administration for the continuance of relief and work relief on useful projects. (June 22, 1936, ch. 688, § 9, 49 Stat. 1596.)

ADOPTION OF IMPROVEMENTS

Works of improvement adopted and authorized to be prosecuted are listed in section 5 of act June 22, 1936, ch. 688, 49 Stat. 1596, referred to in this section, as amended or supplemented by act Aug. 28, 1937, ch. 877, § 1, 50 Stat. 876, section 4 of act June 28, 1938, ch. 795, 52 Stat. 1216, and section 4 of act Aug. 11, 1939, ch. 699, 53 Stat. 1414.

AUTHORIZATION OF EXAMINATIONS AND SURVEYS.

Localities at which preliminary examinations and surveys are authorized to be made are listed in acts June 22, 1936, ch. 688, § 6, 49 Stat. 1592; Aug. 28, 1937, ch. 877, § 5, 50 Stat. 877; and June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 6, 52 Stat. 1223.

CONTINUANCE OF EXAMINATIONS AND SURVEYS

Localities at which the continuance of examinations and surveys already undertaken is authorized are listed in act June 22, 1936, ch. 688, § 7, 49 Stat. 1596.

§ 701f-1. Same; appropriation.

The sum of $375,000,000 is hereby authorized to be appropriated for carrying out the improvements in sections 701b, 701b-1, 701b-2, 701c-1, 701f-1, 701i, 701j, 702a-1½, 702a-11, and 706 of this title over the five-year period ending June 30, 1944, and the sum of $10,000,000 additional is authorized to be appropriated and expended in equal amounts by the Departments of War and Agriculture for carrying out any examinations and surveys provided for in said sections and any other Acts of Congress, to be prosecuted by said Departments. The sum of $1,500,000 additional is authorized to be appropriated and expended by the Federal Power Commission for carrying out any examinations and surveys provided for in said sections or any other Acts of Congress, to be prosecuted by the said Federal Power Commission. (June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 9, 52 Stat. 1226.)

§ 701g. Same; removal of obstructions; clearing channels.

The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to allot not to exceed $300,000 from any appropriations heretofore or hereafter made for any one fiscal year for flood control, for removing accumulated snags and other debris and clearing channels in navigable streams and tributaries thereof when in the opinion of the Chief of Engineers such work is advisable in the interest of flood control: Provided, That not more than $25,000 shall be allotted for this purpose for any single tributary from the appropriations for any one fiscal year. (Aug. 28, 1937, ch. 877, § 2, 50 Stat. 877; Aug. 11, 1939, ch. 699, § 1, 53 Stat. 1414.)

§ 701h. Same; contributions by States and political subdivisions.

The Secretary of War is authorized to receive from States and political subdivisions thereof, such funds as may be contributed by them to be expended in connection with funds appropriated by the United States for any authorized flood control work whenever such work and expenditure may be considered by the Secretary of War, on recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, as advantageous in the public interest, and the plans for any reservoir project may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, on recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, be modified to provide additional storage capacity for domestic water supply or other conservation storage, on condition that the cost of such increased storage capacity is contributed by local agencies and that the local agencies agree to utilize such additional storage capacity in a manner consistent with Federal uses and purposes: Provided, That when contributions made by States and political subdivisions thereof, are in excess of the actual cost of the work contemplated and properly chargeable to such contributions, such excess contributions may, with the approval of the Secretary of War, be returned to the proper representatives of the contributing interests. (June 22, 1936, ch. 688, § 5, as added July 19, 1937, ch. 511, § 1, 50 Stat. 518.)

§ 701h-1. Same; contributions by States and political subdivisions for immediate use on authorized flood-control work; repayment.

Whenever any State or political subdivision thereof shall offer to advance funds for a flood-control project duly adopted and authorized by law the Secretary of War may in his discretion, receive such funds and expend the same in the immediate prosecution of such work. The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to repay without interest, from appropriations which may be provided by Congress for flood-control work, the moneys so contributed and expended: Provided, however, That no repayment of funds which may be contributed for the purpose of meeting any conditions of local cooperation imposed by Congress, or under the authority of section 701h of this title, as amended, shall be made. (Oct. 15, 1940, ch. 884, 54 Stat. 1176.)

§ 701i. Same; elimination from protection of areas subject to evacuation.

In any case where the construction cost of levees or flood walls included in any authorized project can be substantially reduced by the evacuation of a portion or all of the area proposed to be protected and by the elimination of that portion or all of the area from the protection to be afforded by the project, the Chief of Engineers may modify the plan of said project so as to eliminate said portion or all of the area: Provided, That a sum not substantially exceeding the amount thus saved in construction cost may be expended by the Chief of Engineers, or in his discretion may be transferred to any other appropriate Federal agency for expenditure, toward the evacuation of the locality eliminated from protection and the rehabilitation of the persons so evacuated: And provided further, That the Chief of Engineers may, if he so desires, enter into agreement with States, local agencies, or the individuals concerned for the accomplishment by them, of such evacuation and rehabilitation and for their reimbursement from said sum for expenditures actually incurred by them for this purpose. (June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 3, 52 Stat. 1216.)

§ 701j. Same; installation in dams of facilities for future development of hydro-electric power.

Penstocks or other similar facilities adapted to possible future use in the development of hydro-electric power shall be installed in any dam authorized in sections 701b, 701b-1, 701b-2, 701c-1, 701f-1, 701i, 701j, 702a-1½, 702a-11, and 706 of this title when approved by the Secretary of War upon the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers and of the Federal Power Commission. (June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 4, 52 Stat. 1216.)

§ 701k. Crediting reimbursements for lost, stolen, or damaged property.

Any amounts collected from any person, persons, or corporations as a reimbursement for lost, stolen, or damaged property, purchased in connection with river and harbor or flood control work prosecuted under the direction of the Secretary of War and the supervision of the Chief of Engineers, whether collected in cash or by deduction from amounts otherwise due such person, persons, or corporations, hereafter shall be credited in each case to the appropriation that bore the cost of purchase, repair, or replacement of the lost, stolen, or damaged property. (June 20, 1938, ch. 535, § 4, 52 Stat. 805.)

§ 701l. Employment of retired civil service employees.

The provisions of sections 715 and 715a of Title 5 shall not be so construed as to prevent the employment by the Chief of Engineers under agreement as authorized by sections 569a, 584a and 607a of this title, of any retired civilian employee whose expert assistance may be needed in connection with the prosecution of river and harbor or flood control works: Provided, That during the period of such employment a sum equal to the retired pay of the employee shall be deducted from the compensation agreed upon. (June 20, 1938, ch. 535, § 5, 52 Stat. 805.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Section is also set out as section 544a of this title.

§ 702. Mississippi River.

Authorization of flood-control work.—For controlling the floods of the Mississippi River and continuing its improvement from the Head of the Passes to the mouth of the Ohio River the Secretary of War is hereby empowered, authorized, and directed to carry on continuously, by hired labor or otherwise, the plans of the Mississippi River Commission, prior to March 3, 1923, or thereafter adopted, to be paid for as appropriations may from time to time be made by law.

Allotments for improvement of watercourses connected with Mississippi River.—The watercourses connected with the Mississippi River to such extent as may be necessary to exclude the flood waters from the upper limits of any delta basin, together with the Ohio River from its mouth to the mouth of the Cache River, may, in the discretion of said commission, receive allotments for improvements under way March 1, 1917, or thereafter to be undertaken.

Maintenance of levees constructed for flood control.—Upon the completion of any levee constructed for flood control under authority of this section, said levee shall be turned over to the levee district protected thereby for maintenance thereafter; but for all other purposes the United States shall retain such control over the same as it may have the right to exercise upon such completion. (Mar. 1, 1917, ch. 144, § 1, 39 Stat. 948; Mar. 4, 1923, ch. 277, 42 Stat. 1505.)

CODIFICATION

Last clause of first paragraph and subsections (a)-(d) providing for improvements on watercourses connected with Mississippi River were limited to appropriations made for a period of six years beginning July 1, 1924.

§ 702a. Same; adoption of 1927 project; execution; creation of board; scope of authority; appropriation.

The project for the flood control of the Mississippi River in its alluvial valley and for its improvement from the Head of Passes to Cape Girardeau, Missouri, in accordance with the engineering plan set forth and recommended in the report submitted by the Chief of Engineers to the Secretary of War dated December 1, 1927, and printed in House Document Numbered 90, Seventieth Congress, first session, is hereby adopted and authorized to be prosecuted under the direction of the Secretary of War and the supervision of the Chief of Engineers: Provided, That a board to consist of the Chief of Engineers, the president of the Mississippi River Commission, and a civil engineer chosen from civil life to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, whose compensation shall be fixed by the President and be paid out of the appropriations made to carry on this project, is hereby created; and such board is authorized and directed to consider the engineering differences between the adopted project and the plans recommended by the Mississippi River Commission in its special report dated November 28, 1927, and after such study and such further surveys as may be necessary, to recommend to the President such action as it may deem necessary to be taken in respect to such engineering differences and the decision of the President upon all recommendations or questions submitted to him by such board shall be followed in carrying out the project herein adopted. The board shall not have any power or authority in respect to such project except as hereinbefore provided. Such project and the changes therein, if any, shall be executed in accordance with the provisions of section 702h of this title. Such surveys shall be made between Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and Cape Girardeau, Missouri, as the board may deem necessary to enable it to ascertain and determine the best method of securing flood relief in addition to levees, before any flood-control works other than levees and revetments are undertaken on that portion of the river: Provided, That all diversion works and outlets constructed under the provisions of sections 702a, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702h-702j, 702k, 702l, 702m, or 704 of this title shall be built in a manner and of a character which will fully and amply protect the adjacent lands: Provided further, That pending completion of any floodway, spillway, or diversion channel, the areas within the same shall be given the same degree of protection as is afforded by levees on the west side of the river contiguous to the levee at the head of said floodway, but nothing herein shall prevent, postpone, delay, or in anywise interfere with the execution of that part of the project on the east side of the river, including raising, strengthening, and enlarging the levees on the east side of the river. The sum of $325,000,000 is hereby authorized to be appropriated for this purpose.

All unexpended balances of appropriations prior to May 15, 1928, made for prosecuting work of flood control on the Mississippi River in accordance with the provisions of section 702 of this title, are hereby made available for expenditure under the provisions of sections 702a, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702h-702j, 702k, 702l, 702m, of this title. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 1, 45 Stat. 534.)

§ 702a-1. Same; modification of project of 1927; adoption.

The project for the control of floods of the Mississippi River and its tributaries, adopted by section 702a of this title, is hereby modified in accordance with the recommendations of section 43 of the report submitted by the Chief of Engineers to the Chairman of the Committee on Flood Control, dated February 12, 1935, and printed in House Committee on Flood Control Document Numbered 1, Seventy-fourth Congress, first session, as, in sections 702a-2 to 702a-11, 702g-1, 702j-1 (a), 702j-2, 702k-1, 702k-2 of this title, further modified and amended; and as so modified is hereby adopted and authorized and directed to be prosecuted under the direction of the Secretary of War and the supervision of the Chief of Engineers. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 1, 49 Stat. 1508.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Further modification of project, see section 702a-1½ of this title.

§ 702a-1½. Same; further modification of 1927 project; adoption; appropriation.

In accordance with the recommendations of the Chief of Engineers, as set forth in his report of April 6, 1937, and published as Flood Control Committee Document Numbered 1, Seventy-fifth Congress, first session, paragraph 38 (b), except subparagraph (1), the project for flood control of the Lower Mississippi River adopted by sections 702a, 702a-1, 702a-2 to 702a-11, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702g-1, 702h-702j, 702j-1, 702j-2, 702k, 702k-1, 702k-2, 702l, 702m, and 704 of this title, is hereby modified and, as modified, is hereby adopted, and there is hereby authorized to be appropriated in addition to the sums previously authorized $40,000,000 to be applied for the purposes set forth in said document covering the said recommendations, with the exceptions mentioned, subject to the provisions made in section 702a-11 of this title. (June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 4, 52 Stat. 1220.)

§ 702a-2. Same; abandonment of Boeuf Floodway.

The Boeuf Floodway, authorized by the provisions adopted in section 702a of this title, shall be abandoned as soon as the Eudora Floodway, provided for in Flood Control Committee Document Numbered 1, Seventy-fourth Congress, first session, is in operative condition and the back-protection levee recommended in said document, extending north from the head of the Eudora Floodway, shall have been constructed. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 2, 49 Stat. 1509.)

§ 702a-3. Same; levees; raising and enlarging.

The levees along the Mississippi River from the head of the Morganza Floodway to the head of the Atchafalaya River and down the east bank of the Atchafalaya River to intersection with the west protection levee of said Morganza Floodway shall be raised and enlarged to 1928 grade and section. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 3, 49 Stat. 1509.)

§ 702a-4. Same; fuse-plug levees.

After the Eudora Floodway shall have been constructed and is ready for operation, the fuse-plug levees now at the head of the Boeuf and Tensas Basins shall be constructed to the 1914 grade and the 1928 section. The fuse-plug levees at the head of the Atchafalaya Basin on the west side shall be constructed to the 1914 grade and the 1928 section. The fuse-plug levees at the head of the Atchafalaya Basin on the east side of the Atchafalaya River shall be constructed to the 1914 grade and 1928 section, and, after the Morganza Floodway has been completed, shall be raised to the 1928 grade as provided in section 702a-3 of this title. Thereafter those stretches of said levees which are left as fuse-plug levees shall be reconstructed and maintained as herein provided, subject to the provisions of section 702a-3 of this title. Any funds appropriated under authority of 702k-1 of this title may be expended for this purpose. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 10, 49 Stat. 1511.)

§ 702a-5. Same; back levee north of Eudora Floodway.

The back-protection levee north of the Eudora Floodway shall be constructed to the same grade and section as the levees opposite on the east side of the Mississippi River: Provided, That this levee extending from the head of the Eudora Floodway north to the Arkansas River shall be so located as to afford adequate space for the passage of flood waters without endangering the levees opposite on the east side of the river and shall be constructed contemporaneously with the construction of the Eudora Floodway; except that, until the Eudora Floodway is in operative condition, there shall be left in this back levee north of the head of the Eudora Floodway openings which shall be sufficient, in the discretion of the Chief of Engineers, to permit the passage of all flood waters to be reasonably contemplated in the event of any break in the riverside fuse-plug levee prior to the time the Eudora Floodway shall be in operative condition. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 11, 49 Stat. 1511.)

§ 702a-6. Same; drainage necessitated by floodway levees.

The United States shall provide the drainage made necessary by the construction of floodway levees included in the modified project. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 6, 49 Stat. 1510.)

§ 702a-7. Same; railroad and highway crossings over floodways.

The United States shall construct, at its own cost, one railroad and one highway crossing over the Eudora Floodway and not to exceed three railway and two highway crossings over the Morganza Floodway, and not to exceed one railway crossing (together with suitable physical connections therewith) and one highway crossing over the floodway west of the Atchafalaya River provided for in the modified project: Provided, That equitable agreements can be made with the railroad and highway authorities concerned and that the appropriate railroad or highway agencies agree to accept and maintain and operate these crossings without cost to the United States: Provided further, That the railroads crossing the Morganza and West Atchafalaya Floodways agree in consideration for the crossings constructed to waive all claims against the Government for any damages that may occur by reason of overflows in the Morganza and West Atchafalaya Floodways: And provided further, That other railway and highway damages shall be adjusted as provided for in section 702a-10 of this title. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 7, 49 Stat. 1510.)

§ 702a-8. Same; additional roads; construction by United States.

In addition to the construction by the United States of roads in connection with floodways as heretofore provided, the Federal Government may, in the discretion of the Chief of Engineers, and within the limits of available funds, construct additional roads to afford access to those portions of the levee lines not otherwise accessible. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 8, 49 Stat. 1510.)

§ 702a-9. Same; lands, easements, and rights-of-way; acquisition by local authorities; reimbursement; protection of United States from liability for damages.

No money appropriated under section 702k-1 of this title shall be expended on the construction of any reservoir project herein authorized until States, political subdivisions thereof, or other responsible local agencies have given assurances satisfactory to the Secretary of War that they will (a) provide without cost to the United States all lands, easements, and rights-of-way necessary for the construction of the project, except as otherwise provided herein; (b) hold and save the United States free from damages due to the construction works; (c) maintain and operate all the works after completion in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War: And provided, That the construction of any dam authorized herein may be undertaken without delay when the dam site has been acquired and the assurances prescribed herein have been furnished, without awaiting the acquisition of the easements and rights-of-way required for the reservoir area: And provided further, That whenever expenditures for lands, easements, and rights-of-way by States, political subdivisions thereof, or responsible local agencies for any individual project or useful part thereof shall have exceeded the present estimated construction cost therefor, the local agency concerned may be reimbursed one-half of its excess expenditures over said estimated construction cost: And provided further, That when benefits of any project or useful part thereof accrue to lands and property outside of the State in which said project or part thereof is located, the Secretary of War may acquire the necessary lands, easements, and rights-of-way for said project or part thereof after he has received from the States, political subdivisions thereof, or responsible local agencies benefited the present estimated cost of said lands, easements, and rights-of-way, less one-half the amount by which the estimated cost of these lands, easements, and rights-of-way exceeds the estimated construction cost corresponding thereto: And provided further, That the Secretary of War shall determine the proportion of the present estimated cost of said lands, easements, and rights-of-way that each State, political subdivision thereof, or responsible local agency should contribute in consideration for the benefits to be received by such agencies: And provided further, That whenever not less than 75 per centum of the benefits as estimated by the Secretary of War of any project or useful part thereof accrue to lands and property outside of the State in which said project or part thereof is located, provision (c) of this section shall not apply thereto; nothing herein shall impair or abridge the powers now existing in the Department of War with respect to navigable streams: And provided further, That nothing herein shall be construed to interfere with the completion of any reservoir or flood control work authorized by the Congress and under way on June 15, 1936. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 8a, 49 Stat. 1510.)

§ 702a-10. Same; flowage rights and rights-of-way; reimbursement of local authorities; highway crossings; use of properties for national forests or wildlife refuges.

In order to facilitate the United States in the acquisition of flowage rights and rights-of-way for levee foundations, the Secretary of War is authorized to enter into agreements with the States or with local levee districts, boards, commissions, or other agencies for the acquisition and transfer to the United States of such flowage rights and levee rights-of-way, and for the reimbursement of such States or local levee districts, boards, commissions, or other agencies, for the cost thereof at prices previously agreed upon between the Secretary of War and the governing authority of such agencies, within the maximum limitations hereinafter prescribed: Provided, That no money appropriated under the authority of section 702k-1 of this title shall be expended upon the construction of the Eudora Floodway, the Morganza Floodway, the back protection levee extending north from the Eudora Floodway, or the levees extending from the head of the Morganza Floodway to the head of and down the east bank of the Atchafalaya River to the intersection of said Morganza Floodway until 75 per centum of the value of the flowage rights and rights-of-way for levee foundations, as estimated by the Chief of Engineers, shall have been acquired or options or assurances satisfactory to the Chief of Engineers shall have been obtained for the Eudora Floodway, the Morganza Floodway, and the area lying between said back protection levee and the present front line levees: Provided further, That easements required in said areas in connection with roads and other public utilities owned by States or political subdivisions thereof shall be provided without cost to the United States upon the condition that the United States shall provide suitable crossings, including surfacing of like character, over floodway guide-line levees in said areas for all improved roads now constituting a part of the State highway system, and shall repair all damage done to said highways within the said floodways by the actual use of such floodways for diversion: Provided further, That when such portion of said rights as to all of said areas shall have been acquired or obtained and when said easements required in connection with roads and other public utilities owned by States or political subdivisions thereof have been provided as hereinabove set forth, construction of said flood-control works in said areas shall be undertaken according to the engineering recommendations of the Report of the Chief of Engineers dated February 12, 1935 (House Committee on Flood Control Document Numbered 1, Seventy-fourth Congress, first session), and the Secretary of War shall cause proceedings to be instituted for the condemnation of the remainder of said rights and easements, as are needed and cannot be secured by agreement, in accordance with section 702d of this title: Provided further, That in no event and under no circumstances shall any of the additional money appropriated under the authority of this Act be expended for the acquisition of said 75 per centum of the flowage rights and rights-of-way hereinabove contemplated in excess of $20,000,000: Provided further, That the Chief of Engineers is authorized, out of the funds authorized to be appropriated by section 702k-1 of this title to purchase flowage easements over lands and properties in the floodway west of the Atchafalaya River and lying above the approximate latitude of Krotz Springs: Provided further, That none of such easements in said West Atchafalaya Floodway shall be purchased until options covering at least 75 per centum of the total value of such easements as estimated by the Chief of Engineers shall have been obtained at prices deemed reasonable by the Chief of Engineers and not exceeding in the aggregate $2,250,000 for said 75 per centum of said easements with respect to the floodway west of the Atchafalaya River: Provided further, That easements required in said West Atchafalaya Floodway in connection with roads and other public utilities owned by States or other political subdivisions shall be provided without cost to the United States upon condition that the United States shall provide suitable crossings, including surfacing of like character, over floodway guide-line levees for all improved roads in said West Atchafalaya Floodway now constituting a part of the State highway system and shall repair all damage done to said highways within said West Atchafalaya Floodway by the actual use of such floodway for diversion: Provided further, That no flowage easements shall be paid for by the United States over properties subject to frequent overflow in the Atchafalaya Basin below the approximate latitude of Krotz Springs: Provided further, That payment for rights-of-way, easements, and flowage rights acquired under this section, or reimbursement to the States or local interests furnishing them, shall be made as soon as the Chief of Engineers is satisfied that such rights-of-way, easements, or flowage rights have been acquired in conformity with local custom or legal procedure in such matters; and, thereafter, no liability of any kind shall attach to or rest upon the United States for any further damage by reason of diversions or flood waters: And provided further, That if the Secretary of Agriculture shall determine to acquire any of the properties within the floodways herein referred to, for national forests, wildlife refuges, or other purposes of his Department, the Secretary of War may, upon recommendation by the Chief of Engineers, in lieu of acquiring flowage rights, advance to or reimburse the said Secretary of Agriculture sums equal to those that would otherwise be used for the purchase of easements desired by the War Department and the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to use these sums for the purpose of acquiring properties in the floodways in question. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 12, 49 Stat. 1512.)

§ 702a-11. Same; Morganza floodway; Eudora floodway.

The United States may, within the discretion of the Chief of Engineers, irrespective of other provisions of law, proceed to acquire all easements needed and of the character considered advisable in the Morganza floodway and to construct said Morganza floodway. Said Morganza floodway may, within the discretion of the Chief of Engineers, be modified as to its design and inflow.

The said Morganza floodway may be initiated and constructed without delay; and the United States may, within the discretion of the Chief of Engineers, irrespective of other provisions of law, proceed to the acquisition of flowage rights and flowage easements in the Eudora floodway, and to its construction as authorized by existing law: Provided, That the intakes of such Eudora floodway shall include an automatic masonry weir with its sill at such an elevation that it will not be overtopped by stages other than those capable of producing a stage of fifty-one feet or over on the Vicksburg gage: Provided further, That a fuseplug levee loop may be constructed behind said sill to prevent flow into the floodway until the predicted flood exceeds the safe capacity of the main river leveed channel, with a free-board of at least three feet, but said fuseplug levee may be artificially breached when in the opinion of the Chief of Engineers such breaching is advisable to insure the safety of the main river controlling levee line: Provided further, That the authority to acquire lands, flowage rights, and easements for floodways shall be confined to the floodways proper and to the northward extension of Eudora: Provided further, That within the discretion of the Chief of Engineers, the guide line levees of the Eudora floodway may be extended south toward Old River: Provided further, That the Chief of Engineers is hereby authorized to construct the said Eudora floodway at such location as he may determine, in the vicinity of Eudora. The United States may, within the discretion of the Chief of Engineers irrespective of other provisions of law, proceed to acquire flowage rights and flowage easements in the northward extension of the Eudora floodway, as authorized by existing law, provided that pending the completion of such northward extension all the Riverside fuseplug levee extending south from the vicinity of Yancopin to the vicinity of Vau Cluse, Arkansas, and so as to connect with the existing levee of 1928 grade and section, shall be reconstructed to the 1914 grade and 1928 section: Provided further, That if the back protection levee is constructed prior to the construction of Eudora floodway, it shall be connected with the main Mississippi River levee and subsequently connected with the Eudora floodway when constructed: Provided further, That the Chief of Engineers is authorized, in his discretion, to negotiate options, make agreements and offers with respect to lands, flowage rights, easements, and rights-of-way involved, as provided by law, at prices deemed reasonable by him.

The United States, irrespective of other provisions of law, may, within the discretion of the Chief of Engineers, acquire flowage easements over all lands not subject to frequent overflow in the Atchafalaya Basin below the latitude of Krotz Springs.

Said Morganza floodway shall not be operated until the Wax Lake outlet has been put into operative condition.

The fuseplug levees at the head of the Atchafalaya Basin on the east side of the Atchafalaya River shall be reconstructed to the 1928 grade and section.

The United States may, in the discretion of the Chief of Engineers, acquire all flowage rights, flowage easements, rights-of-way for levee foundations, and titles in fee simple as herein provided, either by voluntary acquisition or in accordance with the condemnation proceedings by the Secretary of War as provided for in section 702d of this title.

In the event the United States acquires or owns title to any lands in fee simple under the provisions of sections 702a, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702h-702j, 702k, 702l, 702m, and 704 of this title, as amended and supplemented, the United States may retain the ownership thereof, or any part thereof instead of turning over such lands to the ownership of States or local interests as provided in section 702d of this title, and may lease such lands: Provided, That 25 per centum of all moneys received and deposited in the Treasury of the United States during any fiscal year on account of such leases shall be paid, at the end of such year, by the Secretary of the Treasury to the State in which such property is situated, to be expended as the State legislature may prescribe for the benefit of the public schools and public roads of the county or counties in which such property is situated: Provided further, That when such property is situated in more than one State or county the distributive share to each from the proceeds of such property shall be proportional to its area therein: Provided further, That no part of the appropriations heretofore authorized in sections 702a-1, 702a-2 to 702a-10, 702g-1, 702j-1, 702j-2, 702k-1, and 702k-2 of this title for said Morganza and Eudora floodways and extension shall be used for any other purpose. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, as added June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 4, 52 Stat. 1220.)

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT

Act June 28, 1938, cited to text, provided that, except as amended therein, the act of May 15, 1928, as amended by the act of June 15, 1936, as amended, should remain in full force and effect.

§ 702b. Same; local contribution toward cost of flood-control work.

It is hereby declared to be the sense of Congress that the principle of local contribution toward the cost of flood-control work, which has been incorporated in all previous national legislation on the subject, is sound, as recognizing the special interest of the local population in its own protection, and as a means of preventing inordinate requests for unjustified items of work having no material national interest. As a full compliance with this principle in view of the great expenditure estimated at approximately $292,000,000, prior to May 15, 1928, made by the local interests in the alluvial valley of the Mississippi River for protection against the floods of that river; in view of the extent of national concern in the control of these floods in the interests of national prosperity, the flow of interstate commerce, and the movement of the United States mails; and, in view of the gigantic scale of the project, involving flood waters of a volume and flowing from a drainage area largely outside the States most affected, and far exceeding those of any other river in the United States, no local contribution to the project herein adopted is required. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 2, 45 Stat. 535.)

§ 702c. Same; expenditures for construction work; conditions precedent; liability for damage from flood waters; condemnation proceedings; floodage rights.

Except when authorized by the Secretary of War upon the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, no money appropriated under authority of sections 702a, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702h-702j, 702k, 702l, 702m of this title shall be expended on the construction of any item of the project until the States or levee districts have given assurances satisfactory to the Secretary of War that they will (a) maintain all flood-control works after their completion, except controlling and regulating spillway structures, including special relief levees; maintenance includes normally such matters as cutting grass, removal of weeds, local drainage, and minor repairs of main river levees; (b) agree to accept land turned over to them under the provisions of section 702d; (c) provide without cost to the United States, all rights-of-way for levee foundations and levees on the main stem of the Mississippi River between Cape Girardeau, Missouri, and the Head of Passes.

No liability of any kind shall attach to or rest upon the United States for any damage from or by floods or flood waters at any place: Provided, however, That if in carrying out the purposes of sections 702a, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702h-702j, 702k, 702l, 702m of this title it shall be found that upon any stretch of the banks of the Mississippi River it is impracticable to construct levees, either because such construction is not economically justified or because such construction would unreasonably restrict the flood channel, and lands in such stretch of the river are subjected to overflow and damage which are not now overflowed or damaged by reason of the construction of levees on the opposite banks of the river it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War and the Chief of Engineers to institute proceedings on behalf of the United States Government to acquire either the absolute ownership of the lands so subjected to overflow and damage or floodage rights over such lands. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 3, 45 Stat. 535.)

Payment or reimbursement by Secretary of War for levee rights-of-way or easements, see section 702n of this title.

§ 702d. Same; flowage rights; condemnation proceedings; benefits to property.

The United States shall provide flowage rights for additional destructive flood waters that will pass by reason of diversions from the main channel of the Mississippi River: Provided, That in all cases where the execution of the flood-control plan herein adopted results in benefits to property such benefits shall be taken into consideration by way of reducing the amount of compensation to be paid.

The Secretary of War may cause proceedings to be instituted for the acquirement by condemnation of any lands, easements, or rights of way, which, in the opinion of the Secretary of War and the Chief of Engineers, are needed in carrying out this project, the said proceedings, to be instituted in the United States district court for the district in which the land, easement, or right of way is located. In all such proceedings the court, for the purpose of ascertaining the value of the property and assessing the compensation to be paid, shall appoint three commissioners, whose award, when confirmed by the court, shall be final. When the owner of any land, easement, or right-of-way shall fix a price for the same which, in the opinion of the Secretary of War is reasonable, he may purchase the same at such price; and the Secretary of War is also authorized to accept donations of lands, easements, and rights of way required for this project. The provisions of sections 594 and 595 of this title are hereby made applicable to the acquisition of lands, easements, or rights of way needed for works of flood control: Provided, That any land acquired under the provisions of this section shall be turned over without cost to the ownership of States or local interests. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 4, 45 Stat. 536.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Lands acquired for construction of Bonnet Carre Spillway and Floodway not to be subject to this section, see section 702d-1 of this title.

§ 702d-1. Same; Bonnet Carre Spillway and Floodway; rights-of-way, etc., over lands.

The last proviso in section 702d of this title shall not apply to the lands heretofore acquired or that may be hereafter acquired in connection with the construction, maintenance, or operation of the Bonnet Carre Spillway and Floodway. The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to grant to any citizen, association, railroad, or other corporation, State or public agency thereof, rights-of-way, easements, and permits, over, across, in, and upon said lands for railway, highway, telephone, telegraph, and pipe-line crossings, and other purposes. The grants issued in pursuance of this authority shall be under such terms and conditions as the Secretary of War may deem advisable for the protection of the public interests, and may be perpetual or temporary in his discretion. (Feb. 15, 1933, ch. 76, 47 Stat. 810.)

§ 702e. Same; maps for project; preparation.

Subject to the approval of the heads of the several executive departments concerned, the Secretary of War, on the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, may engage the services and assistance of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Geological Survey, or other mapping agencies of the Government, in the preparation of maps required in furtherance of this project, and funds to pay for such services may be allotted from appropriations made under authority of section 702a or 702g of this title. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 5, 45 Stat. 536.)

§ 702f. Same; expenditures for earlier projects.

Funds appropriated under authority of section 702a of this title may be expended for the prosecution of such works for the control of the floods of the Mississippi River as have, prior to May 15, 1928, been authorized and are not included in the present project, including levee work on the Mississippi River between Rock Island, Illinois, and Cape Girardeau, Missouri, and on the outlets and tributaries of the Mississippi River between Rock Island and Head of Passes insofar as such outlets or tributaries are affected by the backwaters of the Mississippi: Provided, That for such work on the Mississippi River between Rock Island, Illinois, and Cape Girardeau, Missouri, and on such tributaries, the States or levee districts shall provide rights-of-way without cost to the United States, contribute 33½ per centum of the costs of the works, and maintain them after completion: And provided further, That not more than $10,000,000 of the sums authorized in section 702a of this title, shall be expended under the provisions of this section.

In an emergency, funds appropriated under authority of section 702a of this title may be expended for the maintenance of any levee when it is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War that the levee cannot be adequately maintained by the State or levee district. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 6, 45 Stat. 536.)

§ 702g. Same; appropriation for emergency fund.

The sum of $5,000,000 is authorized to be appropriated as an emergency fund to be allotted by the Secretary of War on the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, in rescue work or in the repair or maintenance of any flood-control work on any tributaries of the Mississippi River threatened or destroyed by flood including the flood of 1927: Provided, That the unexpended and unallotted balance of said sum, or so much thereof as may be necessary, may be allotted by the Secretary of War on the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers in the reimbursement of levee districts or others for expenditures heretofore incurred or made for the construction, repair, or maintenance of any flood-control work on any tributaries or outlets of the Mississippi River that may be threatened, impaired, or destroyed by the flood of 1927 or subsequent flood or that have been impaired, damaged, or destroyed by flood; and also in the construction, repair, or maintenance, and in the reimbursement of levee districts or others for the construction, repair, or maintenance of any flood-control work on any of the tributaries or outlets of the Mississippi River that have been impaired, damaged, or destroyed by caving banks or that may be threatened or impaired by caving banks of such tributaries, whether or not such caving has taken place during a flood stage:

Provided further, That if the Chief of Engineers finds that it has been or will be necessary or advisable to change the location of any such flood-control work in order to provide the protection contemplated by this section, such change may be approved and/or authorized. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 7, 45 Stat. 537; June 19, 1930, ch. 542, 46 Stat. 787.)

§ 702g-1. Same; additional appropriation for emergency fund.

The sum of $15,000,000 is authorized to be appropriated as an emergency fund to be allocated by the Secretary of War on the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers in rescue work or in the repair or maintenance of any flood-control work on any tributary of the Mississippi River threatened or destroyed by flood heretofore or hereafter occurring: Provided, That the unexpended and unallotted balance of said sum, or so much thereof as may be necessary, may be allotted by the Secretary of War, on the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, in the reimbursement of levee districts or others for expenditures incurred or made prior to June 15, 1936 for the construction, repair, or maintenance of any flood-control work on any tributaries or outlets of the Mississippi River that may be threatened, impaired, or destroyed by the flood of 1927 or subsequent flood; and also in the construction, repair, or maintenance, and in the reimbursement of levee districts or others for the construction, repair, or maintenance of any flood-control work on any of the tributaries or outlets of the Mississippi River that may have been impaired, damaged, or destroyed by caving banks or that may be threatened or impaired by caving banks, of such tributaries, whether or not such caving has taken place during a flood stage: Provided further, That if the Chief of Engineers finds that it has been or will be necessary or advisable to change the location of any such flood-control work in order to provide the protection contemplated by this section, such change may be approved and authorized. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 9, 49 Stat. 1511.)

§ 702h. Same; prosecution of project by Mississippi River Commission; president of commission; salaries.

The project authorized shall be prosecuted by the Mississippi River Commission under the direction of the Secretary of War and supervision of the Chief of Engineers and subject to the provisions of sections 702a, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702h-702j, 702k, 702l, 702m of this title. It shall perform such functions and through such agencies as they shall designate after consultation and discussion with the president of the commission. For all other purposes the existing laws governing the constitution and activities of the commission shall remain unchanged. The commission shall make inspection trips of such frequency and duration as will enable it to acquire first-hand information as to conditions and problems germane to the matter of flood control within the area of its jurisdiction; and on such trips of inspection ample opportunity for hearings and suggestions shall be afforded persons affected by or interested in such problems. The president of the commission shall be the executive officer thereof and shall have the qualifications prescribed by law on May 15, 1928, for the Assistant Chief of Engineers, shall have the title brigadier general, Corps of Engineers, and shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a brigadier general while actually assigned to such duty: Provided, That the incumbent of the office on May 15, 1928, may be appointed a brigadier general of the Army, retired, and shall be eligible for the position of president of the commission if recalled to active service by the President under the provisions of existing law.

The salary of the president of the Mississippi River Commission shall after May 15, 1928, be $10,000 per annum, and the salary of the other members of the commission shall after May 15, 1928, be $7,500 per annum. The official salary of any officer of the United States Army or other branch of the Government appointed or employed under sections 702a, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702h-702j, 702k, 702l, 702m of this title shall be deducted from the amount of salary or compensation provided by, or which shall be fixed under, the terms of such sections. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 8, 45 Stat. 537.)

§ 702i. Certain sections applicable to property and rights acquired or constructed.

The provisions of sections 407, 408, 411, 412, and 413 of this title are hereby made applicable to all lands, waters, easements, and other property and rights acquired or constructed under the provisions of sections 702a, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702h-702j, 702k, 702l, 702m of this title. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 9, 45 Stat. 537.)

§ 702j. Same; projects relating to tributary streams; report to Congress; appropriation.

It is the sense of Congress that the survey of the Mississippi River and its tributaries, authorized pursuant to the Act of January 21, 1927 [ch. 47, 44 Stat. 1010], and House Document Numbered 308, Sixty-ninth Congress, first session, be prosecuted as speedily as practicable, and the Secretary of War, through the Corps of Engineers, United States Army, is directed to prepare and submit to Congress at the earliest practicable date projects for flood control on all tributary streams of the Mississippi River system subject to destructive floods which projects shall include: The Red River and tributaries, the Yazoo River and tributaries, the White River and tributaries, the Saint Francis River and tributaries, the Arkansas River and tributaries, the Ohio River and tributaries, the Missouri River and tributaries, and the Illinois River and tributaries; and the reports thereon, in addition to the surveys provided by said House Document 308, Sixty-ninth Congress, first session, shall include the effect on the subject of further flood control of the lower Mississippi River to be attained through the control of the flood waters in the drainage basins of the tributaries by the establishment of a reservoir system; the benefits that will accrue to navigation and agriculture from the prevention of erosion and siltage entering the stream; a determination of the capacity of the soils of the district to receive and hold waters from such reservoirs; the prospective income from the disposal of reservoir waters; the extent to which reservoir waters may be made available for public and private uses; and inquiry as to the return flow of waters placed in the soils from reservoirs, and as to their stabilizing effect on stream flow as a means of preventing erosion, siltage, and improving navigation: Provided, That before transmitting such reports to Congress the same shall be presented to the Mississippi River Commission, and its conclusions and recommendations thereon shall be transmitted to Congress by the Secretary of War with his report.

The sum of $5,000,000 is hereby authorized to be used out of the appropriation authorized in section 702a of this title, in addition to amounts authorized in the River and Harbor Act of January 21, 1927 [ch. 47, 44 Stat. 1010], to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War and the supervision of the Chief of Engineers for the preparation of the flood-control projects authorized to be submitted to Congress under this section: Provided further, That the flood surveys herein provided for shall be made simultaneously with the flood-control work on the Mississippi River provided for in sections 702a, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702h-702j, 702k, 702l, 702m of this title: And provided further, That the President shall proceed to ascertain through the Secretary of Agriculture and such other agencies as he may deem proper, the extent to and manner in which the floods in the Mississippi Valley may be controlled by proper forestry practice. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 10, 45 Stat. 538.)

§ 702j-1. Same; Saint Francis and Yazoo Rivers; lands and easements; alteration of highways; cooperation of States.

(a) Neither of the projects for the flood control of the Saint Francis River or the Yazoo River, authorized by sections 702a-1, 702a-2 to 702a-11, 702g-1, 702j-1, 702j-2, 702k-1, and 702k-2 of this title, shall be undertaken until the States, or other qualified agencies, shall have furnished satisfactory assurances that they will undertake, without cost to the United States, all alterations of highways made necessary because of the construction of the authorized reservoirs, and meet all damages because of such highway alterations, and have agreed also to furnish without cost to the United States all lands and easements necessary to the construction of levees and drainage ditches constructed under this project: Provided, That the reservoirs for control of headwater flow of the Yazoo River system may be located by the Chief of Engineers, in his discretion: And provided further, That the Chief of Engineers may, in his discretion, substitute levees, floodways, or auxiliary channels, or any or all of them, for any or all of the seven detention reservoirs recommended in his report of February 12, 1935, for the control of floods of the Yazoo River: And provided further, That the Chief of Engineers, with the approval of the Secretary of War, may modify the project for the flood control of the Saint Francis River as recommended in said report, to include therein the construction of a detention reservoir for the reduction of floods, and the acquisition at the cost of the United States of all lands and flowage necessary to the construction of said reservoir except flowage of highways: Provided further, That the estimated cost to the United States of the project is not increased by reason of such detention reservoir.

(b) The Chief of Engineers may, in his discretion, modify the project for the control of floods on the Yazoo River, as authorized by subsection (a), to substitute therefor a combined reservoir floodway and levee plan: Provided, That the total cost thereof does not exceed the present authorization as estimated in House Committee on Flood Control Document Numbered 1, Seventy-fourth Congress, first session: Provided further, That the modified project shall be subject to the following conditions of local cooperation:

No work shall be undertaken until the States or other qualified agencies have furnished satisfactory assurances that they will—

(1) undertake, without cost to the United States, all alterations of highways made necessary because of the construction of reservoirs and meet all damages because of such highway alterations; and

(2) furnish, without cost to the United States, all lands and easements necessary to the construction of levees and drainage ditches. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 4, 49 Stat. 1509; Aug. 28, 1937, ch. 877, § 6, 50 Stat. 880.)

§ 702j-2. Same; White River Levee District; rights-of-way, drainage facilities; flowage rights; acquisition by local authorities; protection of United States from liability for damages.

The Chief of Engineers, under the supervision of the Secretary of War, shall at the expense of the United States Government construct a system of levees substantially in accordance with general plan shown on map designated as sheet numbered 1 entitled "Tributary Levee Location Survey—White River Levee District—Proposed Levee Location" accompanying report dated April 2, 1925, and filed in office of First and Second Mississippi River Commission Districts, Memphis, Tennessee. The Chief of Engineers shall have the right to alter, change, or modify said plan as to the grades and levee sections: Provided, however, That no work shall be commenced on the above-mentioned project until the State, levee boards, or other responsible local interests have given assurances satisfactory to the Secretary of War that they will (a) provide without cost to the United States all rights-of-way necessary for the construction of said project; (b) provide drainage facilities made necessary by construction of levees; (c) acquire and provide without cost to the United States all flowage and storage rights and easements over, upon, and across the lands and properties within the protected area in the event it becomes necessary in the judgment and discretion of the Secretary of War or the Chief of Engineers to use said area, or any part thereof, for an emergency reservoir; (d) hold and save the United States free from liability for damages on account of the use of said area for reservoir purposes during said emergency. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 5, 49 Stat. 1509.)

§ 702k. Same; surveys below Cape Girardeau, Missouri; resurvey of levee in Tennessee.

The Secretary of War shall cause the Mississippi River Commission to make an examination and survey of the Mississippi River below Cape Girardeau, Missouri, (a) at places where levees have prior to May 15, 1928, been constructed on one side of the river and the lands on the opposite side have been thereby subjected to greater overflow, and where, without unreasonably restricting the flood channel, levees can be constructed to reduce the extent of this overflow, and where the construction of such levees is economically justified, and report thereon to the Congress as soon as practicable with such recommendations as the commission may deem advisable; (b) with a view to determining the estimated effects, if any, upon lands lying between the river and adjacent hills by reason of overflow of such lands caused by the construction of levees at other points along the Mississippi River, and determining the equities of the owners of such lands and the value of the same, and the commission shall report thereon to the Congress as soon as practicable with such recommendation as it may deem advisable: Provided, That inasmuch as the Mississippi River Commission made a report on the 26th day of October 1912, recommending a levee to be built from Tiptonville, Tennessee, to the Obion River in Tennessee, the said Mississippi River Commission is authorized to make a resurvey of said proposed levee and a relocation of the same if necessary, and if such levee is found feasible, and is approved by the board created in section 702a of this title, and by the President the same shall be built out of appropriations made after May 15, 1928. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 11, 45 Stat. 538.)

§ 702k-1. Same; appropriation.

$272,000,000 is hereby authorized to be appropriated for the carrying out of the modified adopted project, and all unexpended balances of appropriations heretofore made for the prosecution of said flood-control project are hereby made available for the purposes of sections 702a-1, 702a-2 to 702a-10, 702g-1, 702j-1 and 702j-2 of this title. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 13, 49 Stat. 1513.)

§ 702k-2. Same; separability clause.

If any provision of sections 702a-1, 702a-2 to 702a-10, 702g-1, 702j-1, 702j-2, and 702k-1 of this title, or the application thereof, to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the said sections, and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. (June 15, 1936, ch. 548, § 14, 49 Stat. 1513.)

§ 702l. Same; repeal of inconsistent laws.

All laws or parts of laws inconsistent with sections 702a, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702h-702j, 702k, of this title, are hereby repealed. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 12, 45 Stat. 539.)

§ 702m. Same; interest of Members of Congress in contracts for acquisition of land.

In every contract or agreement to be made or entered into for the acquisition of land either by private sale or condemnation as in sections 702a, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702h-702j, 702k, 702l, 702m of this title provided the provisions contained in section 22 of Title 41 shall be applicable. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 14, 45 Stat. 539.)

§ 702n. Levee rights-of-way; payment or reimbursement for.

The Secretary of War is authorized, out of any money available for carrying out the provisions of sections 702a, 702b-702d, 702e-702g, 702h-702j, 702k, 702l, 702m of this title, to purchase from, or to reimburse States or local levee districts for the cost of, any levee rights-of-way or easements for the building of levees in the Mississippi Valley for which the United States was or is under obligation to pay under the provisions of said sections regardless of whether said States or local levee districts have furnished such rights-of-way in the past and regardless of the conditions under which such levee rights of way were furnished, or may be furnished in the future: Provided, That after careful investigation the prices are found to be reasonable: And provided further, That payments or reimbursements for levee rights-of-way or easements conveying the privilege of building levees may be made as soon as they have been acquired in conformity with local custom or legal procedure in such matters and to the satisfaction of the Chief of Engineers. (Apr. 23, 1934, ch. 159, 48 Stat. 607.)

§ 703. Sacramento River, California.

Flood-control works authorized.—For controlling the floods, removing the debris, and continuing the improvement of the Sacramento River, California, in accordance with the plans of the California Débris Commission, the Secretary of War is authorized and directed to carry on continuously, by hired labor or otherwise, the plan of said commission contained in its report submitted August 10, 1910, and printed in House Document Numbered 81, Sixty-second Congress, first session, as modified by the report of said commission submitted February 8, 1913, approved by the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army and the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, and printed in Rivers and Harbors Committee Document Numbered 5, Sixty-third Congress, first session, insofar as said plan provides for the rectification and enlargement of river channels and the construction of weirs, to be paid for as appropriations may from time to time be made by law, not to exceed in the aggregate $5,600,000: Provided, That not more than $1,000,000 shall be expended therefor during any one fiscal year.

Limitation on expenditure of appropriations generally.—(a) All money appropriated under authority of this section shall be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War, in accordance with the plans, specifications, and recommendations of the California Débris Commission, as approved by the Chief of Engineers, for the control of floods, removal of debris, and the general improvement of the Sacramento River: Provided, That no money shall be expended under authority of this section until assurances have been given satisfactory to the Secretary of War (a) that the State of California will contribute annually for such work a sum equal to such sum as may be expended annually therefor by the United States under authority of this section; (b) that such equal contributions by the State of California will continue annually until the full equal share of the cost of such work shall have been contributed by said State; and (c) that the river levees contemplated in the report of the California Débris Commission, dated August 10, 1910, will be constructed to such grade and section and within such time as may be required by said commission: Provided further, That said State shall not be required to expend for such work, for any one year, a sum larger than that expended thereon by the United States during the same year: And provided further, That the total contributions so required of the State of California shall not exceed in the aggregate $5,600,000.

Expenditure of contributions by State of California; acquisition of sites, easements, etc.—(b) All money contributed by the State of California, as herein provided, shall be expended under the direction of the California Débris Commission and in such manner as it may require or approve, and no money appropriated under authority of this section shall be expended in the purchase of or payment for any right-of-way, easement, or land acquired for the purposes of this improvement, but all such rights-of-way, easements, and lands shall be provided free of cost to the United States: Provided, That no money paid or expense incurred therefor shall be computed as a part of the contribution of the State of California toward the work of improvement herein provided for within the meaning of paragraph (a) of this section.

Maintenance of works for flood control by State of California.—(c) Upon the completion of all works for flood control herein authorized the said works shall be turned over to the State of California for maintenance thereafter; but for all other purposes the United States shall retain such control over the same as it may have the right to exercise upon such completion. (Mar. 1, 1917, ch. 144, § 2, 39 Stat. 949.)

§ 704. Same; modification of project.

The project for the control of floods in the Sacramento River, California, adopted by section 703 of this title, is hereby modified in accordance with the report of the California Débris Commission submitted in Senate Document Numbered 23, Sixty-ninth Congress, first session: Provided, That the total amounts contributed by the Federal Government, including the amounts heretofore contributed by it, shall in no event exceed in the aggregate $17,600,000. (May 15, 1928, ch. 569, § 13, 45 Stat. 539.)

§ 705. Salmon River, Alaska; flood-control work authorized.

The project of prevention and control of floods in the Salmon River, Alaska, recommended in the report of the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, in House Document Numbered 228, Seventy-second Congress, is hereby adopted and authorized and shall be prosecuted under the direction of the Secretary of War and the supervision of the Chief of Engineers in accordance with the plan recommended in such report and subject to the conditions set forth therein. (June 18, 1934, ch. 581, 48 Stat. 991.)

§ 706. Weather Bureau; current information; appropriation.

There is hereby authorized an expenditure of not to exceed $375,000 per annum, from any appropriations heretofore or hereafter made for flood control by the United States, for the establishment, operation, and maintenance by the Weather Bureau of a current information service on precipitation, flood forecasts, and flood warnings, whenever in the opinion of the Chief of Engineers and the Chief of the Weather Bureau such service is advisable in connection with either preliminary examinations and surveys or works of improvement authorized by the law for flood-control purposes, and the Secretary of War upon the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers is authorized to allot the Weather Bureau funds for said expenditure. (June 28, 1938, ch. 795, § 8, 52 Stat. 1226.)

§ 707. Alamogordo Dam and Reservoir; declaration of purpose; report to Congress; appropriation.

The Alamogordo Dam and Reservoir on the Pecos River, New Mexico, is hereby authorized and declared to be for the purposes of controlling floods, regulating the flow of the Pecos River, providing for storage and for delivery of stored waters, for the reclamation of lands, and other beneficial uses, and said dam and reservoir shall be used, first, for irrigation; second, for flood control and river regulation; and third, for other purposes. The Chief of Engineers and the Secretary of War are directed to report to the Congress the amount of the total cost of said Alamogordo Dam and Reservoir which is properly allocable to flood control. The appropriation and transfer of such amount from the general fund of the Treasury to the reclamation fund, for credit by reduction of the maximum obligation of the Carlsbad Irrigation District to repay the total cost thereof, is hereby authorized. §§ 711-715. Bureau of Lighthouses in Department of Commerce; establishment; personnel.

These sections related to the establishment of the Bureau of Lighthouses in the Department of Commerce. The Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions were transferred to and consolidated with the Coast Guard in the Department of the Treasury to be administered as a part thereof by Reorganization Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432, set out in note to section 183t of Title 5, Executive Departments and Government Officers and Employees. Further provision to perfect the consolidation of the Lighthouse Service with the Coast Guard by authorizing the commissioning, appointment, and enlistment in the Coast Guard, of certain officers and employees of the Lighthouse Service, was made by act Aug. 5, 1939, ch. 477, 53 Stat. 1216.

Section 711 was based upon act June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 4, 36 Stat. 537 as amended by acts Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; June 5, 1920, ch. 264, § 2, 41 Stat. 1059; July 3, 1930, ch. 850, 46 Stat. 1003; Aug. 16, 1937, ch. 665, § 4, 50 Stat. 667.

Section 712 was based upon act July 27, 1912, ch. 255, § 2, 37 Stat. 239 as amended by act Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.

Section 713 was based upon act June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 10, 36 Stat. 538 as amended by act Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.

Section 714 was based upon act June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 6, 36 Stat. 538, as amended by act Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.

Section 715 was based upon act June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 5, 36 Stat. 537.

§ 716. Employment of temporary draftsmen.

The Commandant of the Coast Guard is authorized to employ temporarily at the seat of government, draftsmen and engineers for the preparation of plans and specifications for vessels, lighthouses, aids to navigation, and other works for the Coast Guard that may be authorized or appropriated for by Congress, to be paid from the appropriations applicable to such works. (June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 9, 36 Stat. 538; July 27, 1939, ch. 388, § 1, 53 Stat. 1130.)

§ 717. Detail of Army engineers as construction aids.

The President may detail officers of the Engineer Corps of the United States Army for consultation or to superintend the construction or repair of any aid to navigation authorized by Congress. (June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 11, 36 Stat. 539.)

§ 717a. Detail of superintendents and engineers to duty at Washington.

Section, act Feb. 25, 1929, ch. 313, § 5, 45 Stat. 1262, provided that the Secretary of Commerce might detail superintendents of lighthouses and engineers in the Lighthouse Service to duty at the Bureau of Lighthouses at Washington without change of status. Services and duties of the former Bureau of Lighthouses are now performed by the Coast Guard, its officers and personnel. See note to sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 718. Traveling expenses of Army and Navy officers.

Subject matter of this section, act Feb. 26, 1907, ch. 1638, § 6, 34 Stat. 997, is now covered by sections 20 and 20a of Title 37, Pay and Allowances.

§ 719. Additional compensation to civil, military, or naval officers prohibited.

Section, R. S. § 4679, provided that no additional salary should be allowed to any civil, military, or naval officer on account of his being employed in the Light-House Board, or being in any manner attached to the light-house service. The functions of the Light-House Board and all employees of or in the Light-House Board or the Light-House Establishment, except army and navy officers, were transferred to the Bureau of Lighthouses by act June 17, 1910, ch. 301, §§ 5, 6, 36 Stat. 537. The Bureau of Lighthouses was transferred to and consolidated in the Coast Guard by Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2732, 53 Stat. 1431. act Aug. 5, 1939, ch. 477, 53 Stat. 1216, provided for the commissioning or enlistment in the Coast Guard of former employees of the Bureau of Lighthouses.

§ 720. General control by Commandant of Coast Guard.

The Commandant of the Coast Guard shall, under the direction and control of the Secretary of the Treasury, have charge and control of the construction, maintenance, repair, illumination, inspection, and superintendence of lighthouse depots, supply stations, light and signal stations, lighthouses, light vessels, lighthouse tenders, fog signals, submarine signals, beacons, buoys, day marks, post-lantern lights, and seamarks and their appendages; and the charge and custody of all the archives, books, documents, drawings, models, returns, apparatus, and other things appertaining to the former Lighthouse Service. (June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 7, 36 Stat. 538; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under section 711 of this title.

§ 720a. Same; establishment and maintenance of aids to navigation in certain waters.

The Commandant of the Coast Guard, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized in his discretion to establish and maintain aids to navigation to mark rivers, waterways, or channels, connected by navigable waters with the sea or the Great Lakes, which have been improved for navigation by the United States under proper authority, and appropriations made for the support of the Coast Guard are made available for the expenses of establishing and maintaining such aids to navigation. (Aug. 16, 1937, ch. 665, § 3, 50 Stat. 667; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under section 711 of this title.

§ 721. Power of Commissioner to settle claims for damages.

This section, act June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 4, 36 Stat. 537 as amended by acts Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736, and Aug. 16, 1937, ch. 665, § 4, 50 Stat. 667, provided as follows: "The Commissioner of Lighthouses, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, is authorized to consider, ascertain, adjust, and determine all claims for damages, where the amount of the claim does not exceed the sum of $500, occasioned by collisions, for which collisions vessels of the Lighthouse Service shall be found to be responsible, and report the amounts so ascertained and determined to be due to the claimants to Congress at each session thereof through the Treasury Department for payment as legal claims out of appropriations that may be made by Congress therefor."

The Lighthouse Service was transferred to the Coast Guard by Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432. See note to sections 711-715 of this title. Pursuant to a Treasury order the duties and functions of the Commissioner of Lighthouses were taken over by the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

§ 721a. Deposit of damage payments; disbursement.

The Coast Guard is authorized, whenever an aid to navigation or other property belonging to the Lighthouse Service is damaged or destroyed by a private person, and such private person or his agent shall pay to the satisfaction of the proper official of the Coast Guard for the cost of repair or replacement of such property, to accept and deposit such payments, through proper officers of the Fiscal Service, Treasury Department, in special deposit accounts in the Treasury, for payment therefrom to the person or persons repairing or replacing the damaged property and refundment of amounts collected in excess of the cost of the repairs or replacements concerned. (Aug. 16, 1937, ch. 665, § 2, 50 Stat. 867; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432; Reorg. Plan No. III, § 1 (a) (1), eff. June 30, 1940, 5 Fed. Reg. 2107, 54 Stat. 1231.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Reorganization Plan No. III, § 1 (a) (1), cited to text, consolidated the Division of Disbursement and various other divisions and offices and their functions into one agency of the Treasury Department to be known as the Fiscal Service.

Transfer of the Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 722. Necessity for contract for expenditure of appropriations.

It shall be the duty of the Commandant of the Coast Guard to apply the money appropriated, other than for surveys, as far as can be without detriment to the interests of the Government, by contract. (July 7, 1884, ch. 332, 23 Stat. 198; June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 6, 36 Stat. 538; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

"Commandant of the Coast Guard" formerly read "Commissioner of Lighthouses." For transfer of the Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 723. Proposals for repair of vessels; specifications.

Any and all proposals for bids for any new machinery or other new equipment necessary in the repair of any vessel in the Lighthouse Service shall be on specifications prepared and submitted that will secure competition in the bids for furnishing such machinery or equipment. (Mar. 4, 1909, ch. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 973.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of the Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 724. Contracts for materials; necessity for public letting.

All materials for construction, maintenance, repair, and operation shall be procured by public contracts, under such regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by the Commandant of the Coast Guard, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, and no contract shall be made except after public advertisement for proposals in such form and manner as to secure general notice thereof, and the same shall only be made with the lowest and best bidder therefor, upon security deemed sufficient in the judgment of the Commandant of the Coast Guard, but all bids may at any time be rejected by commandant: Provided, however, That the Commandant of the Coast Guard may purchase illuminating oil, wicks, and chimneys for lights, and ground tackle for light vessels and buoys, and to an amount not exceeding $500 at any one time, other materials and supplies when immediate delivery is required by an exigency, by private contract or in the open market, if he deems it for the best interests of the service so to do; but such purchases shall be set forth in the annual report of the commandant with the reasons for purchasing other than upon bids after public advertisement. (June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 8, 36 Stat. 538; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 725. Prohibition against officers and employees being interested in contracts for materials, etc.

No member of the Coast Guard, Commandant of the Coast Guard, light keeper, or other person in any manner connected with the light-house service, shall be interested, either directly or indirectly, in any contract for labor, materials, or supplies for the Lighthouse Service, or in any patent, plan, or mode of construction or illumination, or in any article of supply for the light-house service. (R. S. § 4680; June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 6, 36 Stat. 538; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

DERIVATION

§ 728. Sufficiency of cession by State; service of State process in lands ceded.

A cession by a State of jurisdiction over a place selected as the site of a lighthouse, or other structure or work, shall be deemed sufficient within section 727, notwithstanding it contains a reservation that process issued under authority of such State may continue to be served within such place. And notwithstanding any such cession of jurisdiction contains no such reservation, all process may be served and executed within the place ceded, in the same manner as if no cession had been made. (R. S. § 4662.)

DERIVATION

Act Mar. 2, 1795, ch. 40, §§ 1, 2, 1 Stat. 426.

§ 729. Purchase by Commandant of sites for lighthouses.

The Commandant of the Coast Guard, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized, whenever an appropriation is made by Congress for a new lighthouse, the proper site for which does not belong to the United States, to purchase the necessary land for such site, provided the purchase money be paid from the amount appropriated for such lighthouse without exceeding the limit of cost, if any, fixed in such case. (June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 9, 36 Stat. 538; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of the Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 730. Purchase of additional land for lighthouses and depots.

The purchase of necessary additional land for light stations and depots from the appropriation "General Expenses, Coast Guard" is authorized under rules prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That no single acquisition of such additional land shall cost in excess of $500 and the total sum to be expended for this service shall not exceed $3,000 in any one fiscal year. (Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 168, 37 Stat. 1018; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; Oct. 22, 1913, ch. 32, 38 Stat. 225; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. ### § 730a. Sites for pierhead beacons.

The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized whenever he shall deem it advisable, to acquire, by donation or purchase in behalf of the United States, the right to use and occupy sites for pierhead beacons the establishment of which has been, or shall hereafter be, authorized by Congress. (Mar. 3, 1875, ch. 130, § 1, 18 Stat. 372; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of the Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 731. Lease of sites for temporary lights.

The Commandant of the Coast Guard is authorized to lease the necessary ground for all such lights and beacons as are for temporary use or are used to point out changeable channels, and which in consequence can not be made permanent. (Mar. 4, 1909, ch. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 972; June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 6, 36 Stat. 538; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of the Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 732. Exchange of right-of-way pertaining to Lighthouse Service.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, whenever he shall deem it advisable, to exchange any right of way of the United States in connection with lands pertaining to the Lighthouse Service for such other right of way as may be advantageous to the service, under such terms and conditions as he may deem to be for the best interests of the Government; and in case any expenses, not exceeding the sum of $500, are incurred by the United States in making such exchange, the same shall be payable from the appropriation, "General Expenses, Coast Guard," for the fiscal year during which such exchange shall be effected. (Aug. 28, 1916, ch. 414, § 2, 39 Stat. 538; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 733. Approval by Attorney General of title to site before expenditure of moneys; acquisition by United States of jurisdiction over lands.

No public money shall be expended upon any site or land purchased by the United States for the purposes of erecting thereon any armory, arsenal, fort, fortification, navy yard, customhouse, lighthouse, or other public building of any kind whatever, until the written opinion of the Attorney General shall be had in favor of the validity of the title.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this or any other law, whenever the average value of any lands or interests in land to be acquired by or on behalf of the United States under a single option or contract of sale does not exceed $10 per acre (hereinafter referred to as "low-value lands"), the title may be accepted subject to such infirmities as, in the opinion of the Attorney General, may, without jeopardizing the interests of the United States, be left for removal by condemnation or other appropriate proceedings, if and when necessary: Provided, That the total value of any lands or interests to be acquired under a single option or contract of sale subject to an infirmity does not exceed $3,500. No public money shall hereafter be expended for the acquisition of such low-value lands or interests in land by or on behalf of the United States for any purpose until the written opinion of the Attorney General has been had approving the title subject, if expedient, to infirmities as herein provided. However, no money in excess of $2,500 shall be expended for the construction of buildings, works, or other improvements (except roads, trails, and fire-protection improvements) on any site, tract, or parcel of land the title to which is subject to infirmities, until the written opinion of the Attorney General in favor of the validity of the title has been had as in the case of other lands. For the purpose of this section, values of lands and interests in land shall be determined by the consideration paid or to be paid.

The Attorney General is hereby authorized to approve the title to easements or<sup>1</sup> rights-of-way to be acquired by or on behalf of the United States, subject to such infirmities as, in his opinion, will not jeopardize the interests of the United States.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority now or hereafter delegated to any officer in exercising the power of eminent domain for or on behalf of the United States, to take title to or possession of or to expend money for or upon any land or interest in land, or to expend money as security for an ultimate award in advance of final judgment in any proceedings to determine just compensation; nor shall this section be construed to preclude any acquiring agency from expending money for the erection of any preliminary and temporary structure upon any land.

The head or other authorized officer of any department, independent establishment, or agency, shall procure any evidence of title which the Attorney General may deem necessary, and the expenses of procurement, except where otherwise authorized by law or provided by contract, may be paid out of the appropriations for the acquisition of land or out of the appropriations made for the contingencies of the acquiring department, independent establishment, or agency.

The Attorney General may, in his discretion, base any opinion as to title required either by this section or any other law upon either or both of the following: Certificates of title of title companies or such evidence of title as he may deem satisfactory.

The foregoing provisions of this section shall not be construed to affect in any manner any existing provisions of law which are applicable to the acquisition of lands or interests in land by the Tennessee Valley Authority; and nothing in this section shall be construed to affect in any manner any authority which the Secretary of War, the Chief of Engineers, or the Secretary of the Interior have under the provisions of law in force on October 9, 1940, with respect to the approval by them of title to land or interests in land acquired by the War Department or the Department of the Interior, as the case may be. Nor shall the foregoing provisions of this section, or the provisions of any other law, be construed to require any opinion of the Attorney General in connection with the acquisition or improvement of easements and rights-of-way for military or naval purposes; or for the acquisition or improvement of easements and rights-of-way by the Department of Agriculture for forest and other conservation purposes where the cost of any such easement of right-of-way acquired under a single instrument of conveyance and the cost of any improvement thereon does not exceed $2,500; and the Attorney General may, in his discretion, waive the requirement for his opinion in connection with the acquisition or improvement of easements and rights-of-way for other purposes when, in his opinion, such waiver will not jeopardize the interests of the United States.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the obtaining of exclusive jurisdiction in the United States over lands or interests therein which have been or shall hereafter be acquired by it shall not be required; but the head or other authorized officer of any department or independent establishment or agency of the Government may, in such cases and at such times as he may deem desirable, accept or secure from the State in which any lands or interests therein under his immediate jurisdiction, custody, or control are situated, consent to or cession of such jurisdiction, exclusive or partial, not theretofore obtained, over any such lands or interests as he may deem desirable and indicate acceptance of such jurisdiction on behalf of the United States by filing a notice of such acceptance with the Governor of such State or in such other manner as may be prescribed by the laws of the State where such lands are situated. Unless and until the United States has accepted jurisdiction over lands hereafter to be acquired as aforesaid, it shall be conclusively presumed that no such jurisdiction has been accepted. (R. S. § 355; June 28, 1930, ch. 710, 46 Stat. 828; Feb. 1, 1940, ch. 18, 54 Stat. 19; Oct. 9, 1940, ch. 793, 54 Stat. 1083.)

§ 736. Placement of markers over sunken crafts and other obstructions.

Whenever the owner of any sunken vessel, boat, watercraft, raft, or other similar obstruction existing on any river, lake, harbor, sound, bay, or canal or other navigable waters of the United States has failed to mark, or in the judgment of the Commandant of the Coast Guard has failed suitably to mark, the same in accordance with the provisions of section 409 of this title, the Commandant of the Coast Guard is authorized to suitably mark the same for the protection of navigation. Until such time as abandonment of any such obstruction has been established in accordance with the provisions of section 414 of this title, the owner thereof shall pay to the Commandant of the Coast Guard the cost of such marking. As soon as abandonment of any such obstruction has been so established, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to keep the same so marked pending removal thereof in accordance with the provisions of section 414 of this title, but the Commandant of the Coast Guard may at the request of the Department of War continue the suitable marking of any such obstruction for and on behalf of that Department. The cost of continuing any such marking shall be borne by the Department of War. All moneys received by the Commandant of the Coast Guard from the owners of obstructions, in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. No provision of this section shall be construed so as to relieve the owner of any such obstruction from the duty and responsibility suitably to mark the same in accordance with the provisions of section 409 of this title. #### TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of the Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 757. Cooperation with War and Navy Departments in time of or in preparation for war.

The Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of War, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall jointly prescribe regulations governing the duties to be performed by the Lighthouse Service in time of war, and for the cooperation of that service with the Navy and War Departments in time of peace in preparation for its duties in war, and this may include arrangements for a direct line of communication between the officers or bureaus of the Navy and War Departments and the Coast Guard to provide for immediate action on all communications from these departments. (Aug. 29, 1916, ch. 417, 39 Stat. 602; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of the Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 758. Transfer of vessels, equipment, etc., to Navy or War Department in case of national emergency.

Section, act Aug. 29, 1916, ch. 417, 39 Stat. 602, authorized the President, whenever in his judgment a sufficient national emergency should exist, to transfer to the service and jurisdiction of the Navy Department, or of the War Department, such vessels, equipment, stations, and personnel of the Lighthouse Service as he might deem to be the best interest of the country. The Lighthouse Service and its functions were transferred to and consolidated in the Coast Guard by Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432. The Coast Guard constitutes a part of the military forces of the United States, operating under the Treasury Department in time of peace and operating as a part of the Navy in time of war or when the President shall so direct. See section 1 of Title 14, Coast Guard.

§ 759. Unauthorized establishment of lights, etc.; penalty.

After the 1st day of January 1907 it shall be unlawful for any person, company, corporation, or municipality not under the control of the Commandant of the Coast Guard, to establish, erect, or maintain in the navigable waters of the United States any light as an aid to navigation, or any other aid to navigation similar to any of those maintained by the United States under the control and direction of the Commandant of the Coast Guard, without first obtaining permission so to do from the Commandant of the Coast Guard, in accordance with rules and regulations to be established by the Secretary of the Treasury; and any person violating the provisions of this section or any of the rules and regulations established by the Secretary of the Treasury in accordance herewith shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to a fine not exceeding the sum of $100 for each offense, and each day during which such violation shall continue shall be considered as a new offense. (June 20, 1906, ch. 3447, § 3, 34 Stat. 324; June 17, 1910, ch.

301, § 6, 36 Stat. 538; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

§ 760. Failure to maintain, etc., lights on bridges; penalty.

Any person, firm, company, or corporation required by law to maintain a light or lights upon any bridge or abutments over or in any navigable waters, who shall fail or refuse to maintain such light or lights, or to obey any of the lawful rules and regulations relating to the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to a fine not exceeding the sum of $100 for each offense, and each day during which such violation shall continue shall be considered as a new offense. (May 14, 1908, ch. 168, § 5, 35 Stat. 162.)

§ 761. Wrongful interference with Government aids to navigation; penalty.

It shall be unlawful for any person to obstruct or interfere with any aid to navigation established or maintained in the Coast Guard under the Commandant of the Coast Guard, or to anchor any vessel in any of the navigable waters of the United States so as to obstruct or interfere with range lights maintained therein, and any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to a fine not exceeding the sum of $500 for each offense, and each day during which such violation shall continue shall be considered as a new offense. (May 14, 1908, ch. 168, § 6, 35 Stat. 162; June 17, 1910, ch. 301, § 6, 36 Stat. 538; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of the Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 762. Wrongful interference with private aids to navigation; penalty.

The penalties provided in the preceding section for obstruction to or interference with any aid to navigation maintained by the Coast Guard shall apply with equal force and effect to any private aid to navigation lawfully maintained under the authority granted the Secretary of the Treasury and the Commandant of the Coast Guard by section 759 of this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1915, ch. 81, § 8, 38 Stat. 928; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 2 (a), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1432.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of the Bureau of Lighthouses and its functions and consolidation with the Coast Guard, see note under sections 711-715 of this title.

§ 763. Retirement for age of officers and employees generally.

All officers and employees engaged in the field service or on vessels of the Lighthouse Service, except persons continuously employed in district offices or shops, who shall have reached the age of sixty-five years, after having been thirty years in the active service of the Government, may at their option be retired from further performance of duty; and all such officers and employees who shall have reached the age of seventy years shall be compulsorily retired from further performance of duty: Provided, That the annual compensation of persons so retired shall be a sum equal to one-fortieth of the average annual pay received for the last five years of service for each year of active service in the Lighthouse Service, or in a department or branch of the Government having a retirement system, not to exceed in any case thirty-fortieths of such average annual pay received: Provided further, That such retirement pay shall not include any amount on account of subsistence or other allowance: Provided further, That the retirement provisions and pay shall not apply to persons in the field service of the Lighthouse Service whose duties do not require substantially all their time. (June 20, 1918, ch. 103, § 6, 40 Stat. 608; Nov. 4, 1918, ch. 201, § 1, 40 Stat. 1036.)

There are in the Coast and Geodetic Survey, commissioned officers as follows: One director with relative rank of captain in the Navy; two hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of captain in the Navy; seven hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of commander in the Navy; nine hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of lieutenant commander in the Navy; thirty-eight hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of lieutenant in the Navy; fifty-five junior hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of lieutenant (junior grade) in the Navy; twenty-nine aids with relative rank of ensign in the Navy, and officers retired in accordance with law: Provided, That the Secretary of Commerce may designate one of the hydrographic and geodetic engineers to act as assistant director. (Feb. 27, 1925, ch. 364, title III, 43 Stat. 1046; May 14, 1940, ch. 189, title II, 54 Stat. 198.)

SIMILAR PROVISIONS

The text of proviso of this section was taken from Department of Commerce Appropriation Act, 1941. Similar provisions were contained in the following acts:
 1939—June 29, 1939, ch. 248, title III, 53 Stat. 916.
 1938—Apr. 27, 1938, ch. 180, title III, § 1, 52 Stat. 281.
 1937—June 16, 1937, ch. 359 § 1, title III, 50 Stat. 294.
 1936—May 15, 1936, ch. 405, § 1, 49 Stat. 1341.
 1935—Mar. 22, 1935, ch. 39, § 1, 49 Stat. 96.

§ 852. Director; appointment.

The title of "Superintendent" of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, existing prior to June 5, 1920, is as of that date changed to "Director." The Director of the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall have the relative rank of a captain in the Navy, and he shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from the list of commissioned officers of the Coast and Geodetic Survey not below the rank of commander for a term of four years, and may be reappointed for further periods of four years each. (June 4, 1920, ch. 228, § 1, 41 Stat. 825; June 5, 1920, ch. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 929; Feb. 16, 1929, ch. 221, § 5, 45 Stat. 1187.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Appointment, rank, pay, and allowances of Director, see section 852a of this title.

§ 852a. Same; appointment; vacancy; rank; pay and allowances.

The Director of the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall be appointed and hold office as now authorized by law; his appointment shall not create a vacancy, and while holding said office he shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a Chief of Bureau of the Navy Department. (Feb. 16, 1929, ch. 221, § 5, 45 Stat. 1187; Mar. 18, 1936, ch. 147, 49 Stat. 1164.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Appointment and rank of captain in the Navy, see section 852 of this title.

§ 853. Power of director to settle claims.

The Director of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, is hereby authorized to consider, ascertain, adjust, and determine all claims for damages, where the amount of the claim does not exceed $500, occasioned, subsequent to June 5, 1920, by acts for which the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall be found to be responsible, and report the amounts so ascertained and determined to be due the claimants to Congress at each session thereof through the Treasury Department for payment as legal claims out of appropriations that may be made by Congress therefor. (June 5, 1920, ch. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 929; June 5, 1920, ch. 256, 41 Stat. 1054.)

§ 854. Qualification of officers for appointment or promotion generally.

No person shall be appointed aid or shall be promoted from aid to junior hydrographic and geodetic engineer or from junior hydrographic and geodetic engineer to hydrographic and geodetic engineer until after passing a satisfactory mental and physical examination conducted in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce. (May 22, 1917, ch. 20, § 16, 40 Stat. 88.)

§ 855. Cooperation with and transfer to Army or Navy generally.

The President is authorized, whenever in his judgment a sufficient national emergency exists, to transfer to the service and jurisdiction of the War Department, or of the Navy Department, such vessels, equipment, stations, and personnel of the Coast and Geodetic Survey as he may deem to the best interest of the country, and after such transfer all expenses connected therewith shall be defrayed out of the appropriations for the department to which transfer is made: Provided, That such vessels, equipment, stations, and personnel shall be returned to the Coast and Geodetic Survey when such national emergency ceases, in the opinion of the President, and nothing in this section shall be construed as transferring the Coast and Geodetic Survey or any of its functions from the Department of Commerce except in time of national emergency and to the extent herein provided: Provided further, That any of the personnel of the Coast and Geodetic Survey who may be transferred as provided in this section, shall, while under the jurisdiction of the War Department or Navy Department, have proper military status and shall be subject to the laws, regulations, and orders for the government of the Army or Navy, as the case may be, insofar as the same may be applicable to persons whose retention permanently in the military service of the United States is not contemplated by law. (May 22, 1917, ch. 20, § 16, 40 Stat. 87.)

§ 856. Relative rank of officers when serving with Army or Navy.

When serving with the Army or Navy the relative rank of officers of the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall be as follows:

Hydrographic and geodetic engineers with rank of captain in the Navy shall rank with and after colonels in the Army and captains in the Navy.

Hydrographic and geodetic engineers with rank of commander in the Navy shall rank with and after lieutenant colonels in the Army and commanders in the Navy.

Hydrographic and geodetic engineers with rank of lieutenant commander in the Navy shall rank with and after majors in the Army and lieutenant commanders in the Navy.

Hydrographic and geodetic engineers with rank of lieutenant in the Navy shall rank with and after captains in the Army and lieutenants in the Navy.

Junior hydrographic and geodetic engineers shall rank with and after first lieutenants in the Army and lieutenants (junior grade) in the Navy.

Aides shall rank with and after second lieutenants in the Army and ensigns in the Navy.

And nothing in this section shall be construed to affect or alter their rates of pay and allowances when not assigned to military duty as mentioned in this section and section 855 of this title. (May 22, 1917, ch. 20, § 16, 40 Stat. 88.)

§ 857. Disability, etc., benefits when cooperating with Army or Navy.

While actually employed in active service under direct orders of the War Department or of the Navy Department members of the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall receive the benefit of all provisions of law relating to disability incurred in line of duty or loss of life. (May 22, 1917, ch. 20, § 16, 40 Stat. 88.)

§ 858. Rules and regulations when cooperating with Army or Navy.

The Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Secretary of Commerce shall jointly prescribe regulations governing the duties to be performed by the Coast and Geodetic Survey in time of war, and for the cooperation of that service with the War and Navy Departments in time of peace in preparations for its duties in war, which regulations shall not be effective unless approved by each of the said Secretaries, and included therein may be rules and regulations for making reports and communications between the officers or bureaus of the War and Navy Departments and the Coast and Geodetic Survey. (May 22, 1917, ch. 20, § 16, 40 Stat. 88.)

§ 859. Pay and allowances of commissioned officers generally.

The commissioned officers of the Coast and Geodetic Survey are entitled to pay and allowances as provided in Title 37. (June 10, 1922, ch. 212, 42 Stat. 625-633.)

§ 862. Assignments of pay.

Scientific and other employees of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, while employed outside of the District of Columbia, are hereby authorized to make assignments of their pay, under such regulations as the Secretary of Commerce may prescribe. (Mar. 4, 1907, ch. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1322; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

§ 862a. Heat or light in kind to persons receiving allowance for rental of quarters.

Nothing contained in any existing laws, or regulations or orders promulgated in pursuance of law, shall authorize the issue of heat or light in kind to any person in the Coast and Geodetic Survey while such person is receiving an allowance for rental of quarters under the provisions of sections 1-3, 5-8, 9, 10, 11-13, 14, 15-20, 21, 22-26, 27-29, 30, and 31 of Title 37. (Mar. 2, 1923, ch. 178, title I, 42 Stat. 1385.)

CODIFICATION

Section is also set out as section 717 of Title 10, Army, section 912 of Title 34, Navy, and section 65 of Title 42, The Public Health and Welfare.

§ 863. Leave of absence; accrued leave while on duty in Philippines.

The Secretary of Commerce, at his discretion, may grant to officers of the field force of the Coast and Geodetic Survey on duty in the Philippine Islands, at one time the whole or any portion of the annual leave accrued and unused during a period of three years. (Mar. 4, 1909, ch. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 974; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

§ 864. Retirement of officers generally.

All laws relating to the retirement of commissioned officers of the Navy shall, after May 18, 1920, apply to commissioned officers of the Coast and Geodetic Survey. (May 18, 1920, ch. 190, § 11, 41 Stat. 603.)

§ 864a. Service credits generally in computing longevity pay of officers.

Except as otherwise provided by law, longevity pay for officers in the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall be based on the total of all service in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Public Health Service, and Coast and Geodetic Survey and in any or all of them. Nothing contained in this section shall operate to reduce the pay or allowances of any officer on the active or retired list. (May 18, 1920, ch. 190, §§ 11, 14, 41 Stat. 604.)

§ 865. Computation of length of service of officers; service at Naval or Military Academy.

In computing for any purpose the length of service of any officer of the Coast and Geodetic Survey who was appointed to the United States Naval Academy or to the United States Military Academy after March 4, 1913, the time spent at either academy shall not be counted. (May 28, 1924, ch. 203, 43 Stat. 194; Feb. 11, 1925, ch. 209, 43 Stat. 872; May 21, 1926, ch. 355, 44 Stat. 604.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Section is also set out as section 2a of Title 14, Coast Guard, section 230 of Title 34, Navy, and section 63 of Title 42, The Public Health and Welfare.

§ 866. Seismological investigations.

The Coast and Geodetic Survey is hereby authorized to make investigations and reports in seismology, including such investigations as have been, prior to January 31, 1925, performed by the Weather Bureau. (Jan. 31, 1925, ch. 121, 43 Stat. 802.)

§ 867. Transfer of instruments to institutions.

The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to transfer, under such rules and regulations as he may deem advisable, to educational institutions and to museums, such instruments of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey as, in his judgment, are of historical value but of no further use in the work of that survey, except such historical instruments as may be needed by the Smithsonian Institution for exhibit at the National Museum. (June 5, 1920, ch. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 930.)

§ 868. Purchase of supplies or procurement of services in field.

The purchase by the Coast and Geodetic Survey of supplies or the procurement of services outside the District of Columbia may be made in the open market in the manner common among business men when the aggregate amount of the purchase does not exceed $50. (July 1, 1918, ch. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 688.)

§ 869. Medical, dental, etc., treatment of personnel and families.

Under such regulations as may be prescribed by the President, upon the recommendation of the Surgeon General with the approval of the Federal Security Administrator and the Secretary of Commerce, all commissioned officers, ships' officers and members of the crews of the vessels of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, including those on shore duty and those on detached duty, whether on active duty or retired, and all dependent members of families of such personnel shall be entitled to medical, surgical, and dental treatment and hospitalization by the United States Public Health Service in the same manner and to the same extent as are now or may hereafter be provided by law and regulations for officers and enlisted men of the United States Coast Guard and their dependents. Collections of the Public Health Service for the hospitalization of such dependent members of families shall be credited to the applicable appropriation for the operation of marine hospitals and relief stations.

(Apr. 26, 1939, ch. 92, § 2, 53 Stat. 620; Reorg. Plan No. I, §§ 201, 205, eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2728, 53 Stat. 1424.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Reorg. Plan No. I, §§ 201, 205, cited to text, transferred the Public Health Service and its functions and personnel to the Federal Security Agency, and the functions of the Secretary of the Treasury, other than those relating to acceptance and investment of gifts, to the Federal Security Administrator.

SURVEYS

§ 881. Authority of President to order surveys of coast.

The President is authorized to cause a survey to be taken of the coasts of the United States, in which shall be designated the islands and shoals, with the roads or places of anchorage, within twenty leagues of any part of the shores of the United States; and also the respective courses and distances between the principal capes or headlands, together with such other matters as he may deem proper for completing an accurate chart of every part of the coasts. (R. S. § 4681.)

DERIVATION

Acts Feb. 10, 1807, ch. 8, § 1, 2 Stat. 413; July 10, 1832, ch. 191, § 1, 4 Stat. 570.

§ 882. Additional authority to order surveys beyond twenty-league limit.

The President may also cause such examinations and observations to be made with respect to Saint George's Bank, and to any other bank, or shoal, and the soundings and currents, although beyond the distance of twenty leagues from the shore to the Gulf Stream, as he may deem especially subservient to the commercial interests of the United States. (R. S. § 4682.)

DERIVATION

Act Feb. 10, 1807, ch. 8, § 2, 2 Stat. 413.

§ 883. Mode of conducting surveys generally.

All appropriations made for the work of surveying the coast of the United States shall, unless otherwise provided by law, be expended in accordance with the plan of reorganizing the mode of executing the survey which has been submitted to the President by a board of officers organized under the Act of March 3, 1843, chapter 100.

The President shall carry into effect the plan of the board, as agreed upon by a majority of its members; and shall cause to be employed as many officers of the Army and Navy of the United States as will be compatible with the successful prosecution of the work; the officers of the Navy to be employed on the hydrographical parts, and the officers of the Army on the topographical parts of the work; and no officer of the Army or Navy shall receive any extra pay out of any appropriations for surveys. (R. S. §§ 4683, 4684.)

DERIVATION

Act Mar. 3, 1843, ch. 100, § 1, 5 Stat. 640.

§ 884. Power to use books, maps, etc., and to employ persons.

The President is authorized, in executing the provisions of sections 881–883 of this title relating to the coast survey, to use all maps, charts, books, instruments, and apparatus belonging to the United States, and to direct where the same shall be deposited, and to employ all persons in the land or naval service of the United States, and such astronomers and other persons as he shall deem proper. (R. S. § 4685.)

DERIVATION

Act July 10, 1832, ch. 191, § 2, 4 Stat. 571.

§ 885. Power to use public vessels.

The President is authorized, for any of the purposes of surveying the coast of the United States, to cause to be employed such of the public vessels in actual service as he deems it expedient to employ, and to give such instructions for regulating their conduct as he deems proper, according to the tenor of sections 881–888 of this title. (R. S. § 4686.)

DERIVATION

Acts Feb. 10, 1807, ch. 8, § 3, 2 Stat. 414; Apr. 14, 1818, ch. 58, § 1, 3 Stat. 425.

§ 886. Manner of employment of officers of Army or Navy.

Officers of the Army and Navy shall, as far as practicable, be employed in the work of surveying the coast of the United States, whenever and in the manner required by the department having charge thereof. (R. S. § 4687.)

DERIVATION

Act June 17, 1844, ch. 105, § 1, 5 Stat. 681, 691.

§ 887. Allowance for subsistence to officers of Army or Navy.

The Secretary of the Treasury may make such allowances to the officers and men of the Army and Navy, while employed on coast survey service, for subsistence, in addition to their compensation, as he may deem necessary, not exceeding the sum authorized by the Treasury regulation of the 11th day of May 1844: Provided, That there shall be no allowance for subsistence to officers of the Navy attached to the Coast and Geodetic Survey, except that when officers are detached to do work away from their vessels under circumstances involving them in extra expenditures, the Director may allow to any such officer subsistence at a rate not exceeding $1 per day for the period actually covered by such duty away from such vessel. (R. S. § 4688; Aug. 30, 1890, ch. 837, § 1, 26 Stat. 382; June 5, 1920, ch. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 929.)

DERIVATION

Act June 12, 1858, ch. 154, § 1, 11 Stat. 319, 320.

CROSS REFERENCE

Subsistence allowance to commissioned officers below grade of brigadier general or equivalent, see section 9 of Title 37, Pay and Allowances.

§ 888. Report to Congress on coast surveys.

The Secretary of Commerce shall report to Congress annually a full statement of all expenditures, other than the amount of compensation paid persons employed during the last preceding fiscal year upon the coast survey and business connected therewith, made under the direction of the Director of the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

The coast survey report shall be submitted to Congress during the month of December in each year, and shall be accompanied by a general chart of the whole coasts of the United States, on as large a scale as convenient and practicable, showing, as near as practicable, the configuration of the coasts, and showing, by lines, the probable limits of the Gulf Stream, and showing, by lines, the probable limit to which the soundings off the coast will extend, and showing, by the use of colors and explanations, the exact portions of our coasts, of which complete charts have been published by the coast survey; also, showing such other parts of the coasts of which the triangulation, the topography, and the soundings have been completed, but not published, and, also, such parts of the coasts of which the triangulation and topography, or the triangulation only, have been completed. (R. S. §§ 264, 4690; Feb. 14, 1903, ch. 552, §§ 4, 10, 32 Stat. 826, 829; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; June 5, 1920, ch. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 929; May 29, 1928, ch. 901, § 1 (104), 45 Stat. 994.)

§ 859. Cooperation with North Carolina State Fish Commission in survey of waters of State.

The Secretary of Commerce and the Secretary of the Interior are authorized and directed, upon the request of the Governor of the State of North Carolina, to designate such officers, experts, and employees of the Coast and Geodetic Survey and of the Fish and Wildlife Service as may be necessary to cooperate with the North Carolina State fish commissioner in making a survey of and marking in a prominent manner all those areas of the waters of the sounds and their tributaries of the State in which the use of any or all fishing appliances are prohibited by law; and the Secretary of Commerce is hereby authorized and directed to furnish to the officers, experts, and employees of said services so detailed as aforesaid such instruments, appliances, and steam launches as may be necessary to make the survey aforesaid; and the Secretary of Commerce is hereby authorized to have made in the Coast and Geodetic Survey all the plats necessary to show the results of the aforesaid survey, and to furnish to the fish commissioner of the State of North Carolina such copies as may be necessary for his use, and for this purpose to employ in the District of Columbia and elsewhere such technically qualified persons as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. (Mar. 4, 1909, ch. 313, § 1, 35 Stat. 1064; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; Reorg. Plan No. II, § 4 (e), eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2731, 53 Stat. 1433; Reorg. Plan No. III, § 3, eff. June 30, 1940, 5 Fed. Reg. 2108, 54 Stat. 1232.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Reorg. Plan No. II, § 4 (e), cited to text, transferred the Bureau of Fisheries and its functions to the Department of the Interior to be administered under direction and supervision of the Secretary of the Interior.

CONSOLIDATION OF BUREAUS

Reorg. Plan No. III, § 3, cited to text, consolidated the Bureau of Fisheries with the Bureau of Biological Survey into Fish and Wildlife Service in the Department of the Interior, and abolished the offices of Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner of Fisheries.

§ 890. Marking triangulation points of North Carolina survey.

The Secretary of Commerce is further authorized to have erected or constructed by the officers detailed as provided in section 889 of this title, while making said survey, such structures as may be necessary to mark in a prominent and satisfactory manner the points of triangulation so that the same may be used for such future work of the Coast and Geodetic Survey as the said Coast and Geodetic Survey may be hereafter required to perform in prosecuting the Government coast survey of the navigable waters of the United States located within the State of North Carolina. (Mar. 4, 1909, ch. 313, § 2, 35 Stat. 1065; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

§ 901. Short title.

This chapter may be cited as "Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act." (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 1, 44 Stat. 1424.)

§ 902. Definitions.

When used in this chapter—

(1) The term "person" means individual, partnership, corporation, or association.

(2) The term "injury" means accidental injury or death arising out of and in the course of employment, and such occupational disease or infection as arises naturally out of such employment or as naturally or unavoidably results from such accidental injury, and includes an injury caused by the willful act of a third person directed against an employee because of his employment.

(3) The term "employee" does not include a master or member of a crew of any vessel, nor any person engaged by the master to load or unload or repair any small vessel under eighteen tons net.

(4) The term "employer" means an employer any of whose employees are employed in maritime employment, in whole or in part, upon the navigable waters of the United States (including any dry dock).

(5) The term "carrier" means any person or fund authorized under section 932 of this title to insure under this chapter and includes self-insurers.

(6) The term "commission" means the United States Employees' Compensation Commission.

(7) The term "deputy commissioner" means the deputy commissioner having jurisdiction in respect of an injury or death.

(8) The term "State" includes a Territory and the District of Columbia.

(9) The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense means the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia, including the territorial waters thereof.

(10) "Disability" means incapacity because of injury to earn the wages which the employee was receiving at the time of injury in the same or any other employment.

(11) "Death" as a basis for a right to compensation means only death resulting from an injury.

(12) "Compensation" means the money allowance payable to an employee or to his dependents as provided for in this chapter, and includes funeral benefits provided therein.

(13) "Wages" means the money rate at which the service rendered is recompensed under the contract of hiring in force at the time of the injury, including the reasonable value of board, rent, housing, lodging, or similar advantage received from the employer, and gratuities received in the course of employment from others than the employer.

(14) "Child" shall include a posthumous child, a child legally adopted prior to the injury of the employee, a child in relation to whom the deceased employee stood in loco parentis for at least one year prior to the time of injury, and a stepchild or acknowledged illegitimate child dependent upon the deceased, but does not include married children unless wholly dependent on him. "Grandchild" means a child as above defined or a child as above defined. "Brother" and "sister" include stepbrothers and stepsisters, half brothers and half sisters, and brothers and sisters by adoption, but does not include married brothers nor married sisters unless wholly dependent on the employee. "Child", "grandchild", "brother", and "sister" include only persons who are under eighteen years of age, and also persons who, though eighteen years of age or over, are wholly dependent upon the deceased employee and incapable of self-support by reason of mental or physical disability.

(15) The term "parent" includes step-parents and parents by adoption, parents-in-law, and any person who for more than three years prior to the death of the deceased employee stood in the place of a parent to him, if dependent on the injured employee.

(16) The term "widow" includes only the decedent's wife living with or dependent for support upon him at the time of his death; or living apart for justifiable cause or by reason of his desertion at such time.

(17) The term "widower" includes only the decedent's husband who at the time of her death lived with her and was dependent for support upon her.

(18) The terms "adoption" or "adopted" mean legal adoption prior to the time of the injury.

(19) The singular includes the plural and the masculine includes the feminine and neuter. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 2, 44 Stat. 1424; June 25, 1938, ch. 685, § 1, 52 Stat. 1164.)

§ 903. Coverage.

(a) Compensation shall be payable under this chapter in respect of disability or death of an employee, but only if the disability or death results from an injury occurring upon the navigable waters of the United States (including any dry dock) and if recovery for the disability or death through workmen's compensation proceedings may not validly be provided by State law. No compensation shall be payable in respect of the disability or death of—

(1) A master or member of a crew of any vessel, nor any person engaged by the master to load or unload or repair any small vessel under eighteen tons net; or

(2) An officer or employee of the United States or any agency thereof or of any State or foreign government, or of any political subdivision thereof.

(b) No compensation shall be payable if the injury was occasioned solely by the intoxication of the employee or by the willful intention of the employee to injure or kill himself or another. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 3, 44 Stat. 1426.)

§ 904. Liability for compensation.

(a) Every employer shall be liable for and shall secure the payment to his employees of the compensation payable under sections 907, 908, and 909 of this title. In the case of an employer who is a subcontractor, the contractor shall be liable for and shall secure the payment of such compensation to employees of the subcontractor unless the subcontractor has secured such payment.

(b) Compensation shall be payable irrespective of fault as a cause for the injury. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 4, 44 Stat. 1426.)

§ 905. Exclusiveness of liability.

The liability of an employer prescribed in section 904 of this title shall be exclusive and in place of all other liability of such employer to the employee, his legal representative, husband or wife, parents, dependents, next of kin, and anyone otherwise entitled to recover damages from such employer at law or in admiralty on account of such injury or death, except that if an employer fails to secure payment of compensation as required by this chapter, an injured employee, or his legal representative in case death results from the injury, may elect to claim compensation under this chapter, or to maintain an action at law or in admiralty for damages on account of such injury or death. In such action the defendant may not plead as a defense that the injury was caused by the negligence of a fellow servant, nor that the employee assumed the risk of his employment, nor that the injury was due to the contributory negligence of the employee. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 5, 44 Stat. 1426.)

§ 906. Time for commencement of compensation.

(a) No compensation shall be allowed for the first seven days of the disability, except the benefits provided for in section 907 of this title: Provided, however, That in case the injury results in disability of more than forty-nine days, the compensation shall be allowed from the date of the disability.

(b) Compensation for disability shall not exceed $25 per week nor be less than $8 per week: Provided, however, That if the employee's wages at the time of injury are less than $8 per week he shall receive his full weekly wages. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 6, 44 Stat. 1426.)

§ 907. Medical services and supplies.

(a) The employer shall furnish such medical, surgical, and other attendance or treatment, nurse and hospital service, medicine, crutches, and apparatus for such period as the nature of the injury or the process of recovery may require. If the employer fails to provide the same, after request by the injured employee, such injured employee may do so at the expense of the employer. The employee shall not be entitled to recover any amount expended by him for such treatment or services unless he shall have requested the employer to furnish the same and the employer shall have refused or neglected to do so, or unless the nature of the injury required such treatment and services and the employer or his superintendent or foreman having knowledge of such injury shall have neglected to provide the same; nor shall any claim for medical or surgical treatment be valid and enforceable, as against such employer, unless within twenty days following the first treatment the physician giving such treatment furnish to the employer and the deputy commissioner a report of such injury and treatment, on a form prescribed by the Commission. The deputy commissioner may, however, excuse the failure to furnish such report within twenty days when he finds it to be in the interest of justice to do so, and he may, upon application by a party in interest, make an award for the reasonable value of such medical or surgical treatment so obtained by the employee. If at any time during such period the employee unreasonably refuses to submit to medical or surgical treatment, the deputy commissioner may, by order, suspend the payment of further compensation during such time as such refusal continues, and no compensation shall be paid at any time during the period of such suspension, unless the circumstances justified the refusal.

(b) Whenever in the opinion of the deputy commissioner a physician has not impartially estimated the degree of permanent disability or the extent of temporary disability of any injured employee, the deputy commissioner shall have the power to cause such employee to be examined by a physician selected by the deputy commissioner and to obtain from such physician a report containing his estimate of such disabilities. If the report of such physician shows that the estimate of the physician has not been impartial from the standpoint of such employee, the deputy commissioner shall have the power in his discretion to charge the cost of such examination to the employer, if he is a self-insurer, or to the insurance company which is carrying the risk.

(c) All fees and other charges for such treatment or service shall be limited to such charges as prevail in the same community for similar treatment of injured persons of like standard of living, and shall be subject to regulation by the deputy commissioner.

(d) The liability of an employer for medical treatment as provided in this section shall not be affected by the fact that his employee was injured through the fault or negligence of a third party, not in the same employ, unless and until notice of election to sue has been given as required by section 933 (a) or suit has been brought against such third party without the giving of such notice. The employer shall, however, have a cause of action against such third party to recover any amounts paid by him for such medical treatment in like manner as provided in section 933 (b) of this chapter. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 7, 44 Stat. 1427; May 26, 1934, ch. 354, § 1, 48 Stat. 806; June 25, 1938, ch. 685, §§ 2, 3, 52 Stat. 1165.)

§ 908. Compensation for disability.

Compensation for disability shall be paid to the employee as follows:

(a) Permanent total disability: In case of total disability adjudged to be permanent 66⅔ per centum of the average weekly wages shall be paid to the employee during the continuance of such total disability. Loss of both hands, or both arms, or both feet, or both legs, or both eyes, or of any two thereof shall, in the absence of conclusive proof to the contrary, constitute permanent total disability. In all other cases permanent total disability shall be determined in accordance with the facts.

(b) Temporary total disability: In case of disability total in character but temporary in quality 66⅔ per centum of the average weekly wages shall be paid to the employee during the continuance thereof.

(c) Permanent partial disability: In case of disability partial in character but permanent in quality, the compensation shall be 66⅔ per centum of the average weekly wages, which shall be in addition to compensation for temporary total disability paid in accordance with subdivision (b) of this section, and shall be paid to the employee, as follows:

(1) Arm lost, two hundred and eighty weeks' compensation.

(2) Leg lost, two hundred and forty-eight weeks' compensation.

(3) Hand lost, two hundred and twelve weeks' compensation.

(4) Foot lost, one hundred and seventy-three weeks' compensation.

(5) Eye lost, one hundred and forty weeks' compensation.

(6) Thumb lost, fifty-one weeks' compensation.

(7) First finger lost, twenty-eight weeks' compensation.

(8) Great toe lost, twenty-six weeks' compensation.

(9) Second finger lost, eighteen weeks' compensation.

(10) Third finger lost, seventeen weeks' compensation.

(11) Toe other than great toe lost, eight weeks' compensation.

(12) Fourth finger lost, seven weeks' compensation.

(13) Loss of hearing: Compensation for loss of hearing of one ear, fifty-two weeks. Compensation for loss of hearing of both ears, two hundred weeks.

(14) Phalanges: Compensation for loss of more than one phalange of a digit shall be the same as for loss of the entire digit. Compensation for loss of the first phalange shall be one-half of the compensation for loss of the entire digit.

(15) Amputated arm or leg: Compensation for an arm or a leg, if amputated at or above the elbow or the knee, shall be the same as for a loss of the arm or leg; but, if amputated between the elbow and the wrist or the knee and the ankle, shall be the same as for loss of a hand or foot.

(16) Binocular vision or per centum of vision: Compensation for loss of binocular vision or for 80 per centum or more of the vision of an eye shall be the same as for loss of the eye.

(17) Two or more digits: Compensation for loss of two or more digits, or one or more phalanges of two or more digits, of a hand or foot may be proportioned to the loss of use of the hand or foot occasioned thereby, but shall not exceed the compensation for loss of a hand or foot.

(18) Total loss of use: Compensation for permanent total loss of use of a member shall be the same as for loss of the member.

(19) Partial loss or partial loss of use: Compensation for permanent partial loss or loss of use of a member may be for proportionate loss or loss of use of the member.

(20) Disfigurement: The deputy commissioner shall award proper and equitable compensation for serious facial or head disfigurement, not to exceed $3,500.

(21) Other cases: In all other cases in this class of disability the compensation shall be 66⅔ per centum of the difference between his average weekly wages and his wage-earning capacity thereafter in the same employment or otherwise, payable during the continuance of such partial disability, but subject to reconsideration of the degree of such impairment by the deputy commissioner on his own motion or upon application of any party in interest.

(22) In any case in which there shall be a loss of, or loss of use of, more than one member or parts of more than one member set forth in paragraphs (1) to (19) of this subdivision, not amounting to permanent total disability, the award of compensation shall be for the loss of, or loss of use of, each such member or part thereof, which awards shall run consecutively, except that where the injury affects only two or more digits of the same hand or foot, paragraph (17) of this subdivision shall apply.

(d) Any compensation to which any claimant would be entitled under subdivision (c) excepting subdivision (c-21) shall, notwithstanding death arising from causes other than the injury, be payable to and for the benefit of the persons following:

(1) If there be a surviving wife or dependent husband and no child of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, to such wife or dependent husband.

(2) If there be a surviving wife or dependent husband and surviving child or children of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, one-half shall be payable to the surviving wife or dependent husband and the other half to the surviving child or children.

(3) The deputy commissioner may in his discretion require the appointment of a guardian for the purpose of receiving the compensation of the minor child. In the absence of such a requirement the appointment for such a purpose shall not be necessary.

(4) If there be a surviving child or children of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, but no surviving wife or dependent husband, then to such child or children.

(5) An award for disability may be made after the death of the injured employee.

(e) Temporary partial disability: In case of temporary partial disability resulting in decrease of earning capacity the compensation shall be two-thirds of the difference between the injured employee's average weekly wages before the injury and his wage-earning capacity after the injury in the same or another employment, to be paid during the continuance of such disability, but shall not be paid for a period exceeding five years.

(f) Injury increasing disability: (1) If an employee receive an injury which of itself would only cause permanent partial disability but which, combined with a previous disability, does in fact cause permanent total disability, the employer shall provide compensation only for the disability caused by the subsequent injury: Provided, however, That in addition to compensation for such permanent partial disability, and after the cessation of the payments for the prescribed period of weeks, the employee shall be paid the remainder of the compensation that would be due for permanent total disability. Such additional compensation shall be paid out of the special fund established in section 944 of this title.

(2) In all other cases in which, following a previous disability, an employee receives an injury which is not covered by (1) of this subdivision, the employer shall provide compensation only for the disability caused by the subsequent injury. In determining compensation for the subsequent injury or for death resulting therefrom, the average weekly wages shall be such sum as will reasonably represent the earning capacity of the employee at the time of the subsequent injury.

(g) Maintenance for employees undergoing vocational rehabilitation: An employee who as a result of injury is or may be expected to be totally or partially incapacitated for a remunerative occupation and who, under the direction of the commission as provided by section 939 (c) of this title, is being rendered fit to engage in a remunerative occupation, shall receive additional compensation necessary for his maintenance, but such additional compensation shall not exceed $10 a week. The expense shall be paid out of the special fund established in section 944 of this title.

(h) The wage-earning capacity of an injured employee in cases of partial disability under subdivision (c) (21) of this section or under subdivision (e) of this section shall be determined by his actual earnings if such actual earnings fairly and reasonably represent his wage-earning capacity: Provided, however, That if the employee has no actual earnings or his actual earnings do not fairly and reasonably represent his wage-earning capacity, the deputy commissioner may, in the interest of justice, fix such wage-earning capacity as shall be reasonable, having due regard to the nature of his injury, the degree of physical impairment, his usual employment, and any other factors or circumstances in the case which may affect his capacity to earn wages in his disabled condition, including the effect of disability as it may naturally extend into the future.

(i) In cases under subdivision (c) (21) and subdivision (e) of this section, whenever the deputy commissioner determines that it is for the best interests of an injured employee entitled to compensation, he may, with the approval of the Commission, approve agreed settlements of the interested parties, discharging the liability of the employer for such compensation, notwithstanding the provisions of section 915 (b) and section 916 of this title: Provided, That the sum so agreed upon shall be payable in installments as provided in section 914 (b) of this title, which installments shall be subject to commutation under section 914 (j) of this title: And provided further, That if the employee should die from causes other than the injury after the Commission has approved an agreed settlement as provided for in this chapter, the sum so approved shall be payable, in the manner prescribed in this subdivision, to and for the benefit of the persons enumerated in subdivision (d) of this section. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 8, 44 Stat. 1427; May 26, 1934, ch. 354, §§ 2, 3, 48 Stat. 806; June 25, 1938, ch. 685, §§ 4, 5, 52 Stat. 1165.)

§ 909. Compensation for death.

If the injury causes death, the compensation shall be known as a death benefit and shall be payable in the amount and to or for the benefit of the persons following:

(a) Reasonable funeral expenses not exceeding $200.

(b) If there be a surviving wife or dependent husband and no child of the deceased, to such wife or dependent husband 35 per centum of the average wages of the deceased, during widowhood, or dependent widowerhood, with two years' compensation in one sum upon remarriage; and if there be a surviving child or children of the deceased, the additional amount of 10 per centum of such wages for each such child; in case of the death or remarriage of such surviving wife or dependent husband, any surviving child of the deceased employee shall have his compensation increased to 15 per centum of such wages: Provided, That the total amount payable shall in no case exceed 66⅔ per centum of such wages. The deputy commissioner having jurisdiction over the claim may, in his discretion, require the appointment of a guardian for the purpose of receiving the compensation of a minor child. In the absence of such a requirement the appointment of a guardian for such purposes shall not be necessary.

(c) If there be a surviving child or children of the deceased, but no surviving wife or dependent husband, then for the support of each such child 15 per centum of the wages of the deceased: Provided, That the aggregate shall in no case exceed 66⅔ per centum of such wages.

(d) If there be no surviving wife or dependent husband or child or if the amount payable to a surviving wife or dependent husband and to children shall be less in the aggregate than 66⅔ per centum of the average wages of the deceased; then for the support of grandchildren or brothers and sisters, if dependent upon the deceased at the time of the injury, 15 per centum of such wages for the support of each such person and for the support of each parent, or grandparent, of the deceased if dependent upon him at the time of the injury, 25 per centum of such wages during such dependency. But in no case shall the aggregate amount payable under this subdivision exceed the difference between 66⅔ per centum of such wages and the amount payable as hereinbefore provided to surviving wife or dependent husband and for the support of surviving child or children.

(e) In computing death benefits the average weekly wages of the deceased shall be considered to have been not more than $37.50 nor less than $12, but the total weekly compensation shall not exceed the weekly wages of the deceased.

(f) All questions of dependency shall be determined as of the time of the injury.

(g) Aliens: Compensation under this chapter to aliens not residents (or about to become nonresidents) of the United States or Canada shall be the same in amount as provided for residents, except that dependents in any foreign country shall be limited to surviving wife and child or children, or if there be no surviving wife or child or children, to surviving father or mother whom the employee has supported, either wholly or in part, for the period of one year prior to the date of the injury, and except that the commission may, at its option or upon the application of the insurance carrier shall, commute all future installments of compensation to be paid to such aliens by paying or causing to be paid to them one-half of the commuted amount of such future installments of compensation as determined by the commission. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 9, 44 Stat. 1429; June 25, 1938, ch. 685, § 6, 52 Stat. 1166.)

§ 910. Determination of pay.

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the average weekly wage of the injured employee at the time of the injury shall be taken as the basis upon which to compute compensation and shall be determined as follows:

(a) If the injured employee shall have worked in the employment in which he was working at the time of the injury, whether for the same or another employer, during substantially the whole of the year immediately preceding his injury, his average annual earnings shall consist of three hundred times the average daily wage or salary which he shall have earned in such employment during the days when so employed.

(b) If the injured employee shall not have worked in such employment during substantially the whole of such year, his average annual earnings shall consist of three hundred times the average daily wage or salary which an employee of the same class working substantially the whole of such immediately preceding year in the same or in similar employment in the same or a neighboring place shall have earned in such employment during the days when so employed.

(c) If either of the foregoing methods of arriving at the annual average earnings of an injured employee cannot reasonably and fairly be applied, such annual earnings shall be such sum as, having regard to the previous earnings of the injured employee and of other employees of the same or most similar class, working in the same or most similar employment in the same or neighboring locality, shall reasonably represent the annual earning capacity of the injured employee in the employment in which he was working at the time of the injury.

(d) The average weekly wages of an employee shall be one fifty-second part of his average annual earnings.

(e) If it be established that the injured employee was a minor when injured, and that under normal conditions his wages should be expected to increase during the period of disability the fact may be considered in arriving at his average weekly wages. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 10, 44 Stat. 1431.)

§ 911. Guardian for minor or incompetent.

The deputy commissioner may require the appointment by a court of competent jurisdiction, for any person who is mentally incompetent or a minor, of a guardian or other representative to receive compensation payable to such person under this chapter and to exercise the powers granted to or to perform the duties required of such person under this chapter. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 11, 44 Stat. 1431.)

§ 912. Notice of injury or death.

(a) Notice of an injury or death in respect of which compensation is payable under this chapter shall be given within thirty days after the date of such injury or death (1) to the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which such injury occurred and (2) to the employer.

(b) Such notice shall be in writing, shall contain the name and address of the employee and a statement of the time, place, nature, and cause of the injury or death, and shall be signed by the employee or by some person on his behalf, or in case of death, by any person claiming to be entitled to compensation for such death or by a person on his behalf.

(c) Notice shall be given to the deputy commissioner by delivering it to him or sending it by mail addressed to his office, and to the employer by delivering it to him or by sending it by mail addressed to him at his last known place of business. If the employer is a partnership, such notice may be given to any partner, or if a corporation, such notice may be given to any agent or officer thereof upon whom legal process may be served or who is in charge of the business in the place where the injury occurred.

(d) Failure to give such notice shall not bar any claim under this chapter (1) if the employer (or his agent in charge of the business in the place where the injury occurred) or the carrier had knowledge of the injury or death and the deputy commissioner determines that the employer or carrier has not been prejudiced by failure to give such notice, or (2) if the deputy commissioner excuses such failure on the ground that for some satisfactory reason such notice could not be given; nor unless objection to such failure is raised before the deputy commissioner at the first hearing of a claim for compensation in respect of such injury or death. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 12, 44 Stat. 1431.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Report of injury or death to commission, see section 930 of this title.

§ 913. Time for filing of claims.

(a) The right to compensation for disability under this chapter shall be barred unless a claim therefor is filed within one year after the injury, and the right to compensation for death shall be barred unless a claim therefor is filed within one year after the death, except that if payment of compensation has been made without an award on account of such injury or death a claim may be filed within one year after the date of the last payment. Such claim shall be filed with the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which such injury or such death occurred.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) failure to file a claim within the period prescribed in such subdivision shall not be a bar to such right unless objection to such failure is made at the first hearing of such claim in which all parties in interest are given reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard.

or other authorized representative, but shall be applicable in the case of a person who is mentally incompetent or a minor from the date of appointment of such guardian or other representative, or in the case of a minor, if no guardian is appointed before he becomes of age, from the date he becomes of age.

(d) Where recovery is denied to any person, in a suit brought at law or in admiralty to recover damages in respect of injury or death, on the ground that such person was an employee and that the defendant was an employer within the meaning of this chapter and that such employer had secured compensation to such employee under this chapter, the limitation of time prescribed in subdivision (a) shall begin to run only from the date of termination of such suit. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 13, 44 Stat. 1432.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Report of injury or death to Commission, see section 930 of this title.

§ 914. Payment of compensation.

(a) Compensation under this chapter shall be paid periodically, promptly, and directly to the person entitled thereto, without an award, except where liability to pay compensation is controverted by the employer.

(b) The first installment of compensation shall become due on the fourteenth day after the employer has knowledge of the injury or death, on which date all compensation then due shall be paid. Thereafter compensation shall be paid in installments, semimonthly, except where the deputy commissioner determines that payment in installments should be made monthly or at some other period.

(c) Upon making the first payment, and upon suspension of payment for any cause, the employer shall immediately notify the deputy commissioner, in accordance with a form prescribed by the commission, that payment of compensation has begun or has been suspended, as the case may be.

(d) If the employer controverts the right to compensation he shall file with the deputy commissioner on or before the fourteenth day after he has knowledge of the alleged injury or death, a notice, in accordance with a form prescribed by the commission, stating that the right to compensation is controverted, the name of the claimant, the name of the employer, the date of the alleged injury or death, and the grounds upon which the right to compensation is controverted.

(e) If any installment of compensation payable without an award is not paid within fourteen days after it becomes due, as provided in subdivision (b) of this section, there shall be added to such unpaid installment an amount equal to 10 per centum thereof, which shall be paid at the same time as, but in addition to, such installment, unless notice is filed under subdivision (d) of this section, or unless such nonpayment is excused by the deputy commissioner after a showing by the employer that owing to conditions over which he had no control such installment could not be paid within the period prescribed for the payment.

(f) If any compensation, payable under the terms of an award, is not paid within ten days after it becomes due, there shall be added to such unpaid compensation an amount equal to 20 per centum thereof, which shall be paid at the same time as, but in addition to, such compensation, unless review of the compensation order making such award is had as provided in section 921 of this title and an interlocutory injunction staying payments is allowed by the court as provided therein.

(g) Within sixteen days after final payment of compensation has been made, the employer shall send to the deputy commissioner a notice, in accordance with a form prescribed by the commission, stating that such final payment has been made, the total amount of compensation paid, the name of the employee and of any other person to whom compensation has been paid, the date of the injury or death, and the date to which compensation has been paid. If the employer fails to so notify the deputy commissioner within such time the commission shall assess against such employer a civil penalty in the amount of $100.

(h) The deputy commissioner (1) may upon his own initiative at any time in a case in which payments are being made without an award, and (2) shall in any case where right to compensation is controverted, or where payments of compensation have been stopped or suspended, upon receipt of notice from any person entitled to compensation, or from the employer, that the right to compensation is controverted, or that payments of compensation have been stopped or suspended, make such investigations, cause such medical examinations to be made, or hold such hearings, and take such further action as he considers will properly protect the rights of all parties.

(i) Whenever the deputy commissioner deems it advisable he may require any employer to make a deposit with the Treasurer of the United States to secure the prompt and convenient payment of such compensation, and payments therefrom upon any awards shall be made upon order of the deputy commissioner.

(j) Whenever the deputy commissioner determines that it is in the interest of justice, the liability of the employer for compensation, or any part thereof as determined by the deputy commissioner with the approval of the Commission, may be discharged by the payment of a lump sum equal to the present value of future compensation payments commuted, computed at 4 per centum true discount compounded annually. The probability of the death of the injured employee or other person entitled to compensation before the expiration of the period during which he is entitled to compensation shall be determined in accordance with the American Experience Table of Mortality, and the probability of the remarriage of the surviving wife shall be determined in accordance with the remarriage tables of the Dutch Royal Insurance Institution. The probability of the happening of any other contingency affecting the amount or duration of the compensation shall be disregarded.

(k) If the employer has made advance payments of compensation, he shall be entitled to be reimbursed out of any unpaid installment or installments of compensation due.

(l) An injured employee, or in case of death his dependents or personal representative, shall give receipts for payment of compensation to the employer paying the same and such employer shall produce the same for inspection by the deputy commissioner, whenever required.

(m) The total compensation payable under this chapter for injury or death shall in no event exceed the sum of $7,500. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 14, 44 Stat. 1432; May 26, 1934, ch. 354, § 4, 48 Stat. 807; June 25, 1938, ch. 685, § 7, 52 Stat. 1167.)

§ 915. Invalid agreements.

(a) No agreement by an employee to pay any portion of premium paid by his employer to a carrier or to contribute to a benefit fund or department maintained by such employer for the purpose of providing compensation or medical services and supplies as required by this chapter shall be valid, and any employer who makes a deduction for such purpose from the pay of any employee entitled to the benefits of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000.

(b) No agreement by an employee to waive his right to compensation under this chapter shall be valid. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 15, 44 Stat. 1434.)

§ 916. Assignment and exemption from claims of creditors.

No assignment, release, or commutation of compensation or benefits due or payable under this chapter, except as provided by this chapter, shall be valid, and such compensation and benefits shall be exempt from all claims of creditors and from levy, execution, and attachment or other remedy for recovery or collection of a debt, which exemption may not be waived. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 16, 44 Stat. 1434.)

§ 917. Compensation a lien against assets.

Any person entitled to compensation under the provisions of this chapter shall have a lien against the assets of the carrier or employer for such compensation without limit of amount, and shall, upon insolvency, bankruptcy, or reorganization in bankruptcy proceedings of the carrier or employer, or both, be entitled to preference and priority in the distribution of the assets of such carrier or employer, or both. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 17, 44 Stat. 1434; June 25, 1938, ch. 685, § 8, 52 Stat. 1167.)

§ 918. Collection of defaulted payments.

In case of default by the employer in the payment of compensation due under any award of compensation for a period of thirty days after the compensation is due and payable, the person to whom such compensation is payable may, within one year after such default, make application to the deputy commissioner making the compensation order or a supplementary order declaring the amount of the default. After investigation, notice, and hearing, as provided in section 919 of this title, the deputy commissioner shall make a supplementary order, declaring the amount of the default, which shall be filed in the same manner as the compensation order. In case the payment in default is an installment of the award, the deputy commissioner may, in his discretion, declare the whole of the award as the amount in default. The applicant may file a certified copy of such supplementary order with the clerk of the Federal district court for the judicial district in which the employer has his principal place of business or maintains an office, or for the judicial district in which the injury occurred. In case such principal place of business or office or place where the injury occurred is in the District of Columbia, a copy of such supplementary order may be filed with the clerk of the district court of the United States for the District of Columbia. Such supplementary order of the deputy commissioner shall be final, and the court shall, upon the filing of the copy, enter judgment for the amount declared in default by the supplementary order if such supplementary order is in accordance with law. Review of the judgment so entered may be had as in civil suits for damages at common law. Final proceedings to execute the judgment may be had by writ of execution in the form used by the court in suits at common law in actions of assumpsit. No fee shall be required for filing the supplementary order nor for entry of judgment thereon, and the applicant shall not be liable for costs in a proceeding for review of the judgment unless the court shall otherwise direct. The court shall modify such judgment to conform to any later compensation order upon presentation of a certified copy thereof to the court. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 18, 44 Stat. 1434; June 25, 1936, ch. 804, 49 Stat. 1921.)

Execution, see Rule 69, following section 723c of Title 28, Judicial Code and Judiciary.

§ 919. Procedure in respect of claims.

(a) Subject to the provisions of section 913 of this title a claim for compensation may be filed with the deputy commissioner in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commission at any time after the first seven days of disability following any injury, or at any time after death, and the deputy commissioner shall have full power and authority to hear and determine all questions in respect of such claim.

(b) Within ten days after such claim is filed the deputy commissioner, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commission, shall notify the employer and any other person (other than the claimant), whom the deputy commissioner considers an interested party, that a claim has been filed. Such notice may be served personally upon the employer or other person, or sent to such employer or person by registered mail.

(c) The deputy commissioner shall make or cause to be made such investigations as he considers necessary in respect of the claim, and upon application of any interested party shall order a hearing thereon. If a hearing on such claim is ordered the deputy commissioner shall give the claimant and other interested parties at least ten days' notice of such hearing, served personally upon the claimant and other interested parties or sent to such claimant and other interested parties by registered mail, and shall within twenty days after such hearing is had, by order, reject the claim or make an award in respect of the claim. If no hearing is ordered within twenty days after notice is given as provided in subdivision (b), the deputy commissioner shall, by order, reject the claim or make an award in respect of the claim.

(d) At such hearing the claimant and the employer may each present evidence in respect of such claim and may be represented by any person authorized in writing for such purpose.

(e) The order rejecting the claim or making the award (referred to in this chapter as a compensation order) shall be filed in the office of the deputy commissioner, and a copy thereof shall be sent by registered mail to the claimant and to the employer at the last known address of each.

(f) An award of compensation for disability may be made after the death of an injured employee.

(g) At any time after a claim has been filed with him, the deputy commissioner may, with the approval of the Commission, transfer such case to any other deputy commissioner for the purpose of making investigation, taking testimony, making physical examinations or taking such other necessary action therein as may be directed.

(h) An injured employee claiming or entitled to compensation shall submit to such physical examination by a medical officer of the United States or by a duly qualified physician designated or approved by the commission as the deputy commissioner may require. The place or places shall be reasonably convenient for the employee. Such physician or physicians as the employee, employer, or carrier may select and pay for may participate in an examination if the employee, employer, or carrier so requests. Proceedings shall be suspended and no compensation be payable for any period during which the employee may refuse to submit to examination. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 19, 44 Stat. 1435; June 25, 1938, ch. 685, § 9, 52 Stat. 1167.)

§ 920. Presumptions.

In any proceeding for the enforcement of a claim for compensation under this chapter it shall be presumed, in the absence of substantial evidence to the contrary—

(a) That the claim comes within the provisions of this chapter.

(b) That sufficient notice of such claim has been given.

(c) That the injury was not occasioned solely by the intoxication of the injured employee.

(d) That the injury was not occasioned by the willful intention of the injured employee to injure or kill himself or another. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 20, 44 Stat. 1436.)

§ 921. Review of compensation orders.

(a) A compensation order shall become effective when filed in the office of the deputy commissioner as provided in section 919 of this title, and, unless proceedings for the suspension or setting aside of such order are instituted as provided in subdivision (b) of this section, shall become final at the expiration of the thirtieth day thereafter.

(b) If not in accordance with law, a compensation order may be suspended or set aside, in whole or in part, through injunction proceedings, mandatory or otherwise, brought by any party in interest against the deputy commissioner making the order, and instituted in the Federal district court for the judicial district in which the injury occurred (or in the district court of the United States for the District of Columbia if the injury occurred in the District). The orders, writs, and processes of the court in such proceedings may run, be served, and be returnable anywhere in the United States. The payment of the amounts required by an award shall not be stayed pending final decision in any such proceeding unless upon application for an interlocutory injunction the court, on hearing, after not less than three days' notice to the parties in interest and the deputy commissioner, allows the stay of such payments, in whole or in part, where irreparable damage would otherwise ensue to the employer. The order of the court allowing any such stay shall contain a specific finding, based upon evidence submitted to the court and identified by reference thereto, that such irreparable damage would result to the employer, and specifying the nature of the damage.

(c) If any employer or his officers or agents fails to comply with a compensation order making an award, that has become final, any beneficiary of such award or the deputy commissioner making the order, may apply for the enforcement of the order to the Federal district court for the judicial district in which the injury occurred (or to the district court of the United States for the District of Columbia if the injury occurred in the District). If the court determines that the order was made and served in accordance with law, and that such employer or his officers or agents have failed to comply therewith, the court shall enforce obedience to the order by writ of injunction or by other proper process, mandatory or otherwise, to enjoin upon such person and his officers and agents compliance with the order.

(d) Proceedings for suspending, setting aside, or enforcing a compensation order, whether rejecting a claim or making an award, shall not be instituted otherwise than as provided in this section and section 918 of this title. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 21, 44 Stat. 1436; June 25, 1936, ch. 804, 49 Stat. 1921.)

CHANGE OF NAME

Redesignation of Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, see note to section 918 of this title.

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Application, see Rule 81, following section 723c of Title 28, Judicial Code and Judiciary.

§ 921a. Appearance of United States district attorney for Commission or deputy commissioner.

In any court proceedings under section 921 of this title or other provisions of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the district attorney of the United States in the judicial district in which the case is pending to appear as attorney or counsel on behalf of the United States Employees' Compensation Commission or its deputy commissioner when either is a party to the case or interested, and to represent such commission or deputy in any court in which such case may be carried on appeal. (May 4, 1928, ch. 502, 45 Stat. 490.)

§ 922. Modification of awards.

Upon his own initiative, or upon the application of any party in interest, on the ground of a change in conditions or because of a mistake in a determination of fact by the deputy commissioner, the deputy commissioner may, at any time prior to one year after the date of the last payment of compensation, whether or not a compensation order has been issued, or at any time prior to one year after the rejection of a claim, review a compensation case in accordance with the procedure prescribed in respect of claims in section 919 of this title, and in accordance with such section issue a new compensation order which may terminate, continue, reinstate, increase, or decrease such compensation, or award compensation. Such new order shall not affect any compensation previously paid, except that an award increasing the compensation rate may be made effective from the date of the injury, and if any part of the compensation due or to become due is unpaid, an award decreasing the compensation rate may be made effective from the date of the injury, and any payment made prior thereto in excess of such decreased rate shall be deducted from any unpaid compensation, in such manner and by such method as may be determined by the deputy commissioner with the approval of the Commission. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 22, 44 Stat. 1437; May 26, 1934, ch. 354, § 5, 48 Stat. 807; June 25, 1938, ch. 685, § 10, 52 Stat. 1167.)

§ 923. Procedure before the deputy commissioner.

(a) In making an investigation or inquiry or conducting a hearing the deputy commissioner shall not be bound by common law or statutory rules of evidence or by technical or formal rules of procedure, except as provided by this chapter; but may make such investigation or inquiry or conduct such hearing in such manner as to best ascertain the rights of the parties. Declarations of a deceased employee concerning the injury in respect of which the investigation or inquiry is being made or the hearing conducted shall be received in evidence and shall, if corroborated by other evidence, be sufficient to establish the injury.

(b) Hearings before a deputy commissioner shall be open to the public and shall be stenographically reported, and the deputy commissioners, subject to the approval of the commission, are authorized to contract for the reporting of such hearings. The commission shall by regulation provide for the preparation of a record of the hearings and other proceedings before the deputy commissioners. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 23, 44 Stat. 1437.)

§ 924. Witnesses.

No person shall be required to attend as a witness in any proceeding before a deputy commissioner at a place outside of the State of his residence and more than one hundred miles from his place of residence, unless his lawful mileage and fee for one day's attendance shall be first paid or tendered to him; but the testimony of any witness may be taken by deposition or interrogatories according to the rules of practice of the Federal district court for the judicial district in which the case is pending (or of the district court of the United States for the District of Columbia if the case is pending in the District). (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 24, 44 Stat. 1437; June 25, 1936, ch. 804, 49 Stat. 1921.)

CHANGE OF NAME

Redesignation of Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, see note to section 918 of this title.

§ 925. Witness fees.

Witnesses summoned in a proceeding before a deputy commissioner or whose depositions are taken shall receive the same fees and mileage as witnesses in courts of the United States. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 25, 44 Stat. 1437.)

§ 926. Costs in proceedings brought without reasonable grounds.

If the court having jurisdiction of proceedings in respect of any claim or compensation order determines that the proceedings in respect of such claim or order have been instituted or continued without reasonable ground, the costs of such proceedings shall be assessed against the party who has so instituted or continued such proceedings. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 26, 44 Stat. 1438.)

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Continuation of section under Rule 54, see note by Advisory Committee under said Rule 54.

Judgment and costs, see Rule 54, following section 723c of Title 28, Judicial Code and Judiciary.

§ 927. Powers of deputy commissioners.

(a) The deputy commissioner shall have power to preserve and enforce order during any such proceedings; to issue subpoenas for, to administer oaths to, and to compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses, or the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence, or the taking of depositions before any designated individual competent to administer oaths; to examine witnesses; and to do all things conformable to law which may be necessary to enable him effectively<sup>1</sup> to discharge the duties of his office.

(b) If any person in proceedings before a deputy commissioner disobeys or resists any lawful order or process, or misbehaves during a hearing or so near the place thereof as to obstruct the same, or neglects to produce, after having been ordered to do so, any pertinent book, paper, or document, or refuses to appear after having been subpoenaed, or upon appearing refuses to take the oath as a witness, or after having taken the oath refuses to be examined according to law, the deputy commissioner shall certify the facts to the district court having jurisdiction in the place in which he is sitting (or to the district court of the United States for the District of Columbia if he is sitting in such District) which shall thereupon in a summary manner hear the evidence as to the acts complained of, and, if the evidence so warrants, punish such person in the same manner and to the same extent as for a contempt committed before the court, or commit such person upon the same conditions as if the doing of the forbidden act had occurred with reference to the process of or in the presence of the court. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 27, 44 Stat. 1438; June 25, 1936, ch. 804, 49 Stat. 1921.)

<sup>1</sup> So in original. Probably should read "effectively."

CHANGE IN NAME

Change of name of Supreme Court of the District of Columbia see note to section 918 of this title.

§ 928. Fees for services.

(a) No claim for legal services or for any other services rendered in respect of a claim or award for compensation, to or on account of any person, shall be valid unless approved by the deputy commissioner, or if proceedings for review of the order of the deputy commissioner in respect of such claim or award are had before any court, unless approved by such court. Any claim so approved shall, in the manner and to the extent fixed by the deputy commissioner or such court, be a lien upon such compensation.

(b) Any person (1) who receives any fee, other consideration, or any gratuity on account of services so rendered, unless such consideration or gratuity is approved by the deputy commissioner or such court, or (2) who makes it a business to solicit employment for a lawyer or for himself in respect of any claim or award for compensation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall, for each offense, be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 28, 44 Stat. 1438.)

§ 929. Record of injury or death.

Every employer shall keep a record in respect of any injury to an employee. Such record shall contain such information of disease, other disability, or death in respect of such injury as the commission may by regulation require, and shall be available to inspection by the commission or by any State authority at such times and under such conditions as the commission may by regulation prescribe. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 29, 44 Stat. 1438.)

0. Reports.

(a) Within ten days from the date of any injury or death or from the date that the employer has knowledge of a disease or infection in respect of such injury, the employer shall send to the commission a report setting forth (1) the name, address, and business of the employer; (2) the name, address, and occupation of the employee; (3) the cause and nature of the injury or death; (4) the year, month, day, and hour when and the particular locality where the injury or death occurred; and (5) such other information as the commission may require. A copy of such report shall be sent at the same time to the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which the injury occurred.

(b) Additional reports in respect of such injury and of the condition of such employee shall be sent by the employer to the commission and to such deputy commissioner at such times and in such manner as the commission may prescribe.

(c) Any report provided for in subdivision (a) or (b) shall not be evidence of any fact stated in such report in any proceeding in respect of such injury or death on account of which the report is made.

(d) The mailing of any such report and copy in a stamped envelope, within the time prescribed in subdivisions (a) or (b), to the commission and deputy commissioner, respectively, shall be a compliance with this section.

(e) Any employer who fails or refuses to send any report required of him by this section shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $500 for each such failure or refusal.

(f) Where the employer or the carrier has been given notice, or the employer (or his agent in charge of the business in the place where the injury occurred) or the carrier has knowledge, of any injury or death of an employee and fails, neglects, or refuses to file report thereof as required by the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, the limitations in subdivision (a) of section 913 of this title shall not begin to run against the claim of the injured employee or his dependents entitled to compensation, or in favor of either the employer or the carrier, until such report shall have been furnished as required by the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 30, 44 Stat. 1439; June 25, 1938, ch. 685, § 11, 52 Stat. 1167.)

§ 931. Penalty for misrepresentation.

Any person who willfully makes any false or misleading statement or representation for the purpose of obtaining any benefit or payment under this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed $1,000 or by imprisonment of not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 31, 44 Stat. 1439.)

§ 932. Security for compensation.

(a) Every employer shall secure the payment of compensation under this chapter—

(1) By insuring and keeping insured the payment of such compensation with any stock company or mutual company or association, or with any other person or fund, while such person or fund is authorized (A) under the laws of the United States or of any State, to insure workmen's compensation, and (B) by the commission, to insure payment of compensation under this chapter; or

(2) By furnishing satisfactory proof to the commission of his financial ability to pay such compensation and receiving an authorization from the commission to pay such compensation directly. The commission may, as a condition to such authorization, require such employer to deposit in a depository designated by the commission either an indemnity bond or securities (at the option of the employer) of a kind and in an amount determined by the commission, and subject to such conditions as the commission may prescribe, which shall include authorization to the commission in case of default to sell any such securities sufficient to pay compensation awards or to bring suit upon such bonds, to procure prompt payment of compensation under this chapter. Any employer securing compensation in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph shall be known as a self-insurer.

(b) In granting authorization to any carrier to insure payment of compensation under this chapter the commission may take into consideration the recommendation of any State authority having supervision over carriers or over workmen's compensation, and may authorize any carrier to insure the payment of compensation under this chapter in a limited territory. Any marine protection and indemnity mutual insurance corporation or association, authorized to write insurance against liability for loss or damage from personal injury and death, and for other losses and damages, incidental to or in respect of the ownership, operation, or chartering of vessels on a mutual assessment plan, shall be deemed a qualified carrier to insure compensation under this chapter. The commission may suspend or revoke any such authorization for good cause shown after a hearing at which the carrier shall be entitled to be heard in person or by counsel and to present evidence. No suspension or revocation shall affect the liability of any carrier already incurred. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 32, 44 Stat. 1439.)

§ 933. Compensation for injuries where third persons are liable.

(a) If on account of a disability or death for which compensation is payable under this chapter the person entitled to such compensation determines that some person other than the employer is liable in damages, he may elect, by giving notice to the deputy commissioner in such manner as the commission may provide, to receive such compensation or to recover damages against such third person.

(b) Acceptance of such compensation under an award in a compensation order filed by the deputy commissioner shall operate as an assignment to the employer of all right of the person entitled to compensation to recover damages against such third person.

(c) The payment of such compensation into the fund established in section 944 of this title shall operate as an assignment to the employer of all right of the legal representative of the deceased (hereinafter referred to as "representative") to recover damages against such third person, whether or not the representative has notified the deputy commissioner of his election.

(d) Such employer on account of such assignment may either institute proceedings for the recovery of such damages or may compromise with such third person either without or after instituting such proceeding.

(e) Any amount recovered by such employer on account of such assignment, whether or not as the result of a compromise, shall be distributed as follows:

(1) The employer shall retain an amount equal to—

(A) the expenses incurred by him in respect to such proceedings or compromise (including a reasonable attorney's fee as determined by the deputy commissioner);

(B) the cost of all benefits actually furnished by him to the employee under section 907 of this title;

(C) all amounts paid as compensation;

(D) the present value of all amounts thereafter payable as compensation, such present value to be computed in accordance with a schedule prepared by the Commission, and the present value of the cost of all benefits thereafter to be furnished under section 907 of this title, to be estimated by the deputy commissioner, and the amounts so computed and estimated to be retained by the employer as a trust fund to pay such compensation and the cost of such benefits as they become due, and to pay any sum finally remaining in excess thereof to the person entitled to compensation or to the representative; and

(2) The employer shall pay any excess to the person entitled to compensation or to the representative.

(f) If the person entitled to compensation or the representative elects to recover damages against such third person and notifies the commission of his election and institutes proceedings within the period prescribed in section 913 of this title, the employer shall be required to pay as compensation under this chapter a sum equal to the excess of the amount which the commission determines is payable on account of such injury or death over the amount recovered against such third person.

(g) If a compromise with such third person is made by the person entitled to compensation or such representative of an amount less than the compensation to which such person or representative would be entitled to under this chapter, the employer shall be liable for compensation as determined in subdivision (e) only if such compromise is made with his written approval.

(h) The deputy commissioner may, if the person entitled to compensation under this chapter is a minor, make any election required under subdivision (a) of this section, or may authorize the parent or guardian of the minor to make such election.

(i) Where the employer is insured and the insurance carrier has assumed the payment of the compensation, the insurance carrier shall be subrogated to all the rights of the employer under this section. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 33, 44 Stat. 1440; June 25, 1938, ch. 685, §§ 12, 13, 52 Stat. 1168.)

§ 934. Compensation notice.

Every employer who has secured compensation under the provisions of this chapter shall keep posted in a conspicuous place or places in and about his place or places of business typewritten or printed notices, in accordance with a form prescribed by the commission, stating that such employer has secured the payment of compensation in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Such notices shall contain the name and address of the carrier, if any, with whom the employer has secured payment of compensation and the date of the expiration of the policy. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 34, 44 Stat. 1441.)

§ 935. Substitution of carrier for employer.

In any case where the employer is not a self-insurer, in order that the liability for compensation imposed by this chapter may be most effectively discharged by the employer, and in order that the administration of this chapter in respect of such liability may be facilitated, the commission shall by regulation provide for the discharge, by the carrier for such employer, of such obligations and duties of the employer in respect of such liability, imposed by this chapter upon the employer, as it considers proper in order to effectuate the provisions of this chapter. For such purposes (1) notice to or knowledge of an employer of the occurrence of the injury shall be notice to or knowledge of the carrier, (2) jurisdiction of the employer by a deputy commissioner, the commission, or any court under this chapter shall be jurisdiction of the carrier, and (3) any requirement by a deputy commissioner, the commission, or any court under any compensation order, finding, or decision shall be binding upon the carrier in the same manner and to the same extent as upon the employer. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 35, 44 Stat. 1441.)

§ 936. Insurance policies.

(a) Every policy or contract of insurance issued under authority of this chapter shall contain (1) a provision to carry out the provisions of section 935 of this title, and (2) a provision that insolvency or bankruptcy of the employer and/or discharge therein shall not relieve the carrier from payment of compensation for disability or death sustained by an employee during the life of such policy or contract.

(b) No contract or policy of insurance issued by a carrier under this chapter shall be canceled prior to the date specified in such contract or policy for its expiration until at least thirty days have elapsed after a notice of cancellation has been sent to the deputy commissioner and to the employer in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (c) of section 912 of this title. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 36, 44 Stat. 1441.)

§ 937. Certificate of compliance with chapter.

No stevedoring firm shall be employed in any compensation district by a vessel or by hull owners until it presents to such vessel or hull owners a certificate issued by a deputy commissioner assigned to such district that it has complied with the provisions of this chapter requiring the securing of compensation to its employees. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 37, 44 Stat. 1442.)

§ 938. Penalty for failure to secure payment of compensation.

(a) Any employer required to secure the payment of compensation under this chapter who fails to secure such compensation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and in any case where such employer is a corporation, the president, secretary, and treasurer thereof shall be also severally liable to such fine or imprisonment as herein provided for the failure of such corporation to secure the payment of compensation; and such president, secretary, and treasurer shall be severally personally liable, jointly with such corporation, for any compensation or other benefit which may accrue under the said chapter in respect to any injury which may occur to any employee of such corporation while it shall so fail to secure the payment of compensation as required by section 932 of this title.

(b) Any employer who knowingly transfers, sells, encumbers, assigns, or in any manner disposes of, conceals, secretes, or destroys any property belonging to such employer, after one of his employees has been injured within the purview of this chapter, and with intent to avoid the payment of compensation under this chapter to such employee or his dependents, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and in any case where such employer is a corporation, the president, secretary, and treasurer thereof shall be also severally liable to such penalty of imprisonment as well as jointly liable with such corporation for such fine.

(c) This section shall not affect any other liability of the employer under this chapter. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 38, 44 Stat. 1442; June 25, 1938, ch. 685, § 14, 52 Stat. 1168.)

§ 939. Administration.

(a) Except as otherwise specifically provided, the United States Employees' Compensation Commission shall administer the provisions of this chapter, and for such purpose the commission is authorized (1) to make such rules and regulations; (2) to appoint and fix the compensation of such temporary technical assistants and medical advisers, and, subject to the provisions of the civil-service laws, to appoint, and, in accordance with sections 661-663, 664-673 and 674 of Title 5, to fix the compensation of such deputy commissioners (except deputy commissioners appointed under subdivision (a) of section 940 of this chapter) and other officers and employees; and (3) to make such expenditures (including expenditures for personal services and rent at the seat of government and elsewhere, for law books, books of reference, periodicals, and for printing and binding) as may be necessary in the administration of this chapter. All expenditures of the commission in the administration of this chapter shall be allowed and paid as provided in section 945 of this title upon the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the commission.

(b) The commission shall establish compensation districts, to include the high seas and the areas within the United States to which this chapter applies, and shall assign to each such district one or more deputy commissioners, as the commission deems advisable. Judicial proceedings under sections 918 and 921 of this title in respect of any injury or death occurring on the high seas shall be instituted in the district court within whose territorial jurisdiction is located the office of the deputy commissioner having jurisdiction in respect of such injury or death (or in the district court of the United States for the District of Columbia if such office is located in such District).

(c) The commission shall direct the vocational rehabilitation of permanently disabled employees and shall arrange with the appropriate public or private agencies in States or Territories, possessions, or the District of Columbia for such education. The Federal Security Agency shall cooperate with the commission in such educational work. The commission may in its discretion furnish such prosthetic appliances or other apparatus made necessary by an injury upon which an award has been made under this chapter to render a disabled employee fit to engage in a remunerative occupation. If any surplus is left in any fiscal year in the fund provided for in section 944 of this title, such surplus may be used in subsequent fiscal years for the purposes of this section except for the purposes of administration and investigation. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 39, 44 Stat. 1442; June 25, 1936, ch. 804, 49 Stat. 1921; Ex. Ord. No. 6166, § 15, June 10, 1933; Reorg. Plan No. I, §§ 201, 204, eff. July 1, 1939, 4 Fed. Reg. 2728, 53 Stat. 1424.)

CHANGES IN NAME

Change of name of Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, see note to section 918 of this title.

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Executive Order No. 6166, § 15, cited to text, transferred the functions of the Federal Board for Vocational Education to the Department of the Interior.

Reorganization Plan No. I, §§ 201, 204, cited to text, consolidated the Office of Education in the Department of the Interior and its functions, including vocational education, with other agencies under the Federal Security Agency, and provided that the Office of Education and its functions should be administered by the Commissioner of Education under the direction and supervision of the Federal Security Administrator. It was further provided that all the functions of the Secretary of the Interior relating to the administration of the Office of Education should be transferred to, and be exercised by, the Federal Security Administrator.

§ 940. Deputy commissioners.

(a) The commission may appoint as deputy commissioners any member of any board, commission, or other agency of a State to act as deputy commissioner for any compensation district or part thereof in such State, and may make arrangements with such board, commission, or other agency for the use of the personnel and facilities thereof in the administration of this chapter. The commission may make such arrangements as may be deemed advisable by it for the payment of expenses of such board, commission, or other agency, incurred in the administration of this chapter pursuant to this section, and for the payment of salaries to such board, commission, or other agency, or the members thereof, and may pay any amounts agreed upon to the proper officers of the State, upon vouchers approved by the commission.

(b) In any Territory of the United States or in the District of Columbia a person holding an office under the United States may be appointed deputy commissioner and for services rendered as deputy commissioner may be paid compensation, in addition to that he is receiving from the United States, in an amount fixed by the commission in accordance with sections 661-663, 664-673, and 674 of Title 5.

(c) Deputy commissioners (except deputy commissioners appointed under subdivision (a) of this section) may be transferred from one compensation district to another and may be temporarily detailed from one compensation district for service in another in the discretion of the commission.

(d) Each deputy commissioner shall maintain and keep open during reasonable business hours an office, at a place designated by the commission, for the transaction of business under this chapter, at which office he shall keep his official records and papers. Such office shall be furnished and equipped by the commission, who shall also furnish the deputy commissioner with all necessary clerical and other assistants, records, books, blanks, and supplies. Wherever practicable such office shall be located in a building owned or leased by the United States; otherwise the commission shall rent suitable quarters.

(e) If any deputy commissioner is removed from office, or for any reason ceases to act as such deputy commissioner, all of his official records and papers and office equipment shall be transferred to his successor in office or, if there be no successor, then to the commission or to a deputy commissioner designated by the commission.

(f) Neither a deputy commissioner nor any business associate of a deputy commissioner shall appear as attorney in any proceeding under this chapter, and no deputy commissioner shall act in any such case in which he is interested, or when he is employed by any party in interest or related to any party in interest by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, as determined by the common law. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 40, 44 Stat. 1443.)

§ 941. Investigations by the Commission.

(a) The commission shall make studies and investigations with respect to safety provisions and the causes of injuries in employments covered by this chapter, and shall from time to time make to Congress and to employers and carriers such recommendations as it may deem proper as to the best means of preventing such injuries.

(b) In making such studies and investigations the commission is authorized (1) to cooperate with any agency of the United States charged with the duty of enforcing any law securing safety against injury in any employment covered by this chapter, or with any State agency, engaged in enforcing any laws to assure safety for employees, and (2) to permit any such agency to have access to the records of the commission. In carrying out the provisions of this section the commission or any officer or employee of the commission is authorized to enter at any reasonable time upon any premises, tracks, wharf, dock, or other landing place, or upon any vessel, or to enter any building, where an employment covered by this chapter is being carried on, and to examine any tool, appliance, or machinery used in such employment. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 41, 44 Stat. 1444.)

§ 942. Traveling expenses.

The commissioners, deputy commissioners, and other employees of the commission shall be entitled to receive their necessary traveling expenses and expenses actually incurred for subsistence while traveling on official business and away from their designated stations, as provided by sections 821–823, 824–833 of Title 5. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 42, 44 Stat. 1444.)

§ 943. Annual report.

The commission shall make to Congress at the beginning of each regular session a report of the administration of this chapter for the preceding fiscal year, including a detailed statement of receipts of and expenditures from the funds established in sections 944 and 945 of this title, together with such recommendations as the commission deems advisable. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 43, 44 Stat. 1444.)

§ 944. Special fund.

(a) There is hereby established in the Treasury of the United States a special fund for the purpose of making payments in accordance with the provisions of subsections (f) and (g) of section 908 of this title. Such fund shall be administered by the commission. The Treasurer of the United States shall be the custodian of such fund, and all moneys and securities in such fund shall be held in trust by such Treasurer and shall not be money or property of the United States.

(b) The Treasurer is authorized to disburse moneys from such fund only upon order of the commission.

He shall be required to give bond in an amount to be fixed and with securities to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Comptroller General of the United States conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duty as custodian of such fund.

(c) Payments into such fund shall be made as follows:

(1) Each employer shall pay $1,000 as compensation for the death of an employee of such employer resulting from injury where the deputy commissioner determines that there is no person entitled under this chapter to compensation for such death. Fifty per centum of each such payment shall be available for the payments under subdivision (f) of section 908 of this title, and 50 per centum shall be available for payments under subdivision (g) of said section.

(2) All amounts collected as fines and penalties under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid into such fund.

(d) The Treasurer of the United States shall deposit any moneys paid into such fund into such depository banks as the commission may designate and may invest any portion of the funds which, in the opinion of the commission, is not needed for current requirements, in bonds or notes of the United States or of any Federal land bank.

(e) Neither the United States nor the commission shall be liable in respect of payments authorized under section 908 of this title in an amount greater than the money or property deposited in or belonging to such fund.

(f) The Comptroller General of the United States shall audit the account for such fund, but the action of the commission in making payments from such fund shall be final and not subject to review, and the Comptroller General is authorized and directed to allow credit in the accounts of any disbursing officer of the commission for payments made from such fund authorized by the commission.

(g) All civil penalties provided for in this chapter shall be collected by civil suit brought by the commission. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 44, 44 Stat. 1444.)

§ 945. Administration fund.

(a) There is hereby established in the Treasury of the United States a special fund for the purpose of providing for the payment of all expenses in respect of the administration of this chapter. Such fund shall be administered by the commission. The Treasurer of the United States shall be the custodian of such fund, and all moneys and securities in such fund shall be held in trust by such Treasurer and shall not be the money or property of the United States.

(b) The provisions of subdivisions (b), (d), and (f) of section 944 of this title shall be applicable to the fund hereby established. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 45, 44 Stat. 1445.)

§ 946. Appropriation.

Section, act Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 46, 44 Stat. 1445, appropriated $250,000 to be available for expenses of administration of this chapter for fiscal years ending June 30, 1927, and June 30, 1928.

§ 947. Availability of appropriations.

The expenses incurred for salaries and contingent expenses by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission in the administration (1) of sections 751-791 and 793 of Title 5, and (2) of this chapter, may be paid from the appropriations for salaries and contingent expenses for the administration of said sections 751-791 and 793 of Title 5, and from the fund established in section 945 of this title, in such proportion as the commission, with the approval of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget, determines to be fairly attributable to the cost of administration of the respective chapters, but the total amount paid from such appropriation and such fund in any fiscal year on account of the administration of said sections 751-791 and 793 of Title 5, shall not exceed the amounts appropriated for salaries and contingent expenses for the administration of said sections for such year. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 47, 44 Stat. 1445.)

§ 948. Laws inapplicable.

Nothing in sections 183, 184-186, 188, or 189, of Title 46, shall be held to limit the amount for which recovery may be had (1) in any suit at law or in admiralty where an employer has failed to secure compensation as required by this chapter, or (2) in any proceeding for compensation, any addition to compensation, or any civil penalty. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 48, 44 Stat. 1446.)

§ 949. Effect of unconstitutionality.

If any part of this chapter is adjudged unconstitutional by the courts, and such adjudication has the effect of invalidating any payment of compensation under this chapter, the period intervening between the time the injury was sustained and the time of such adjudication shall not be computed as a part of the time prescribed by law for the commencement of any action against the employer in respect of such injury; but the amount of any compensation paid under this chapter on account of such injury shall be deducted from the amount of damages awarded in such action in respect of such injury. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 49, 44 Stat. 1446.)

§ 950. Separability provision.

If any provision of this chapter is declared unconstitutional or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the chapter and the applicability of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (Mar. 4, 1927, ch. 509, § 50, 44 Stat. 1446.)
